Vol. 27 No. 6

An Active Senior Community

Pleasant Valley Road, Camarillo, California

June 2, 2006

Election Day is June 22: Vote!

Just 20 days remain before we elect two members to our LV Board, and if you have not yet cast your ballot, you are urged to do it soon.

Four well-qualified candidates are in the offering, and if you are undecided, perhaps a final rerun of Candidates Night on Tuesday, June 20, may help you homeowners decide which two may be your choice. Channel 25 will show all four candidates both at 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Your two election choices must be placed in one of two ballot boxes. One is in the Rec Center, just to the left of the swinging doors that lead to the pool, and the other is at the Administration office, just inside the entrance door.

You may also mail your selection.

Deadline at both boxes is 5 p.m. Wednesday, June 21.

LV's Pat Busch an accountable man

By Bill Himstreet

What kind of person would take the job of heading the Finance Committee of the Leisure Village Association? It could be a mighty tough task. Let's look at the current chairman, who has been on the job for more than five years! He's the ideal model.

Patrick Busch, "Pat," and his wife, Cathy, came to the Village in June of 2000 from St. Louis, where he ended a career in finance and accounting of about 50 years.

After graduating from Marquette University in Milwaukee in 1951, Pat began his career in corporate accounting, and within a short time, found his way up the ladder from accounting to financial vice presidencies with major companies in top-level administration.

Along the way, Pat and Cathy had three sons and three daughters, whose families are now scattered across the country, giving the grandparents of 12 good reason for occasional trips.

Pat did his share to see the children grow in the right way by serving 42 years in Boy Scouting as scoutmaster, troop committeeman, and district chairman, receiving award ribbons of his own along the

Meet Roz Feldman, the Ticket Lady

By Milan Weiss

If you're looking for a treasure, you need look no further, because that treasure is here in Leisure Village in the form of Roz Feldman.

Roz is the essence of energy and enthusiasm and ready to go when assigned a job.

Although Roz has no nickname, she admits to being called "the ticket lady."

She sells tickets for events, when called on, for various clubs in Leisure Village. Her busiest ticket activity comes from the Showtyme Club.

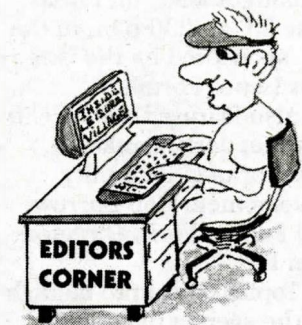

Roz's idea of happiness is selling out the AR and having everyone happy with their seats, ready to watch the wonderful shows or events put on by the various clubs. She devotes the time and energy to successfully sell tickets for the clubs that call upon her for her services.

Roz is married to Stan and has been married for 51 years. They have two married daughters living within half an hour from the Village. They have four grandchildren — three boys and one girl. They love their family and keep very close ties with them.

Roz's friends are an

Camarillo mayor to visit LV on June 23

By Jack Whalen

Camarillo Mayor Mike Morgan will head a list of city officials making a presentation titled, "Camarillo's Looking Ahead" on Friday, June 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR, sponsored by the Current Issues Forum.

Also featured will be City Manager Jerry Bankston, Director of Community Development Bob Burrow and Public Works Director Tom Fox.

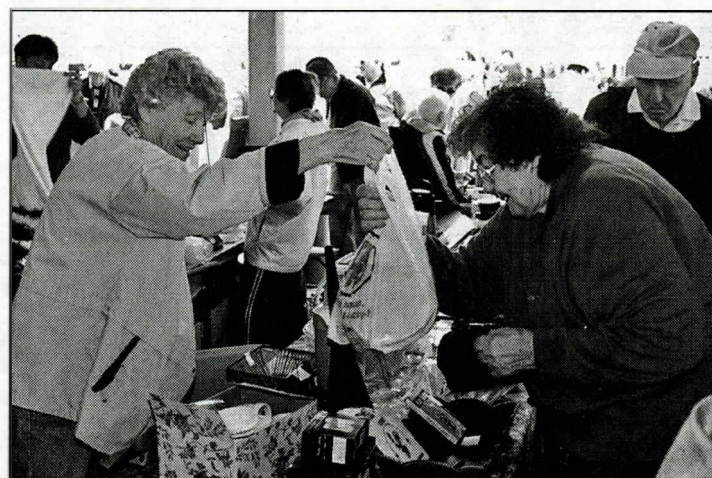

Topics certain to be high on the agenda include the upcoming grand opening of the Camarillo Library; the new buildings and restaurants nearing completion outside our west gate, close to the reopened theater; the restaurant planned for the Santa Rosa Shopping Center, just outside our front gate; information on the now-developing Village Park; and a host of other projects.

Mayor Morgan, popular among Villagers for more than 25 years, is in his fourth term as mayor. He has been a Camarillo resident since 1961. He received his master's degree in public administration from the University of Southern California, retired as a U.S. Probation Officer in 1998, and is married to Donna, a communications specialist. They have two children.

All city officials joining Mike have made presentations here before, and we are looking forward to an information-packed evening.

Remember the date and time: Friday, June 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. The Current Issues Forum promises there will be time for questions and answers.

Village resident Alice Beumkes completes a sale to another LV resident during the annual Leisure Village Yard Sale on May 13.

Yard Sale big success

The annual Leisure Village Yard Sale was held on Saturday, May 13, in the Pavilion. It was very well-attended and had more than 40 sellers.

Everyone was looking for that something special at a rock-bottom price. There was everything from a hand-carved double-barreled rubber band shotgun to a bowling ball that doubled as a floral vase.

There were breakfast rolls, coffee, hot dogs and lemonade.

The annual yard sale has been a tradition since 1997. Villagers were able to set up table spaces for $5. It was a great event for all who attended.

portant part of her life, and she likes them to be straight-forward, honest and to have love and respect for each other. If they are fascinating, intelligent and funny, that's OK too!

Both Roz and her husband were brought up in Brooklyn, where Roz graduated from Erasmus High School. She worked in Manhattan for a wholesale electrical appliance company, where she was an office manager supervising 50 people. After marrying Stan, they moved from Brooklyn to Rockaway Beach in Queens. Roz was the president of ORT, devoting much of her time to their activities.

