Hard work is in LV resident's blood

By Patty Ecker

Look closely in a Leisure Village dictionary for the word 'volunteer,' you might see the words Ernie Ohmstedt in the definition. Name a committee and Ernie's been member and probably president. Choose an activity, his effort added to its quality. Mention a Village facility, and Ernie has probably had a hand in fixing it or remodeling it. When confronted with the long list of all he's done (and is doing) for the Village over the three decades that he's lived here with his wife Barbara, Ernie laughs. "I like to keep going; it's good for my body and my mind," he says.

Election season is here

May and June are the months when residents can exercise their political muscles as they prepare to elect members to the Leisure Village Board of Directors. This year, three seats on the Board are open. Six villagers have been selected by the Nominating Committee to run for these positions. Unofficially, the candidates are reported to be: Joyce Baker, Lin Grant, Chuck Kiskaden, Sharon Loney, Bob Riveles and Merle Ruiz.

Homeowners can evaluate these contenders at Candidates Night set for Thursday, May 21 at 7 p.m. in the AR. This public event gives voters the opportunity to hear the candidates present themselves and their aspirations for the Village. It is also the evening that residents can submit written questions to those running for office and hear their answers. The event will be televised by LVTN and broadcast several times before Election Day.

Ballots for the Board election will be mailed to homeowners on May 21. They can return their completed ballots to the secure absentee ballot boxes located in the Rec Center lobby and in the Administration Office. All absentee ballots must be submitted by 5 p.m. on June 24. They cannot be handed in the next day.

Decision Day is Thursday, June 25,

LV security detains suspects on the run

At approximately 10:40 a.m., April 15, sheriff's deputies responded to a possible burglary in progress at a house on Mulberry Ridge Drive, located on the hill across from Santa Rosa Road. Deputies found two males that fled and a third suspect waiting in a nearby car, who was apprehended. The other two suspects ran down the hill by the new church, crossed Santa Rosa Road and jumped the wall onto Leisure Village property.

A Leisure Village patrol officer was listening to the police scanner when the Leisure Village Homeowners Association hold its annual meeting at 10 a.m. in the AR. On that morning, those who haven't yet voted can do so in person from 8 - 10 a.m. in the MPR. Residents cannot bring in the ballots they received in the mail. New ones will be distributed in the MPR. All ballots will be counted during the business meeting, and the results will be announced at its conclusion.

A quorum is necessary to validate the election, meaning a minimum of 1,069 votes must be cast. It is very important that every homeowner participate in this election; the operation of Leisure Village depends in large part on the skills of the Board of Directors to provide direction to the General Manager and staff.

It's your home and your community. That's why your vote is important.

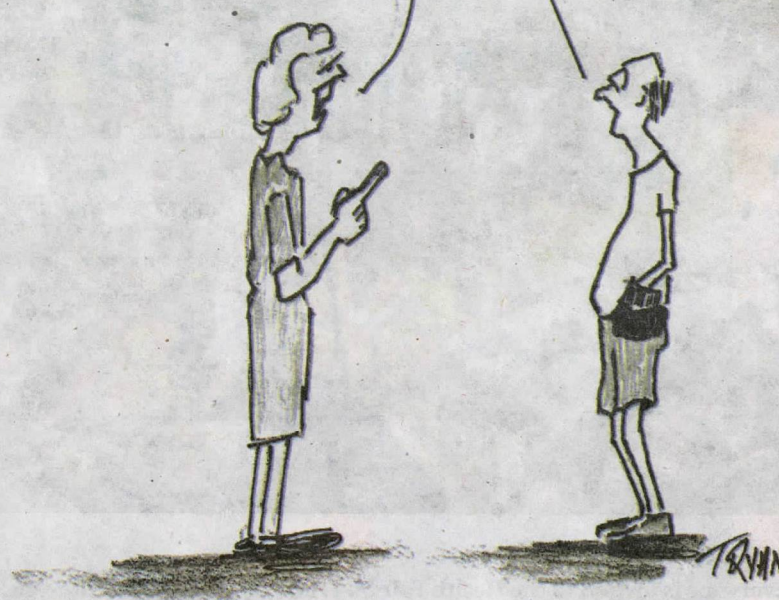

INCIDENT from 1

equipped in all patrol cars, and quickly responded to the area of Village 11. The officer observed one of the suspects running away. After a brief pursuit the officer located the suspect hiding on a patio in Village 11. The officer detained the suspect and called for deputies to take the suspect into custody.

