ESO Sponsors Fire Prevention Talk

By Al Bennett

On Wednesday November 29 at 7:00 p.m. in the MPR the ESO is sponsoring a lecture by the Ventura County Fire Department, Station 52. Captain Norbutt, or his representative, will speak on home preparedness to cope with a fire resulting from a catastrophic earthquake. All residents are welcome.

We can all learn from the January 1994 earthquake in Northridge and the January 1995 earthquake in Kobe, Japan, where fire broke out sporadically in the vicinity of the epicenter. Fortunately for us Station 52 is close to Leisure Village, but home preparation can save a life or reduce destruction by fire.

Call Al Bennett, 482-1889 for further information.

Something To Look Forward To

The Education and Recreation Committee, Genevieve Leventhal, chairman, has announced that the following classes will be given in Spring 1996. Sign-up sheets to register your interest in the classes are in the Recreation Office.

Arthritis Exercises - No tuition.

Stone Polishing/Lapidary - No tuition.

Oxnard Community College, 3 units credit, tuition $49. Class topic will be determined upon learning how many students would be interested.

The Festival Of Light

By Esther Robbins Maltun

Chanukah...Festival of light...
Eight colored candles burning bright...
Children's faces all aglow
As we recite, so they will know,
The story of their people's fight
For tolerance and for the right
To shun the idols of that day
And worship in their special way.
Each year Jews repeat that story
Of the Maccabees and their glory,
And of that tiny vial of oil
That burned throughout eight days of toil
As they rebuilt their house of prayer
Restoring hope to those elsewhere
Who lived oppressed by cruel decree
That they, too, might one day be free.

Meet Your Neighbor

By Carol Heyerick

Meet Your Neighbor will hold its last meeting of the year on November 24, at 1:30 p.m. in the Garden Room.

Hildi Taylor will welcome new and old members and tell about the many activities available to those who live in Leisure Village. She especially likes to mention the early morning exercise class and the Women's Club Trading Post. If you are unhappy with too much furniture, lamps, knick knacks call the Trading Post ladies. Money made goes to charities in Ventura County as well as projects in Leisure Village.

New arrivals will be introduced and warmly welcomed.

Guest speaker will be Lucy Gerhardt who is co-chairman of the Architectural/Landscape Committee. She has been the main spokesman for the lovely gardens and gazebo sponsored by the Garden Club. We will hear all about their efforts and her part in the planning.

Betty Murray was our October guest speaker, and we were charmed by her reminiscences of the early days in Leisure Village. Betty has been co-chairman of the Inside Leisure Village paper, an avid swimmer, a quilter and a gracious model at our fashion show.

Hildi thanked her committee as well as Channel 12 who did the taping. She also mentioned the Vial of Life. She invited all to come to the November 24 meeting.

There will be no December meeting but we will look forward to the New Year...Stay healthy!

Director Resigns

Bill Blauer resigned from the L.V. Board of Directors for personal reasons. Dick Griswold has accepted the appointment to serve the balance of Blauer's term of office.

Your Neighbors Care Group Bulletin

Your Neighbors Care Group needs a few volunteers to take blood pressure readings every third Monday of the month from 7:00-8:00 p.m. There is no need to bring your own equipment. You will meet some very grateful people who appreciate your willingness to be of help.

If interested, please call Sandy Okum 482-8125 or Sonia Brink 484-2387. Thank you.

EARLY DEADLINE FOR ILV

Because of the holidays, the next issue of ILV will be published on December 22, one week early. Please note that the deadline for stories is 5:00 p.m. on Monday, December 4.

Village Plans For Holiday

December always brings forth colorful holiday decorations in Village homes and the Recreation Center. Many clubs have already planned celebrations of one kind or another for their members. Two all-Village events which have become traditional are on the calendar.

The Village Christmas tree will be trimmed on Monday, December 4 at 3:00 p.m. in the Assembly Room. Participation by all present is invited. The Rhythmettes will provide entertainment and perhaps a surprise or two. Refreshments will be part of the occasion.

The Chanukah-Christmas program is tentatively planned for Friday, December 15 at 7:00 p.m., also in the AR. Watch Channel 12 for announcements.

Senior Legislature Meets

By Sr. Senator Joe Ellenbogen

HMOs, elder abuse and geriatric training were among the top concerns of the recently concluded 4-day session of the California Senior Legislature (CSL).

Meeting in the impressive Senate and Assembly Chambers and the equally impressive committee hearing rooms of the State Capitol in Sacramento, the 120-member body debated, voted and prioritized some of the urgent concerns of California seniors.

While lacking real legislative authority, the CSL enjoys wide respect

Leisure Village And The Environment

A short time ago, each storm drain in the Village received a neatly stenciled message "DON'T DUMP, DRAINS TO CREEK," with the silhouette of a crane-like bird. That little statement seems commonplace enough, but leads to wondering how other things in L.V. affect the environment. Many of the procedures we have are just good housekeeping, but they can have consequences which we generally do not even think about. For example:

Trash: In olden times when populations were not so dense, people could toss out the junk they didn't want without much thought. From the midden heaps of Cave-men as well as the Ancient Ones of the Great Southwest, modern anthropologists have learned a great deal about their lifestyles by digging through the leavings. Progress, population, and sanitation now decree that our trash be buried.

E. J. Harrison Company trucks are familiar vehicles in the Village each week picking up trash, and twice a month to pick up recyclables. These trucks hold up to ten tons of material which is compacted to save space and is taken to the Oxnard Landfill. The charge to deposit trash at the Landfill is $33.50 per ton. Sometime in the middle of 1996, the Oxnard site will be closed, and another location will have to be found. To close a dump, the area is sealed over the top with clay to prevent water seepage. Methane gas is generated naturally from the decaying matter inside the dump, and from it, electricity is already being produced. (Source: Mario, Supervisor at Harrison.)

Green waste, the lawn clippings, tree and shrub trimmings, amount to 1300 cubic yards per year. The green waste goes to a plant where it is composted and re-sold as mulch or a soil additive. A proposal for saving fuel and man-hours in the Village is being studied by using a growth retardant on a test area in Village 4 to see if the volume of clippings can be reduced.

The pine trees in the Village are a source both of pleasure and annoyance. In the past year, 130 pines have been removed because they were dangerous to dwellings, or diseased. They are being replaced with other varieties of trees which are less messy. Pine needles alone contribute greatly to the bulk of the green waste. (Source: Don Nelson, LVA)

Particularly hazardous to the creek would be waste oil and hydrocarbon products. As oil is changed by the staff in Village machines, it is stored in a large barrel (which is also available to recreational vehicle owners), and, periodically is hauled away. The old, dirty oil is reprocessed and sold for other purposes.

Much has been made of the fuel tank leak at the Association Office. When this was discovered, the tank was taken out, all earth directly around the site was removed (it was hauled to Arizona for disposal), and fresh dirt was used to fill up the hole. Only about 45 gallons of fuel had leaked into the soil-not from the tank itself, but from the plumbing connections. Although it would seem to have been sufficiently cleaned up, the Ventura County Environmental Health Division, the agency in charge, has not written the incident off. L.V. Directors are still negotiating with the County.

The new fuel tank was installed with the most careful attention to vents, leak monitors, and a computerized system of pumping gasoline from the tank, where each withdrawal of fuel is documented as to its use.

