RECOMENDATIONS FOR ALTERNATIVES TO JAIL CONSTRUCTION
DES MOINES PROJECT

As in Santa Clara County today, Des Moines, Iowa, in 1968 was also faced with the expensive proposition of either building new jails to relieve the serious problem of overcrowding or devising alternative methods of dealing with arrested and convicted persons.

Over several years, Des Moines has developed a four-stage process to deal with the criminal arrestee from the time of arrest through serving a sentence on the county level, which not only decreased the jail population by about two-thirds, but also saved the taxpayers the costs of constructing a new jail, and there are preliminary indications that it has made the streets safer by cutting down the recidivism rates. The following is a brief outline of the Des Moines programs:

(1) O.R.: Essentially identical to the program in Santa Clara County, with the same favorable low skip rate. A greater percentage of pre-trial detainees (especially those charged with felonies) are released O.R. in Des Moines than in Santa Clara County, which indicates that the O.R. program here can be expanded without any appreciable risk.

(2) Supervised pre-trial release: Fifty-four percent of apprehended persons who fail the initial O.R. screening and who do no make bond are released through this program. These people are placed under close supervision and are required to work or involve themselves in educational or vocational programs. Close controls are kept over the clients to assure public safety. Each participant receives a complete educational, psychiatric and vocational evaluation to determine his particular needs and limitations. A counselor and the client work to meet the immediate problems of the client, such as housing, job, the need for crisis psychiatric counseling, etc. Further, the counselor and the client work together to identify specific goals and devise a plan for achieving them. The skip rate for those released under this program is no higher than that of persons released on bail. Even more significant, the recidivism rate during the pre-trial stage is considerably lower for those under the supervised pre-trial release program (20%) than those out on bail (38%).

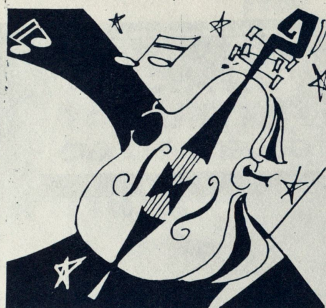

The implementation of this one program so reduced the jail population that plans for construction of a new jail were scrapped. Additionally, it now appears that this plan is close to paying for itself. Clients are able to earn income, rather than having themselves and their families become a burden to the jails, the courts, the welfare rolls, and the public defender. The program provides no services itself, but rather utilizes the already existing community services.

(3) Probation: As in Santa Clara County, the probation department conducts probation supervision and pre-sentence investigations to assist the court in sentencing. The counselor is supplied with all the data collected on the individual at the pre-trial stage and given more time to explore the client's background than his Santa Clara County counterpart. For these reasons he is better able to make an informed recommendations to the court as to sentencing. An individual granted probation, again together with the counselor, draws up a treatment plan suited to his needs, utilizing community resources. Generally, close and informal relations are maintained between clients and counselors, with offices located in the highest crime area in the city.

If equally in-depth studies were performed on defendants in Santa Clara County and the probation officer were more equipped to develop with each client a treatment plan and closely supervise the individual's programs, the courts could feel more confident about granting probation instead of jail.

(4) Ft. Des Moines Project: This facility, located in an army barracks, was established as an alternative to county jail. Although its clientele are those traditionally viewed as requiring medium security housing, physical security devices are minimal and there are no bars or fences. Over 90% of the inmates are convicted felons and 30% are heroin addicts. Close supervision is carried on in the community through the cooperation of the local police, and the staff ratio at the facility is one staff member per two clients. This facility is demonstrating that correctional facilities located near cities need not make large capital investments in constructing the traditional celled buildings, classrooms, shops, recreational facilities, and infirmaries. The total capital investment in the 52-bed facility was $70,000. All inmates work on regular jobs in the community and attend full-time remedial educational or vocational training programs already existing in the community. Each inmate is again evaluated to determine his educational, psychiatric and vocational needs and he and a counselor develop a treatment program which is then formalized into a contract. The inmates pay $5.00 a day (or an equivalent amount of time) towards room and board, support their families and pay taxes. By design the staff consists in large part of ex-convicts and "street-wise people."

A major key to the success of the entire Des Moines Project is the close relationship between counselors and clients, and such a relationship is more easily developed between people of similar backgrounds. Also, it is felt that non-professionals would have a more flexible and innovative approach than middle-class professionals with a stake in the system. Also crucial to the success of the entire project is the fact that it is run by the Department of Court Services, an agency independent of the Sheriff, the County's traditional probation department and others with vested interests in the system.

