COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

June 2, 1961

Mrs. Jane Tolmach
Ventura County Democratic
Central Committee

Oxnard, California

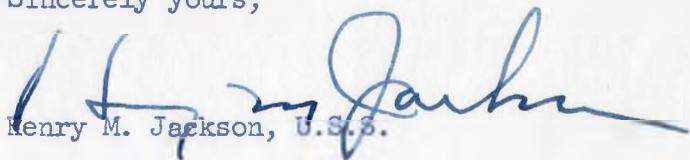

Dear Mrs. Tolmach:

Thank you very much for your recent letter inviting me to a fund raising reception and dinner after the adjournment of Congress.

Mr. Marion Walker of Ventura, California was in the office not long ago with further reference to your request. I am sorry that it was not possible for me to see him while he was here but my secretary advised him that we would be in touch with you.

At the present time I do not know just what my schedule will be after the adjournment of Congress, which should be after Labor Day. I will be opening my office in the United States Court House in Seattle about the 15th of September and should have my plans firmed up by that time. If you would want to get in touch with me again toward the end of the Session, it might be that we could work something out.

Sincerely yours,

Henry M. Jackson, U.S.S.
