Cadillac sit-in: 107

By GEOFFREY LINK

For the second weekend in a row, civil rights demonstrators sat-in on a plush showcase of the leisure class—first the Sheraton-Palace hotel and last weekend the Van Ness Cadillac agency.

The Cadillac sit-in netted 107 arrests (167 went to jail for the Sheraton-Palace melee). This was the culmination of a three-week picketing campaign of the NAACP.

The chanting, singing picketers were carted off by police who kept a stream of paddy wagons going between Cadillac and the jail for nearly one and a half hours.

A two-week moratorium on direct action sit-in demonstrations was reached several

An abortion law query to circulate

Questionnaires to evaluate SF State opinion about proposed "humane abortion laws" will be distributed in the cafeteria today between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Pat Maginnis, president of the Citizens Committee for Humane Abortion Laws will be distributing the forms in "hope of measuring public attitude and arousing public interest in the proposed Beilenson Abortion Act to amend the 1850 abortion laws."

A similar census was taken in psychology classes at San Jose State College last week.

Miss Maginnis and her committee, which includes Alan Guttmacher, M.D., author of "Babies By Choice or By Chance" and other books dealing with birth control, have been working on means of facilitating passage of an amendment for the past three years.

Student couple die in crash

Death ended a pledge acceptance dance and a two-month romance for two SF State students, John Watson, 21, and Diane Anderson, 19, Saturday night when Watson's sports car went out of control on the Great Highway.

The couple had been at the Sigma Pi Sigma pledge acceptance dance.

While driving Miss Anderson to her home in the Sunset District, at about 1:30 a.m., the car struck a curbing, flipped over and smashed into the side of a public restroom building, careened ahead and crashed into the concrete seawall. Watson had been driving over 65 miles an hour, according to po-hours after the arrests. Local civil rights leaders and Mayor John Shelley agreed to the truce.

The NAACP, which organized the protest, has charged that Cadillac employs only nine Negroes of its 260 total local employment.

Cadillac spokesmen so far have offered no local employment figures. They only mention General Motor's employment on a national scale.

At 11 a.m. Saturday, demonstrators began gathering at the car agency. By 11:30 nearly 250 picketers were jamming the sidewalks in front of Cadillac.

But unlike the Sheraton-Palace protest, these demonstrators were not nearly all students. Only 60 of the 107 arrested said they were students.

There were 23 Negroes arrested. At the Sheraton-Palace, only nine Negroes were booked. Several teachers went to jail, including James Leigh, SF State English instructor.

At 1 p.m. Dr. Thomas Burbridge, local head of the NAACP, led about 200 demonstrators inside the plush showroom. They marched chanting around the $7,000 Cadillacs on display inside.

Then William V. McDonald, branch manager for Cadillac, said:

"I want you to know that our building is not open to demonstrations or other activities. Accordingly, I ask you to leave."

Police Captain Martin Lee told the crowd inside:

"We must ask you to disperse, and further caution you that we will make arrests."

Burbridge told his group they wouldn't all be bailed out. At that, about half of them went back outside.

Then came the arrests. Dr. Burbridge was among the first to go. There was little resistance, compared to the Sheraton-Palace. Many people walked out escorted by policemen.

Arrested pickets were charged with disturbing the peace, unlawful assembly, failure to disperse and trespassing.

Bail was set at $332 each, except for three demonstrators who resisted arrest—their bail was set at $442. Later bail was reduced to $110. Those who resisted arrest were released for $220.

All demonstrators were out of jail by 9 p.m.

One of the demonstrators said there were rumors that the next tactic would be a shop-in, and Cadillac was offering free demonstration rides.

Encore changes film

"Come Back Africa," featuring Miriam Makeba, will replace the scheduled Encore film "Blue Angel" tonight at 7:30 p.m. in ED 117. Ticket holders will be entitled to a refund if desired.

'Anti-picket' pickets organize in protest

An organization opposing the demonstration tactics of the Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination has been formed on campus.

It is called the Committee of Fifteen and is opposed to civil rights demonstrations of any type in San Francisco.

They warn if there are any more picket lines thrown up in San Francisco to protest job discrimination, they intend to picket these picket lines.

Paul Hartley, spokesman for the committee, sees nothing incongruous about this.

"Our picket lines are going to represent an entirely different principle," he said.

The Committee of Fifteen is not completely opposed to demonstrations. Hartley said that if all legal recourses have been exhausted, then demonstrations might be the only way.

But first, every effort should be made to sit down and work the problem out peacefully within the limits of the law, he added.

"With a good number of SF State students participating in these civil rights demonstrations, many students from this college are becoming humiliated."

