California State University, Fullerton is a broadly based liberal arts institution that also offers many professional studies such as business administration, education, engineering and nursing. The main campus is located in Fullerton and a Mission Viejo campus was opened in August, 1989. The latter offers only upper-division and graduate courses.

Classes were offered at Fullerton for the first time in 1959 and the first commencement — for five students — took place in 1960.

The University's 25,500 students come primarily from Southern California with many from other states and nations. Most students commute each day to and from classes, although nearly 400 now live on campus in residence halls opened in 1988.

Drawn from throughout the world, the 775-member faculty is noted for its commitment to effective teaching and scholarly activity. Research is actively pursued, typically with students involved.

The University is fully accredited and enjoys national recognition for both its array of traditional academic programs and a growing list of independently accredited professional programs, including art, athletics training, business, chemistry, communications, computer science, dance, education, engineering, music, nursing, public administration, speech and hearing and theater. All told, there are 87 degree programs — 41 of them at the graduate level — plus a wide variety of credential and certificate programs.

Reinforcing classroom instruction is an internship and cooperative education program that allows students to gain on-the-job experience while continuing their regular studies.

Another amenity is the extended education program. It provides classes, workshops, conferences and study tours without the formalities of regular admission to the University.

Still another strong point is the University's cultural events program. It includes a series that brings nationally known professional artists to the campus for residencies as well as public performances.

An extensive recreation program aimed chiefly at students, but also open to community members, is another highlight, as is the network of community support groups, including the Titan Athletic Foundation.

Further examples of community outreach are the Ruby Gerontology Center, which serves as an educational and research facility for the study of aging and a meeting place for the Continuing Learning Experience support group.

Through a series of joint ventures started in 1979 with the establishment of the Fullerton Arboretum and continuing with the 1989 opening of the Marriott Hotel, the University and the city of Fullerton are working to complete an on-campus sports complex in 1992. Already in use are two lighted softball fields. When the main part of the sports complex is finished, it will include a stadium for football, soccer and other activities plus a pavilion for baseball.

To reinforce the University's commitment to high academic standards and community services, Cal State conducts comprehensive fund raising. Its purpose is to raise the necessary non-state funding to make a very good university a great institution.

Dr. Milton A. Gordon, President

Dr. Milton A. Gordon was selected the fourth president of Cal State Fullerton by The California State University Board of Trustees and assumed his duties on Aug. 6, 1990.

His university leadership includes serving as vice president for academic affairs at Sonoma State University for four years, as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Chicago State University for more than eight years and as director of the Afro-American Studies Program at Loyola University of Chicago for six years.

President Gordon also taught at the Illinois Institute of Technology and in the Chicago public schools and served as a mathematician at the University of Chicago's Laboratories of Applied Sciences.

He is a member of the board of the California Coalition for Mathematics and a member of the Orange County Community Foundation, the California State University Growth Plan Commission, the CSU Commission on the Older, Part-Time Student, the California Admissions Advisory Council, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

The President has a Ph.D. in mathematics from the Illinois Institute of Technology, an M.A. in mathematics from the University of Detroit and a B.A. in mathematics and secondary education from Xavier University of Louisiana.

Bill Shumard, Dir. of Athletics

Bill Shumard achieved a "lifelong professional goal" on June 14 when he was appointed Director of Athletics at Cal State Fullerton, effective Aug. 1.

Shumard, 40, most recently had served as an assistant athletic director at USC for three years after a 13-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"I always hoped I would have the opportunity to work at Cal State Fullerton," he said. "Because of where we live (Brea), and having children in the process of growing up, this is where I set my sights. I'm a graduate of the Cal State system (Long Beach State, 1972) and my desire was to get back to this level."

"An athletic department run with ethical and financial responsibility can mirror a successful university. It can bring people to the university in myriad ways. I believe there are 65,000 Cal State Fullerton graduates living in the Los Angeles area. We've got the opportunity to use this to bring them back to campus. If we have a program that is competitive and makes an honest effort at moving athletes toward graduation, I think that's a lot to stand up and cheer about."

In his first few months at Fullerton, Shumard had hired an associate athletic director (Larry Zucker) and coordinator for the Titan Athletic Foundation as well as a director of sales and broadcasting. He also reworked the football schedule to give the Titans their first game of the 1992 season in their new on-campus complex.

