

October 2, 1922.

Mr. William Randolph Hearst,
137 Riverside Drive,
New York, New York.

Dear Mr. Hearst:

marked under separate cover for Bath alterations
~~Enclosed~~ are ~~both~~ studies as requested.

House B could be altered by either dividing the present bath, or by the addition you suggest. -- Are you not afraid that making the bath wing so large will hurt the scale of the house?

House C offers another problem on account of the Tower preventing a change of roof. The divided bath, Type A or B, would be much the simplest solution. ~~I enclose studies which are the best I can suggest.~~

The road turn is a difficult problem. You would not consider having people descend in the "Grand Court" at the garage and come up on foot? It is going to be very interesting --

Yours very truly,

JM-dem

Your "model farm" are
P.S. ~~The two fern buildings~~ letters just now received. I am going down to San Simeon ~~this week~~ this week Wednesday and will make the sketches on the spot with a sort of general diagram, ~~and~~ showing where the pecans, almonds, etc. ~~are~~

Location of the