Dear Jane:

I hope you can know how deeply grateful I am for the confidence and support you gave me in Los Angeles.

That will remain my most enduring and satisfying memory, with no regrets at all about it -- except that there is no adequate way of thanking you and the others who went so far beyond the bounds of gallantry in your action.

I am preparing to campaign actively for the ticket, and have been assured that I will be able to spend some considerable time in California. Perhaps our paths will cross so that I can thank you in person for all you have done for me -- and for so long.

Cordially,

Adlai