Shumard was part of a five-person team at USC that raises $7 million per year. His recent projects included supervising 12 regional Trojan Club support groups and staging a dinner in the Los Angeles Coliseum for 3,000 persons to highlight the university's athletic centennial celebration. He also was program coordinator for the Sports Management Institute, a joint venture of the athletic departments and business administration schools of USC, Notre Dame and North Carolina.

Shumard's Dodger career began in 1975 as an assistant in public relations and publicity. He became Director of the Speakers Bureau in 1977 and was appointed Director of Community Services in 1981. The title was enlarged in 1983 to include Special Events as he supervised a staff of 15 employees responsible for game and community promotions and all publications as well as coordinating the activities of the Dodger Alumni Association. He also served as co-chairman of Dodger Stadium's 25th Anniversary Celebration, liaison to the 1987 Tournament of Roses Parade, Director of Protocol for the 1984 Olympic Baseball Tournament and on the administrative staff of three World Series, five National League Championship Series and three All-Star Games.

His first athletics position was as Sports Information Director at his alma mater in 1972 and 1973. He spent the next two years at Cal State Los Angeles where he was an assistant professor in journalism and physical education, was advisor to the campus pep groups and served as manager of the Athletic News Bureau.

Shumard's athletic career terminated as a freshman quarterback at Compton Junior College, where he obtained his Associate Arts degree in 1970. Bill and his wife, Kim, live in Brea. He has three sons — David, 20; Matt, 16; and Mike, 13.

DIVISION OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

HEAD COACH AUGIE GARRIDO

Head coach Augie Garrido didn't miss a beat in his first season back at the helm of the Titan baseball team. His 1991 squad tied for first to earn a share of the Big West Conference title, his 13th title at CSF in 17 years. The ninth winningest coach in collegiate baseball returned to Fullerton in '91 after spending three years as head coach for the University of Illinois, where he built the Illini into a national power and led them to their first Big Ten Championship in 26 years. He compiled a record of 111-57 and twice took the Illini into the NCAA playoffs (1989-90).

While at Cal State Fullerton, he has captured a pair of national championships, four regional titles and 13 conference crowns including 11 in a row from 1974 through 1984. These accomplishments only scratch the surface of the success story Augie Garrido has written in 15 seasons as baseball coach at Cal State Fullerton.

Garrido, 52, has served with equal professionalism his student-athletes, his institution and his sport while developing a nationally prominent program at a university which has existed for just over 30 years. He has sent scores of players into the professional ranks (17 to the majors through 1991) while bringing CSF its first men's Division I national title and serving as an articulate and respected voice in the promotion of collegiate and amateur baseball.

Garrido ranks No. 9 among active Division I coaches with 922 victories in 23 seasons. His lifetime mark is 922-447-7 (.673) and his Fullerton record is 701-314-6 (.690). Three times (1975, 1979 and 1984) he has been selected National Coach of the Year. His average of more than 40 victories per season is the fourth highest in NCAA history, and in a survey of major league directors of player development, Coach Garrido was rated one of the nation's top three teachers.

The Titans have strung together 18 consecutive winning seasons while typically playing as difficult a schedule as anyone in the country. Eleven years in a row (1974-84), Fullerton won or shared its league championship and went on to post-season play. In 1985, Fullerton won the southern division championship of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association but lost a playoff series at Fresno State. In 1986 the Titans finished third and in 1987, Garrido's last season with Fullerton before leaving for Illinois, his squad finished first in the PCAA but finished second at the South Regional in New Orleans.

A native of the San Francisco Bay town of Vallejo, Garrido attended Fresno State University (1959-61) and was an all-conference performer for coach Pete Beiden. He signed a contract with the Cleveland Indians and played six years in their minor league system before retiring in 1966 to accept a coaching position at Sierra High School in Tollhouse, California.

Garrido moved up to the collegiate ranks in 1969 as head coach at San Francisco State (25-14) and then spent three seasons at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo (85-62-1), where he earned a master's degree in 1968.

