School of Education GERALD STANLEY

The School of Education welcomes back to campus, Professor Jerry Stanley. Dr. Stanley received his Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in 1973 from the University of Arizona. He enjoyed a successful academic career at CSUB from 1973-1998 teaching in the specialized fields of the American West, Native Americans, California History, and California Indians. Dr. Stanley retired from CSUB's History Department in 1998. But, Jerry Stanley is no ordinary retiree!

His career as a professional writer of nonfiction for children propelled him into the national spotlight in 1992. Since his first award-winning book, Children of the Dust Bowl, Dr. Stanley has been going non-stop, bringing history alive for young readers by focusing on how ordinary people became heroes. As he weaves their tales of overcoming adversity, discrimination, and oppression, Jerry's lead characters appeal to youngsters' imagination, empathy, and sense of justice. Topics such as the Japanese Internment, the Industrial Revolution, the California Gold Rush, and Frontier Merchants are presented to children through the experiences of multicultural Americans from various ethnicities and national origins. The excellence and quality of his contributions to children's literature have been recognized by the National Council of Teachers of English Orbis Pictus Award, the John and Patricia Beatty Award, and the National Book Award.

Dr. Stanley is no stranger to School of Education faculty and students. Not only do we know him through his extraordinary talent, but through his philanthropic generosity. Each year, Dr. Stanley awards his Leo B. Hart Endowed Scholarship to a deserving teacher education candidate. He has consistently shared his book royalties with our academic community. Welcome home, Jerry!

School of Humanities and Social Sciences LOUIE L. VEGA Kern County Superior Court Commissioner

Commissioner Louie Vega is a Vietnam War combat veteran. He was a helicopter crew chief in the Central Highlands of South Vietnam serving as an aero-scout in A Troop, 7th division of the 17th Air Cavalry in 1968. He earned the Air Medal with 16 Oak Leaf Clusters and the Purple Heart. Thereafter, he was a helicopter maintenance instructor at Ft. Eustis, Virginia until his honorable discharge in June 1970.

Commissioner Vega came to Bakersfield in 1971 as sportscaster and general assignment reporter for KERO-TV after graduating from broadcasting school. He graduated from California State University, Bakersfield, where he majored in Political Science, with a minor in Economics, and also received his secondary teaching credential in 1978. He was community counselor and social studies teacher for the Kern High School District before entering UCLA Law School. He received his J.D. from UCLA Law School in 1983. While at UCLA he was also Editor-in-Chief of the Chicano Law Review and an Extern for Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals Judge William A. Norris during his third year of law school.

Commissioner Vega was appointed by the Bakersfield Municipal Court Judges in February 1990 and assumed his current position in March 1990. He was elevated to Kern County Superior Court Commissioner as a result of trial court unification that took effect on July 1, 2000. He currently performs judicial duties such as presiding over civil matters, including unlawful detainees, small claims, and probate cases.

Since 1995, he has been a faculty member of the California Center for Judicial Education and Research, which conducts new judges' orientation and continuing education seminars for the state's judiciary.

Since coming to Bakersfield, Commissioner Vega has been active in various community organizations. He is currently a board member of the Kern High School District Education Foundation. Commissioner Vega is also a current member of Kern County Youth Mariachi Foundation Board of Directors and is a past member of the President's Advisory Council for California State University, Bakersfield.

He and his wife Gloria have a daughter, Raquel. He enjoys outdoor activities, good music and reading.

TANYA ATWATER, Ph.D.

Tanya Atwater is a Professor of Tectonics at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Her research has concerned various aspects of tectonics, ranging from the fine details of sea floor spreading processes to global aspects of plate tectonics. She has participated in or led numerous oceanographic expeditions in the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans, including twelve dives to the deep sea floor in the tiny submersible, Alvin. She is especially well known for her works on the plate tectonic history of western North America, in general, and of the San Andreas fault system, in particular.

Professor Atwater is devoted to science communication, teaching students at all levels in the University, and presenting numerous workshops and field trips for schoolteachers. She consults regularly with the press, TV, video producers and museum designers. She produced an introductory teaching film about plate tectonics that is widely used in introductory courses across the Nation. She is presently involved in the production of geologic computer animations to explain, illustrate, and bring alive the earth features and processes that we encounter everyday.

Professor Atwater serves on various national and international committees and panels. She is a fellow of the American Geophysical Union and the Geological Society of America and was a co-winner of the Newcomb Cleveland Prize of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and winner of the National Science Foundation's Award for Distinguished Teaching Scholars. In 1997 she was elected to the prestigious National Academy of Sciences. She received her education at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the University of California at Berkeley, and Scripps Institute of Oceanography, completing her Ph.D. in 1972. She was a professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology before joining the faculty at U.C.S.B. in 1980.

BERNARD C. BARMANN, SR., Ph.D., J.D.
 County Counsel, County of Kern

Bernie Barmann, County Counsel/Chief Civil Attorney for the County of Kern for the past 18 years was born in Maryville, Missouri, the oldest of ten children. Dr. Barmann received his Ph.D. from Stanford University in 1966 and his J.D. from the University of San Diego in 1974. His BA degree is from the Immaculate Conception College and he holds an MPA from Cal State University, Bakersfield. He is a Danforth Foundation Fellow and a grantee of the Fulbright Foundation.