GALERIA DE LUCHADORES

Llega el turno en la Galeria de Luchadores al Sr. Eddie Bojorquez. Nacio en González California, cuando tenia apenas unos meses de edad, sus padres se radicaron en San Jose, aqui aprendio sus primeras letras ya qui empezó a librar sus batallas con la vida.

Eddie estudio hasta el noveno grado y aun cuando tenia deseos de seguir una carrera, la situacion economica de la familia no se lo permitia. Ante esta situacion, pregunto a su maestro cual camino deberia de seguir; el maestro le aconsejo; tomando en consideracion que no tenia el respaldo economico que requiere una carrera, lo mejor seria aprender un oficio. Empezo a aprender el oficio de ebanista, cuando el tiempo se lo permitia seguia estudiando hasta lograr obtener su diploma de High School; trabajando de ebanista se dio cuenta de que hay otros oficios que pagan mas, pero ya era tarde, el era ebanista y se dio cuenta además de que el polvo del aserrin le hacia daño. Tuvo que olvidarse del oficio y buscar otro medio de ganarse la vida.

Compro entonces una cantina y por algun tiempo la trabajo sin que quedara satisfecho con el rendimiento. Siempre fue inquieto y emprendedor y siempre pensaba en hacer algo mejor de lo que estaba haciendo. En esa epoca la venta de muebles dejaba buenas utilidades, San Jose crecia y no habia muchas mueblerias. Se dedico a la venta de muebles en la muebleria de Hank Coca; se propuso aprender el negocio totalmente, hasta que se sintio capacitado.

Abrio por su cuenta una muebleria al sur de la calle primera que dio buenos resultados. Por esas cosas que tiene el destino para probar la fortaleza de los hombres, se le ocurrio a las autoridades hacer unas obras de amplificacion y por más de un año la muebleria del Sr. Bojorquez quedo aislada, era dificil llegar a la muebleria entre montones de materiales y maquinarias trabajando, ademas se establecieron mueblerias de cadena como Levitz, con mucha publicidad y respaldo financiero, estos inconvenientes, el de la amplificacion de la calle y la competencia, hicieron que Eddie colgara sus hábitos de mueblero y aceptara el ofrecimiento que le habia hecho el Canal 36 de television en San Jose. Eddie toca la guitarra, esta es una llave que puede abrir las puertas de el radio, la television y hasta del cine. En Canal 36 le ofrecio entrenarlo en el negocio de la television, aunque el ofrecimiento se lo habian hecho desde hacia dos o tres años, estaba en pie. Acepto el generoso ofrecimiento y entro en el campo de batalla de la television.

El Sr. Bojorquez es un buen promotor de ventas, y todos los negocios, sin excepcion, descansan en la habilidad de sus promotores de ventas; en este caso: la publicidad en television. Era una actividad desconocida para Eddie pero su dinamismo y su esfuerzo caracteristicos han logrado hacerlo llegar en menos de un año a puesto de encargado de la programacion en Español del Canal 36 de television.

En reciente plática que tuve con el, me manifesto que tiene algunos proyectos para hacer de mayor interes y mas atractivo el programa en Español y que piensa ir poniendo en práctica, tan pronto como las circunstancias lo permitan.

Eddie siempre esta en busca de nuevos horizontes, el trabajo y la lucha por la vida son sus deportes favoritos. Hasta ahora ha logrado triunfar, su experiencia pasada le da la seguridad de resultar vencedor en las luchas del futuro.

PUERTO VALLARTA, DIEZ AÑOS DESPUES

Cada día es día de fiesta, en ese hermoso puerto, que esta situado en las limpias aguas del Oceano Pacifico y que pertenece a las alegres costas del Estado de Jalisco. Y como no estarlo, si a escasos 10 años de haber sido descubierto por la famosa pareja ELIZABETH TAYLOR - RICHARD BURTON, (por ser precisamente ahí, donde se divorciaron de sus respectivos conyugues y contrajeron su ansiado matrimonio. Ademas de la filmación de la película "La Noche de la Iguana") Salto a primera plana de la prensa mundial.

Su desarroyo ha sido asombroso como vertiginoso, pues a pesar de haber estado incomunicado con el resto del mundo por años, ahora hacen su arribo a diario, barcos de lujo, como el Princess Patricia, Princess Italia, Princess Carla y el Jason. Repletos de turistas ansiosos de ver esas bellezas naturales, tan famosas ya en el mundo entero.

Su Aeropuerto Internacional, ha sido demolido y ampliado 3 veces en este lapso de tiempo, y acualmente resulta casi imposible dar servicio a tantos aviones "JETS" que aterrizan y despegan continuamente. (Mexicana de Aviación, Aero Mexico, Air West, Eastern Air Lines, Western, Canadian Lines, Air France y Real Holanda. Sin contar las lineas pequeñas que funcionan dentro del país.)