Despite being situated in the heart of baseball-rich southern California, Fullerton had enjoyed only limited success in the infant years of its intercollegiate baseball program. But that began to change in 1973 when Garrido arrived. After one losing season (19-33-1), he began producing nothing but winners. And in 1975, the Titans asserted their new prowess by winning the NCAA regional tournament at USC and advancing to the College World Series in Omaha in their first year of Division I play.

It took until 1979 for a repeat Fullerton performance in the CWS, but the Titans didn't waste the second opportunity. The Titans came though the consolation bracket to beat Arkansas, 2-1, for the NCAA championship. They repeated in 1984, beating Texas, 3-1, in the championship game.

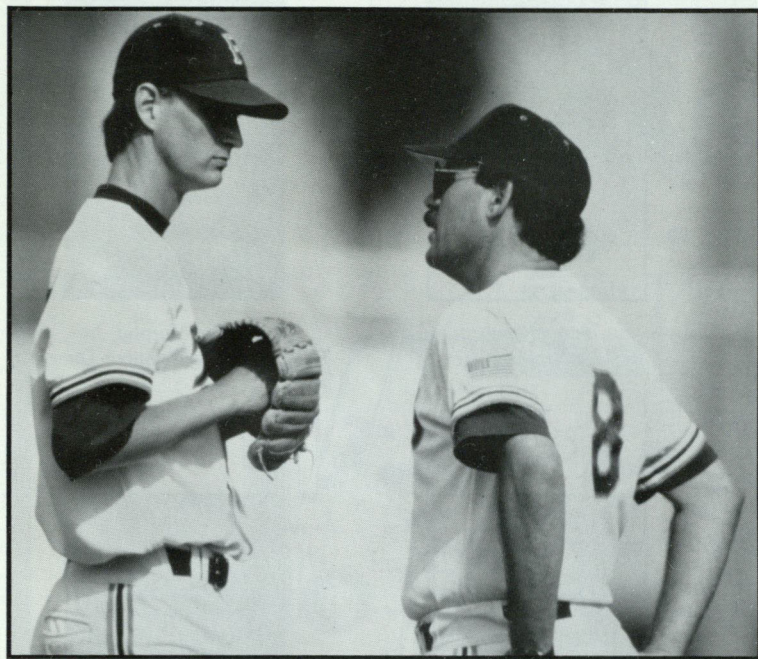

Garrido's baseball interests carry beyond the college schedule. His 1979 team took a goodwill mission to Taiwan, he managed in Alaska summer leagues, he operates a successful instructional camp for youth and is in great demand as a speaker. Garrido also spent the summer of 1990 as an assistant coach with Team USA, the same team on which Titan third baseman Phil Nevin played.

Garrido is single, resides in Newport Beach and has a daughter, Lisa, 26.

Horton played two seasons for Garrido at Cal State Fullerton in 1975 and 1976 and won All-SCBA honors as both a junior and a senior. He was on the first team to ever go to the College World Series in 1975. He batted .308 as a junior and .290 as a senior while playing first base. He graduated in 1978 and went on to earn a master's degree in 1980 at Cal Lutheran.

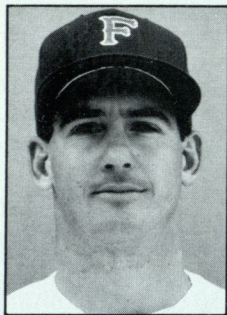

Horton's coaching career began at Cerritos in 1976-77 and he went to Los Angeles Valley College where he coached with Long Beach State coach Dave Snow, the following three seasons. In 1980, he moved back to Cerritos as an assistant to Gordie Douglas before taking the head job in 1985. MEET THE PLAYERS

1992 SEASON OUTLOOK

In 1991, Cal State Fullerton grabbed a share of the Big West Conference Championship in Augie Garrido's first year back as the Titan's head coach. The 1992 team returns six starters from last year's squad and looks upon a plethora of new faces to give the Titans something they have not had much of in recent years; depth.

The '91 campaign was an eventful one for the Titans. Fullerton started traditionally slow, getting off to its worst start in history losing nine of the first 13 games. The Titans, however, finished traditionally strong, winning 10 of the final 12 games and clinching a share of the conference title. Despite sweeping Long Beach State (a team that would advance to the College World Series) in a three-game series, the NCAA determined that Fullerton should not receive an invitation to post-season play. Returning players are on a mission in '92 to win the Big West Conference Crown outright and a chance to play in NCAA post-season play.

