Applications for admittance to the California State Maritime Academy next fall are now being accepted, Capt. Claude Mayo, superintendent of the Academy announced yesterday. The academy, located at Morro Cove, Vallejo, trains young Californians for officer positions in the United States Merchant Marine.

Competitive examinations will be given in May at the academy for entrance in September, 1945. Applicants must be between 17 years, 8 months, and 23 years at the time the September class forms.

Upon completion of the two-year course cadet-midshipmen will be graduated as third mates or third engineers with commissions as ensigns in the United States Maritime Service.