Compromises are constantly being made to maintain the beauty of the Village and at the same time to cut down on use of water, fuel, and to moderate the amount of waste generated by our park-like community. In Camarillo, drinking water costs about $600 per acre foot. Although we pay for water through our monthly assessments, there is also a small assessment for Camrosa Water District, Metropolitan Water and Calleguas Water on our tax bills. Village homes average about $15.00 per month per household for water, and pay a flat rate of $12.25 per month as a sewage charge. The cost to treat an acre foot of sewage is $250. Camrosa Water District is building a new sewage plant near the Camarillo State Hospital on Lewis Road which should be ready to operate in January 1997. (Info from Richard Hajas, Manager, Camrosa.)

Studies are being made to see if it would be feasible for us to buy non-potable water for the golf course and common areas. The expense involved in revamping the water supply system to save about $350 per acre foot over using potable water as we do at present, must be ascertained.

Whether or not we are conscious each day of how much our lives affect the larger community, the fact is that almost every time we turn around we use something, or we discard something. We are extravagant with resources, we indulge ourselves in the wealth of our country. A separate industry has grown up to handle the refuse from our cities. It is only natural to encourage the most efficacious handling of our resources as well as our discards.

As residents of a complex cosmopolitan area, we are mandated to clean up after ourselves and to pay for it. C'est la vie.

Many thanks to my friends for their get well cards and concerns during my recent surgery. I am doing great, and will see you soon

Reub Goldstein. V.19

I wish to thank everyone for the kindnesses extended to me during my recent recovery from surgery.

I've lived here 16½ years and many events have taken place in my life. You've always been there for me — shared in my happiness and helped to ease the pain during the sorrowful times. I love you all.

Phyllis Zell, V.29

Thanks to all my Village friends for all the nice things you did for us during my recent illness. Visits, phone calls, food, cards and notes of encouragement: all were greatly appreciated

June Case V.11

My sincere thanks to friends in the Village for their sympathy, donations and support for the loss of my dear wife, Celia. Your kindness is deeply appreciated.

Eugene Hawkins, V.37

To all our friends in Leisure Village we would like to say Good Bye. Our years at L.V. were some of our most enjoyable. It's time now to move on to be closer to our children. We will miss you all. Good health to all.

among the elected legislators and within the State administration. Lt. Gov. Gray Davis, newly elected Assembly Speaker Brian Setencich, and long-time, and renowned Assemblyman Willie Brown were among the dignitaries who addressed the session's opening ceremonies.

When the legislature convenes its 1996 session in January, the CSL will begin its strong advocacy efforts to have the senior agenda authorized and adopted. Seventy per cent of the 1994 priority proposals were chaptered into law during the 1995 State's legislature session.

Senior legislators are elected by their peers in March of each even numbered year for a two year term. In Ventura County more than 90,000 seniors (13% of the total population) are represented by Sr. Assembly members Bob Unruhe of Ojai and Eugenie Wheeler of Ventura, and by Sr. Senator Joe Ellenbogen of Leisure Village in Camarillo.

New elections will be held in March 1996 and anyone interested in becoming a candidate for one of the three offices should contact the Ventura County Area Agency on Aging which conducts the elections. (Phone: 805-652-7560). It is a valuable, interesting and satisfying community service.

The CSL is a non-partisan, volunteer organization, serving without compensation and representing approximately 4 million people in California over 60. Financed mostly by donations through the California Fund for Senior Citizens, a voluntary check-off item on the California State income tax return, CSL also received contributions from individuals and groups. It was a matter of great pride and appreciation to note in the

LV Beautification Fund

By Doris Achterkirchen

The LV Beautification Fund continues to grow, but as of now there are only 368 donors compared to a possible 2136 home owners in the Village. The major donors are Jean Field's Estate, the Garden Club, the Women's Club, the Players Guild, and the Fox Real Estate Team. Seventeen LV clubs and the Santa Rosa Pharmacy have also contributed. There have been 78 memorials and 45 honoraria. To date, the Fund has received a total of $34,649 but $16,951 is still outstanding on the Gazebo Garden.

Donating to the Fund is a wonderful way to honor or memorialize friends and loved ones. This is a perpetual fund, the monies of which go toward the beautification of the Village. This not only enhances our enjoyment but increases our property values. All money received will be used for special enhancement projects to retain or upgrade our property values without increasing our monthly fees. The Gazebo Garden is only the first project in this continuing beautification effort. All residents are encouraged to contribute.

The Memory Book will be on display in the LV Library on or about December 1 according to Lucy Gerhardt who has spearheaded this beautiful addition to the Village.

Profile: Walter Klinger

BY HERMAN WALTZER

The kaleidoscopic life of Walter Klinger, V.44, included the cinema in its "golden years", Nazi persecution, war and its immediate aftermath, and more cinematic (later television) association.

Walter's life started in Vienna where he spent his boyhood. At the age of 18, he started a long-time affiliation with the film industry as a distributor with MGM in Berlin from 1929-1933. In 1933, after the rise of Nazism he returned to his hometown where he resumed movie distribution. He remained there until the Nazi take-over in 1938 when persecution made it extremely difficult for him and his family. During this period, he and Hertha were married (recently they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary).

With great difficulty, they obtained refugee status visas for France. After having left all their possessions in Vienna, Walter and Hertha departed for France with only five hundred dollars concealed in tubes of toothpaste. This was extremely risky, since discovery by the Nazis of currency on their persons would have had very dire consequences.

Fortunately, they were able to make their way to France. However, their French visas permitted only temporary residence. The only place in the world where they could be accepted on a more permanent basis was Trinidad, British West Indies, virtually unknown to most Europeans.

After finally landing in Trinidad, the Klingers found a limited welcome. Only native Creole or British citizens could be employed. However, despite these restrictions, he was once again working in movie film distribution (this in Trinidad where there were relatively few movie theaters).

After the onset of the second world war in 1939, life swiftly changed for the Klingers and the other refugees who had followed them, including immediate family members. Declared "enemy aliens" by the local authorities, they were transported to an internment camp where they existed under very primitive conditions.

After surviving eight months in the internment camp, they were able to obtain entry visas for the United States. Walter again capitalized on his cinema experience and obtained employment in St. Louis in movie advertising. Sometime later in 1941, he accepted another film-associated position in Portland, Oregon. From Portland, the Klingers moved to Hollywood where Walter was employed by Warner Brothers as a publicist in the Foreign Department (he was offered this position because of his fluency in several languages). During this time he acquired a mastery of Spanish which enabled him to participate in Warner Brothers' "Good Neighbor" policy positions (Latin American market). He also was very active in

German language public relations.

After Pearl Harbor, Walter became involved in Warner Brothers' liaison with the U.S. Government's movie interests in Washington which included some of the top personnel at the fledgling Office of Strategic Services (O.S.S.), later the C.I.A.

Through his contacts in Washington, he was assigned to the O.S.S. upon joining the U.S. Army. During his tenure with the O.S.S., he worked with Hans Habe, a legendary figure at that time, who was in charge of "psychological" warfare for the army.

After the German surrender, Walter was assigned to the U.S. Military Government and placed in charge of Arts in Bavaria.

His most memorable experiences during this time occurred during a visit to Vienna when he was able to re-possess his book collection which had been taken from his family under pressure when they left Austria. He managed to ship these to his home in the United States. Another experience occurred when he managed to find his mother's grave under very difficult circumstances.