Then came the move to Saugus in 1968, where Roz worked for an accountant as a receptionist and assisting with tax accounting. From Saugus, they moved to Sepulveda, then to Reseda, where Roz worked at the Tarzana Medical Center. From there she moved to Leisure Village in 1993.

Roz loves living in Leisure Village — and she is active! Follow her around and this is where you will go: water aerobics in the summer, the Racquet Club, the Bocce Club, the Players Guild, Showtyme, the New York Club — and she makes time for Mah-Jong, Pan and Canasta. She also is active in Hadassah and the City of Hope. Her personal likes include reading, crossword puzzles and TV.

Roz's favorite vacation places are Israel, England, the Mediterranean and Italy. Her favorite place to live is Leisure Village.

Roz feels that the most important thing in life is good health. If you have that, then you have it all!

So there you are Villagers, a lady who makes the Leisure Village motto come true: A Vibrant Active Senior Community. What a wonderful lady to have in this community!

In the event you have failed to cast a ballot, there is one last chance. In the Multi-Purpose Room, on Election Day, Thursday, June 22, you may obtain another type of ballot between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m., the absolute deadline.

Channel 25 will start broadcasting the Annual Meeting at 10 a.m. Historically, the results of the election are not known until early afternoon. If that's the case, the Board meeting will stop at noon and restart at 1 p.m. Channel 25 will do the same, and once the nomination results are known, they will be announced and Channel 25 will close, repeating the election results every 10 to 15 minutes.

The Board will then go into working session to elect the President, Vice-President, and other officers for the year 2006-07. This information will be combined with the winners' names for showing often for about a week.

We have 2,136 homeowners and wish that all of you would vote.

Deadlines for next month

The Display Advertising deadline for the July 2006 issue will be Monday, June 12, at 5 p.m. Deadline for letters, club news, stories, photos and classified ads is Saturday, June 17, at 5 p.m. Publication is scheduled for July 7. Typed copy, double-spaced, should be deposited in the ILV box in the Recreation Center hallway. Handwritten material should be submitted early to allow for typing.

Why voting on CC&Rs is important to you

By Caroline Pratt

If you are a Homeowner and think your vote is not needed for the current ballot, then this message is especially for you. As of this writing, we are over halfway to the needed two thirds "yes" votes for the CC&Rs and close to the simple majority to amend the Bylaws. We need your vote!

An important change is Patio Enclosure Construction and Divider Fences, 7.6, CC&Rs. Read the latest amendment in the Errata Sheet that came out with your ballot. It addresses the unsightly problem created when construction of a patio enclosure is too close to the divider fence, resulting in inadequate space for maintenance.

Unless the adjoining homeowner approves in writing the removal of the divider fence, the homeowner building the patio enclosure may not build closer than 42 inches from the property line. This allows for proper maintenance on both sides of the divider fence and decreases the chances of weeds and wildlife inhabiting the space. Your "yes" vote will help maintain the beauty of our Villages and value of our homes. This change is endorsed by the Architectural Committee.

Another change is Fees for Additional Residents, CC&Rs 4, 2 (b) (3), latest changes also in the Errata Sheet. When more than one person resides in a dwelling unit, there will be a $5 monthly fee for the second person and a $10 monthly fee for each additional person over two residents. It also removes any power of the Board to change these fees.

The rest of the changes are mainly updating to current law and including prior amendments.

If this ballot should not get the needed "yes" votes, our Association will be functioning with badly out-of-date governing documents.

We are one of the largest senior communities in California and known for Homeowner pride in our community. We need to maintain good, up-to-date governing documents. Vote, and please vote yes! Your vote will make a difference.

— Caroline Pratt is Chair of the Ad Hoc Committee on CC&Rs and ByLaws.

Car show set for July 8

To the best of my knowledge, there has never been a Village car show.

When I asked about it at a recent Education & Recreation Committee meeting, guess who got the job? So what we're planning is a gathering of vintage, classic, new, unusual or unique vehicles in one of the Recreation Center parking lots on July 8.

We are also coordinating with the Saturday Night Dance folks, and we may cruise the Village after the show.

Do you have a classic, antique, hot rod, custom or hybrid car, a motorcycle or any unique vehicle? If so, please call Tom at 445-4453 or John at 384-8508.

55 Alive is June 15, 16

By Naomi Balfour

Leisure Village residents who are licensed drivers may register now for the next 55 Alive Safe Driving class, which will be taught on June 15 and 16 from 1 to 5 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room. Only 30 people can register each month.

Everyone who takes the class will receive a discount on automobile insurance for three years, according to California law. The exact amount does vary.

If you are 70 or older and need to renew your drivers license, you will be required to pass a written test. The class will also be helpful to prepare for that.

The cost is $10 by check to AARP to register. To pay and register or to get more information, call Naomi Balfour at 987-9851 or Ruth Miller at 987-8162.

ONLY $15.00 TO ANYONE WHO NEEDS HELP BUT HAS NEVER BEEN TO A CHIROPRACTOR BEFORE

(Or Hasn't Been In a Long Time)

Dear Friend,

If you've ever thought about going to a chiropractor but you've hesitated because you weren't sure it was right for you, please read on...

My name is Dr. Dennis Reuer.

Spring is here! To celebrate spring and the opening of our new office at 221 E Daily Dr. #7 in Camarillo in the Camarillo Inn Plaza, I have agreed to "give away" (to anyone who asks for it) $150 of my services for only $15- that's right $15.

In the years since I began practice, I've helped hundreds of people feel better and live healthier, more productive lives through chiropractic care. And now I'd like to introduce Camarillo and surrounding area residents the many benefits our profession has to offer.

For instance, chiropractic care may be able to help you if you're suffering from any of the following conditions:

- Migraine Headaches
- Lower back pain
- Numbness or soreness in your arms or legs
- Constant fatigue; lack of energy
- Muscle spasms, sprains & strains

And a whole host of other problems ranging from dizziness to ringing in the ear.

These symptoms can be caused whenever the vertebrae in your spine are out of alignment because these "misalignments" directly affect your nervous system.

Fortunately, if you are suffering from any of these problems or similar affliction right now, they can be relieved or eliminated by proper chiropractic treatment (commonly called an adjustment). So if you've always wanted to "check out" chiropractic care and see what it can do for you; now is the best time to do so because... For one week only, $15 will get you all the services I normally charge new patients $150 for!

