

Ventura County Commission for Women

1996-97 Committees

Public Relations

Responsibilities: Produce a newsletter
Write and submit press releases to local newspapers and radio stations
Organize fund raising activities brochure
web page

Network & Outreach

Responsibilities: Bring information to the Commission from other groups involved in women's and family issues
Actively network with other organizations to avoid duplication of efforts, share ideas and support each other's activities, when appropriate

Legislation

Responsibilities: Monitor issues and laws relating women and children and report salient points to the Commission
Compose position papers/letters to present to the Commission for further discussion or action

Health

Responsibilities: Monitor issues and events relating to women's health and report back to the Commission on important areas
Compose position papers/letters to present to the Commission for further discussion or action
Advise the Commission on possible actions to take regarding health care issues

Welfare Reform

Responsibility: Monitor and report on education/employment and child care issues relative to welfare reform
Monitor the status of GAIN/CalLern in Ventura County
Compose position papers/ letters, advise the Commission on possible actions/positions to take on issues regarding welfare reform