Esther Medina

"It's No Secret"

Love and smoke are two things which can't be concealed!!!!!!!!!!!!

Eddie Bojorquez and Dolores Coca were not kidding, San Jose's most eligible bachelor is now Dolores' husband. Congratulations!!!!

Sally Figueroa finally decided to say Yes to Danny Castellanos and he presented her with a diamond which makes them engaged.

Since love is the subject I'll give you the coming weddings. Pete Cortez and Linda Dimas are exchanging vows in August, Ken Hansen and Esther Baca I hear have decided on September. Marge Ochoa and Bill Ewing this fall sometime. Mary Navarro & John Ornellas in August, Paul Reyes admitted that he's making plans to marry Lucy Chavez.

Manny Lopez was terrific at the Sands. Everyone turned out to see him. We had a terrific time calling him Tito Puente, he almost threw a bongo drum at us. Of all the recording artists I know, Manny has the best personality!!! What a sense of humor!!!!

Chon Hernandez had a swinging party at his place, he was celebrating his birthday. No, he didn't admit his age. But, he danced for us. Chon doesn't need a title, he is Mr. Personality and I haven't met anyone with more friends. Club Zanzaree throwing a party June 3rd to celebrate the club's 7th anniversary and Eleanor Solarez's birthday. A Night in Havana is the theme..... Don't forget to come and bring the beads and Fidel Castro banners. Lena & Joe Manriquez threw a gala party at the SES celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary everyone showed up for it.

Mr. & Mrs. Juan Puentes were the padrinos. It was one of the best parties of the year. The guest list had people like Mr. & Mrs. Pompeyo Garcia, Mary de la Luz Sanchez, Mr. & Mrs. Frank Gonzalez, Mr. & Mrs. Andrew Ramirez, Vickie and Raphael Gonzalez, Mr. & Mrs. Joe Puentes, Mr. & Mrs. Juan Marcoida and Mr. & Mrs. Bart Cortez. These of course were only very few of their many many friends.

Congratulations Lena & Joe and may you continue your successful marriage!! For many years to come!!!!

Louie Molina does it again, he won a decision over Zulueta a real veteran of the ring.

Art Cuellar promises to strangle me for what I wrote about him, meanwhile he dunked cookies in his coffee at Eleanor's house while trying to decide how he'd do away with me!!!!!!

Also getting married this fall are Mary Lou Mercado and Johnny Zamora.

..... and Friday Aguilera and his girl.

Marty & Frank Rivera waiting for their baby any day. Diamond Gonzalez had another girl while Vic and Christina Hernandez expect their 3rd hoping this one will be a girl.

Gil Solarez sad to see so many bachelors in love and making wedding plans, of course they have to leave the club. Alvin Valadez with his girl Rose Sanchez at Lena's party.

Hank Paramo's favorite subject is Frances. Oh, no not another one!!!!!!!!!!

Jose Rodriguez has a terrific batch of new arrangements which he plans to introduce for the CSO Beauty Contest on July 30th. Don't forget San Felipe's Formal on June 10th at the St. Claire Hotel.

Hasta luego, Esther.

Costa Rica judge visits San Jose

Top; Judge MARIA EUGENIA VARGAS stops to chat with Donal Detmers, Superintendent of the Juvenile Hall, on tour of San Jose facilities.

Right; Luis Zarate, County Probation Officer, conducts Judge Vargas and Mrs. Fried of the San Francisco Youth Guidance Center around hall.

Bottom; Judge Vargas pays visit to Superior Court Judge William F. James on recent S.J. visit.

"San Jose and its countryside is just like that of San Jose, Costa Rica," remarked Judge Maria Eugenia Vargas. Judge Vargas will be seeing the United States in order to study what is being done in the way of Juvenile Delinquency prevention.

Judge Vargas, an attractive woman, came to San Jose to visit the Juvenile Hall and the William F. James Boys Ranch in Morgan Hill.

Judge Vargas likened the weather of the valley with that of her native Costa Rica. She felt it might be a little warmer here, and stated that in her country, the weather does not change much. She was amazed at the likeness of our countryside with that of Costa Rica and made remarks to this effect on several occasions.