The pitching staff sees no major changes from that of last year, except for the loss of the Big West Conference leading relief pitcher, Chris Robinson (2.82, 9 saves). The experienced starters, senior James Popoff (7-3, 4.81) and senior Dan Naulty (8-3, 3.38, 2 saves), will combine with returner, junior Bill Fitzgerald (5-3, 4.23) to compete for a chance to start in the starting rotation. Freshmen Derek Fahs (Fountain Valley HS), Mike Parisi (Arcadia HS), Bryan Dunagan (La Serna HS) and Sonny Guzman (St. Paul HS) along with junior college transfers Yusef Ford (Laney JC), Jeff Scarpitti (Diablo Valley College), Mark Holiday (Cerritos College) and University of Utah transfer, Marcus Nelson will compete to pitch in various roles depending on their development in pre-season practice.

Incoming senior Chad Dembisky (Loyola Marymount Univ.) will contribute key innings as a stopper or a starter. Returning lettermen Tony Fetchel (1-4, 6.03) and Paco Chavez (1-0, 4.25, 1 save) also figure to see plenty of time on the mound.

Senior, Chris Powell (.345, 6 HR) is penciled to start at first base but will be pushed by talented newcomer D.C. Olsen (Fullerton HS). Olsen may also see time in the designated hitter's role.

Senior, Steve Sisco (.350, 3 HR) returns for his third season at Cal State Fullerton and will be the Titan's second baseman. Sisco should contend for all-conference honors at second.

Nate Rodriquez (Laney JC) and highly touted frosh Jeff Ferguson (La Serna HS) will battle each other for playing time at the shortstop position.

Fullerton returns one of its top players at the third base position. Junior, Phil Nevin (.335, 3 HR) led the conference last season with 19 doubles and will move from short to third, the position he played as a freshman, this season. Returning sophomore, Jim Betzold (.128, 0 HR), may also see playing time at third.

Most teams would be in a bind, trying to replace a catcher such as Matt Hattabaugh, but Fullerton seems to have found the perfect person for the job; senior, Jason Moler (.318, 5 HR). Moler moves behind the dish from third base, the position he played last season for the Titans. Juco transfer Bret Hemphill (De Anza College) will back up Moler. Both Hemphill and Moler should be in the line-up regardless of who wins the starting catching job.

Probably the best acquisition by the Titan coaching staff in the off-season was signing the freshman phenom Dante Powell (Long Beach Millikan HS). Powell turned down a six-figure signing bonus to play with Cal State Fullerton. The speedster Powell will be joined in the outfield with the squad's top home run hitter of last season Frank Herman (.300, 9 HR) and senior Craig Fairbrother (.305, 3 HR). Also vying for playing time in the outfield will be Steve Friedrich (Troy HS) and junior college transfers Jeremy Carr (Cuesta JC), Tony Banks (Laney JC) and Jack Jordan (College of the Desert).

With the talented experience of the returning players and the gifted newcomers Fullerton has signed, the Titans should challenge again for the Big West Conference title and a berth to NCAA post-season play.

BIG WEST CONFERENCE

Jim Haney
Commissioner

The 1992 season will be No. 8 for the Big West Conference under the current alignment which blended teams from the Southern and Northern California Baseball Associations. It resembles the football and basketball alignments of the institutions in what was called the Pacific Coast Athletic Association through the 1988 baseball season. New Mexico State joins the conference in the sport of baseball this season and Fresno State will leave after the year to join the Western Athletic Conference, to be replaced by Nevada in 1993.

The end result is one of the most competitive baseball leagues in the nation. At least one team from the Big West Conference has represented the league in each of the last four College World Series tournaments. Since realignment, four different schools have won or shared conference titles: Fresno State in 1985, 1988, 1989 and 1991; Cal State Fullerton in 1987, 1990 and 1991; Long Beach State in 1989; and UC Santa Barbara in 1986.

CAL STATE FULLERTON BASEBALL HISTORY

The Cal State Fullerton baseball tradition had a most humble beginning, starting out as a club team and playing on a field literally scratched out of an orange grove. Only the wildest dreamer would have foreseen a program that now features two national championships, five regional titles, 12 conference crowns and a baker's dozen of alumni in the major leagues.