"We have to take these tactics to salvage our self-respect. We want to show the people of this community that we are not in the same class as some of our fellow students," Hartley said.

'Do-nothing' legislature?

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a two part series offering an incisive look into the activities and accomplishments of the AS Legislature).

By TED BRAZIL

Is the 1963-64 Associated Student Legislature really a "do-nothing" legislature?

A look at its record thus far would seem to support such an assumption. The current legislature took office in April of 1963. Since that time the legislature which has come out of the legislature office has totaled only 20 bills and four resolutions.

Members of the legislature spend their time arguing among themselves. The meetings often appear to have a club meeting atmosphere.

Individual legislators blame the legislature's disorganization and apparent lack of unity on Speaker Bill Burnett and his drive for the AS presidency.

"Burnett has to do everything himself," said one legislator. "He doesn't delegate responsibility."

"Bill's afraid to do anything," said another. "He's afraid that he might alienate some group and it might hurt his campaign for President."

This semester the legislature has attempted to streamline its operation. A system of committees has been set up to handle the flow of legislation. A new set of rules have been developed to establish a pattern of procedure for the general meetings.

At the last meeting members of the legislature spent nearly 20 minutes arguing with Burnett over an interpretation of the rule. Ignoring the rules set up only two meetings before, Speaker Burnette finally over-ruled the legislators.

According to Burnett, the legislature's "primary job is to allocate a budget and to set financial policy of the Associated Students and other policies which might affect the lives. Both died immediately.

Miss Anderson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, was a nursing major at State and a member of Alpha Chi Alpha sorority. She worked part-time for a doctor while going to school.

Watson, a junior and graduate of Lincoln High, was an Industrial Arts major and when a freshman at State was voted the most valuable player on the JV basketball team.

Last semester Watson was the vice president of the fraternity.

Sigma Pi will be in an official mourning period this week.

AS petitions still open

Elections handbooks and petitions for spring's AS elections may be picked up in Hut T-1 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. today. Final deadline is 12 noon tomorrow.

Students running for office are expected to acquaint themselves with the procedures outlined in the handbooks. Those drawing petitions must indicate which office they are running for on a sign-up sheet in Hut T-1.

All executive and legislative positions are open to election.

Burnett feels that the legislature is not the campus organ which should represent student opinions to the off-campus world.

"For all practical purposes the Golden Gater is the institution on campus which probably has the most effect," he said.

"A resolution from the AS Legislature has its effect mainly on campus . . . As for the Muni and things of this type, we don't have illusions that a legislature resolution will affect the results. The campus newspaper is the best and most flexible in presenting student opinion."

Burnett has threatened to enforce his position in Thursday's meeting. Several legislators have drawn up a resolution stating that the Ad Hoc Committee doesn't represent the entire student body of SF State.

Burnett has told the legislators that he will rule the resolution out of order. He stated that the resolution is not of importance to the campus.

Anyone for president?

THE LONELY LEGISLATOR WALKED into the Associated Students Legislative Office. "Where is everybody?" he asked, spying a secretary.

"WHO, THE LEGISLATORS?" she asked. "They are all out campaigning to get elected president or something. I'm not really sure."

"NO," SAID THE LL, "I mean where have they been all year?"

"I don't know," replied the secretary. "The only time I know they are here is when they are arguing about the minutes of last year's meeting."

"NO WONDER I HAVEN'T been able to find anyone to legislate with," said the LL.

"Too bad," said the secretary.

"Yes," said the LL with a faraway look. "I can't even veto myself because I don't form a quorum."

"WELL, ACTUALLY SPEAKING," said the secretary, "there are some legislators around. But right now they are busy making up offices to give to campaign workers when they get elected and building collapsible platforms they can put away after the elections."

"GEE," SAID THE LL, "it sounds like they all think they got a sure thing. There must be no competition."

"There isn't any competition," said the secretary. "It is really a walkaway. The voting is just a formality."

"HOW COME NO ONE ELSE runs for office?" said the LL, a little perplexed.

"All precedent," said the secretary. "These guys have such a lockup on all the student offices that all the other students think it is a private club. They don't know that any qualified student can file a petition to run for office by tomorrow."

"BY THEN IT WILL BE ALL OVER. The same people who have been here forever will have their names on the ballot and then it will be too late for anyone else to run."

"DO YOU THINK ANYBODY new will run this year?" he asked.

"NAW," SAID THE SECRETARY. "No one cares."

Castro's Cuba film shown here today

"Inside Castro's Cuba," the first and only full-length all-color documentary on Cuba under Castro will be shown today at 12:30 in the Main Auditorium.