She felt that the problems of delinquency were much greater in the U.S. than in her native Costa Rica. Her position is that of a Juvenile Court judge in the city of San Jose, Costa Rica.

She is visiting the United States through the courtesy of the State Dept. In Costa Rica, she said, the person is not considered a juvenile at the age of 17. After attaining this age the person is treated as an adult.

The court in Costa Rica has the services of Social Workers who study the family background for presentation to the court.

Judge Vargas was interested in the work done with the families of juveniles in trouble. She indicated that the importance of delinquency lies in the work that could be done with the family. She said that economic reasons are a part in the problems of the delinquent child.

Of much interest to the judge was the position of the male with respect to the family. She is a strong believer in the strong masculine figure in the home. This she believes was a strong deterrent for the prevention of delinquency. She indicated that in her country the traditional position is still maintained.

Judge Vargas attended the White House Conference on Children and Youth held recently in Washington, D.C.

Cosas de la Vida ...

Los Mejicanos tienen un adagio muy sabio: El muerto a los tres días empieza a apestar.

Una viuda de una localidad cercana (nombres no importan) tenía una casa muy bien puesta, valor cerca de quince mil dolares todos pagados. También tiene una hija única.

Al tiempo de casarse, la hija fue a vivir con su marido a un apartamento. Nació un hijo. Ya el apartamento no era suficiente. Empezó la hija a demostrar entrañable cariño por su madre.

"Mamásita que yo y Manuel la queremos tanto! Pero tanto! Todas las noches pensamos en Vd., tan solita en esta casa tan solitaria. Manuel dice que Vd. es la suegra mas simpática que le ha tocado en suerte tener. Hasta el nene la echa de menos. Porque no vivimos todos juntos y hacemos la vida mas amena para Vd."

Al principio la viuda presto poca atención a estas palabras. Pero poco a poco le fueron haciendo efecto.

"Mamásita vende la casa, compramos otra con mas jardín y mas comodidades. Vd. toma la mejor habitación. Le ponemos un buen radio y un lindo TV de 28 pulgadas. Y se pasa una vida regalada."

A todas estas suplicas se unían las de Manuel que también ofrecía todo el comfort y la compañía y el calor de un tierno hogar.

Finalmente la viuda accedió. Vendió todo y el producto lo invirtió en una casa amplia con tres dormitorios, gran sala de recibo, linda cocina, gran patio con jardín, etc. etc. La hija se ingenio para que la propiedad se comprase a nombre de ella y de su marido.

Pasaron tres meses y muy pronto empezó el muerto a heder.

"Que la vieja se lleva metida en su cuarto en vez de estar limpiando la yarda," reclamaba Manuel.

"Que mi mamá come demasiado y es muy regodiona para la comida. No le gusta la sopa de botes," se quejaba la hija.

Pasaron otros tres meses y ya la cosa llegó a un estado desastroso.

"Hay que sacarla de aquí," dijo Manuel, "o sino vamos a estar con esta carga el resto de nuestras jóvenes vidas."

Muy pronto el TV de la sala de recibo se echo a perder. En vez de hacerlo componer lo movieron a la habitación de la viuda y le quitaron el de ella.

Dos o tres meses después y a causa violentas discusiones con respecto a la allegada, resolvieron marido y mujer aclararle los puntos a la "vieja."

"Señora," dijo Manuel. "En este país hay unas casas muy grandes y muy cómodas donde van los ancianos que no tienen donde caerse muertos."

"Vd. va allí!" dijo la esposa y nosotros vamos todos los Domingos y fiestas de guardar a visitarla y le llevamos su pollito asado al horno o a la parrilla."

En los nueve meses que la pobre viuda había vivido con ellos no le habían dado ni gato ahumado.

Finalmente con muchos lloriqueos de la viuda y muchos lagrimones de cocodrilo de la hija se abrieron las puertas de la casa de ancianos llamada Laguna Honda.

