DISSENT ON THE CAMPUS!

DANIEL WALKER, Director of the Chicago Study Team to the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence, and author of the widely praised and highly controversial Report on the Chicago Convention, will speak at lunch on the general problem of dissent in a democratic society.

(A box lunch is included in the registration fee.)

The Democratic Party, along with all Americans, must face up to finding answers to what may be the most emotionally charged domestic issue of our times. Direct from troubled campus fronts, articulate panelists will present as our morning program thoughtful positions from all sides — students, faculty, and administration. The afternoon will be devoted to small discussion groups in which everyone attending the conference will participate.