It's been a memorable quarter century since Beryl Kempton and Warren Beck brought the program into the world. Bill Fulton nursed it into adolescence and Augie Garrido guided it into maturity as Titan baseball developed into a national power, now under the hand of another successful coach in veteran Larry Cochell.

Kempton was the university employee who graded the field out of the orange trees. Home plate sat near the old orchard residence, a brick structure now known as "Football House." It's reportedly the second oldest existing residence in the city and now houses the Titans' football coaching staff.

The first-base line ran north and the third-base line paralleled what is now called Gymnasium Drive, heading west. A split rail and wire mesh screen served as the outfield barrier.

Beck, a member of the faculty, was the inaugural coach. He fielded a "club" team which played local junior colleges and "pick-up" teams from neighboring universities in its maiden season.

In 1965, the program became a full fledged intercollegiate sport with Fulton serving as the head coach. He led them into play in the California Collegiate Athletic Association and set the groundwork for the success of the 1970s as he battled Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, UC Riverside, Cal State Northridge and Cal Poly Pomona.

The catalyst to greatness was Garrido, who arrived from rival Cal Poly SLO and began developing a new field now situated farther to the north. A new backstop, batter's eye and such "luxuries" as electricity for the pitching machines provided Garrido the most basic of tools.

After a rebuilding year in 1973, the Titans began establishing their great tradition in 1974 by winning the CCAA championship.

The 1975 season saw a move up to Division I status and entry in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association. But the surging Titans didn't miss a beat. They won the PCAA championship by one game over Pacific and then strolled onto Dedeaux Field on the campus of the University of Southern California and won the NCAA Western Regional, depriving the Trojans of a shot at a sixth consecutive NCAA championship.

Fullerton's first trip to Omaha for the College World Series was brief, to say the least. The Titans lost their first two games, to Arizona State and Oklahoma, and were sent flying back to Los Angeles. But experience would pay benefits down the road.

Fullerton repeated as PCAA champions in 1976, this time by a comfortable four games over San Diego State. But then came realignment of the league. The 7-team Southern California Baseball Association was formed by Fullerton, Cal State Los Angeles, San Diego State, Pepperdine, Loyola Marymount, UC Santa Barbara and Long Beach State. Pacific, Fresno State and San Jose State became part of the Northern California Baseball Association.

The new schedule failed to disrupt the Titans' championship rhythm, although they had to share the inaugural SCBA title in 1977 with Cal State L.A. Fullerton lost a one-game playoff with the Diablos but gained an at-large NCAA bid where they lost in the regional title game to Washington State in Pullman.

There was another SCBA title in 1978 and regional elimination at USC before the Titans struck paydirt in 1979. They parlayed another SCBA crown into a national championship but they did it the hard way.

Fullerton lost the regional opener at Fresno but came back through the losers' bracket, finally beating UCLA twice to earn a return trip to Omaha. Again, the Titans lost the opener, this time to Mississippi State. But a confident Garrido still liked his team's chances and they proved him right. They won five games in a row including a 2-1 verdict over Arkansas for the NCAA championship, the first title for Fullerton in a men's sport in Division I play.

The fruits of victory did not include a home playing site worthy of a regional tournament, so Fullerton began in 1980 a frustrating streak of post-season play. The Titans won the SCBA title again but had to go to Tucson, where the host Arizona Wildcats won the regional on their way to the NCAA title. In 1981, the Titans won the SCBA but lost in the regionals at Tempe to the hosts, the eventual national champion Arizona State Sun Devils.

Fullerton avenged the defeat, however, knocking off the highly regarded Sun Devils in their own backyard after another SCBA crown in 1982. However, the third trip to Omaha proved less than charming. Fullerton set a dubious record, becoming the first CWS team not to score as the Titans were shut out by Wichita State and Maine and hustled home.

In 1983, the Titans shared the SCBA crown but lost a one-game playoff to UC Santa Barbara for the automatic NCAA tournament bid. No matter, the Titans' 49-19-1 record earned them an at-large berth and another trip to Tempe, where the Sun Devils prevailed.

