Born in Oxnard, Michele Serros was still a student at Santa Monica College when her first book of poetry and short stories, Chicana Falsa, was published. When her original publisher went out of business, Serros sold copies of her book from her garage – now her books are required reading in high schools and universities across the U.S. In this evening, Serros will share pieces from both of her books Chicana Falsa and How to Be a Chicana Role Model. Co-sponsored by the Stranger No More Series and the College of Creative Studies.