What does the offer include? Everything. Take a look at what you will receive...

- An in-depth consultation about your health and well-being
- A complete chiropractic spinal examination
- A set of specialized X-rays to determine if a misalignment in your spine is causing your pain or symptoms...
- An analysis of your X-rays and spinal exam results to see what needs to be done to help relieve your problem.
- Helpful literature that shows you how your body works and why you experience pain
- Answers to all your most probing questions about chiropractic care and what it can do for you...

The appointment will not take long at all. And like I said, I normally charge $150 for this (most of which just covers the full set of X-rays).

Meet the Doctor

But for now, as part of this special offer, you can come in and find out for certain if you need chiropractic care and how it might help you eliminate the pain you are feeling.

Before you come in, though, you will probably want to know a little bit about me. So let me tell you..

I graduated from Parker College of Chiropractic in Dallas, TX in 1986, after previously earning a B.S. degree in physical therapy at Loma Linda University in 1972.

I am certified by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners and licensed to practice chiropractic by the California State Board of Chiropractic Examiners. I am a member of the California Chiropractic Association and I have had post graduate studies in Activator & Thompson Adjusting Techniques. The Activator Technique is one of the most scientifically researched techniques in chiropractic. The Activator adjusting instrument is used to give gentle, consistent low force, high speed chiropractic adjustments and was developed to improve safety and comfort for the chiropractic patients.

Does Chiropractic Really Work?

Absolutely! Here are some findings from studies done by chiropractors and orthopedic surgeons...

Harvard Medical School Health Letter-Sept.1990

"Chiropractic treatment of low back pain, which affects 75 million Americans, is superior to the standard regimen administered by medical doctors", a major British study has concluded, "Chiropractic almost certainly confers worthwhile long-term benefit in comparison with hospital outpatient management", said Dr. T.W. Meade, a British medical doctor who headed the study at eleven hospitals and chiropractic clinics.

Federal Medical Study Endorses Chiropractic for Back Pain-US Agency for Health Care Policy and Research.

December 8, 1994 - A panel of 23 doctors headed by Dr. Stanley Bigos, M.D. Professor of Orthopedic Surgery, studied 3900 medical articles on low back pain. Their conclusions were that "chiropractor's manipulation of the spine was more helpful than any of the following: traction, massage, biofeedback, acupuncture, injection of steroids into the spine, back corsets and ultrasound." Surgery was beneficial in only 1 out of 100 cases!

Would you like even more proof that chiropractic works? Then listen to these comments from a few of my patients...

Patient Success Stoires

I have Rheumatoid Arthritis (RA) and live with pain a lot of the time. I have found that going to the chiropractor helps relieve the pain. I love being adjusted with the Activator Technique, I am able to relax more during the treatments and get better results.

I really appreciate the kind and professional manner in which Dr. Reuer treated me. He asked me detailed questions which helped him evaluate how best to manage my care.

Chiropractic adjustments have helped me to manage the pain from RA. Thank You Dr. Reuer. Janet Sellers.

Over a period of months I had developed discomfort and stiffness in my neck with radiating pain into my right shoulder and upper arm. It got to the place where I was unable to sleep on my right side without awakening with a dull ache and throbbing. After treatment from Dr.

Reuer I'm now pain free and have complete mobility in my neck and shoulder. I strongly recommend Dr. Reuer for your spinal related care. Chet Lembcke P.T.

Guarantee of Great Service

Obviously, I cannot guarantee results, no one can. But there is one guarantee I can give you, and that is a guarantee to give my best effort.

Plus, if I do not think I can help you, I will tell you and refer you to another specialist who might be able to help.

Limited Time Offer

PHONE 805-389-3722

Call any time between the hours of 9-1 and, 3-6 Monday thru Thursday and, 9-1 on Friday. Tell the receptionist you would like to come in for the Special Introductory Examination between, June 6th- 14th

I expect to get flooded with appointments for this event so please call as soon as possible to assure that you do not miss out.

Thank you very much and I look forward to trying to help you get rid of your pain so you can start living a healthier and more productive life.

Sincerely,
Dr. Dennis Reuer

It's official: 3,066 people live in LV

By Jack Whalen

Over the past years, General Manager Randy Watkins and I often wondered exactly how many Villagers were here.

He agreed with me that back in the late '70s and early '80s, there were close to 3,400, because the majority of our 2,136 home occupiers were married.

Over the years, as most of us observed, those who came as couples lost a mate, but they continued to live here alone.

In mid-April of this year, Randy called to say that, as of that date, there were exactly 3,066 folks living here.

"That means," he said, "there are 1.4 people per home, less than the 1.5 for equal married vs. single."

What will we be by 2010? Stay tuned.

LV resident shares Holocaust poem

On April 30, the Temple Ner Ami had a special remembrance day for the Holocaust survivors. A movie, "Paper Clips," was also shown. Leisure Village's Charles Pierce, one of the survivors, attended with his daughters, Emily Walden and Sherry Scranton. Emily's son, Thomas, and Sherry's daughter, Breanna, were also there to give Charles their support. After the services, Emily sent Charles the following poem:

A paper clip or a staple doesn't even explain
The pain you went through.
It's amazing that those people had control like that.
Nobody even has a clue.
It's hard enough for someone to be poor but being
A Jew at that time must have been horrible.
It's not even a question. It's just not tolerable.
What matters most is you survived, as well as a few
Of my uncles and aunts.
And you made a new life and lived a good one, too.
Hope when you turn 90, I get the first dance.
In our eyes you are all heroes and most loving ones
At that.
And you still have a sense of humor, especially
When you wear your hat.
I hope for many generations you can tell your Experience so hatred will disappear.
And we will be able to have a better world
Like that "Paper Clip" school and even more People so dear.

Mort Marcovitz: His game is computers

By Jack Whalen

How well many of us know that he has been, for many years, the driving force behind the Computer Club. The club, boasting 410 dues-paying members, is easily one of the largest in the Village.

Whom are we talking about? It's Village 42's Mort Marcovitz, already a bit of a legend among computer users.

