We had an exchange of e-mails some weeks ago and I e-mailed him on April 3rd to let him know we are arranging a friends and family screening of the documentary on Wed April 14th @Greenway Court Theater and reminded him that we need to get together. I have not heard back from him but I am copying both he and Kathleen on this e-mail as a reminder that we need to get together. If you are in the area on the 14th, perhaps you would like to join us. I think perhaps they have been busy, but I know they are sincere in wanting to see the doc and to arrange a screening of it.

Best,
 Elaine

On April 3rd to Chon Noriega:

There is a friends & family screening at Greenway Court Theater 544 North Fairfax Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90036

On april 14th @ 7 pm. Would love to have you and your wife join us there if you're free. If not, we should get busy and screen the film for you so we can do something with it on behalf of Lupe or the Center.

Elaine,
 I wondered if you have spoken to Kathleen McHugh or Chon Noriega about your film screening at UCLA?