After military separation, Walter resumed film distribution, eventually becoming operations manager in T.V. studios. During this portion of his career, he met many of the notables of the screen. His memorabilia includes photographs with personal inscriptions by many famous personalities including Humphrey Bogart, Ida Lupino (a good friend), Errol Flynn, John Garfield, Ronald Reagan, Ingrid Bergman and many other Hollywood stars.

The contents of the Klinger's house reflects their many travels.

The art in their home includes a work by Van Dyke, an etching by Rembrandt, and other works by the Old Masters. There are many antique volumes in their library, including an original volume of the Martin Luther Tract printed in the sixteenth century. All of these art works and rare books are eventually destined for the Walter and Hertha Klinger Gallery of the Art Museum at the University of Southern California.

Truly, the life of Walter Klinger could be the subject of an extensive biography, T.V. miniseries or movie. He is indeed a remarkable man.

PRAISE FOR DEPUTY SHERIFFS

In times like this when there are many negative comments about the police, it is good to know that those officers can be overwhelmingly positive in times of need.

For example, on October 10, driving south on Santa Rosa Road near the Plaza, I heard a loud banging under the rear of my car. I stopped, as did a young lady in a van. She said my rear tire was damaged, and although she was in a hurry, she offered to drive me to the Santa Rosa Plaza to call the Auto Club.

At that moment, the flashing light of a patrol car approached us in back. Two Deputy Sheriffs, Eduardo Reyes and R. S. Arthur approached to survey the situation. The steel belting on the tire had torn loose and would have to be replaced. One officer took me in the patrol car and the other officer pushed my car to the Plaza. They offered to change the tire for me, but the spare tire was flat, so they called the Auto Club on their radio to request a serviceman. They even offered to stay with me until assistance arrived, but I assured them I was OK and thanked them from the bottom of my heart before they left.

My profound thanks goes to the unknown young lady and to Deputy Reyes and Arthur for their assistance. They were there when they were needed.

Anne Weiss, V.44

Thanks! As difficult as major surgery can be, it's much easier to hold up when one's friends show their support.

I want to thank a thousand times all my friends in the Village Round Dancers, the Village Swingers, the pool room bums (you know who you are) and all the others who found time to call or send a card during my recent surgery.

I'll see you all soon and thank you in person, as soon as I recuperate.

Al Siegel, V.17

I cannot find words adequate to express our appreciation to all of our L.V. friends and neighbors for the many caring expressions we received after my loving husband Andy's recent surgery. The numerous telephone calls we received and also the cards brought many a tear of happiness to our eyes. I am happy to report that he is on the road to recovery. Our life in Leisure Village has been good these past 18 years and we appreciate our many loving friends and neighbors. We say many thanks to all for your love and caring.

Security And The Great Balloon Bust

By Betty Murray

L.V. Security officers under Chief Max Moses often receive praise for their timely efforts in behalf of villagers. This is a personal anecdote about our officers, one where I may have been the only witness.

Three and a half years ago our two sons and their wives gave my husband and me a party for our 50th wedding anniversary in the Assembly Room. It was a beautiful affair with about 150 guests, catered food, a small musical combo, flower arrangements on each table, and on the stage were two black and white balloon constructions designed to look like a bride and groom, a really cute decoration.

THE LEISURE VILLAGE WOMEN'S CLUB

By Eileen Cohen

The November 2 meeting of the Women's Club was a busy one. Sylvia Mopper, treas., reported total bank balances as of October 31. $15,591. Renee Greene, pres. announced that so far this year, $800 has been contributed to the community and $4,400 distributed within the Village: $2,200 to Channel 12 for a new camcorder; $1,000 for the Pavilion sound system (with $500 more available); and $1,200 for new shelves for the library.

Carol Heyerick, Sunshine Lady, sent "get well" cards to Jack Whalen and Eleanor Service. She would also like to send cards for happy occasions. Just let her know. Velma Hughes, cor. secy., reported on thanks sent and received.

Renee reported on the Bazaar, thanking Dorothy FencI for the Workshop's year-round efforts. Dorothy, in turn, thanked not only all the Workshop members, but also the Sawdusters, for contributing the beautiful toys they made. Renee also thanked all the contributors to the success of the Bake Sale. She then thanked Donna Duke, Irene Cunningham and Doris LaPrell for all the work their committee does throughout the year, turning cast-offs into cash. The grand total for the Bazaar is $7,915.

Eleanor Service, Chair of the Nominating Committee, is in the hospital, so Sylvia Mopper announced the slate and introduced the candidates: Pres., Edna McCormick; 1st Vice Pres., Programs, Piff DeSimone; 2nd Vice Pres., Bazaar, Irene Cunningham; Rec. Secy., Dorothy FencI; Cor. Secy., Alice Hinig; Treas., Rosemary Hanson; and Parliamentarian, Doris Kadish.

With the meeting accomplished, the show began. Renee planned and directed the Fashion Show, personally selected the outfits and accessories from the Damon's and Draper's stock. She introduced the narrator, Judy in-law asked our two grandsons who were about 10 and 13 at the time, to take the balloon structures out to the van. They asked if they could break the balloons and were given permission to do so, but to wait until they got outside. A few seconds later, we heard the noise of popping balloons. There were perhaps 50 balloons on each piece, so how long would it take to break them? Not much more than a minute, I would estimate. I walked out the door just as they were putting the wooden frames into the van, still laughing at the balloon breaking contest.

I was at the end of the walk when out of the corner of my eye I saw two uniformed men charge out around the side of the building onto the parking lot. They approached in a very defensive posture in the best TV gangbusters style, weapons at hand, they quickly veered away from each other and advanced toward the boys. The officers took about a second to analyze what was going on, didn't say one word, but spun around and disappeared around the corner of the building almost as fast as they had come out. The whole incident may have taken 10 or 15 seconds--much less time than it takes to tell.

I have often wondered if those officers even bothered to make a report, but if they did, it might have been something like this: "Sunday, 5:00 p.m. Heard (or received reports of) multiple gunshots coming from the east parking lot. Officers Jones and Smith responded, approaching the parking lot from around south side of rec center building. Observed two male juveniles picking up black and white scraps from parking lot. Probable source of noise: explosive release of gas from multiple inflated rubber spheres. Situation non-critical. Culprits left in protective custody of their grandmother. Case closed."

In retrospect, this was a rather comical incident, after the shock of seeing the officers apparently on the way to doing something drastic to my grandsons. But if it had been a situation with real guns involved, those officers were taking a risk.

Regarding the weapons that I thought I saw. This happened so quickly that I have only impressions. The body language of the officers certainly suggested that they were ready to do whatever was necessary, but when they turned to go back, the weapons were put away, or weren't there in the first place. Our officers do not carry weapons or other protection for themselves. Let us hope there is never a situation where something like that would be needed.

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

By Benson Smithkin

There was an air of excitement at the LV Amateur Radio Club meeting when the new officers nominations were proposed:

Betty (BJ) Kumler (KE6QCI), pres.; Marge May (KB6HAG), v.p. and Ben Perry (KC6PQT), secy-treas. Ben will also take over the radio column in January, giving Ben Smithkin (KC6NEP) a respite after 4½ years.

