

My toast to you at Original Joe's on July 5, 1965

Here's to you, Patricia; here's looking at you; here's thinking of you enjoying the company of Connie and Benno and bringing joy to Connie; here's hoping for you and planning for you - the best that is possible for you in all the world;
- here are ^{also} regrets that I'll not be able to travel the full road of life watching you develop and earn and enjoy all that will come your way - but if, wherever I go when my time comes, I am granted the ability, I'll follow along and hover as a guardian "angel" (of some sort) to help and guide & protect every way I can.