After a search of the area, the second suspect was located along the fence in Village 11 and was taken into custody. Due to the quick response and teamwork by the Camarillo Police Department and Leisure Village patrol officers, the two suspects were captured quickly and without incident or injury.

A Mother's Day poem

By Aleta Trogdon, V. 30

I look at your work-worn hands
And as through a camera I see
All the years you sacrificed
Just for me,

You never had one carefree moment
To use or waste at will
Your heart must have felt the loss
For dreams that could never be filled.

You never complained and lived each day
With dignity, honor and pride
And held me close and dried my tears
While yours swelled inside.

In my deep quiet moments, I wonder "Have I been all your child could be?"

Have I given to you one-hundred percent
As you have given to me?

Now in the autumn of your life
Your hair is crowned with gray
A million thanks for your unselfish love
While your youth slipped away.

Pray to the Good Lord above
To recognize your worth
To reserve His most special place
For the best mother on earth.

My heart is demanding
That I must let you know
I have loved you always
Instead of "I loved her so."

How can you tell when you will need an in home care assistant?

The use of in home care assistants is becoming more popular because it allows seniors to be safe and independent in the comfort of their home.

How do you know if you or your loved ones needs an in home care assistant.

If you answer "YES" to one of more of the following questions, in home care services can help your family:

- Have you noticed your loved one wearing the same clothing daily?
- Is your loved one not appropriately grooming or bathing themselves?
- Have you noticed that your loved one's weight is declining?
- Are you seeing signs of increased skin tearing, bruising or falls on your loved one?
- Is there a lack of healthy foods in the home?
- Have you noticed that your loved one is showing signs of becoming withdrawn?
- Have you noticed medications that are not being taken appropriately?

Another main concern is how to find the right Home Care Agency. Loving Arms Family Care is fully insured and will provide the best caregiver for your needs. Locally based, Loving Arms Family Care provides a free in home safety assessment by a licensed Registered Nurse Case Manager. Loving Arms Family Care performs thorough background checks on their caregivers.

Leave the driving to Camarillo Area Transit

At a Village Town Hall meeting nearly a decade ago, a resident asked a City Council member why there were so few transportation options available to Villagers who didn't drive. The answer then was "We're working on it." The answer now is "Catch the CAT," a menu of choices, some seven days a week, featuring a dozen fixed-route destinations via busses from LV or the curb-to-curb Dial-A-Ride reservation service – all for a small charge or no charge at all.

This affordable transportation option for Villagers is the Camarillo Area Transit, the CAT, twelve vans and small busses operated by Roadrunner, now a familiar presence inside and outside Leisure Village. Also in the Fleet is the new distinctive Camarillo Trolley, which expands travel options from the Metrolink Station to the Premium Outlets for free.

Another option is the CAT Fixed Route Service that operates Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The white bus with red and blue markings picks up riders within the Village and makes 12 stops in Camarillo including the Post Office, Ponderosa

Plaza (the 99 Cents Store), the Senior Center, and Pleasant Valley Hospital.

"In March alone, we had 594 riders from Leisure Village on this Service," reports Roc Pulido, in Camarillo's Traffic and Transportation Division. He adds that it's easy to "Catch this CAT." It makes regular pick-ups at the Rec Center, the East Gate and travels around Mountain View Drive. Plus, riders can hail the departing vans along the route from the north side of Mountain View Drive. For Villagers wearing their badges the ride is free.

Another CAT transportation option for Villagers is Dial-A-Ride, a curb-to-curb service that operates every day for customers who are picked up at home, dropped off at their destination, then picked up for the return trip. This service begins with a phone call to make a reservation, which can be made two hours to two weeks in advance. Walkers, wheelchairs, or other mobility devices are no problem as long as the dispatcher is notified.