Mort, Philadelphia-born and Philadelphia-educated, graduated from West Philadelphia High School in 1945 and entered the Drexel Institute of Technology, now Drexel University. His education was interrupted by a two-year stretch in the U.S. Navy.

He was awarded a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Drexel in 1951 and joined the Burroughs Corporation Research Center in Philadelphia. He also pursued graduate work, part time, at the University of Pennsylvania, where one of his professors was Village 42's Ed Hawthorne, a former President of our Leisure Village Board of Directors.

Although Ed had from 20 to 30 students in his class, he remembers Mort as a "good student." Mort remembers Ed as one who was well-versed and thoroughly skilled as a teacher.

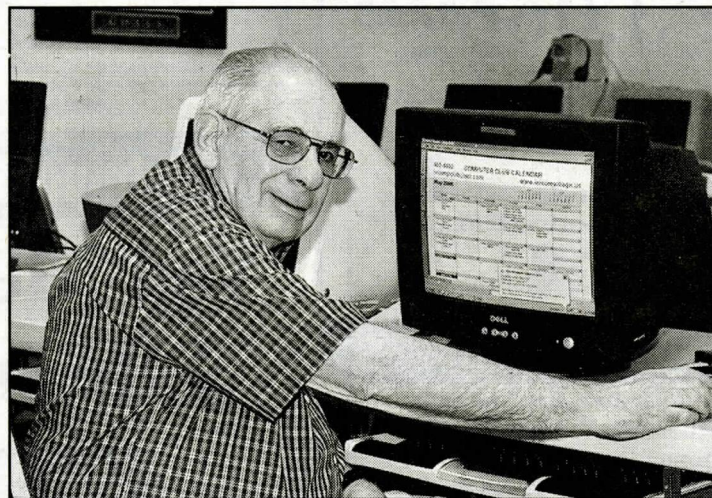

Mort received his master's in electrical engineering from Penn in 1957.

Mort and his wife, Betty, were in the same high school class and married in 1949.

In 1961, with three children and a mother-in-law, they spent six months in Pasadena, where Mort was on a special assignment at the Burroughs computer plant. Later that year, they moved permanently (ha ha) to Michigan, where he worked at corporate headquarters.

In 1966, Mort accepted a position with the Sweda International Division of Litton Industries. By this time, a fourth child had joined the family, and they moved to Morristown, N.J.

In 1972, he rejoined Burroughs at its Plymouth, Mich., plant, and the family moved to Farmington Hills. Eventually, Mort was transferred to its Radnor, Pa., facility, where he retired in 1987.

Mort Marcovitz finds himself right at home both in front of the computer and in Leisure Village.

By this time, the children had spread their wings, with one in Michigan, one in California and two in Massachusetts.

Over the years, Mort criss-crossed the United States many times and he knew that someday they would retire in Southern California. He never recovered from his time at Treasure Island while in the Navy.

Mort and Betty came to Southern California in 1995 and spent about a year in Playa del Rey. Their youngest daughter, Ruth Adler, and her family settled in Agoura Hills, and, visiting often, Betty and Mort discovered Leisure Village. You might say the rest is history.

Daughter Nancy Helt resides in Moraga in the East San Francisco Bay area, and daughter Marcie lives in Chicago.

Their son, Michael, continues to reside in Ann Arbor, Mich.

Betty and Mort have five grandchildren now — one in college and four in high school. As you are reading this, another should be here. The new arrival's 15-year-old sister is taking it quite well. She has asked permission to go to a boarding school!

Their residence in Leisure Village is about the longest stay ever in one place, and they plan to remain for the rest of their days.

New class for computer fans

By Jerry Spector

Villagers who consider themselves intermediate or advanced computer users are invited to our first Saturday get-together. We will meet in the Computer Lab in the Annex Building on Saturday, June 10, at 10 a.m. Microsoft VISTA will be demonstrated on large screen.

This group's mission is to allow members to share ideas, learn and develop their computer skills.

Careful planning can blunt impact of disasters

By Joe Foraker

A damaging earthquake during a Santa Ana wind condition would be a deadly combination.

Southern California's 47 percent probability of a severe earthquake within the next four years is holding. The probability continues, regardless of other disasters that have temporarily distracted many residents.

The terrible infernos that accompanied Santa Ana winds this past year spread swiftly as a horrified nation watched. Nearly everyone in Ventura County witnessed the huge black clouds and the glow of stubborn fires that burned into the night. When the winds finally subsided, a murky stillness dumped souvenir ashes from Bakersfield to Tijuana.

The hundreds of homes consumed by recent fires represent a staggering loss. But the number of people who could be affected by a strong earthquake could be hundreds of times greater. Now add the unthinkable — a major earthquake during a Santa Ana wind condition. What will happen to those who have ignored the earthquake threat and are unprepared for an earthquake emergency or any other natural disaster?

Fire departments that are fighting widely scattered fires over dozens of areas during Santa Ana wind conditions will not be quick responders to problems created by earthquakes. Communities are more vulnerable some days than others. But vulnerability peaks when hot, dry desert winds rush across the state.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency is reeling from disasters that have plagued the nation over the past few years.

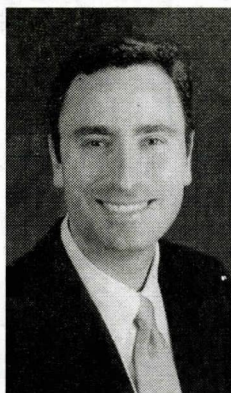

The United States experienced its first billion-dollar disaster in 1972, when Hurricane Agnes devastated Texas and Louisiana. Multi-billion losses since then include, among others, the 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake, the 1992 hurricanes in Florida and the 1993 floods in the Midwest. The 1994 Northridge earthquake inflicted nearly $40 billion in damage. Hurricane Katrina killed nearly 700 people and caused more than $72 billion in property damage.

Emergency-planning seminars are held periodically in municipalities and cities throughout the county. A broad spectrum of booklets and videos is located in the Leisure Village Library for your perusal. The Internet is a huge source of information that can be used to customize a plan that fits your individual needs.

California's first lady, Maria Shriver, spokesperson for her husband, offers this strong advice: "You need to be ready for all types of disasters. When you are ready, California is too!"

