

the

L i f e t i m e

w o m e n ' s s u m m i t

DIRECTORY

SUMMIT PARTICIPANTS

MARCH 5, 1997

Lindy Roy
Rice University
School of Architecture
6100 S. Main Street
Houston, TX 77005
PHONE: (713) 527-4864
FAX: (713) 285-5277
E-MAIL: leroy@rice.edu

Lindy Roy is an architect working in urbanism. She is concerned with issues connected to urban growth and development.

Nancy Rubin
3035 Chain Bridge Road, NW
Washington, DC 20016
PHONE: (202) 244-8247
FAX: (202) 686-9058
E-MAIL: nhrubin@aol.com

Nancy Rubin's life's work has focused on: family -- four children; public service; and human rights, domestic and international. The following is a representative sample of her appointments and boards: Ambassador to the UN Commission on Human Rights; Carter and Clinton White House; Council on Foreign Relations -- Overseas Development Council; Co-Chair, Women's Campaign Fund; Red Cross Public Support Committee; National Campaign on Teenage Pregnancy, Media Task Force; Women's Commission on Women Refugees and Children.

Terri Santisi
Executive Vice President/General Manager
EMI-Capitol Music Group North America
1290 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10104
PHONE: (212) 492-1700
FAX: (212) 506-5540

Since her appointment as Executive Vice President/General Manager of EMI-Capitol Music Group North America in 1993, Terri Santisi has earned acclaim throughout the music industry for her skill at structuring deals, setting goals and developing long-term strategies. In a business where many cannot see past that week's best-seller charts, Santisi has the ability to remain focused on the big picture. Santisi has applied her business savvy and creative acumen to a broad range of projects. She has been EMI's key player in negotiating deals involving such superstars as Garth Brooks, the Beatles, Frank Sinatra, Bonnie Raitt, Bob Seger, Selena and Duran Duran.

Michelle Serros
P.O. Box 1177
Culver City, CA 90232
PHONE: (310) 204-4388
FAX: (310) 204-4899

Michelle Serros' first book, Chicana Falsa, was published while still an undergraduate at UCLA and is a required text in high school and universities across the Southwest. In addition to writing for public radio, she is committed to teaching culturally diverse poetry in Los Angeles schools. Her new spoken word compact disc was just released on Mouth Almighty/Mercury.