Bernie was admitted to the California Bar in 1974 and for 29 years has practiced law in California in the state and federal courts. More than 75 reported appellate decisions have been published in which he and his office appear as counsel of record. He currently manages budgets totaling $32 million.

After earning his Ph.D., Dr. Barmann taught at Ohio State University, Columbus, from 1966-69, and at the University of Toronto, Ontario, Canada from 1969-71. From 1986 to the present, he has taught as an adjunct faculty member in the School of Business and Public Administration here at Cal State Bakersfield.

Bernie has been active in the California State Bar and Kern County Bar. He edited the Law Practice Management Newsletter for the State Bar from 1991-93 and served as President of the Kern County Bar Association in 2001. He served from 1997 to 2000 on the State Bar Judicial Nominees Evaluation Commission and was President of the California County Counsels Association in 1993-94. He is currently on the Board of the downtown Rotary, Kern County Academic Decathlon, Community Concerts, and Bakersfield Symphony.

Bernie and his wife, Bee, have two children, Bernie Jr., an attorney in Los Angeles, and Brigit, a psychologist in Monterey, and three grandchildren. For leisure he enjoys concerts, theater, travel and golf.

Commencement Traditions

The colorful attire worn by the graduates, faculty, and officers of the university has been an integral feature of American commencement pageantry since the end of the nineteenth century. The tradition of wearing the academic gowns, the mortarboard caps, tassels and hoods and the carrying of the mace originated in Europe during the Middle Ages. The gown is held to be an adaptation of the robe of the friar or priest; the hood, the monk's cowl; and the mortarboard cap recalls the skull cap. All of the regalia recalls the days when teachers needed protection against the drafts of unheated medieval classrooms. Today's commencement exercises maintain much of the tradition and pageantry of the early times, when the occasion of commencement included debates and orations given by candidates to demonstrate their knowledge.

The Academic Regalia

The distinctive academic regalia being worn in today's ceremony denotes the wearer's institution, field of study, and degree held.

For each of the degree levels, bachelor's, master's and doctoral, the gown sleeves indicate the degree held by the wearer. The bachelor's gown is a yoked, closed-front garment with long, pointed sleeves. The master's can be worn open or closed and has long sleeves, usually closed but slit above the elbow. The doctoral gown has full, bell-shaped sleeves and is trimmed with velvet panels down the front and has velvet bars on each sleeve. The color of the panels and bars is often varied to indicate the academic discipline in which the doctoral degree was earned.

The mortarboard cap in black is the accepted style of headdress in colleges and universities throughout the United States. Other distinctive and colorful forms of headdress are often found in foreign universities.

An integral part of the headdress, the tassel, varies widely in its use and color. The bachelor's candidate at California State University, Bakersfield wears a gold tassel and the master's wears a gold tassel.

The length and shape of the hood also indicate the highest degree earned by the wearer. Although hoods are available for all three degree levels, the hood for the bachelor is seldom used. The bachelor's hood is three feet long, the master's three and a half feet, and the doctor's four feet with wide panels on either side. The color of the velvet border on any hood indicates the field of study in which the candidates have taken their degree, as outlined below.

White	Arts, Letters, Humanities
Drab	Business Administration
Copper	Economics
Light Blue	Education
Brown	Fine Arts
Pink	Music
Apricot	Nursing
Dark Blue or Black	Philosophy
Sage Green	Physical Education
Peacock Blue	Public Administration
Golden Yellow	Science

The Mace

The University Mace is a ceremonial symbol of authority carried in academic processions during commencement and convocations at universities and colleges. The honor of serving as Bearer of the Mace at California State University, Bakersfield is accorded to the Chair of the Academic Senate, the governing body of the faculty.

List of Candidates

Students eligible to participate in the 2003 commencement exercises include those who graduated in Summer 2002, Fall 2002 and Winter 2003 Quarters, and Spring 2003 and Summer 2003 candidates who filed for graduation prior to the announced deadlines. This program does not constitute an official degree listing. The appropriate diplomas will be issued to candidates who have completed all requirements.

Graduation with Honors

Honors at graduation are awarded to undergraduate students who have completed at least 60 residential units of letter grade work as part of their baccalaureate program. Honors awards take into account all courses taken at California State University, Bakersfield and other institutions of higher learning. The grade point averages (GPA) necessary for graduation with honors are as follows:

	summa cum laude
	3.9 to 4.0 GPA
	magna cum laude
	3.6 to 3.89 GPA
*	cum laude
	3.3 to 3.59 GPA

The determinations of honors awards cannot be made until final grades are recorded and completion of graduation requirements is verified for all candidates. Therefore, based on grades which are now on record, Spring 2003 and Summer 2003 candidates for honors are marked with "+." The diplomas and permanent record cards for those who earn honors after final grades have been considered will bear the appropriate designation of summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude.
