

In this issue:

CSUCI Participates in Celebrating Camarillo History and Archives Month
Renowned Author Boyle to Headline Third-Annual Campus Reading Celebration
Economist Parry to Speak on Economic Trends

wavelength

University Library to Host Scrabble Tournament

Faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend a Scrabble Tournament to be held in the Library collaboratory (Bell Tower 1302) Wednesday, October 25, from Noon to 5 p.m. Staying for the entire duration is not required. Play a game or two and come and go at your convenience.

For further inquiries or to RSVP please contact Debi Hoffmann, reference and instruction librarian, ext. 2701 or email debra.hoffmann@csuci.edu.

CSUCI Participates in Celebrating Camarillo History and Archives Month

On Saturday, October 28th, the CSUCI Library and Archives will present "Camarillo State Hospital - A Pictorial Show of Beauty and History," from 1 to 2:30 p.m. and "Preserving Your History," from 2:45 to 4 p.m. Learn how to preserve and protect your memories and memorabilia in the latter session. Both presentations will be held in Library collaboratory (Bell Tower 1302) and are open to the campus community.

For information, please contact Evelyn Taylor, University Archivist ext. 8830 or email evelyn.taylor@csuci.edu.

Renowned Author Boyle to Headline Third-Annual Campus Reading Celebration

The CSUCI campus community and the public are invited to attend world famous author T. C. Boyle's discussion of his novel The Tortilla Curtain. The event will take place on Tuesday, November 14, at 6:30 p.m. in Salon A. Boyle's novel contrasts the lives of two families, a family of immigrants and a family of wealth and how their lives intertwine. Boyle's novel discusses relevant topics in our everyday lives such as immigration, the economy and the environment. Discussions pertaining to these topics are sure to follow. Parking for public attendees is $6.

For more information, please contact Amber Weir, events coordinator, ext. 8548 or email amber.weir@csuci.edu.

Economist Parry to Speak on Economic Trends

Staff, faculty members, and the public are encouraged to attend a presentation by nationally-known economist, Robert T. Parry on Thursday, November 16, at 6:30 pm in Malibu Hall 100. Dr. Parry, who was named to the Martin V. Smith School of Business & Economics Endowed Professorship, has served as President and Chief Executive of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. His presentation will examine economic trends, offer insights and provide perspective in regards to the way the economy functions and how it directly affects us. Dr. Parry will also offer advice in regards to economic prosperity.

For information or to RSVP by November 13, contact Dianne Wei, development and special events coordinator, ext. 8420 or email dianne.wei@csuci.edu.

Around Campus

Confetti and Light at the Seventh-Annual President's Dinner

CSUCI students, faculty, staff and friends of the University, many shown here, attended the President's Dinner earlier this month. Student Christine Thompson, vice president of Student Government, reaches in to pick the winning ticket for the Corvette raffle. The winner was Beverly Rush, of Kurt Rush Construction (no relation to President Rush).

Note: In general, event announcements in wavelength are presented in chronological order.
It is advisable to submit items at least four weeks in advance of the event.

wavelength is published by CSUCI Communications and Marketing.
Please direct questions or suggestions to Jennifer O'Brien, (805) 437-8415 or jennifer.obrien@csuci.edu.