Club members enjoyed the interesting and informative program of Don Milbury (W6YAN), a.k.a. Captain Video. It was a great performance in the way he presented the possibilities of communicating by both sound and pictures using the frequencies set aside by the FCC for amateur television (ATV).

The DPX (disaster preparedness exercise) of October 23 came on line as planned, when its primary function of dispatching emergency help to villagers worked flawlessly. Village coordinators radioed in to net controller Marge May who relayed their requests to our Search and Rescue and Ambulance special teams. Eighty-four percent of Village homes displayed white flags.

On November 4 the Sulphur Mountain Repeater Assoc. (SMRA) installed a new repeater station in the LV equipment room on Conejo Mtn. next to the main TV antenna. Members of the Assoc. worked all day with our hams to assure that we would have a powerful, interference-free signal in the event of a real disaster. The repeater frequency is 147.15 plus.

Final club meeting of the year will be on Tuesday, December 5, at 10 a.m. in the Sun Room. It will feature election of officers plus a surprise program. All are welcome.

COMPUTER CLUB

By Ben Perry

The meetings of our Computer Club continue to show an increased interest in learning about computers. We have new members coming in every month placing the head count well over 120.

Dick Travis, our president, introduced Jim Moran and Ed Haverly, both from Teltron Computer in Camarillo. The members were introduced to the usage of scanners, graphic and optical character recognition. The members were bewildered by the advancement made in the computer field.

Our club has applied for and received a permit to develop our own Domain for the World Wide Web. Dick Travis is wasting no time in developing our Home Page which should be completed and have Leisure Village on the net some time before the end of this year. This will perhaps help foster an interest in our community as well as other Senior Communities by the exchange of technologies and different ideas.

This should give us computer buffs the opportunity to part take in forums, discuss experiences and develop a camaraderie through the use of the net. The Internet is available to almost everyone that is interested in expanding their horizon in education or self enrichment. It is easy to recognize how this Cyberspace is expanding. We don't know where this can take us but it can't be bad.

The Keyboard Club had another surprise for the membership at its October meeting. After a short business meeting Jules Nayfack presented twelve beautiful ladies who perform under the name of "The Swing Kids." Under the direction of Dr. Bruce Colell, the music director at Adolfo Camarillo High School, they sang some wonderful old swing, jazz and ballads in four and five part harmony. It was absolutely beautiful. They were accompanied by Dr. Colell at the piano, a young man at the string bass and another at the drums, all great musicians.

The group has entered several contests, winning first places in Los Angeles, San Diego, and San Francisco areas, on a cruise to Ensenada, and in Las Vegas. On December 25 they will leave for England, to present five concerts.

We were pleased to see Jules Nayfack recovering from his bout with pinched nerves, and Kurt Godfrey, whose dislocated shoulder is healing. We are sorry to report the death of Ed Stallman. Our condolences to Betty and their children. He will be sorely missed by our Club.

It was such fun to see and hear Bill Marvel perform a duet-for-one on the piano and the electric keyboard. Maxine Hollingsworth played the piano, as did Irwin Porges playing some scary Halloween songs.

Be sure to attend the next meeting on Friday, December 15 at 1:30 p.m. in the AR when election of officers will take place. Installation will be in January. Refreshments are served.

The Village Painters

By Georgia M. Schneider

The Village Painters will meet on Wednesday, December 6, in the M.P.R. at 1:00 p.m. for a holiday potluck. Those members who have not volunteered for their contribution will be contacted by Grace Smith.

The 1996 Board will be installed with Marion Jayne as president, Maxine Fritz as vice president, Erna Hessen as secretary and Sara Kramer as treasurer.

Betty Cagan's paintings will continue to be shown in the Library through December.

THE CERAMIC PLUS CLUB

By Don Holmes

The Ceramics Plus Club had a show and tell meeting in October. Several members showed their latest creations, and they were well worth seeing. There was some mention made of mounting a display in the Atrium, but that will depend on the availability of the showcases. The Club participated with other art and craft groups in the Annual Art Show in November.

Move over Al, Harold, Joe, and Mike, the lady bowlers are moving up fast of late, with some high scratch scores.

Mariam Laird had a big game of 201 and a 510 series, Esther Knopf 197 and a series of 530, Ruth Friedman 184 and 509, and Rosemary Cobb a nice scratch series of 497.

At this time, teams 3 and The Alley Kats are tied for first, with teams 13 and 10 one game behind.

Most of the teams have taken names this year, which makes it a little more interesting, so come on the rest of you, put on your thinking caps!

We're still looking for more players even if you are new at the game. With the handicap system, everyone has a fair chance!

Give Rosemary or Vee a call if you are interested, 484-9076 or 484-7882.

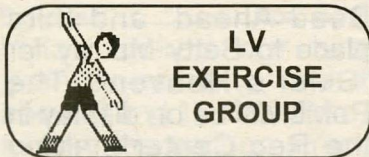

HAPPY HOOFERS

By the time this article reaches you, the Happy Hoofers will have performed for the Retired Ventura County Teachers Association.

We also have put on our best "bib and tucker" into our Thanksgiving feast. There are so many things for which we are thankful, and we count our blessings, every one.

Holiday time is on the horizon, and the Hoofers will be planning a holiday luncheon to celebrate the season. To all our friends and neighbors we wish the greatest gift of all: we wish you love, happy, happy holidays and KEEP ON DANCIN'!!

By Lillian Mankoff

One hundred twenty five people attended the annual potluck dinner held by the LV Exercise Group on November 3 in the AR. Joe Kremer baked his delicious special breads for each table. Some of the attendees were lucky enough to bite off a $5.00 bill baked inside the breads. Lotto tickets were given as door prizes. Games of all kinds followed dinner and a good time was had by all. We are now looking forward to the gourmet lunch at Santa Barbara City College on December 7. With the kind of culinary delights they prepare for us, it is no wonder that we need our daily exercise program all the more. Included in the bus trip is a visit to the historical museum.

December is also the time we think of those who are less fortunate than are we in Leisure Village. Jo Ginsberg and Millie Seidler are busy preparing the 150 drawstring bags to be filled with assorted toilet articles donated by our members. These are presented at holiday time to residents of Camarillo Convalescent Hospital. A "Day at the Races" is planned for March.

We welcome all LV residents to join us at the pool Pavilion Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. for a healthy and stimulating way to start the day.

LOOKING AT CHANNEL 12

By Dick Hof

By the time this paper is available to you, our very popular and excellent Chairman, Jack Whalen, will have undergone five weeks of rehabilitation due to a stroke. He is taking rigorous therapy at Northridge Hospital, South Campus, in Van Nuys. He is kept so busy that it is difficult to receive visitors, but I'm sure that he would like to get a phone call from people in the Village. Call wife Mary for the current phone number. We all expect a speedy recovery for Jack, and wish him well. Co-chair Louella Kelwin will handle Jack's duties temporarily.

Thanks to the Round Dancers for their welcome donation to Channel 12.

We are in great need of people to train as technicians, especially camera operators. If you have any bent toward behind-the-lens activity, our experienced volunteers will teach you.

LVA Board meeting will be televised live at 10:00 a.m., December 4.

Watch "All About Love," a repeat of a 1986 program on December 19.

Please refer to the December schedule in the Village Voice for other programs of interest.