Photographed and narrated by free-lance photographer Robert Cohen, this film presents the American audiences a first-hand film report of what is going on in Cuba.

Cohen went to Cuba on a valid U.S. passport last summer for the express purpose of producing this motion picture.

Included in the film are scenes depicting the effects of the American quarantine on the Cuban people.

Tickets are on sale at the AS Business Office, Hut T-1, for 25 cents for students, faculty and alumni, and 75 cents for the general public.

Music, art and drama

Contemporary Art Festival plans set

Preparations for SF State's Contemporary Arts Festival are now in progress.

"Each year we will continually try to improve," said Claire Salop, Festival adviser.

"Some of the new programs that will be added to this year's art festival," she said, include original student plays and films, and what used to be just portions of programs, such as dance, last year are destined to become full-fledged programs this year."

Last year was the first time a student art exhibit as well as readings of student poetry and certain dance performances were included. She explained how the pieces of student art were judged.

A jury containing professional people such as Alexander Fried, critic for the San Francisco Examiner, and George Culler, director of the San Francisco Museum of Art, selected the objects of art they thought deserved special recognition and awarded them first, second, and third prize ribbons.

"What we thought would be a student art exhibit of about 50 entries," she said, reached a final total of 432 pieces." She added, "After the judging occurred last year, a second viewing of all the art entries was accomplished by an Associated Students Purchase Prize Committee."

This committee consisted of students, with some faculty members, and they awarded $400 in prize money as they will do in the forthcoming student art festival.

The festival will occupy almost every available space on campus.

A tentative date for this year's festival has been set for April 20-May 3. However, the highlights of the exhibits will probably occur on the weekend of April 23-26.

Two events which have been definitely approved are:

What Is a Jew?

Who are these people who call themselves Jews—a race, a nation, or a religious group? It is obvious that there are dark skinned, light skinned, Chinese, and Russian Jews. Today Judaism the religion is torn into many factions. There are orthodox Jews who follow the Torah as interpreted by the Talmud and other commentaries. There are conservative Jews who feel they have a happy medium, and there are liberal Jews who believe that they have brought the faith up-to-date.

The history of the Jewish people can be traced back at least 4000 years. No race or nation has endured such persecution and dispersion, and yet retained their basic identity. In race and religion the Jews share a common root, and this root is described in the Old Testament record. Jewish Scholars and Christians agree that the Old Testament is the best history of the Jews, and the best source of information on their origin and faith.

"Now the Lord said to Abram, Get thee out of thy country and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee, and make thy name great; and though shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse them that curse thee: and in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed." Gen. 12:1-3.

God's promise to Abraham was to be fulfilled through the line of descent of one particular son, Isaac, and one particular son of Isaac, Jacob. Jacob's name was changed to Israel (Hebrew for: "God strives") which was to Israel, symbolic of the spiritual truth of God's selection of a chosen people:

"And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and men, and hast prevailed." Gen. 32:28.

The descendants of Jacob, then, constitute the chosen people of God, Israel.

"O, ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones." I Chron. 16:13.

The nation Israel was raised up to affirm and teach that there is but one God. While the rest of the world was idolatrous, God revealed Himself repeatedly to the Jews and dealt with them in a unique way. The Jews as God's chosen people were entrusted with the Holy Scriptures. Holy men of God, devout Jews, spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit, resulting in the Bible we have today. It is believed that only Luke was not a Jew.

The Jewish race was also the race into which the Saviour of mankind, Jesus Christ, was born. The lineage of Christ can be traced back to David and Abraham (Matt. 1; Luke, 3:28-288).

The Jews were and still are a chosen people of God. Today Jesus Christ welcomes Jews and Gentiles alike to become members of His invisible church, the body of believers. Any Jew or any Gentile who accepts Jesus Christ as personal Saviour will immediately become a Christian and know the joy of salvation and a close bond with the one true, living God who has never changed, and is the same Jehovah (or Yahweh) that the Jews worshipped in Old Testament times. "What then? Are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God." Rom 3:9-11.

"For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Rom. 10:12-13.

Thinclads battle Wolfpack in FWC opener Saturday

By TED BRAZIL

The Gator thinclads will get their first taste of Far Western Conference action this Saturday when they host the University of Nevada.

In their final warm-up meet of the season last Saturday the Gators were drubbed 84½-

RECORD SETTER—John Hyatt, who already has broken two college records this season, heads the powerful Gator swim team that meets Cal today.

SF nine plays USF today

Bolstered by a needed assist from Mother Nature, the Gators play the University of San Francisco Dons today at 1:30 p.m. in an on-campus game.