Ogualmente por su fabulosa carretera costera, llegan al puerto encantado, miles y miles de turistas extranjeros y nacionales.

Por mar, aire o tierra, todos viajan con la misma ilusión, la misma alegría, la hora se acerca, al fin van a conocer el paraiso (ya no tan escondido) del que tanto han oido hablar, y del que saben unicamente por la tremenda promoción turística, que el Departamento de Turismo ha manejado tan habilmente y que ha hecho al igual que los Burton, que el nombre de PUERTO VALLARTA, traspace las fronteras mas alla de lo increíble.

Los nativos tratan de hacer mas placentera la estancia a estos fugaces vicitantes, todos se ponen en accion, todo es alegría, bullicio, deseos de conocer, gozar de la hospitalidad mexicana, escaparse un poco de la rutina diaria de sus lugares de origen, quieren conocer sus costumbres, hacerse sus amigos, (Pues saben que los mexicanos son por excelencia "hospitalarios" y que siempre dicen "Mi casa es su casa, pase Ud. y se ofrecen tal como son, sencillos y sin falsedad).

Y el turista se va, pero siempre se va con el deseo de regresar, y si munca lo logra, en su mente y en su alma, quedara grabado para siempre, que en Puerto Vallarta, como en cualquier otra ciudad, que forme parte de ese maravilloso pais (mi patria) que es Mexico, se le atenderá y se le tratará con el corazon en la mano.

Atentamente

Maria Antonieta Hernandez.

Club San Felipe

Candy Veliz

Club San Felipe's fifteenth Anniversary Ball was to have been on August 11th, but due to circumstances beyond our control it might have to be extended to some time in September, whatever the case may be on the Excentrico issue of August 5th, all the details will come forth. Whether it's August 11th or September won't you join us. Bailamos?

The San Felipe Exes Reunion was a huge success and then some. Our heartiest congratulation to the committee for a job well done and especially to Candy. The last sentence is not true it is meant to put people in an uproar. Ay Calendario como te gusta el borlote.

While back at the ranch Maria, Donata, Margarita, Angelita, Jose-Fina, etc., etc., are all pushed out of shape because the queen of yester year Les gano con el paquete and to Boot she doesn't want it. Girls go soak your heads in cold water—tengan verguenza.

While I am with the subject of Queens let me tell you that Jess Martinez couldn't come up with a queen and the card room was left vestidos Y Abolotados como los novios de rancho because Alaska kept the queen.

Watergate is very costly (about two million) and the American people are not getting, they are footing the bill, so that the senators can make a grand stand play. It is not right, it is right down inhuman to be questioned by 7 or 8 senators for 3 or 4 days on things that will never get to court and if they do they will be thrown out because of exposure, which leads me to believe that our senators are so smart that when it gets to watergate they out smarted themselves. Digan que los dijo un loco — Meeee.

COMENTARIOS

PEDRO DILLON

Análisis: perfecto
Paciente: muerto

SALIERON perfectos los análisis, pero murió el paciente". Este fue el triste relato de un amigo no hace mucho. Un pariente suyo sufrió todos los primeros síntomas de un ataque al corazón. Varios médicos le atendieron y le hicieron hacer un análisis completo, como es costumbre en tales casos.

A las cuatro de la tarde en punto el mensajero del laboratorio llamaba a la puerta de la casa con los informes en mano. ¡Buena noticia! Fulano no tenía ninguna de las enfermedades sospechadas. Sin embargo, el médico que recibió el informe del laboratorio tuvo que decirle al mensajero que el paciente había muerto un minuto antes. En la constancia oficial los médicos tuvieron que escribir: "Murió de una enfermedad desconocida".

¿Quién sabe? Tal vez era simplemente caso de una enfermedad nueva o de una rara combinación de síntomas. Los médicos procedieron sobre la base de sus conocimientos, los últimos de la ciencia moderna, pero mientras no se conoce todo, de vez en cuando va a fallar el diagnóstico.

La humanidad, medida por sus propias nor-mas, no está enferma. Claro, confiesa que tiene problemas menores, cositas que dentro de poco van a encontrar su solución en la ciencia, la educación o en la justa distribución de las riquezas. Pero esto es falso, y el paciente va a morir a menos que haga caso al laboratorio divino.

Dios dice que la enfermedad humana es básicamente espiritual, y que su única cura está en la salvación que Jesús ofrece al individuo. "En ningún otro hay salvación, porque no hay otro nombre bajo el cielo, dado a los hombres, en que podamos ser salvos" (Hechos 4:12).