A slow start in 1984 after a couple of late summer professional signings stripped the pitching staff of its depth and left Fullerton's reign in the SCBA teetering. A realignment of the infield seemed to work wonders and the team caught fire. A surge that would see them win 37 of their last 42 games carried all the way to Omaha and a second NCAA championship.

Again, the road to Omaha was via Fresno, where the Titans survived a "Murderers' Row" field of USC, San Diego State and the host Bulldogs of Fresno State. An extra-inning title game played in 100+ degree heat finally went the Titans' way and presented a schedule of some of the nation's most famous institutions in the College World Series.

Michigan, Miami, Arizona State, Oklahoma State and, finally, the University of Texas, stood in the way. In a series dominated by the hitters and their aluminum bats, the Titans showed a national ESPN audience that there was quality if not quantity on the pitching mound. Todd Simmons, Jack Reinholz and record-setting reliever Scott Wright did yeoman's duty and left it for diminutive lefty Ed Delzer to turn in the performance of his life in winning a 3-1 decision over the Longhorns in the title game.

There were other heroes, however. John Fishel, who would set a CWS record for hits and win the Most Valuable Player Trophy, slid around the Michigan catcher to ignite a five-run eighth inning and give the Titans an opening 8-4 win over the Wolverines.

After a 6-4 loss to Texas sent them to the losers' bracket, the Titans fought back. They routed Miami, 13-5, with bunts and stolen bases rattling the Hurricanes into four costly errors. They eliminated Arizona State as Reinholtz cooled the hot Devil bats and Kirk Bates delivered a crucial bases-loaded single. They outslugged Oklahoma State behind a Fishel home run, a bases-loaded triple by Tom Thomas and a two-run double by Bob Caffrey to earn the winner-take-all rematch with the Longhorns.

The 5-foot-7, 133-pound Delzer got a rare starting call against the defending champions. A couple of infield hits in the first inning produced a run but that was to be all. Delzer pitched a near-perfect game until leg cramps forced him from the mound to open the eighth inning. Enter Wright, the NCAA's most prolific reliever ever. He slammed the door on Texas for his 22nd save.

The offensive hero was John Bryant, who stole a base to set up the tying run and then tripled for the key hit in a two-run fourth inning that proved the difference.

Defending the title proved too much for the 1985 Titans to handle. Competing in the Southern Division of a reconstituted PCAA, the Titans finished in first place in their division but the pitching came up too thin in a playoff series at Fresno State that decided the league championship and the NCAA Tournament's automatic berth. And, with the nation's most difficult schedule taking its toll on an overall 36-32-1 record, the Titans did not get an at-large bid and were left out of the playoffs for the first time in 11 years.

By most school's standards, the 1986 season was a successful one. The Titans posted a 36-21 record and won the Best of the West Tournament in Fresno as part of another challenging schedule. But, for the second year in a row, there was no league title nor NCAA playoff berth as the season turned on one inning. Fullerton blew a 6-2 lead in the ninth inning at home vs. UNLV on Apr. 5 and could never recover from the loss, finishing in third place behind UC Santa Barbara and UNLV.

When Fullerton opened up the 1987 season losing five of its first six games, PCAA rivals thought Fullerton's dominance had ended. But despite a schedule that saw them play all the contenders on the road, Fullerton roared through the league schedule, winning 12 of its first 13 games on its way to an 18-3 PCAA mark and a five-game margin over surprise runnerup UC Irvine.

The Titans' regular season record of 42-15 earned them a national ranking as high as No. 3 and sent them to the NCAA playoffs with a berth in the South II Regionals in New Orleans. The Titans were the top seed against five Louisiana schools and drew the No. 6 seed, Southern University from Baton Rouge. Representing a conference that never had won an NCAA playoff game, the Jaguars nevertheless got a brilliant pitching performance from converted reliever Allan Ratliff, who beat CSF, 1-0, in a bizarre game that saw no infield chances for Southern. Ratliff handled a bunt and a comebacker and all the other outs were via flyballs or strikeouts.

Thrust into the losers' bracket, the Titans resorted to their deep pitching staff to outlast all but Louisiana State. Mike Harkey shut out Tulane and Larry Casian did likewise to Louisiana Tech. But Longo Garcia, the hard-luck loser to Southern, couldn't handle the Tigers. The pivotal play occurred when his glove came off while fielding a comebacker and the Titans could not rally, settling for a 44-17 season.