Another way to "Catch the CAT" is via the Tuesday Shopper Shuttle. It enters the East Gate, goes around Mountain View Drive to the Rec Center four times on Tuesday mornings hourly from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.. Riders can shop at Ralph's, peruse Target or go to Trader Joe's — and return home

MAKE A RESERVATION

To make a reservation, call (805) 988-4228. Be prepared to provide the following information:

"This one needs more riders," says Pulido. "Some days only four or five passengers use it."

'Unofficial visitors' spotted inside Leisure Village

The unofficial 'visitors' count is 45. Since mid-January, coyotes have been sighted in the Village and reported to security 45 times up to the middle of March, according to LV's Security Chief Manny Segovia: six in the last half of January, 26 in February, and 13 in the first half of March. The influx may be reduced, however, because the test coyote rollers may be working.

It appears the animals had clear entry at two places along the perimeter fence based on a 'sightings' map created by Pet Club President Ruth Stubba. Bright pink coyote rollers were installed as a test along that fence.

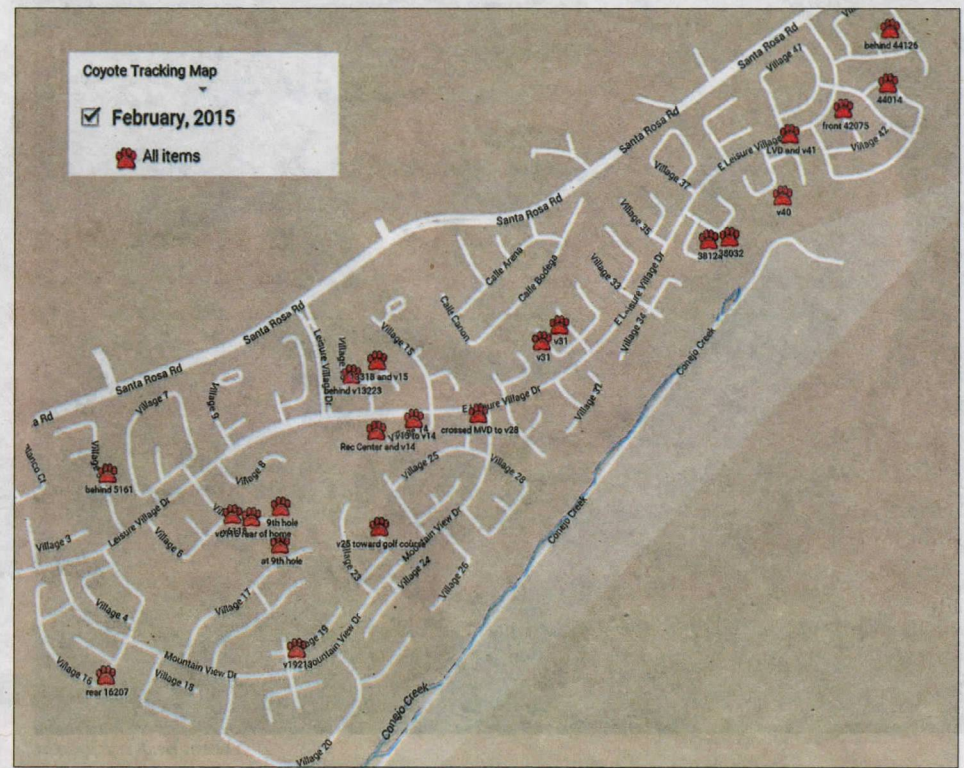

"It works!" cheers Stacy Malta who lives (with her dog) in view of one of the rollers.

A few months ago, she would see or hear two or three coyotes jumping the fence daily. Stacy phoned for help on the day she saw four big ones prowling around her house.

"The General Manager responded right away," she says. "The rollers went up as a test, and that stopped them. They can't get over. I am very pleased."

The other positive news from the coyote report so far is that no pets have been hurt or killed and no residents menaced. Several people told of a 'very large' coyote spotted at various places in the Village. Ruth suspects, since this is mating season, that might have been "dad coyote" foraging for food. And she says that the information collected so far indicates that no coyotes actually "live" or "have a nest" in the Village.

Ruth Stubba says, "The data indicates that sightings are steady, the entries seem to be clustered together, then the coyotes roam all over the village. However, we don't have enough information yet." So she asks residents to continue to call Security when they see a coyote inside the gates.