Las primeras tres semanas tuvo la visita de la pareja y del pequenín que ya balbuceaba algunas palabras como buita por abuelita y nita por nenita, etc.

Pero después se olvidaron completamente de la anciana.

Por desgracia para la pareja llegó a asilarse a la gran casa un tinterillo a quien el diablo no dejaba tranquilo ni en sueños. Se hizo muy amigo de la viuda quien le conto sus penas.

"Señora," le dijo el experto en expedientes, "Vd. puede recobrar la propiedad, y una vez recobrada yo puedo ir a vivir en su casa a cortar el zacate y a endulzarle sus penas."

La viuda que estaba harta amargada con el proceder de sus familiares presto atento oído al plan de acción que el tinterillo le sugirió.

Es de imaginarse la sorpresa que se llevo la pareja cuando vino un orden del juez de desposamiento de la propiedad. Y ahora marido y mujer y nenito andan en busca de apartamento.

La ex-viuda que es un encanto de señora mira a su nuevo esposo, sentado al lado de ella gozando de un reglo TV a colores, meneas la cabeza y dice apretándole los dedos. "Es curioso e interesante como Dios dispone a las cosas, verdad?"

Acróstico

Siguiendo por el arido camino
Igual que a ti, me anima el sentimiento
Muy grande, nobilísimo y sincero,
Orgullosa del bien que sembrar quiero.
Nombrandote en mi amargo desaliento.
Veo que entre las tinieblas del camino
Ilumina tu luz que intensa brilla
Luciendo con fulgor casto y divino,
Llama inmortal y antorcha del destino,
Así eres por tu ciencia, SIMON VILLA.

(Testimonio de gratitud y alta estimación para mi bondadoso maestro el Sr. D. Simon Villa de Union City, California.)

San Jose girl awarded Scholarship

Dave E. Sierra

Eighteen year old DOLORES MARIE GARCIA of 873 Locust Street, a Senior at San Jose High School, has been named winner of the Santa Clara County American G.I. Forum Scholarship of $250.00 which goes to a student of Mexican extraction who has resided in the county for over a year, must have good moral character, maintained grades of "A" or "B" throughout their entire high school career, have an interest to further their education in Law, Medicine, Engineering, Education, and Related Fields, and above all they must show need of financial aid.

The beautiful, personable Miss Garcia was born in Bakersfield, California, but has resided in San Jose for the past fifteen years. She attended Washington Elementary School and Woodrow Wilson Jr. High before going on to San Jose High.

One of the numerous letters of recommendation which the G.I. Forum Selection Committee received for Dolores reads:

Dear Sirs;

Dolores Garcia has been our baby sitter for five years. We trust her implicitly with those who are most precious to us, our children. She has spent a great deal of time in our home, (one or more full days a week). Therefore, I feel that we are in a position to be good judges of her character. We find it difficult to fully express our high estimation of her character and ability. She is sincere, industrious, intelligent, and responsible.

Her honesty is such an integral part of her personality as to be taken for granted by all who know her.

She comes from an outstanding family. There is a high degree of cooperation and unity among all members of the family. They really work together to help one another. Her mother is so charitable, cheerful, and out-going in nature that it is no wonder that she has raised such wonderful children.

We feel that Dolores is most deserving of this opportunity.

Sincerely Yours;
Mildred Morris

Dolores Marie's activities at "High" included: Vice President of La Sel; membership in Mask & Scroll, honor drama club; TNT, Teachers Club; Audio-Visual; Spanish Club; Mu Alpha Theta, honor math club; Science Club; Rally Committee; Christmas Program, orchestra; Bulldog Capers, orchestra; Spring Concert, band; Pep bands to varsity games; Cheerleader; Certificate of Merit for Manager of Music, & Certificate of Service for Manager of Community Welfare.

Dolores Marie Garcia
....beauty with brains

All this in addition to Young Ladies Church Sodality (Sacred Heart Church), babysitting for some 15 different families, ironing for Mrs. S.R. Bergantz, house-cleaning for a family EVERY Saturday, and working at Richmond-Chase cannery every summer since 1956!!!!