How to stop identity theft

Despite the growing sophistication of identity thieves, there's plenty we can all do to either prevent it or limit its damage when it does happen. Specifically, it is suggested that consumers:

- Use a cross-cut shredder to destroy anything with personal information, even junk mail.
- Order a credit report at least once a year. A free annual report from TransUnion, Experian and Equifax is available via

Memory Lane leads to Farmers Market

By Lois Keeler

Again, I have had a wonderful response from many of you. I have so much information to impart! I may never stop! Tell me what topics you wish me to research, and I will surely do my best.

Today I have chosen the Farmers Market, Pig and Whistle, and the Tick Tock Tea Room. I had planned to tell you about Olvera Street and early movie houses, but there is too much information to shorten it.

The Farmers Market was started in 1934 when a group of enterprising farmers started an informal market at the corner of Fairfax and Third selling produce from their trucks. Customers quickly arrived, parking their cars in a hastily built dirt parking lot in spaces designated with chalk. They strolled among the trucks purchasing fruit, vegetables and flowers. The trucks gave way to stalls, and the farmers were charged 50 cents per day.

More than 60 years later, it still thrives and has become one of the most popular tourist spots in Los Angeles. It has grown, yes, but it still stays true to its origins.

Magee's, one of the originals, grinds 100,000 pounds of peanut butter a year. Bob's Donuts begins baking at 4:30 each morning to provide the 1,000 donuts they sell daily. It became the central meeting place for Angelenos, and "Meet me at 3rd and Fairfax" is still a commonplace phrase in the city.

Manning's Coffee was ground fresh daily and coffee was served at tables outside. Dupar's Bakery was also one of the first restaurants.

Here are some quick facts. The Pig and Whistle was on Broadway between 2nd and 3rd around 1909 and later had branches at South Broadway, Hill at Hollywood Boulevard, and at Spring Street. The original was later a pizza parlor, but it eventually was restored as a Pig and Whistle and is still there.

The Tick Tock started out with one clock and ended up with 48. They were famous for their sticky buns. The original on Cahuenga opened in 1934.

C.C. Brown's opened in 1906. Their hot fudge is still available on the Internet.

Olvera Street, Gilmore Speedway and Stadium, Clifton's Cafeteria, La Brea Tar Pits and old movie houses are too much for this column. See you next time, and let me hear from you!

Santa Barbara perfect in late spring

By Bill Himstreet

Late spring is a good time to make your annual visit to Santa Barbara in lieu of freeway trips southward.

Santa Barbara has its own zoo, fairgrounds, waterfront, harbor, colleges and universities, commercial airport, snazzy shopping centers, and visitor accommodations of all types.

As you travel north on 101 after leaving Ventura, you'll pass through Summerland and Montecito just prior to entering Santa Barbara. Watch the signs that will lead you to the zoo and harbor.

The zoo is open daily and has beautiful walking tours as well as a train that travels the circumference with stops at good viewing points. Additionally, gift shop and food services are available.

The harbor area is just beyond the zoo and is a favorite place to plant yourself for walking on the pier, visiting harbor shops, dining in good seafood establishments, and simply observing people, animals, shops, and ships.

As you return home, you'll feel that you've been on vacation for some time!

Day brightener

When my grandson asked me how old I was, I teasingly replied, "I'm not sure."

"Look in your underwear, Grandma," he advised. "Mine says I'm four to six."

Recipe of the month: Garden Zucchini Bread

By Joe Foraker

This recipe was submitted with information for the Farmers Club, which notes that zucchini are becoming prevalent in the LV garden patches.

Ingredients:

- 3 eggs
- 1 cup vegetable oil
- 2 cups shredded, unpeeled zucchini
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon baking powder
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 2 cups flour
- 1 cup chopped nuts.

Put shredded zucchini in strainer or colander. Press or squeeze with your hands to remove excess liquid.

Beat eggs, sugar and vegetable oil together. Add flour, baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon, vanilla and chopped nuts. Mix together by hand.

Add zucchini (minus water) and thoroughly mix ingredients with a large spoon.

Pour into two loaf pans. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour.

Matteo's in Camarillo Springs is a winner

By Bob Koster

This series of articles will, with luck, give you a little insight into the restaurants available to us in the area — who runs them, who owns them, what the food is like, and all that good stuff. All the opinions expressed are mine alone, and I am fully cognizant that your experience in any particular restaurant may have differed from mine quite widely.

It is not our purpose to criticize any restaurant. What restaurants Sarah and I have found to be wanting, we merely will not mention. We will probably revisit them sometime in the future, because even restaurants can have a bad day from time to time.

We never tell the restaurant owners that we write articles about dining places. We always pay for our meals. That way we can have an unbiased view of the neighborhood dining spots. We don't want their largesse to influence our writing in any way.

We will continue to discuss the restaurants closest to Leisure Village, and work our way outward to the area around Ventura and also toward Thousand Oaks and Westlake Village, bearing in mind that maybe half an hour of driving time would be the most anyone would wish to go for a good meal here. But we'll concentrate on Camarillo itself, first.

Also, we won't discuss any of the chain-type fast food places. I have always suspected that all the McDonald's, Burger Kings, Wendy's and places of that kind are all served by one single big kitchen in Kansas, and when you order something, it is shot to Los Angeles in pneumatic tubes so it won't get cold. But the food is virtually indistinguishable from one fast-food place to the next, and certainly between places with the same signs on the front.

If you remember from last week, we discussed the restaurant at Mission Oaks Plaza now known as Mo's Café. It began life as Giovanni's, owned by Giovanni Tromba, an Italian gourmet. Giovanni moved out and the place was taken over by Denis Rion, who opened Nou-Nou's.

Meanwhile, plans were afoot to enlarge the area around the Camarillo Railroad Station on Lewis and Ventura Roads. Unfortunately, there was an Italian restaurant in the way of that expansion, Petrucci's, and Mr. Petrucci was forced to move. He moved to the place formerly occupied by Nou-Nou's, and actually spent a few short years there before he passed away. The people who bought the restaurant from him were unable to keep up the quality as Mr. Petrucci did, and the restaurant shortly was vacant once again. Now that space is occupied by Mo's Café, of which we wrote in last month's column.