INSIDE LEISURE VILLAGE 9

A DOG'S LIFE

By Bella Cohen

Help keep Leisure Village smelling sweetly, by disposing discreetly

Hello, Bella here and this month I would like to talk about a rather delicate subject—Les Toilette. (Ok, the grammar or the spelling might not be correct, but you have to remember that I am a Yorkshire girl. Maybe one of my French Poodle cousins can correct my French for you.)

As you may know, we canines don't have the best eyesight, but we have been blessed with great hearing and a wonderful sense of smell. And it is exactly that keen sense of smell that brings me to this month's subject. Twice a day I get to walk the lush green grass of our wonderful home and enjoy all of the odors that are held there. In addition, we get to see (smell) which of our canine fiends have been there, especially around light posts and mailbox posts. And, yes I will often contribute my own scent there so that the canine world knows that I have been there. And all of that is kind-of ok, acceptable behavior in our world.

But, there is another behavior that is not so ok. I understand, as I am sure you do, that we have to answer nature's call during our walks. As the book said, Everyone Poops! The problem arises when my delicate nose brings me to a poop that was left behind—the guardian didn't pick it up! I mean, you flush your toilet at home, don't you? Why on the earth don't you clean up after your dog? Those inexpensive sandwich bags make great tools for picking up poop.

And another thing, when you do pick it up, as I truly hope you will, please bring it home and deposit in your own trash, never in a neighbor's. As the accompanying photo suggests, that is not always the case. So, be a good neighbor, clean up and properly dispose of pet poop.

Merci and au revoir. (You know, I can kind of get use to this French thing. I wonder if one of my ancestors came to England along with that William the Conqueror guy.)

P.S. As I walk the 'hood it seems to me that most people are being really good about not parking on the sidewalk. Yes, there is an occasional violation, but that seems to be mostly visitors and contractors. So, keep up the good work—and thanks!

When in drought, don't wash driveway

Residents of Leisure Village have considered themselves waterwise long before that word began appearing on banners across the county. Our 440 landscaped acres are irrigated with recycled, non-potable water, thanks to forward-thinking Village leaders who successfully campaigned to stop using drinking (potable) water to keep our grass green and plants healthy.

However, as the California Drought of 2015 bears down on the state, Villagers must step up to necessary restrictions on the way we use water. "It could be tough," said Al Fox, a Director of the Camrosa Water District and longtime resident of Leisure Village. He points out that our potable water use is way down. But the large estates and ranches down Santa Rosa Road use enormous amounts of potable water for outdoor landscaping.

"And that throws the entire Camrosa Water District into the red," Al continues. "We all must take serious water-saving measures."

While the State Water Board and the Metropolitan Water District make decisions about how much water to deliver to Southern California and ultimately what to charge for those deliveries, LV residents and workers are expected to increase their conservation habits now.

A notice went out in April to Villagers and outside gardeners working in the Village that said: Do not use house water (from the hose) to water gardens, clean sidewalks and driveways. The outside hoses use only potable water; a broom or a blower does the job just as well. Al Fox suggests we add the word "full" to our drought vocabulary, as in operate only a full dishwasher and a full washing machine. And don't flush the toilet after every use. There's no rule against washing a car at home...yet. But a better idea would be to go to a carwash that uses recycled water. A bucket in the shower can catch water for reuse as it warms up.

One curious Villager has been informally crunching numbers about our water system for several years. Ross Edmonds says he primarily researches charges for usage, sewer costs, etc. He recently focused on information from the Camrosa Water District and the Leisure Village Monthly Water Usage Report.

"We look good now. Village use of domestic (potable) water has decreased by 26% from 2011 to 2015," Edmonds said. He also reports that the average daily use by Camrosa residents in February was nearly 150 gallons per capita; the Leisure Village use in that same month was just under 50 gallons per person.

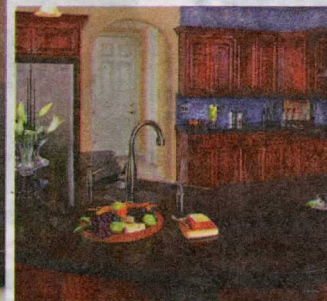

Al Fox admits "There's not much more we can do right now beyond these personal limitations." But he predicts new increased rates may be imposed (the best way, he says, to get people to stop wasting water) across the state. He adds that the Village has done everything it's been asked to do. However, the challenge is not nearly over.

