LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES

The Latin American Studies major is designed to meet the needs of students interested in an interdisciplinary major, those who wish to broaden their studies in a given discipline with a background in the Latin American area, and those who are interested in obtaining a teaching credential. Consult the Coordinator of the Latin American Studies Program, Dr. James S. Kus, Department of Geography, for further information and for names of faculty advisers for the program.

MAJOR

A major in Latin American Studies consists of 30 units of upper division courses in the area. The program must be approved by the Coordinator of Latin American Studies and one other Latin American Studies adviser. Students must demonstrate a proficiency in Spanish or Portuguese by taking two years of lower division Spanish or Portuguese or by examination.

MINOR

A minor in Latin American Studies is recommended for a student who is completing a recognized major in another discipline but, because of a special interest, wishes to indicate on his or her transcript a background in Latin American Studies.

The minor consists of 21 units of upper division courses in the area. The program must be approved by the Coordinator of Latin American Studies and one other Latin American Studies adviser. One year of lower division Spanish or Portuguese is recommended.