Trading Post

By Irene Cunningham

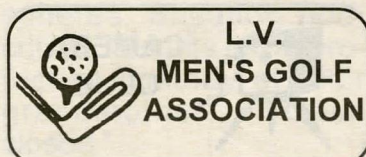

The Trading Post extends sincere thanks to all who donated items and those who purchased them at the October super sale. The outdoor event was well attended as well as a financial success. We cleared over $3,100, bringing our total to date to over $10,200 for the year.

A special thanks to all the volunteers, for without them the whole process could not be carried through.

Our next sale will be on Thursday, December 7, 10:00 a.m. in the AR. We will not have a sale in January as the Club will be attending the Installation Luncheon.

We now have room for new merchandise. If you have any salable items to donate, call for pickup, Betty 484-5606 or Irene 987-2627.

By Herb Warneke

All members of LV Men's Golf Club wish that Jack Whalen was writing this column and that he will have a speedy and complete recovery.

The Club Championship, 36 holes in three flights determined by low gross was played on October 3 and 10. Flight A was tied at 116 between Jerry Orth and Ben Alexander, with Jerry winning an 18 hole playoff. Bill Kidder (121) took the honors in Flight B over Joe Kramer (130). George Dennis won Flight C with a 133, two strokes better than Harry Helmstead.

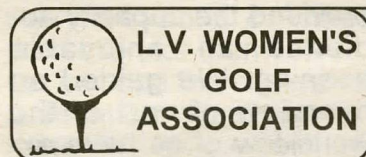

Regulation golf was played at Soule on October 11. Flight A went to Syl Horwald with an excellent gross score of 88. Low net, at 71, to Wayne Wisehart followed by Jerry Orth (74) and Charlie Bellante (76).

David O'Connor won low gross in Flight B scoring 97. Bo Humphrey, recently retired and obviously working on his golf game, won low net with a 69. Tony Gregg shot a 72, one stroke better than Ernie Ohmstedt. Flight C saw Harry Helmstead with a 106 low gross. Stu McGuire and Dave Sohr tied for low net at 76 while Ben Goldberg and Al Walker tied with a net of 77.

Sunday, October 29, had winners in the morning and at the fun filled 19th Hole Party in the afternoon. Jerry Orth's 55 was good for low gross in Flight A. Gene Bookwalter won low net with a 51. Charlie Basile was next (55) one ahead of Chet DiLallo. In Flight B a 61 gave Les Boyd low gross. Tony Gregg with a 53 won low net. Paul Eberle shot 58, one better than Bill Kidder. Charlie Kent (67) won Flight C low gross with George Dennis scoring 52 for low net. George Hess followed at 59.

Halloween costumes were abundant in a decorated Assembly Room. Among the winners were Ann Bellante, the Kents, the Ohmstedts, Joyce Bookwalter, and dozens of others enjoying the festivities.

By La Rue Boynton

The regulation winners of L.V. Women's Golf for October are as follows: Flt. A June Rose, Shige Kuroki, Mary Giesler, Pat Holly, and Freddie Mason. Flt. B Kate Ward, Mike Mancusi, Marty Gregory and Agnes Saltus. Flt. C Lois Kissinger, Evelyn Lacy, Eileen King, and Anna Snyder.

The weekly tournament of October 11 had the following winners: First, the Eighteeners: Flt. A Evelyn Lacy, Eileen Wietz tied for first low net, followed by Shirley Heller, Donna Duke, Irene Cunningham and Mary Giesler. Flt. B Joy Hess, Eileen King, Barbara Pardue and Lois Kissinger. Flt. C Doris Walton, Joan Johnson and Lucille White. Winners for the Niners: Flt. A Lindsey Merrill, Shirley Goldstein, Vicki Scheck and Helen McGinnis. Flt. B Mary Kovack, Helen Sierichs and Millie Worth.

End of the month winners: Eighteeners: Donna Duke shot a 61 gross. For low net there was a three-way tie: Irene Cunningham, 63-10=53; Lois Kissinger 71-18=53, and Shirley Williams 71-18=53.

Niners: Low gross goes to Maria Myers who shot 31B. There was a tie for Roz Golin whose score was 32-10=22B and Nancy Whitaker 33-11=22B.

Because of rain on November 1, the second half of the Medal Play tournament was delayed. The score for that tournament will be reported later.

The lady golfers will be hosting the Holiday Dinner Dance. Lucille White reports that plans for the affair are coming along well. June Dance is working on the decorations. The committee has a fun surprise in store. No, it is not a Santa Claus!

By Margaret Hines

The Rhythmettes have welcomed some new faces, and have the welcome mat out for more new members. Ask Santa to put a kazoo or something that makes music in your stocking.

The next main event to prepare for will be the Village tree trim in the AR December 4 at 3:00. All villagers welcome. Those attending may hang the provided ornaments on the tree, or just sit and watch while waiting for entertainment by the Rhythmettes. Punch and cookies will be provided.

The Rhythmettes' leading song bird Ruth Hart will be leaving the village November 18 with husband Woody to live near their family. The Rhythmettes had a Halloween luncheon October 31 honoring Ruth, and regretting her departure.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH GROUP

By Dorothy Holcomb

The last meeting of the Spiritual Growth Group will be held at the home of Mildred Oberg, 11228 V11 on December 5 at 9:30 a.m. followed by a luncheon. Alma Locke will be the hostess.

Women, be sure to be there as this will be a special occasion. For further information call Dorothy Holcomb, 482-5293.

By Billie Pachter

The Belles of Harmony led the Leisure Village assemblage on Wednesday evening, November 22 at 7:30 p.m., into the chanting of "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come." Thus began the musical program which included the melodies "Thanks Be to God" and "Let All Things Now Living" in the Inter-Faith Thanksgiving service hosted this year by the Jewish faith.

The Belles of Harmony also have a couple of irons in the fire: two performances at the Victorian House starting 2:45 p.m. on Sunday, December 3, and one at the Club Camarillo at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, December 15. Of course the greatest asset is their conductor Lois Bello, and next best is their piano accompanist Esther Kuebler.

If ever you fantasize yourself as a performing female singer, now's your chance to bring some reality into that fantasy. Join the Belles of Harmony. Call Rawza Kramer, pres, 484-7875.

By Selma Lich

The Liedeleers singing group continues to meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 10:30 a.m. in the Lanai Room.

In response to our recruiting campaign, the group has received several inquiries from villagers who are anxious to participate in a bit of musical nostalgia, fun and camaraderie. There are no embarrassing auditions. Very few applicants are turned away. Why not give it a try? You may like it.

Please call 484-8129 for information.

The Leisure Village Orchestra continues to play concerts in several convalescent hospitals in the vicinity. The group played a new one on November 7 at the Victorian on Ralston in Ventura. Readers who wish to come and listen are welcome. These are good opportunities to get a look at the rest homes and convalescent hospitals at which we play. Call Don for a future schedule of convalescent home concerts. One never knows. Any of us may be deeply involved with one of them in the future.

The orchestra rehearses on Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in the MPR. If you are out that way, you are welcome to drop in and listen.

By Sam Weinstein

The October 18 Camera Club program featured Benson Smithkin's slide show of a recent tour of western Turkey. Ben, with his lovely wife Rhoda, visited Istanbul, Bursa, Ankara, Ephesus and the Cappadocia area plus many points in-between. They found (and beautifully photographed) a warm people, many Greek and Roman ruins, native and tourist markets and bazaars, Cappadocia's famous "cave" dwellings and some very interesting plumbing features in their hotel rooms. Ben's excellent slides and narration provided the capacity audience an enjoyable evening. We gained an overview of part of the world few of us have experienced first hand.