On top of that she earned an excellent B Plus average for four years at S.J. High!!!!!!

Miss Garcia will graduate in ceremonies to be held June 16th at San Jose Civic Auditorium.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Inez and Mr. Bernard M. Garcia. They have five other girls and one boy in the family. They are: Nancy Ann, a San Jose City College graduate and an employee in research & development at Fairchild; Carole, a 15 year old sophomore at San Jose High; Phyllis, a 13 year old 8th grader at Sacred Heart School; Terri Lyn, a 10 year old 5th grader at Sacred Heart; Bernie Liz, a 19 months old baby; and "Buddy," a 17 year old Junior at San Jose High.

Mr. Garcia, Dolores' father, is a Tank Tester for Food Machinery Corp. "M-59, or something," she says.

Dolores is a very remarkable girl indeed. Her hobbies are collecting sea shells, swimming, tennis, and water and snow skiing. She likes to read science books. "I took physics and chemistry courses in high school so I'm interested in Science."

Her interests are very diversified, indicating a well rounded personality. She is fluent in her speech and talks easily about her aims and ambitions.

Dolores played the clarinet in the high school band and the orchestra, and loves to dance, as do most girls, but she goes only to school dances. "I don't have much time to go to 'outside' dances."

Every summer since 1956 she has worked at the Richmond-Chase Cannery to help out her father and mother. This summer she will work in the San Jose State College library. "I hope to keep that job after school starts in September," she said.

Dolores Marie is interested in teaching and will matriculate to State in September. Why State? "I believe that San Jose has the best Education Department in the state. I've checked. And anyway, it's convenient. I'm going to major in Education and minor in languages. San Jose State has a program underway whereby an education major will be able to teach languages in grammar school after receiving an A.B. degree. By the time I graduate they'll be teaching foreign languages on the elementary school level."

Ed Camunez of the G.I. Forum presents pretty Dolores Marie Garcia with $250.00 Scholarship.

The first impression of Miss Dolores Marie Garcia was "Wow! All that beauty, and brains too?" Yep, and brains too!!!!

She was picked from four Santa Clara County high school finalists. Certificates of MERIT were awarded to:

CECILIA MORALES of James Lick High School
VIRGINIA HERNANDEZ of Sunnyvale High School
JOSEPH CRONIN of Santa Clara High School

SURPRISED???????

Paul "Bubbles" Castañon has done it!!! He has dropped his column and was reelected as Public Relations Director and yours truly was elected Publicity Director. With all of Mr. Castañon's extra curricular activities pending and his wedding in September, yes I said wedding, he has been very, very busy and was still able to do an excellent job with this column, as I am certain that he will continue to do so with his new assignment.

Allow me to introduce myself more explicitly. First of all my name is JOEL AGUILERA. I reside at 355 Coelho Street in Milpitas, California, and my phone number is Am 2-0992. As you fans know this column depends alot on mostly all events that occur among you members and your friends, so, any news of interest, or, special events, would be very highly appreciated if they were mailed or phoned to the above mentioned address or phone.

By the time this column is issued the outstanding Club Rivas' Blossom Dance will have been celebrated; which, as you know will have been put into effect on the 29th of May, (Happy birthday, Sam)... at the S.E.S. Hall in Santa Clara. Our outstanding guests of honor were Club Elite and on the following edition of this column I will bring you up to date on all the events that occurred at this dance, which we in turn expect it to be a complete success.

Incidentally the above mentioned Sam became a member of our club, and by mere coincidence his birthday falls on the day of our dance "Wow what a ball," so I hope you enjoyed yourself "Sam" and may you have many, many more. Another new member of our club is Blaz Corona. Blaz joined about five months ago but for reasons unknown the fact was never mentioned before in this column. He has done an excellent job as Public Relations Director, too. Glad to have you aboard Blaz.

Our newly organized political association MAPA, Mexican American Political Association, has endorsed Ed Levin as Supervisor of the Third District and Mr. Levin is being assisted 100% by its membership. Future plans for MAPA are being carried out by our respected Attorney Hector Moreno and Mr. Louie Hevia. One of their main objectives is to consult with our Governor the Honorable Pat Brown to plan and discuss future plans and problems that confront our Spanish speaking people of the Santa Clara Co.

