

10:45 P.M. Mon Feb. 21, 1966

Dearest Patricia:

Carol Molony phoned a few minutes ago to tell me that Dr. Edmiston had phoned to say that he couldn't keep the appointment tomorrow. We can go on up if you wish and be more leisurely in looking the little house over — or rearrange program any way you choose. But please phone me early tomorrow so I can call Carol if any change in her plans + Reggie's, is indicated. Since they have agreed to be absent in the P.M. it might be well to visit the place as we had planned. However I'll do whatever you want.

Edmiston requested that I phone him again on Thursday to make a new appointment for you. He isn't in on Wednesdays.

My wish for you tonight a good rest & sweet dreams.

Love — Carl.