Villa brothers celebrate 35 years

By Joseph Benti

Few of today's Village residents were living here 35 years ago. Those who were probably were caught up in the latest goings-on at the new construction underway on Village 35.

There was little reason for anybody to have been aware of two new hires in the Landscaping Department, the brothers Ramon Villa (now a gardener) and Herlindo Villa (part of the golf course crew).

Earlier this month, 35 years later, the Board of Directors honored the Villa brothers for their service as the Village's longest serving employees.

Born in Santiagillo, Michoacan, Mexico, the Villas, Ramon, 73 and Herlindo, 68, were working on the newly constructed golf course at the North Ranch Country Club in Thousand Oaks when Ramon applied for work here—his brother signed on a week later.

Strong family men, the brothers live within blocks of each other and within easy visiting distance of their grown children: Ramon has 5 and Herlindo 4, with a combined total of 17 grandchildren and Ramon's four great grandchildren.

Each man puts his family first. Each shares an affection for good tequila and good conversation, with Ramon partial to Spanish-language soap operas and Herlindo an avid sports fan, especially soccer and Club America out of Mexico City.

Along the way, it's a good bet, neither of the Brothers' Villa ever imagined they would still be working in Leisure Village in 2015.

These 7 photographers donated their time and photographs to be displayed at the Camarillo Healthcare Center. The T-shirts were from a photograph by Margaret Petersen, defining the feeling of these seven photographers "WE'RE ALL HEART."

Villagers helped beautify center's walls

By Joseph Benti

Most of us have heard, "a picture is worth a thousand words."

But here's a new version: "100 pictures by 7 Villagers can be worth a thousand dollars."

That's what happened when some Villagers helped to beautify the walls of the Camarillo Healthcare Center.

Over the years, many Villagers went to the Center to recover from surgery and illness. As in most such places, the walls usually are either blank or a gallery for what might be called "all-purpose motel art."

About five years ago, that look changed at the Center when ILV's Staff Photographer Jerry Spector visited his mother who was recuperating from surgery.

Bothered by the aesthetic plainness of the surroundings, Jerry suggested bringing in some photographs by Village residents to start an on-going project that was just rewarded with a donation of one-thousand dollars from the Center to the Village to help buy new equipment for the Village's soon-to-be-completed Fitness Center. (The donation still must be accepted by our Board).

In making the donation, the Healthcare Center's Director, Brett Watson, said, "The exchange helps us realize our core value, which is to partner with the community," to which he added, "Aside from the aesthetic contribution, the pictures work wonders in provoking memories and conversations among residents, their families and visitors and also among the staff. Watson concluded, "It helps to make everybody happier."

In the current photo contribution, Jerry and 6 Village residents, Jack Caldwell, Doug Demers, Gregg Gilmore, Laura Greffly, Marg Petersen, and Judy Spector, chose 160 of their photographs which they then winnowed down to just over 100 to be displayed in all the Healthcare Center's rooms and throughout the common area. Spector said, "It's not just the beauty of a picture or the story it projects, but the therapeutic quality it brings to the residents and staff."

In addition to its $1,000 gift to the Village, the Center also showed its appreciation by selecting one of Marg Petersen's photos on special T-shirts it printed up for the photographers whom Spector calls, "The Magnificent Seven."

OHMSTEDT from 1

to the plant manager of 150 employees in Van Nuys to a hands-on Village volunteer, Ernie says he loves to "keep busy."

It was golf and aging parents which first lured the Ohmstedts to Leisure Village. His mother and Barbara's mother were early residents. In 1979, Ernie and Barbara moved from Chatsworth to be closer to them. Ernie kept working (and commuting) for ten years until he retired and "immediately looked for something to do here," says Barbara, and he has never stopped.

His goal of volunteering is simple: he wants to protect the Village, not transform it. "It's pretty close to perfect," says Ernie. "I'd be hard-pressed to find something to change. But there's lots for us to do to maintain its quality."