Denis Rion of Nou-Nou's moved to Camarillo Springs, where he has opened a small gourmet restaurant called Matteo's. Matteo's is open every weekday for lunch, and on only Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights for dinner. Reservations are recommended because the place fills up very quickly, and for good reason. Denis is his own chef. He and the excellent staff will keep your palate more than satisfied. Their wine list is exemplary as well.

The food is mostly Western European with a dash of American specialized dishes thrown in. The staff makes you feel welcome. A special treat is dinner on their patio. It is isolated from the elements by sturdy canvas walls with clear plastic windows, and the outdoor heaters make it comfortable even during the winter.

Look to future articles to cover the restaurants that are about to open in this neighborhood. I am sure you noticed the construction taking place around Verdugo Road, near the Chevron Station and the McDonald's. New restaurants are going in there, and we'll cover them for you.

There was an excellent place in Ventura, part of a chain called The Chart-house. They closed, but their managers opened a new restaurant quite similar to the Chart-house called the Aloha Steakhouse. It can be found on the ground floor of the parking structure in Ventura on the corner of California Street and the Pacific Ocean. I mention this because the same people manage the aforementioned Mo's Café. And when I spoke with them a couple of weeks ago, they said they will open another Aloha Steakhouse in Santa Rosa Plaza in the same place where the lamented Michael D's held sway a couple of years back. So we have a new restaurant moving in within the next few months, within walking distance.

They also have taken possession of the store next door to use as a banquet room, or so they said when I asked them a couple of months back. That probably will be very handy for the clubs here in the Village that need a place to hold their meetings and dinners. More about the Aloha Steakhouse when we get to Ventura. Just wanted to give you a heads-up about their imminent arrival.

Keep tuned. I was in Europe during the month of May, and if I get enough requests, I will mention some of the restaurants we visited in Berne, Düsseldorf, Berlin, Vienna, Krems and Budapest, for those of you who hang out in those fair cities. In the meantime, Bon Appetit!

Real men barbecue — in their own way

After the long months of cold and winter, we will soon be coming up to summer and barbecue season.

Therefore, it is important to refresh your memory on the etiquette of this sublime outdoor cooking, as it's the only type of cooking a real man will do — probably because there is an element of danger involved.

When a man volunteers to do the barbecue, the following chain of events is put into motion:

1) The woman buys the food.

2) The woman makes the salad, prepares the vegetables and makes dessert.

3) The woman prepares the meat for cooking, places it on a tray along with the necessary cooking utensils and sauces, and takes it to the man, who is lounging beside the grill, beer in hand.

4) The man places the meat on the grill.

5) The woman goes inside to organize the plates and cutlery.

6) The woman comes out to tell the man that the meat is burning. He thanks her and asks if she will bring another beer while he deals with the situation.

7) The man takes the meat off the grill and hands it to the woman.

8) The woman prepares the plates, salad, bread, utensils, napkins, sauces and brings them to the table.

9) After eating, the woman clears the table and does the dishes.

10) Everyone praises the man and thanks him for his cooking efforts.

11) The man asks the woman how she enjoyed "her night off." And, upon seeing her annoyed reaction, concludes that there's just no pleasing some women.

Snappy answers of the day

A lady was picking through the frozen turkeys at the grocery store, but she couldn't find one big enough for her family. She asked a stock boy, "Do these turkeys get any bigger?" The stock boy replied, "No, ma'am, they're dead."

The cop got out of his car, and the kid who was stopped for speeding rolled down his window.

"I've been waiting for you all day," the cop said.

"The kid replied, "Yeah, well I got here as fast as I could."

When the cop finally stopped laughing, he sent the kid on his way without a ticket.

I didn't know if my granddaughter had learned her colors yet, so I decided to test her. I would point out something and ask what color it was. She would tell me, and always she was correct. But it was fun for me, so I continued. At last, she headed for the door, saying sagely, "Grandma, I think you should try to figure out some of these yourself!"

Players Guild

By Stan Reshes

The Players Guild Workshop production of "The Music Hall Follies" will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 15, in the AR.

Conceived and directed by Milt Mankoff, with choreography by Joan Johnson, this tribute to Irving Berlin will feature his amazing repertoire of music and song from as far back as World War I. A cast of more than 20 talented singers and dancers, many in period costumes of the era, will be performing in what promises to be a fantastic evening.

This show was originally presented here in 2000, and it was so popular it is being brought back by many requests. Don't miss this nostalgic musical production. And, of course, refreshments will follow the show.

L.V. New York Club

By Gerry Schulman

Do not forget "The Big Apple Dinner Dance" on Sunday, June 4, at 6 p.m. in the AR. The menu sounds exciting. There will be hot and cold appetizers. The entrée is a choice of Prime Rib, Chicken or Salmon. The biggest item is that the dinner will be served at the table. There's no waiting in line and no waiting for your table to be called.

Music will be provided by The Jerry Dokken Quartet.

The Travel Committee is working on some fantastic trips for the club. Be patient and you will be surprised.

If you haven't paid your club dues, please do so. They are only $5 for the period January 1 to December 31. Your dues help the club put on the great entertainment that we continually enjoy.

tertaind us with her many talents. She is an accomplished painter in watercolor, oil, pastels and acrylics. She also does wood carving and, in her spare time, she teaches a class in the Village on "Better Breathing." She gave us an example by having us take a deep breath, letting it out and picking up our chair. It was easier to do by breathing right!

Macon Epps and his wife, Elizabeth, furnished a delicious cake in honor of their 61st anniversary! Not too many of us can top that!

Our picnic is set for June 25 at noon in the picnic area, and winners trophies will be given out. Watch for ticket announcements.

Our Dinner Dance will be sometime in October. The date has not been solidified as yet.

Si Ross announced the paddle tennis winners. Four groups participated. The first group was a three-way tie of Jerry Banchik, Ben Garmen and Dick Beeman. The second group was Bob Kumler first and Paul Treitman second. The third group was Shirley Law first and Al Law and Betty Stallman tying for second. The last group was a tie between Norm Scadron and Ed Pollaine. It was a fun tournament, and Reva Shpiner did a top-notch job of furnishing the food!

Table tennis winners were Kay Bell in first and Ed Pollaine in second.

We wish Jerry Doctrow a speedy recovery from his surgery, and we're glad to hear Keith Timothy is on the road to recovery.

