

San Luis Obispo County gram-Tribune

PHONE LI 3-1901

YESTERDAY'S PAID

FLAPPER GIRLS... That's the name of a one-act play ready for a curtain call Friday at 8:15 p.m. in the San Luis Obispo Junior high school auditorium. Here members of the cast line up for a "Miss Flapper Girl of 1927" contest. Shown from left to right, standing, are ninth grade dramatic class members: Annazette Williams, Melva Walker, Judy Donati and Patricia Moss, left to right, Nilene Moss, Carolyn Bettencourt, Suzanne Adams and Kathleen

Junior High To Recall Flapper Era

A "Flapper Girl Contest of 1927" and resultant problems are highlighted in a one-act two-scene play to be staged at the San Luis Obispo junior high school auditorium Friday at 8 p.m.

The play, "Flapper Girls," features an all girl cast from the ninth grade dramatic class.

It is directed by dramatics coach Robert L. Sigerson who is assisted by band director Robert Aitken and vocal music director Donald Patrick.

The play is built around the contest race between pretty, attractive 18-year-old Linda Brighton, candidate of the Flapper Girls society; and Crystal Corwin, the richest girl in town, who has ideas along the same line. Dolly Brighton, younger sister of the Flapper society entry, steps in and enlivens the proceedings with "astounding results," according to director Sigerson.

Also on the program for the evening are three numbers by the band, "Processional," "Bendermeers Stream" and "Great Gates of Kiev;" a yo-yo demonstration by Linda Garland, Jerry Greenelsh and Bill Greenelsh; a guitar solo by Pat Adams; an accordion solo by Jerry Greenelsh with Annazette Williams dancing the Charleston; and the ninth grade ensemble in three numbers, "Five Foot Two, Ja-Da, and Just a Dream of You." The band will then again perform with "When You Wish Upon a Star," "The Velvet Glove," "The Old Spinning Wheel," and "The Luminary March."

Piano accompanist is Mr. Richard Weins; properties, Robert (Turn to Page Two)

S T
By Ar
fre
of
T

Pe
Bil
Lit

SA
The a
sion t
bill to litical
panies,
terests
for pub
You 100 to
dors, o
selves,
become

Even
ure, as Rees (D
chances o
sim.

"I had
session st
"But it's times it l
tree. They ness."

To begin
provided f
closure of a tions receive
how they
state law r
disclosure.

E-1034
America
unmake
saw
reaction center
ed 61
be Adams

JUNIOR HIGH REMEMBERS ERA

(Continued from Page One)

ert Sigerson; stage sets, Loren Burkhart and Dave Girard; costumes, Mrs. Ruth Morgan; lighting and sound, Edmund Rose;
stage crew, Dale Salyer, Robert Romo and Roger Johnson; make up, Mrs. Ethel Nereson and Mrs.
Marie Russell; program, Mrs. Ola Mae Barto, Suzanne Dodd, Burton Covel, Pat Hendersen and Susan Parker Hall; publicity, Kenneth Wood, Sharon Boysen, Pat Hendersen and Susan Reis;
and usherettes, Pat Hendersen, Susan Reis, Ann Franklin, Kathy Davis, Wendy Graham and Rosa Lee Williams.

Brass Soulehead