

Dear Mr. Fallock,

8/17/79

The ^{very} day that I mailed the letter off to you, I received one from Mr. Bengston with a copy of the letter I had written long ago about the train ride to Arkansas. I had forgotten the details - it certainly brought back memories.

This was such a coincidence I had to drop you this card to let you know. Ann Nagano