Friday's game with the Dons was cancelled because of wet grounds, a result of Thursday's rain. The cancellation came at a time when SF State faced the prospect of six games in eight days.

In order to avoid an over-worked pitching staff, coach Bob Rodrigo planned to either split the work between Terry Christman and Mike Campas, or give Wes Greenwood or John Walker a chance to go the distance against the Dons.

The Dons have beat State four of the last five times the teams have met. In 1963, USF 54½ by Westmont College.

Nevada suffered its first FWC defeat in four years last Saturday when the Cal Aggies handed the Wolfpack an 85-55 pasting.

Sprinter Rich Osborne was the big gun for the Gators against the Westmont tracksters as he dominated the sprints.

Osborne took first place honors in the 100-yard dash with a 10.3 clocking and repeated again in the 220 with a time of 23.6.

San Francisco showed surprising strength in the field events for the first time all season. The Gators managed to collect three first place ribbons in the field events.

John Harvey turned in the best performance when he copped first place in the broadjump with a leap of 22-6 1/4. Teammate Jimmy Crum finished second.

Mike Parker collected a first place ribbon for his toss of 50-1/4 in the shotput. Gator defeated the Gators 4-2, 5-3 and 3-1, losing the fourth game 7-6.

USF beat the Gators in their only meeting this year, 13-2, on March 5. Greenwood,

Matmen qualify

Three SF State wresltlers, George McNeal, Jerry Schiffman and Jim Reed, took second place over the weekend in the Regional Finals at Chico State and qualified for the National Finals later this month.

Full details will appear in tomorrow's sports page.

Fred Eschenhorst was third.

San Francisco also finished first in the pole vault with a below-par 12-foot jump.

The most hotly-contested field event was the triple jump. Westmont College took first place with a jump of 43-6 3/4, but Crum was close behind with a mark of 43 feet. John Harvey finished third with 42-1/2.

Crum and Harvey proved to be the ironmen for the Gators Saturday as each man placed in three events.

Harvey picked up a third place in the 120-high hurdles, a first in the broadjump and a third in the triple jump. Crum finished second in the 100-yard dash, the broadjump and in the triple jump.

Bob Dolton turned in the best race of the afternoon for the Gators with a 1:58.3 clocking in the 800.

Team captain John McClurg came within three feet of winning his specialty—the 440—with a time of 51.0.

SocScis prepare for Waterloo

The Social Science Sluggers will get a chance to back up all their hot-winded boasting this afternoon when they meet the Golden Gater Yellowpapers in a grudge softball game at 4 p.m. on the Women's Recreation Field.

The Gater was challenged because George Outland and his crew thought the publicity they were getting throughout the semester was biased and unfair.

Coach Jerry Littrell of the Yellowpapers has announced a starting line-up consisting of "nine of the most powerful hitters and deft fielders on the campus today."

"We have two girls playing—to bolster our defense as well as morale," Littrell stated.

When informed of the fact that girls and other "ringers" were being used by the Gater, Outland said, "They can play anybody they want. We are so great they can't possibly beat us."

Starting lineups for the two teams:

Gater	SSS
Littrell, P	Hirabayashi
Cheney, C	Sumner
Werthimer, Ib	Silbey
Salgado, 2b	Whitaker
Fuselier, 3b	Mason
Anderson, SS	Kinch

Fell pitches no-hitter to pace JV baseballers to first win

The SF State junior varsity baseball team shutout the visiting Berkeley High School Yellowjackets, 4-0, behind the no-hit pitching of Ron Fell.

The game was called because of rain after four and one-half innings. As it was a regulation seven inning game, enough innings were played

Wrestlers signup

Today is the final day for interested persons to sign up for the Men's Intramural Weightlifting Tournament for spring semester competition.

Weigh-ins will be at the cage near the lockers in the Men's Gymnasium from 12 noon to 1 p.m.

Applications will also be issued at that time.

Ping-Pongers still have about one week to sign up for intramural play.

for the Gators to gain the win.

Fell struck out nine men as coach Bob Mansfield's Gators combined both good pitching and hitting for the first time this season.

The Gators scored in the first inning when Hiroshi Sakamoto walked just before Bob Ignoffo blasted a triple to left-center field.

Ignoffo eventually scored on a wild pitch to give the Gators a 2-0 lead. That was all the scoring Fell needed but the Gators added some insurance runs in the fourth inning.

Johnny Welton opened the inning with a single, stole second and then came home on a single by Sakamoto, putting the Gators ahead, 3-0.

Sakamoto eventually scored on a single by Bub Bresnahan giving the Gators their final tally and revenge for an 8-6 loss to the Yellowjackets last week.