Over the years, he has served on the Purchase Research Committee, Buildings and Grounds, and the Architecture Committee. For 16 years, he's been co-chair of 'away' golf tournaments (matches played out of the Village) and served as President of the Men's Golf Club.

His long-time friend Mannie Abbate describes Ernie's "mellow, uncontroversial way of getting things done."

"He's satisfied with the results without taking credit for them. In his capacity as 'volunteer,' he has served more than a dozen Boards of Directors without getting involved in the politics," Abbate said.

Ernie is a master woodworker who built all-new light fixtures and wood trim for the Billiards Room and helped replace the baseboards in the AR. A sign in the Woodshop by the metal lathe reads: "To learn to work it, call Ernie." He created the Village eNews; it now has nearly 700 subscribers.

In 1998, Ernie was asked to chair the Education & Recreation Committee.

"I didn't know what it was, but I said 'yes' anyway," he remembers. "I asked the members what their duties were and we went from there." This is his 17th year as chair.

While a young man, Ernie got a major promotion, replacing a man who couldn't delegate.

"He tried to do everything himself and failed. I never forgot that lesson," he recalls. "I've learned that other people want to help and contribute. All you have to do is ask. I'm not bashful about asking."

Ernie's middle name could be "contribute." General Manager Bob Scheaffer says, "He is a model volunteer. We don't always agree; but he always does his research before he suggests something. I wish we had a dozen Ernies."

If the coyotes don't get you, security will.

Ernie Ohmstedt is the go-to guy when it comes to operating the metal lathe.

Musicians Club

By Jean M. Hart
Bonnie Green

Our St. Patrick's Day dance party was a great success ... 265 attendees. Sam Arouesty and his 17 piece band played, there were many raffle prizes and the entire evening was free.

Our 'Cabaret Night' is the first Friday of the month in the AR. This is where residents can show their talents, playing an instrument or singing a tune. Join us tonight at 7 p.m. for wine, coffee and cookies ... All free to attendees.

On April 3, the performers were Richard Weiss on piano, Paul and Joyce Schifanelli singing a duet, with Joyce also performing on the piano, Don Stevens on trombone, Sam Arouesty on clarinet and Dick Guttman on the organ. Richard Weiss accompanied Fred Vajda on a wonderful operatic aria.

Membership in the Musicians Club is $5 per year. A great opportunity to meet your talented neighbors and have a fun-free evening, all free.

Mark these dates: Come to 'Cabaret Night,' May 1 and 'Sing Along', in the AR with popcorn and drinks, May 11. The movie "The Music Man" will be shown. Also, every Tuesday evening residents are invited to listen to the band practice at 7 p.m, and it, too, is free.

REALTOR'S CORNER

By Sharron Parker

Leisure Village continues to improve for homeowners and our real estate investment. We can thank our Leisure Village Board for the wonderful upgrades to the property we all enjoy. Most potential buyers see Leisure Village as a great place to live with the homeowner association fee showing value.

Some of the newer rule changes involve the removal of all wood fences which may be replaced with slump stone or vinyl, although replacement is not required if not visible from the two main streets. Wooden construction garage doors must be replaced at the time of sale or new lease with a modern aluminum, steel or other material acceptable to the Architectural Committee.

All new construction of any existing structure with Leisure Village shall include a stucco exterior. Please remember, all exterior modifications require Architectural Committee approval prior to the start of the project.

At the time of sale, change of title to an irrevocable trust, or original lease, any features of the building that are not in full compliance must be brought into compliance or removed from the property. Violations will be subject to a fine and/or restrictions of common area use privileges.

Should you decide to sell or lease your property, it will be important to understand and comply with these and other changes. Certainly, it is helpful if your chosen Realtor knows these rules and can get you required Architectural Committee permits, estimates, etc. to help guide you through the requirements and make sure all changes are cleared by the Association office before the sale or lease change.

Our Leisure Village Association office requests that homeowners and tenants make sure that they have a Power of Attorney at the Leisure Village office and that any change in the deed be given to the office with an updated Association Information Form.

