Mr. Arthur Byne,
Paseo de la Castellana, 19,
Madrid, Spain.

Dear Mr. Byne:

Am mailing you today through M. Sterling Carter, 434 Post Street, San Francisco, book store, a copy of Calvert's "Spain" with marks against the kind of ruin Mr. Hearst thought you might be able to get for him. Please do not get all of them.

He wants a patio not as ecclesiastical as the Cistercian one, also big and really fine architectural elements. He had marked these pictures in my personal and only copy of this book a year or so ago as material for you to work on, but as I did not suppose he had meant for me to send you my volumes, I explained by cable and letters the nature of what was wanted. He is sending you this copy for your own.

Your letter in regard to the "American Art" proposition interested me very much - and I can see how busy a season you have ahead. If possible I will go on to New York when it is set up. There were probably two reasons for Mr. Hearst not seeming more interested in the collection. He has a very considerable collection of furniture and "objects" -- far finer and more extensive than you probably have any idea of and his mind is on what will make buildings and rooms rather than on what will furnish them, for the present. Also, the cash sum down was a very large one -- In installments it would have perhaps been more interesting. This all just my own personal idea.

With kindest regards to Mrs Byne and yourself,

Yours very truly,

JM-dem
