Mrs. Daniel Michael Tolmach

Oxnard, California

Dear Mrs. Tolmach:

Despite the best of intentions, I have been unable to deliver personally to you the tape recording you so generously loaned me. I had planned to make a swing through your area during August, but my wife's illness prevented me leaving Washington. Rather than take a chance and delay further the return of the tape, I am enclosing it herewith.

I appreciate very much your information and assistance in this investigation. Your representations to the White House and elsewhere have been effective as you undoubtedly know. It is my understanding that no more speeches of the kind delivered by Lt. Huffaker will be tolerated by the Commanding Officer of Oxnard Air Force Base.

Sincerely,

Jack Howard
Chief Investigator