Thanks for sharing your Turkish adventure with us, Ben and Rhoda. It is appreciated.

The November 1 meeting was a competition meeting and the judge was John Ferritto of Ventura. John, an old friend of the Camera Club, is a warm, discerning, articulate person and his critiques were thorough and enlightening. He prefers tightly framed compositions and gave us many suggestions on how to crop for maximum affect. He chose the following winners in the assigned category "Seasons": first place and Picture of the Month to Betty Murray for "Winter Heaven", second place to Bill Huffman for "Early Snow at Aztec Ruins" and third place to Duane Waln for "Winter Arcs".

The winners in the open category were: first place and Picture of the Month to Marion Sevren for "Old Plow", second place to Bill Huffman for "Rainbow Dead Ahead" and third place to Betty Murray for "Skier's Heaven". The PoMs will be on display in the Rec Center starting December 1.

The Camera Club established a record for the number of members participating in the Annual Village Art Show held in the AR on November 5. Seventeen members exhibited 42 prints which were assembled, tagged and mounted by our Curator Committee (Jack Burden, Duane Waln and Sam Weinstein). Eight new members contributed and we're grateful for the boost our new members have given us. Our quality is higher, our competitions are tougher and our meetings are more interesting. Join us at our next meeting and see for yourselves. We meet every first and third Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Village Room. Guests are always welcome.

VILLAGE SWINGERS SQUARE DANCE CLUB

By Sig Jaffe

If you thought that the September Square Dance program was exciting, hold on for October! We got in the mood for Halloween with a zany crazy hat dance. Gary Dane, our guest caller, managed to keep a straight face as members paraded with all their inhibitions abandoned, and with hats adorned with all sorts of appendages including feathers, flowers, pins and what nots. Mary Kovach had the largest, most artistic rendition and won the ladies' event while Sig Jaffe made an absolute fool of himself to win the men's contest. Rawza Kramer and Gerry Fuller judged the fiasco.

The Halloween dance was even zanier with witches, clowns, and assorted home made who knows what. This time Gary Dane did not keep a straight face. Mary Kovach again stole the show with a clown floozie costume. You could see through her gown but not her motive. The only problem was that her large red nose kept falling off as she whirled through the round and square dances. Notable mention should be given to Saul Kramer (as far as we could make out) as an obvious male witch and Rawza Kramer as a chorus girl with an extra ornamental costume.

We were happy to welcome Bill Kramer (our regular caller) back after an extensive series of dances at which he called in Mexico, Seattle, and other more local venues. Norm Fuller continued to supplement the dances with his round dance tapes and Hal and Minna Hudson supervised the refreshment activities along with their committees.

LV ROUND DANCE

By Bob Vanicek

The last "gig" performed by the Round Dance Club was at the Fourth-Of-July celebration in the picnic area. For our latest round dance activity, we were glad to "strut our stuff" in the AR for the Bocce Club on October 26.

Our instructor, Al Siegel, is recovering satisfactorily from surgery but will remain "off his dancing feet" until December. We miss his teaching expertise, but in the meanwhile the Intermediates continue Sunday morning classes, practicing and playing popular classics. The mid-week no-teach workshops will proceed on an intermittent basis until Al returns to take the reins.

Watch Channel 12 for specific times on Sundays when we pursue our terpsichorean goals. You'll find us in either the AR or MPR. You are most welcome to watch!

SATURDAY NIGHT BALLROOM DANCE

Anne Janoff

The regular Saturday Night Ballroom dance will be tomorrow evening, November 25. This will be a good time for all us "feasters anonymous," who indulged in sumptuous Thanksgiving overeating to dance away some of those excess calories that the holiday table provided. The preceding dance on November 11 was hosted by Robert and Edith Vanicek.

To give the holiday spirit an early start, on December 9, the Saturday Night Ballroom Dance Committee will host their annual Gala Christmas Dance with live music by the popular Keith Shaw Trio. This is always a very festive occasion with special refreshments, decor and villagers in party attire, enjoying the good cheer of the approaching season. Tickets for this dance may be pre-purchased on the usual days. Monday and Friday, 9:00 a.m. to noon and Wednesday, 1-4:00 p.m. in the Lobby. Donation. $3.00 per person.

As always. during this time of the year, many villagers have relatives and guests visiting. We welcome and encourage all to come and share in the enjoyment of our dance evenings. Regular dances. 8-11:00 p.m. in the A.R., only fifty-cents per person. Coffee, tea, punch. ice available. BYOB.

The next dance will be on Saturday, December 23 to usher in the traditional Christmas Holiday festivities. Plan to attend.

PLAYERS GUILD

By Irv Goodnick

Forget the old show biz adage, "break a leg!" It is now "break a record!" And we did! Players Guild membership has broken the 400 barrier and attendance has been over 300 for the past four months. And why not? Even the business part of the meetings gets some good laughs and the workshop programs have been sensational.

Helen Gold's "Dancin' Says It All", presented at our October meeting, was a cavalcade of dance styles that had the audience tapping along. We sure have some terrific talent in our Village.

There is no meeting in December. But mark this on your calendar: Annual Holiday Dessert Party on

Susan Edwards

December 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the A.R. Luscious, tempting sweets followed by a terrific program starring Susan Edwards. This singer, musician, actress and delightful comedienne has appeared on Broadway, TV and night clubs. At $5.00 it's an unbelievable buy. Tickets are limited to the first 200 MEMBERS ONLY.

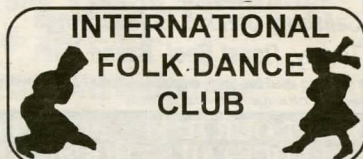

"ART RECYCLING"

By Louise Waln

The ORIGAMI group (sponsored by Ceramics Plus Club) will meet again on Friday afternoons in January in the Ceramics Room. They will appreciate having your used Hanukkah, Christmas and other holiday cards and 1995 calendars to recycle into boxes. Bookmarks for your use will also be made. They're always available in the LV Library.

Leave cards/calendars on Louise Waln's porch (28204 Village 28) or in the library with her name on them. Many thanks!

Come join the group and learn to make Origami boxes and gifts!

INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCE CLUB

By Florence Friedman

General meeting of the International Folk Dance Club will be Monday, January 3, 1996. Election of new officers will take place. Meetings are held every other month, board meeting is December 29 at 10:30 a.m.

Dance times are Monday 12:30-1:30 p.m. for beginners, 1:30-3:00 p.m. for regular class; Wednesday 9:00-10:30 a.m. review and new dances; Friday 9:00-10:30 a.m. continuous dancing.

Beginners are welcome. Join and participate.

GEM AND MINERAL CLUB

By Don Holmes

At the Gem and Mineral Club meeting in October, villager Dale Brown, an industrial chemist, talked on Rare Earths. This is the stuff that glows under the x-rays when your doctor is looking at your innards. We used to have a radio set. Do you remember radio? TV without pictures? This set had a round glowing thing looking at you which opened and closed its pattern as you tuned in a station. This was actually the top end of a tube which was coated on the inside with one of the rare earths. The electronics inside made the pattern of the glowing end change with the tuning of the set. This was really rather neat, but

BILLIARD CLUB

By Irene Cunningham

The Billiard Club is saddened by the passing of our first President, Jim Dobbins. He founded the Club in 1981, with 27 members. He has always been a staunch supporter and a great promoter of the game.