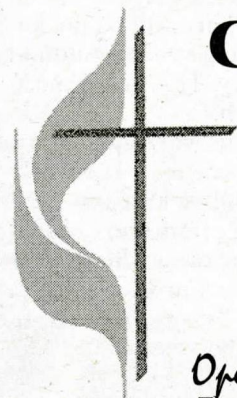

Next meeting will be June 14. Put it on your calendar! See you there!

The best way to keep up with the various events available to club members is to come to the monthly meeting, check the bulletin boards at the course and to watch Channel 25.

Women's Club

By Eldora Barton

Our annual show of fashions was held in the AR in May. It was a great gathering of stylish clothes from Draper's and Damon's, and added this year were terrific styles from Expressions. Both are local Camarillo stores to which we have but a short distance to travel. Thanks go to our kitchen gurus who served refreshments during the show and to the models who wore the lovely fashions.

The planning committee is to be congratulated for an excellent event.

There will be no general meeting or entertainment in July. This is our dark month.

The Workshop continues on Tuesdays. The workers will be knitting, sewing, doing crafts and quilting, among other things. There's always a project going on. Drop by any Tuesday in the MPR between 9 and 11 a.m.

Meetings are every Monday at 1 p.m. in the Sun Room.

We've had "Mystery" from Ruth Kent, who wrote about a burglar on their roof; Ginny Sims — not the singer — who regaled us on her NASCAR racing years and is still involved with it; Josette Wingo, who just returned from Ireland and delighted us with her story on "St. Brendan"; and many more stories.

Come join us! It's time spent well and guaranteed to lift your spirits.

Woodshop

By Martin Alfred

Members of the Woodshop Committee wish to express our deepest sympathy to Shirley Nowlin on the loss of her husband, Paul. He was a longtime member of the Woodshop Committee, a highly skilled woodworker, always happy to assist Villagers with their woodworking problems. And, more important, he was a good friend to all of us, and we will all miss him.

Single Active Seniors

By Zelda Greentree

Our pizza party was delightful, as expected, and for the umpteenth time, our thanks go to Bobbie Comer, Anne Haas and Sharon O'Conner for all their hard work and perfect planning — and to Irene Olson and Bea Miller for the fun sing-along!

Next week, on June 13, in the MPR at 7 p.m., the "costumed" women from the Ventura County Museum will be here to inform and entertain us with 100 years of history in "our neck of the woods."

The week after that, on June 20 in the Annex at 7 p.m., the movie of the month will be "Mrs. Henderson Presents," with Academy Award-winning actor Judy Dench and Bob Hoskins. It's a really good movie!

Country Line Dance

By Ida Kubica

Country Line Dance Workshop meets on Tuesdays from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the AR. At 2:45 p.m., Betty Dean does a warm-up and review of dance steps for anyone who wants to participate or is new to the class.

It looks like the spring weather has claimed some of our dancers lately. Either they are traveling or are "under the weather." We look forward to having a full class again soon.

Curious people have been standing at the door listening and watching the class. Please folks, come in, rest a while and enjoy the dance. Just maybe you will be interested enough to join in. The first two classes are free. The dues are $3 per year.

We are a workshop, meaning we work at learning the dance steps and have fun in the process. Don't worry about your style or expertise, that's not what we are all about. We are here for exercise and good health in the form of dance. All styles of dance music are used for the dances, be it rumba, waltz, country, fox trot and even Greek.

"Life is too short and goes by too quickly. Get out there and dance while you can." — Louise Coddington.

Questions? Call Rhoda, dance instructor, at 484-8132.

Village Painters

By Aurelie Zachary

At our May 3 meeting, our attention was brought to the fact that Marion Jayne, who started the Village Painters and for many years critiqued our paintings, will no longer be able to do so as she has moved to a nursing home. We will miss her constructive criticism.

Sylvia Wachter announced that there is an art show at California State University, Channel Islands, through June 24.

Lorraine Comer has arranged with Phyllis Doyon to hold a half-day workshop at her studio on Flynn Road on August 11. All those interested should sign up and pay the fee of $35 to Lorraine Comer.

Members are encouraged to take advantage of Ruth Miller's Art Workshop in the Lanai Room every Monday afternoon from 1 to 4 p.m.

The DVD we viewed on the life of Ansel Adams was most enjoyable and informative.

Pictures in the Library for June and July will be by Lorraine Comer, a versatile artist.

RV Club

By Bill Gardner

Our next dine-out will be hosted by Doris Hoffman and will be at the Iguana Restaurant in Camarillo on Del Norte Road on June 6 at 5 p.m.

We are planning our annual fund raiser, the RV Club Pancake Breakfast, to be held in the Assembly Room on June 10 from 8 to 11 a.m. We hope you all

Saturday Night Dance

By Milan Weiss

The Saturday Night Dance Party directors

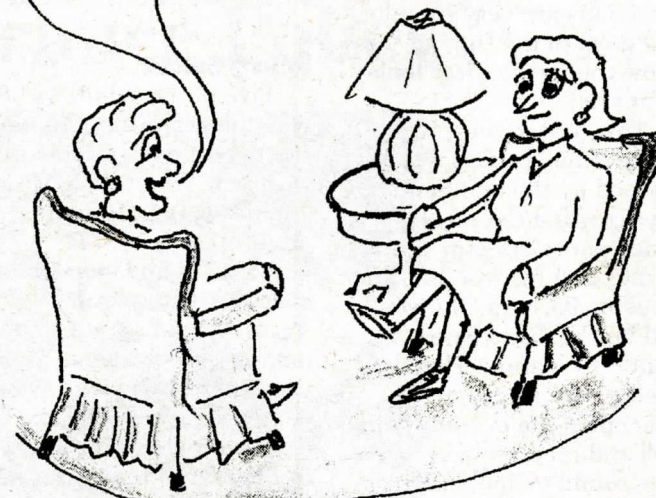

continue to try and satisfy the wonderful music selections requested by the many dancers who attend this regularly scheduled evening. For three hours, 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. every Saturday, the musicians try to squeeze in the many requests for the different dances, which means the music, the type of dances, and the tempos are varied, and music is played from several years back, the years in between, to what is currently being played now! All this is done in this close time frame.