The 1988 season brought a changing of the guard, but no deviation in the Titans' success story. Garrido resigned and headed for the University of Illinois where a lucrative financial offer and the challenge to build a winner in a cold weather location proved irresistible. Cochell left the cold of Evanston at Northwestern University and headed west.

After an inconsistent start, the new combination clicked and the Titans won 30 out of 35 games before losing a home series and the conference championship to Fresno State. But an at-large NCAA bid was tendered and Fullerton parlayed it into a return trip to Omaha by winning the South Regional in Starkville, Mississippi. Mike Ross hit a 3-run home run with two outs in the bottom of the ninth for a 6-3 win over Texas A&M after the Titans had beaten the host Bulldogs twice in their own stadium.

Fullerton continued its winning ways in a revised CWS format in Omaha with well-pitched victories over Stanford and Miami. But Longo Garcia and Mark Beck couldn't repeat their feat and Stanford came back through the losers' bracket to drop the Titans to third place with a pair of Cardinal victories.

Despite the presence of All-Americans Brent Mayne and David Staton, the 1989 Titan team endured Fullerton's worst season since 1973. The Titans finished in the second division of the Big West at 10-11 and the overall record was 30-27.

The end of a dynasty? Rival coaches thought so and picked the Titans to finish fifth in the Big West in 1990. Instead, the team romped to its first conference title since 1987 and rode that momentum to an impressive sweep of the Central Regional at Austin, Texas. Twice the Titans beat the host Longhorns on their own turf to earn a sixth trip to Omaha.

They crashed at the CWS, literally. Outfielder Rich Gonzales collided with the left field wall and his health distracted the Titans in losses to Oklahoma State and The Citadel.

Cochell accepted a lucrative offer to coach at Oklahoma to create an opening for Garrido's return in 1991.

Fullerton started the '91 season in its traditional fashion — slowly. The latter part of the season looked grim as the Titans entered conference play with a 15-12 record. But in keeping with Titan tradition, Fullerton ended the season on a high note winning 10 of its final 12 games and clinching a share of the conference championship, the second title in as many years.

By virtue of head-to-head competition with Fresno State, the Bulldogs gained the automatic berth to post-season play. The NCAA Selection Committee didn't look upon Fullerton's strong finish as being good enough to earn an at-large bid to tournament play.

Many players return from last season's squad, and all are on a mission to win the conference title outright in their new stadium.

Baseball America magazine has the Titans ranked fifth in the nation in a pre-season poll, and coach Garrido and Co. are roaring and ready to go at it again in 1992.

FORMER TITANS IN THE MAJOR LEAGUE

Eighteen products of the Cal State Fullerton baseball program have worked their way into major league box scores with several more stars of recent Titan teams waiting in the wings for their opportunity.

The first Titan to play in the major leagues was left-handed pitcher Dan Boone, who broke in with the Angels and Padres after helping Fullerton into the 1975 College World Series and then made a dramatic comeback with Baltimore in 1990. He was followed by Dan Whitmer at Toronto (1976) and California.

The biggest name came next as Tim Wallach, the 1979 College Player of the Year, broke in with the Montreal Expos. He has played in several All-Star Games for the National League including the 1989 Classic in Anaheim.

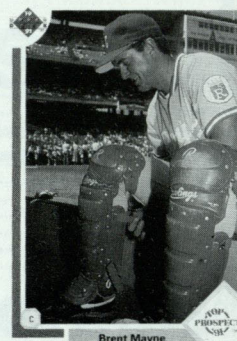

Arriving at the 'Show' in the mid-80s were right-handed pitcher Jeff Robinson with the San Francisco Giants, Pittsburgh Pirates, New York Yankees, California Angels and Chicago Cubs; outfielder Andre David, who hit a home run in his first at bat for the Minnesota Twins; and outfielder John Christensen with the New York Mets, Boston Red Sox, Seattle Mariners and the Twins.

Left-handed pitcher Greg Mathews burst upon the scene in St. Louis in 1986 to become a valued member of the Cardinals' starting rotation. He started in the Championship Series for the Cardinals. Recurring arm problems have plagued his career and he is now playing in triple A.