LV Men's Golf

By Rob Sollett

The ink wasn't fully dry with the accounting of Bob Michna's inaugural LV Hole in One during open play in February, when he does it again! His second Ace, on March 24, came during the LVMGA Tuesday Tournament. "I hit it off the fourth Tee pretty good, but couldn't find the ball," a jubilant Michna recalls. "My playing partners Rody Alvar and Tony Minero helped search when lo and behold it was hiding in the hole." Well done, Bob.

Bill Crome achieved his Hole in One on number 11 during the March 31 Tuesday Tournament. This is Crome's fourth Ace on the LV Course. Way to go, Bill.

Bob Pegg hit "a little lucky shot" on number 5 to score his third Hole in One on the April 7, Tuesday Tournament.

The April 14 Tuesday Tourney saw Joe Miller score an Ace on number 2. "I hit the ball and it went in the hole," he said modestly.

President Pat Gunning scored his first Hole in One during the April 14 tournament on hole number 18. "This is my first Hole in One since I started playing 50 years ago," he said.

John Hitchcock scored an Ace during open play in April. Hey ya' know, with all these hole in one's, it sounds like a donut shop!

Hey, if you haven't noticed, the Tuesday Tournament starting time has been changed to 8 a.m., so forget that extended beauty sleep, cause you're gonna need that time for the earlier tee off. Yes, we'll have coffee for blurry eyed golfers.

The LVMGA Lost and Found is beginning to accumulate a number of clubs. If you have lost something from your golf collection, we may have it. Consult the listing on the Golf Shack Bulletin Board or give Rob (yes, that would be this writer) a call at 484 4208. As always, it is important to put your name and or address on the club shaft for easy return. Something I preach, but don't do. Shame on me!

We're done here. See ya.

In addition, Sam Berman from Fountainview bowled his 61st perfect 300 game. It was exciting to see such skill being displayed.

We have been having fun making crafts together at the Tuesday morning workshops from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Note the extended half hour. We need new ideas from our members for crafts we can all do that are fun, easy and sellable.

Many members are also making lovely handcrafted articles at home to sell at the Boutique every second and third Tuesdays from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the MPR. Have you seen the beautifully designed and crafted puzzle board? You'll wonder how you ever did puzzles without one before. Summer is coming and all kinds of bags are ready

LV Bowling

By Bob Cohen

As we approach the ILV deadline, there is but one game remaining in the regular season. There is, however, absolutely no mystery as to who will walk off with the first place trophy for the year at our annual luncheon. The winning team in the second half is exactly the same team that won the first half: Team 1! Congratulations to Phyllis Jacobson, Wilma Hutson, Sal Carbone and anchor Danny Coleman.

I think it is worthwhile to note that the team won first place even though Danny took off for five weeks to roam around China. (For the life of me I don't know why; there certainly are enough good Chinese restaurants here in Camarillo.)

As stated, there are only two weeks left in the season. Next week is a position round which, under normal circumstances, would have decided the winner of the second half. Team 1's dramatic lead assures them of winning the trophy. The final week usually pits the winner of each half to determine the annual winner. For the rest of us mere mortals, it is sweepstakes week. The league uses a computerized sweepstake program which teams every participating player with every other player to determine teams in each of the three categories: men's, women's and mixed doubles. As usual, this is a handicap competition and supplements our usual side pot contests.

The final affair of the season will be our annual luncheon to be held on May 8 in the AR.

During the past four weeks, 26, 200 scratch games were bowled. Leading the parade with 7 games was Danny Coleman (200, 204, 205, 206, 224, 227, and 247). Following him with three games each were Dennis Durand (213, 223, 226), Art Matter (200, 202, 206) and Bob McQuivey (202, 211, 211). Two games each were achieved by Tash Guzman (200 and 205), John Hitchcock (205 and 219) and Vivian Hurst (202 and 202). Finally, Sybil Moore (202), Bigg Al Schuster (234) and Alan Singer (203) had one game each.

Side pot winners for week 27 were Barbara Leigh, Gerry Leibowitz and Sandy Rosenthal for the ladies and Bob McQuivey, Bob Cohen and Dennis Durand for the men.

Side pot winners for week 28 were Billie Stimac, Vivian Hurst and Nora Potter for the ladies and Bill Kirkpatrick, Danny Coleman and Bigg Al Schuster for the men.