Most of those who attend regularly know this, and many times they bring their family or friends, knowing that they have a chance to hear and dance to "their type of music!" And, at the same time, they can celebrate an occasion or a personal event.

When you see the "action," you'll see there are happy people there, having fun, and the music satisfies most everyone of all ages. And, you may be able to influence the music by requesting a dance or music that you want to hear. If you like it and the crowd likes it, you've got a winner! The musicians are very friendly, and most of the time, if they know the music, they'll play it for you!

This past month, two of the dance parties were emceed by Bill and Sandy Foeller while the regular dance party Director Bill Byrnes and his wife Liz, and Director Barbara Ohmstedt and her husband Ernie, went on vacation. The Foellers did a very nice job in keeping the evening going well and received a very nice round of applause from the dancers for their successful efforts.

Here is the Dance Party schedule for June:

- June 3, Rick Tucker, and this is Country Western Night, so again, polish up those boots.
- June 10, Moore Music Trio.
- June 17, Jerry Dokken.
- June 24, Music by Choice.

All dances are $5 per person. All dates are Saturday nights. All dances start at 7:30 p.m.

Summertime is a good time to dance, so saddle-up or saddle-down, dress as comfortable as you please. Bring a friend! At the door, you'll be greeted with a smile.

A special meeting for an Advanced Users Special Interest Group is being held on Saturday, June 10, at 11 a.m. in the Computer Center.

All Computer Club general meetings are held on the fourth Friday at 10 a.m. in the Assembly Room. Club schedules are posted on the bulletin boards in the Atrium and at the entrance to the Computer Center.

Visitors are welcome.

Farmers Club

By Joe Foraker

Farmers are out in full force, and the garden patches quickly display their gardening skills and expertise. Tomatoes are setting on nicely, with many already in the large marble stage. Several patches feature sugar snaps and pole beans, which grow tall on trellises and wire fencing. These aerial crops leave room for peppers and other tasty treats.

A few patches include cucumbers growing on vertical supports, another innovative way to save room. Large-leaved vines with bright yellow blossoms are providing zucchini and other varieties of squash. Within two or three days, the yellow blooms change to 4-inch zucchinis ready for a wide variety of recipes. Someone exhibited a 69-inch zucchini at last year's Ventura County Fair, so LV farmers have to look under every leaf to avoid such surprises. Zucchini can be used in many recipes. One favorite is zucchini bread, and its recipe is included in this month's Inside Leisure Village.

Jazzercise

By Cathy Friedman

Spring has sprung, and soon it will be time to put on that bathing suit and have fun in the sun. Are you ready? No? Well, we can help get you ready.

Join us on Monday and Wednesday, in the AR, from 9 to 10 a.m., for a great time of Jazzercising. We dance, we talk, we laugh, and we have a great time. Everyone is friendly. Our instructor, Renee, is fully certified and keeps us entertained.

Each class is approximately 60 minutes. The suggestion is that you wear comfortable clothes, bring a plastic bottle of water and exercise at your own pace. There's a warm-up segment of gentle rhythmic movements and jazz isolations for individual muscle groups; an aerobic cool-down segment to reduce heart rate; a muscle toning segment with weights to strengthen the hips, thighs, derriere, abdomen, upper torso and arms; and a final cool-down segment to return the heart rate to normal.

Everyone is welcome. Come and enjoy the fun and meet new people. Hope to see you there!

Learn how to breathe better

By Lorraine Comer

How lucky we are to be living in Camarillo now that summer is coming! We usually have a breeze and, best of all, no smog. I hope everyone is taking advantage of the great outdoors and getting some exercise.

Along with spending more time outdoors, allergies are more of a problem, with pollens and many more triggers to irritate normal breathing.

Let's get together and discuss how to avoid getting into trouble as all the wonderful plants and trees around Leisure Village start to bloom.

As you know, we discuss improving our breathing patterns so that shortness of breath does not become a problem. Let's get together to practice good breathing techniques so that daily chores become easier to accomplish, leaving more time for fun.

As we all get a little older, better breathing techniques become more important.

Hope to see all of you looking to improve your everyday life the second Wednesday of the month at 10 a.m. in the Sun Room.

way! Cathy was his steady partner along the way, as the children grew into adulthood.

With this as a background, Pat became an easy selection for the LVA Board to make their choice for the chairmanship several years ago. Their judgment proved sound. Having served with Pat, here are some observations.

First, he knows what accounting is all about from the accountant perspective.

Second, he knows why accounting occurs and what it has to offer when properly analyzed from a management point of view. Although accounting records are normally nice and neat, their value is the information that management must use in organizing and applying assets such as materials, personnel, and capital to achieve organizational goals, both short and long term.

Importantly, Pat is a very effective chairman who recognizes the value of his committee members in decision-making. He provides them with thorough information with the agenda prior to meetings. This takes considerable time between meetings. But Pat is up to it, having had his own consulting business for eight years and presidencies of the 900-member St. Louis chapter of the Institute of Management Accountants and the 250-member chapter of the Financial Executives Institute.

He is a modest man and calls the Village "our paradise!"

His four women and 10 men members of the Finance Committee say, "Bravo!"

Selling real estate is simple, but it is almost never easy. Having an open mind and never looking at two transactions the same is critical for me. Everyday is a learning process for any Realtor because the real estate world changes constantly. Ask a Realtor when was the last time C.A.R. updated or change a policy? What are the interest rates today? How about market trends in your area? See my point? I enjoy this occupation of being a Realtor, because I found the ingredients of a specialized professional early in my career. Knowledge. Experience. Confidence.

I have had so many opportunities to meet new people, I had the privilege to represent new home Buyers and also to demonstrate my experience with Sellers who felt it necessary to be in good hands before hiring a Realtor to sell their home. I like to assist my friends who are also Realtors. These experiences can be priceless. I know because I work in the trenches everyday with everyone from the Clients to the Realtors to the Professional services we choose in all our transactions.

I look forward to meeting you. I look forward to satisfying your real estate needs. I look forward to hearing you say thank you!

I'm not the world's #1 Realtor, I'm not the nation's #1 Realtor and I'm not even Troop Real Estate's #1 real estate agent. However, if you ask my 89 clients of 2005, they might disagree!!!