As you know "Alvin Valadez" has been trying to organize "The Latin American Emergency Relief Agency" but we have not heard any more details about the subject. I hope that you haven't given up yet, Alvin.

Don't forget the formal dance that "Club San Felipe" is having on June the tenth at the Hotel Sainte Claire and, oh yes! Club San Joaquin is having a dance too, on June 19th which of course will be on Father's Day.

See you on the next issue.....

HI BOXING FRIENDS!!!

San Jose's Louie Molina chased Orlando Zulueta for ten rounds to take an easy decision at the Civic Auditorium here in San Jose Thursday, May 26th.

It was Molina's fight all through the ten rounds—Zulueta had made up his mind that he was going to be there at the end of the tenth round. He did a very fine job of running, wrestling, holding, and bobbing & weaving. But he showed nothing but a weak left jab, with an occasional weaker right hand. Zulueta is far from being washed-up. His legs and motions are still good. But his fighting spirit is all gone.

Zulueta will still make a few bucks fighting young up and coming fighters like Louie—but..... as a big time fighter he is T H R O U G H.

It was announced at ringside that Molina's next opponent would be Bandit Ben Medina from Fresno.

The Bandit is a big drawing card around Fresno and is also undefeated—Molina is a rugged type of fighter—he is strong, takes a good punch and I need not tell anyone that has seen him fight that he packs a mean punch in either hand. The Bandit I do not believe can take Molina's continuous punching for ten rounds. He does not have enough experience to stay away from Molina. I'll pick Louie to stop the winning streak of the popular Bandit Medina when they meet.

I just talked to Angelo Rogers over the phone and he tells me that Louie's next opponent will NOT be Bandit Medina. His next fight will be the 13th of June. So far they have two opponents for him—Eddie Chavez from San Jose, or Art Ramponi from Richmond.

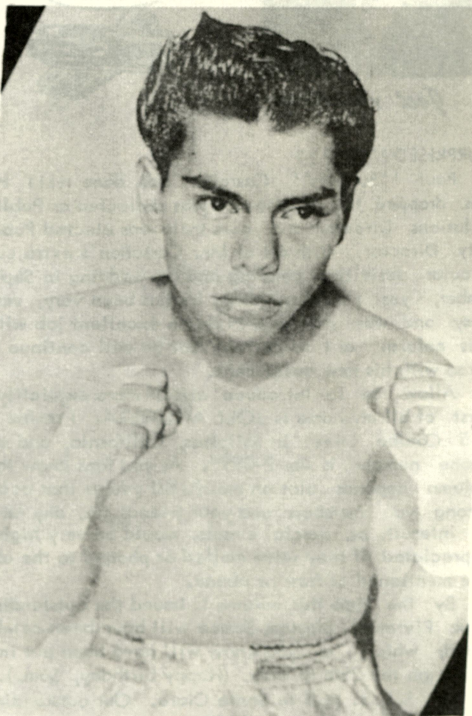

Molina and Chavez would draw here. Ramponi is not a bad fighter—but no one has heard too much of him around here—so I believe it could be San Jose's popular Eddie Chavez.

Mr. Louis Duino, sportswriter for the Mercury, writes in his column that Molina has a lot to learn, that all he has now is youth and aggressiveness, that he has to learn a lot more about the fine points of boxing, that he became angry at Zulueta because of his clutch tactics, that he leaves himself wide open for a right to the jaw and could get knocked out himself with one punch. Well, I will have to disagree with Mr. Duino.

Molina has a style of his own. I saw Molina fight many times as an amateur and the only change in him is that he has grown stronger.

The only fine points of boxing that he will ever learn are the points that will win him fights, and as for becoming angry, Molina is a very mean fighter inside the ropes. He is always dangerous and angry and with one thing in mind—to stay on top of his opponents and to throw leather from all angles. As for the way he fought Zulueta he had to wrestle to open him up in order to make him fight and also with hopes of landing that one punch on the whiskers of Mr. Zulueta. Angelo Rogers knew that Orlando couldn't break an egg with his punches. He also knew that Molina was in the best of condition. So that is why he sent him to push, wrestle, and shove, hoping that he could make an opening to land a knockout punch.