On a lighter note, our Holiday Installation Dinner Dance will be held December 3, in the AR. We will have live music, good it went out when radio tubes went out and digital tuning came in. The annual Gem and Mineral Club dinner, which will be catered, will be held on December 8 in the MPR combined with the Christmas party.

food and the promise of a good time. If you are reading this and you don't have a ticket, run to the Billiard Room bulletin board for more details. You may be too late.

The L.V. Food Distribution drive is under way. Let us support the needy in L.V. A box for donations is in the Billiard Room.

Edith Dowsing thanked her phone committee: Eunice Donahue, Liz Sullivan, Adele Weiner and Phyllis Yablun. Happy Birthday wishes were sung to ten October celebrants. Lucky prize winners were Emil Sitka, Irene Cunningham, Barbara Ohmstedt, Tony Gregg, Russ Sievert and Gilda Kiep. Kay Gregg and Joy Uess served donuts furnished by the club and the liquid refreshments were donated by Jack Myers and Ginny Dunnion.

Las Posas Care Homes

Assisted Living In The Jewish Tradition

Las Posas Care Homes are residential care facilities for the elderly and the only Jewish personal care homes in Ventura County (with the cooperation of the Jewish Elderhome of Ventura County, a California non-profit corporation).

These quiet residences include observance of Jewish holidays, Shabbat, Jewish cultural and community events, as well as "Jewish Home Style Kosher" meals.

Facilities are provided for independent, frail or non-ambulatory residents. Both private and shared accommodations are available.

INDOOR OUTDOOR GARDEN CLUB

LV Garden Club

By Doris Achterkirchen

The LV Garden Club will hold its annual holiday luncheon on December 14 at the Los Posas Country Club. The menu will include a delicious turkey salad garnished with walnuts and grapes, followed by chocolate cheese cake. Hospitality hour at 11:30 will be followed by lunch at 12:30. The cost is $13.50.

Officers for the coming year will be installed: Rosalie Ashburn and Georgia Griswold, co-presidents; Claire Sortomme, Jean Seward, and Ginny Muff, 1st vice-presidents; Aileen Chuck, Alice Hinig and Mariette Pluim, 2nd vice-presidents; Marion Sanders, secy.; and Hazel Sheridan, treas.

This will be the culmination of a very successful year with many interesting and informative programs. The LV home tour was a big success as was the development of the Gazebo Garden.

The next meeting of the Club will be held on Thursday, January 11, 1996 at 10:00 a.m. in the MPR.

SELF AWARENESS

By Maxine Fritz

The Self Awareness Group meets on Mondays in the Lanai from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. All interested villagers are welcome. A workshop with Joy Sanders of Kay's Nutrition in Simi meets on the second and fourth Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Sun Room. The current topic is "The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success" by Deepak Chopra, M.D., as well as Alternative Health.

Listening is considered the most vital skill in any relationship. It is also true in the relationship with one's self. Learning to listen to our own thoughts, inner feelings and body can greatly enhance this skill.

CERAMIC MOLD DECORATORS CLUB

By Pepper Heimowitz

Members of the Ceramic Mold Decorators Club wish a Happy Thanksgiving weekend to all villagers and their families.

Once again the ladies looked forward to the annual Arts and Crafts Show held on November 5. We thank all who visited our display table. Your kind comments about the ceramics we showed were appreciated. Thanks to Marion Jayne for inviting us for this event.

Ceramics projects for Christmas gifts are now being worked on.

All Leisure Village residents are more than welcome to visit our workshop every Wednesday from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Ceramic Room.

The next meeting will be on December 6, at 12:45 p.m. in the Ceramic Room.

THE SAWDUSTERS CLUB

By Martin Alfred

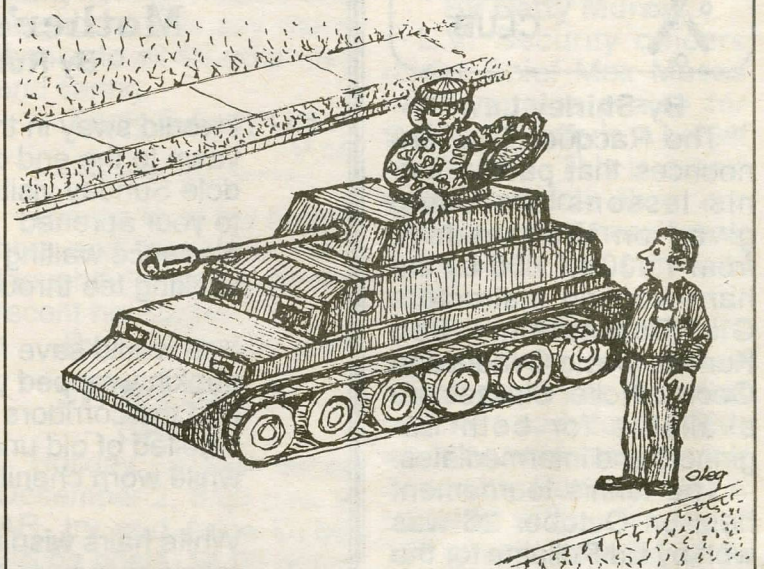

Sawdusters once again stepped forward to assist the Village in its many activities. About four dozen toys and games which were made over the past few months were donated to the Women's Club for sale at its Bazaar, and all were sold. The Women's Club is noted for putting these funds to good use in the Village and the community.

Ernie Ohmstedt informed the Board that the rickety Garden Room card tables could be repaired at practically no cost, saving a considerable amount of money, and with the help of Chuck Wolfe and yours truly, the job was promptly completed on fourteen tables.

Interested in woodworking for good causes? Come join us on the third Thursday of each month at 2:30 p.m. in the Lanai Room.

RACQUET CLUB

By Shirley Law

The Racquet Club announces that paddle tennis lessons are being given on Wednesdays from 11:30 to 1:00 by the hard-working instructors Gil Borenstein, Bob Kumler, David Ovadia and George Nolte. Classes are available for both beginners and intermediates.

The tennis tournament held on October 26 was won by Ed Pollaine for the first match and by Jimmy Wolf in the second match. Congratulations! Tournaments for November were canceled because of the holidays.

Installation of new officers will take place on Wednesday, December 13, 7:30 p.m. in the MPR, and will be followed by the annual wine and cheese party. This will be a "must attend" meeting.

Parkinson's Support Group

By R. L. Brackenbury

In the most recent issue of "Parkinson NPF Report," specialist Dr. Cheryl Waters writes:

"The single most important action a patient with complicated disease can do is to join a support group. In some centers there are separate groups for caregivers (usually spouses). The benefits of joining support groups are many: participants share information about the disease and learn about new books, new aids to daily living, and new services available in the community. Participants also gain psychological support from the camaraderie of the group, sharing ways in which they successfully dealt with difficult situations. The groups form a way for patients and their families to talk among themselves about the more difficult aspects of the disease — the fatigue,

Mother's Mother

By Ruth Brott

I would sway in the street car, yawn to the end of the line,
dole Sunday visits
to your aproned
presence waiting there, sucking tea through sugar lumps.

