Dear Mrs. Martin:

Thank you for your letter suggesting that our company manufacture a turkey-shaped candy mold.

Through the years we have had many consumer requests that we make various items. Some we have been able to manufacture, others we did not have the capability to produce. I'm sorry but we feel that your request would best be handled by a firm that specializes in making candy molds. Perhaps you should contact them.

We appreciate your interest and hope that you will not hesitate to contact us whenever we may be of service. Enclosed is one of our most recent brochures which we hope you will find interesting.

Sincerely,

Ann L. Sutherland
Supervisor
