

July 24th, 1922

Dear Miss Morgan:

Here are some pictures that I believe belong to Mr. Byne which you sent Mr. Hearst some time ago; therefore I am returning same.

2.- Mr. Hearst says that if you like the horn lantern that he sent you as a sample some time ago, will you please order enough of them to be able to use them in the winter on the corners of the houses. He does not think they will break the way the glass lanterns do, no matter how the wind witches them about. Enclosed is picture of a similar one, but from a different source.

3. Mr. Hearst told me to send you the enclosed photographs and drawing of this temple.

"I have
~~he~~ bought this and ~~he~~ thought it ~~it~~ might be well to erect it in the rose garden against the trees where we were putting the pergola", said Mr. Hearst.

"It would look beautiful against the trees facing the houses, and we might use a pergola on each side."

Mr. Hearst said he hoped the rose garden was planted and told me to ask you if there was anything you wanted him to do before he went West and he will attend to it if you will telegraph him, as he will be leaving shortly.

Sincerely yours,

✓

JW/LD.

ered disposition of harmonious elements, the sparing use of color accents, and the subtle expression of personality, that give us enduring pleasure.

g

INTER

A QUAIN English lantern, that is hand made and has mica panels. can be had inexpensively with a hanger for side wall or ceiling.

CASSIDY COMPANY

INCORPORATED

Designers and Manufacturers of Lighting Fixtures

101 PARK AVENUE AT FORTIETH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

T

HA

Order