Getting his debut in 1987 was Bill Moore with Montreal before the Titan Alumni Club exploded in 1988 with five additions. The most heralded was pitcher Mike Harkey, who was starting at Wrigley Field for the Chicago Cubs 16 months after his last Titan appearance. He was selected USA Today's Minor League Player of the Year in 1988 but suffered a knee injury during spring training and missed the Cubs' 1989 divisional title team. In 1990, he was the Cubs' No. 2 winner and placed fifth in Rookie of the Year balloting. He spent the 1991 season rehabilitating a shoulder injury and will return this season to the Chicago rotation.

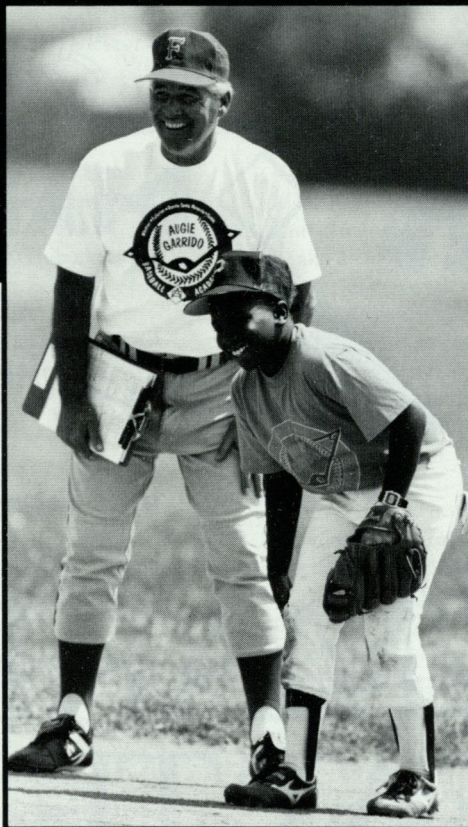

Earlier in the 1988 season, former Titan reliever Mike Schooler surfaced with the Mariners and he has become their top stopper and one of the best in baseball. In Philadelphia, Shane Turner was one of the players who tried to fill the shoes of Mike Schmidt at third base. In Houston, John Fishel, the MVP of the 1984 College World Series, was part of the Astros' futile run at the NL West flag before being traded to the Yankees. Kevin Reimer started in more than 100 games in right field for the Texas Rangers last year.

Arrivals in 1990 were outfielder Dann Howitt with the Oakland A's, catcher Brent Mayne, who was Kansas City's first-round draft choice in 1988, and lefthander Larry Casian, a 1987 draft by Minnesota. Both made starting appearances in nearby Anaheim Stadium.

Two other familiar names made their first appearances in 1991. Andy Mota was called up by the Astros and his brother Jose played in over 30 games at second base for the Padres.

Among the former Titans hoping to make the jump in 1992 are third baseman David Staton, a triple crown winner for the Padres in 1990; infielder Mike Ross in the St. Louis chain and Domingo Mota who was recently traded from the Dodgers to the Royals.

Message To Campers

Dear Baseball Friend:

We're looking forward to having our first camp at the new Titan Stadium on the campus of Cal State Fullerton in the summer of 1992 with great anticipation.

Our camps provide a comprehensive baseball instructional program and also have exciting activities away from the field such as a trip to a California Angel or Los Angeles Dodger game.

Our camps are not designed to turn every youngster into Jose Canseco or Darryl Strawberry. What we strive for is self-improvement. One of our warmest moments occurred a few seasons ago when one youngster, with limited ability, was able to improve his running speed in the 60-yard dash after spending the week at our running station. His self-image was greatly enhanced and his parents later told us that his grades and school conduct also improved dramatically after our camp.

We also stress teamwork, developing a positive attitude and fun in each of our camps. Baseball is a game and you should enjoy playing it. The better player you become, the more fun it will be.

Our instructors are made up of the Titan staff, players and junior college and high school coaches from the surrounding area.

Hundreds of enthusiastic youngsters in Southern California attended our previous camps, and we intend to develop the same high quality camp in 1992. For those who join us, we look forward to a meaningful learning and fun experience!

Best Regards,

Augie Garrido