You would save for me stale cubes, napkin wrapped yellow sponge cake,
and the corridors painted mustard
smelled of old urine, while worn chenille cloaked each bed.

White hairs wisping under your religious auburn smooth wig, you swayed over your crumbling siddur
pretending to read
but the ancient words tumbled from your memories. You once gave me ten fruit filled candies, last Passover's hoard,

blotched, napkin-stuck.
I spit them all out,
hoping you would not notice.

Raspberry seeds caught in my teeth
like old Aramaic chants.
You stroked my hair,
murmured to me
in your steerage tongue.
My answers were all New World.

When you died, they napkined you,
put you into a plain box.
Mourning decades late,
I piled on your stone
ten amber pebbles
hoping you would understand.

Notes on "Mother's Mother":

"Religious auburn smooth wig" - It is customary for Orthodox Jewish young women to shave their heads on their wedding day and from that time forward to appear in public with a cloth headcovering or a wig. This to insure that their most seductive feature, their hair, not be seen by men other than their own husbands.

"Crumbling siddur" - Siddur is the Hebrew word for "prayerbook."

"Aramaic chants" - Aramaic was the native speech of the Jews about the time of Christ. The Kiddish prayer for the dead, except for one stanza, is composed of Aramaic.

"Ten amber pebbles" - It is customary to place a stone or a pebble on the gravestone of a loved one to signify to the spirit of the deceased that you have paid a visit.

the disability, perhaps the sexual dysfunction — with the support group providing a setting that the family could not achieve on its own. Also, support groups can invite speakers and seek information, allowing awareness of therapy that is newly available or that will be marketed in the near future."

Sounds like a description of our local village support group activities.

If you are interested in participating in such activities, join us at 10:00 a.m. the second Wednesday of the month; in the Village Room. For more information, call Milton Dixon, pres. (388-1320).

Camarillo Health Care District

The stated mission of the Camarillo Health Care District is to meet the health care needs of district residents by promoting, coordinating, integrating, and managing quality health related services.

The Health Care District has services which can answer the needs of Leisure Villagers in a number of ways.

LIFELINE is a 24 hour in-home emergency response system enabling individuals to remain in their homes and to be able to call for help with the touch of a button. Monitoring is done by Lifeline Central.

FOOT CARE CLINIC provides quality foot care to persons unable to cut their own toenails due to vision, back or leg problems. A doctor's authorization is needed for this service. Included is a warm foot bath and a leg and foot massage.

COMPANIONS is a service that provides personal care in the home, designed to help the caregiver meet some of the custodial needs of a functionally impaired adult as well as assist the adult living alone. Companions are independent contractors who are carefully screened and experienced in providing home health care services.

Some Health Care District services are free, others have a fee. Please call 388-1952 for specific details. Volunteers would be gratefully accepted.

Bill Blauer, member of L.V. Board of Directors, is liaison to the Camarillo Health Care District and can answer questions.

CAMARILLO CLINIC HELPS RECOVERING STROKE AND T.I.A. VICTIMS

The clinic helps clients in a remarkably effective way with Motion Therapeutics, a breakthrough technology that uses gentle, full-body, antigravity and rotational motion (in a special individualized program). It facilitates the increase of brain vitality and readiness to think and perform effectively; it improves fluency, word-retrieval and other speaking skills, as well as reading skills, in recovering stroke and T.I.A. victims.

The motion is produced by patented equipment, and is experienced, by the comfortably reclining client, as deeply relaxing, yet arousing and strengthening.

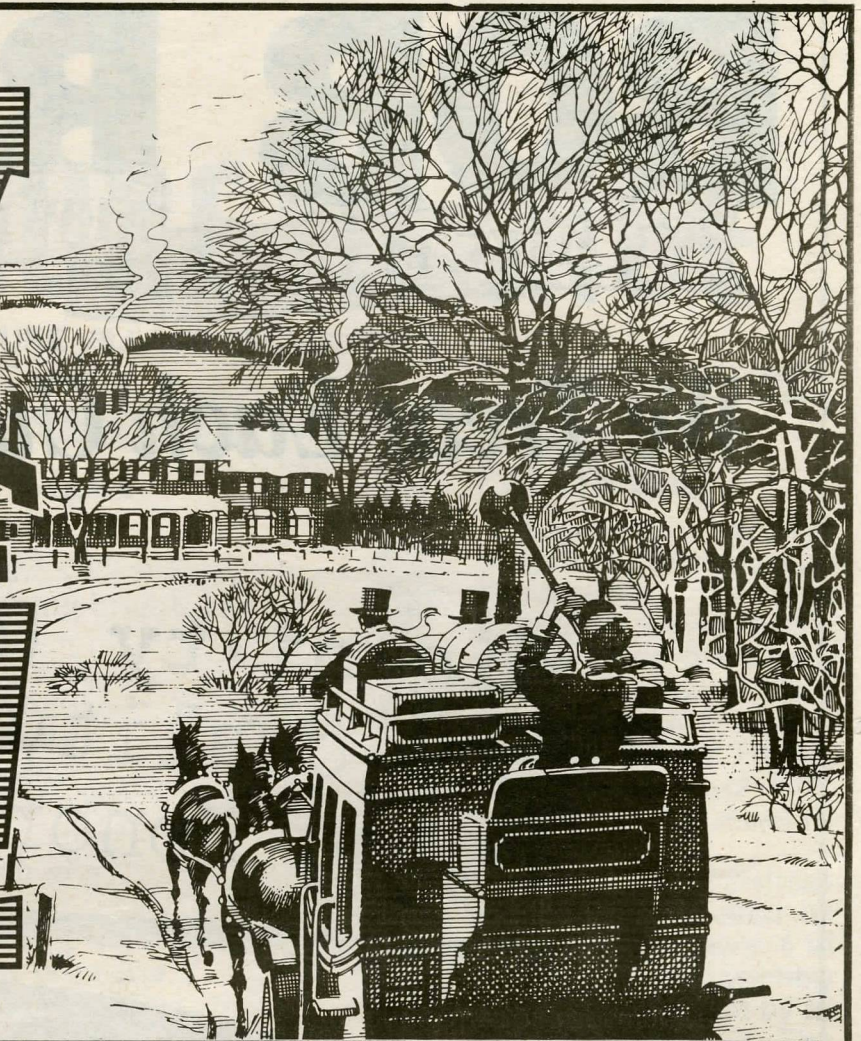

Ann Bloom, of Leisure Village, ready to experience multi-directional motion at Kerner Motion Therapeutics

Scientists theorize that certain anti-gravity motions calm and soothe the nervous system while certain rotational motions produce arousal and readiness to think and perform, through their different effects on the brain and nervous system.

When these precisely orchestrated motions are experienced, virtually simultaneously, without participant thought or effort, over and over continuously, a toning and balancing of the nervous system can result that facilitates a state of increased brain vitality and readiness to think and perform effectively. It is this state that supports the goals of therapy: the strengthening of the brain and nervous-system pathways disrupted by the stroke or T.I.A. -- through individualized thinking and language training that completes and perfects the profound effects of the motion.

Kerner Motion Therapeutics maintains a TOLL-FREE, 24-hour information line so that readers can learn more about Motion Therapeutics. Call 1-800-796-5555. A sliding scale makes treatment affordable at Kerner Motion Therapeutics, 155 Granada St., Suite "O", Camarillo, CA 93010, (805) 383-3141.