EDDIE CHAVEZ
Next bout for Louie Molina?????

I doubt very much if anyone can knock out Molina with one punch. He may look easy to hit, but in all his fights very few right hands have hit him. Molina has a smart manager in Angelo Rogers.

He knows the game from A to Z. He is bringing his boy up RIGHT. I look for this team to go all the way.

Mr. Duino, in one of your columns after Molina stopped Morton, you suggested a re-match between them. Although it could have meant a good payday for Molina and Angelo, he didn't take it!!!!!! Morton is not a bad fighter but Louie had knocked him out. What could he gain by fighting him again? Angelo could have fallen for that big pay day but didn't so that makes Rogers a cautious manager!!!

And so once again fight fans, until the next time, may God be with us always. Johnny.

EVENTFUL MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

The Memorial Day Parade was a very successful one. We congratulate Clifford Rodriguez Post and all those who so hard and faithfully strived to bring us a remembrance of a such a day.

As we known Memorial day is to honor the Nation war dead to reassure ourselves that "these men shall not have died in vain."

We tell ourselves that our war dead died to preserve our democratic freedom, to insure our nation existence, and this is true. However, a nuclear or themoneuclear war could spell the end of our democratic Freedoms and our national existence as we known it today----- even if we won. To war dead we all salute, but it is now up to us the living to see to it that this "nation of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

On behalf of Club San Felipe I would like to give my sincerally thank to two wonderful person, who on there own free will and spare time got together and had a bring.

They are the Sra. Isais and Sra. Sanchez who are the beloved mothers of three good and hard work member they are Cesar and Andy Isais and Tomas Sanchez Jr. By way Tommy is a new member to the club, and he had I arealy prove himself in the short time he has been in, keep up the good work Tommy you doing great. better then some of us.

PLATA BROS. SPARK OPENING DAY VICTORY

CSJ's U.C.C. League defending champions began defense of their crown on Sunday, May 22nd by taking a methodical and easy 6-2 win over coach Jess Medina's Club San Felipe nine.

With husky Eddie Plata on the hill for the Stars, the issue was never in doubt. Third baseman Cheno Plata played perhaps his best game ever for Club San Joaquin, lashing a long two run double in the second inning to drive across the first runs of the 1960 campaign for the Stars. In the fifth frame, he unleashed triple and then scored his second run of the day.

Veteran righthander Larry Valadez, making a bid for his 3rd straight All U.C.C. selection, entered the game in relief of Plata in the fifth with the bases full and one away, promptly shutting off SF's water.

C.S.J. BEATS KNIGHTS 7-6 IN EIGHT INNINGS!

Bert Garcia's single into short right-centerfield after 2nd baseman Johnny Zamora singled helped the Stars of coach Bob Garcia to their 2nd straight U.C.C. win of the 1960 campaign.

The extra-inning affair was the first for C.S.J. since the 1958 U.C.C. League playoffs.

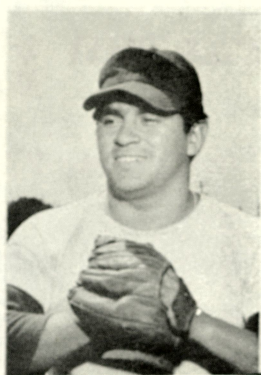

Larry Valadez started for the Stars but was relieved in the 6th by Eddie Plata. Plata got the win.

Next game: Torreon at 1:00 on June 5th.

Joe Rodriguez

One of the more versatile athletes in the UCC League, Joe has played left field, buck short, shortstop, second base, third base, and center field for C.S.J. already this year.

He is a switch-hitter and always puts on a good "show."

Humberto Garcia, Jr.

Making a strong bid for the All U.C.C. post in left field is C.S.J. outfielder Bert Garcia, Jr.

He was on the 2nd All League team in 1959.