Side pot winners for week 29 were Wilma Hutson, Karen Levitt and Gail Singer for the ladies and Dennis Durand, Danny Coleman and Art Matter for the men.

Side pot winners for week 30 were Leslie Fox, Sybil Moore and Carolyn Sherman for the ladies and Dennis Durand, Art Matter and John Albany for the men.

The 2014-2015 season may be coming to an end, but the 2015-16 season is just ahead. Sign-ups officially occur in August, but in reality are accepted any time. For more information, call Bob Cohen at 419-4682.

By the way, the current slate of officers were re-elected by voice vote: what a surprise!

The Amateur Radio Club

By Jonathan Fox

Last month, two of our members, Zak Cohen and Tim Wheeler gave a demonstration of a new software program that can be used for both emergency and general communications on a variety of ham radios. Everyone joined in by sending messages from one laptop to another wirelessly during the demonstration. The program, Fldigi, has numerous ways to send messages in a clear and concise manner and includes forms for various organizations like the Red Cross.

Our next meeting will be held on May 7 at 2 p.m. in the MPR. One of our members, Mark Holland, will give a special presentation on how to enjoy Amateur Radio at home.

If you are curious about becoming a member of the club, please join us at one of our meetings. You do not have to be a licensed amateur radio operator to join. We will provide help in getting your license and it's now easier than ever since Morse code is no longer required. Meetings are held the first Thursday of the month in the MPR at 2 p.m. For more information contact Jonathan Fox at 377-3697 or KJ6LV@yahoo.com.

LV RV Club

By Darryl Sobelman

Although we did not take our RV's 30 Leisure Village RV's and three guests, attended the Friday Night Fish Fry at the Oxnard Elks Lodge on March 27.

Among those in attendance were Jack and Cyndee Miller, Karen and Lew King, Jim and Pam Ronge, Darryl and Carole Sobelman, Burt and Arlene Sedlak, Jack and Kathy Caldwell, John and Julie Kingsley, Jeff and Mary Beil, Ruth and Alan Kay, Byers and Dorothy Manchester and several others. I am sorry we did not get everyone's name as we were all feeding our faces and failed to get a list of all attendees.

It was an All-You-Can-Eat Fish fry with French fries, garlic bread, cole slaw and all the fixin's! Everyone said the food was delicious!

The club was invited by Bill Stanchick, a representative from the Oxnard Elks Lodge. He spoke to us about the Elks International as well as the Oxnard Lodge itself. The Elks support many charitable organizations and donate to local charities, too. Each lodge has an RV Club and there is an International RV Club as well. It was definitely a recruitment tool, and it seemed to work! I think they got two or three new members.

April 16-19 found nine LV RV Club members joining 12 members of Darryl Sobelman's Happy Rovers RV Club.

The Booster-sponsored Spring Sale was a great success. Tables sold out early and much fun was had finding treasures and bargains. On July 29, we are having a Christmas Slumber Party, ugly holiday sweaters and all, pajamas, dancing, breakfast for dinner and hopefully a Santa visit.

This is our yearly fundraiser so please mark your calendars for a terrific event. Our year will be concluded with our annual Veterans Day Canteen.

Proceeds from all of our events go to fund projects and activities in our community. Please join us at 6:30 p.m. on the third Monday of every month. We need you!

The New York Club

By Frank Seiden

The New York Club is pleased to present Marvin Robinson at our May 7 meeting. Mr. Robinson is remembered for his past performances at Leisure Village for his wonderful audience contact; his rich, melodious voice and songs for all ages. He is a not-to-be-missed performer. He is THE voice. A little bit Vegas, definitely Hollywood, deep-seated Gospel and Motown roots coupled with pure charismatic entertainment.

We are selling tickets now for our colorful luau on June 4 at 6 p.m. in the AR. You can call Florence Sklarz on 482-5001 or Shirley Levy on 419-6131 for tickets which are $18 per person for dinner and great entertainment by Ka Mele Wai O Ke Anuenue. With a name like that (Can you pronounce it?) you can expect some authentic Hawaiian music and music for your dancing pleasure.

So wear your grass skirts and leis, if you have them. We won't ask you to do a hula unless you want to. The menu includes: pulled pork, chicken kabob, Asian salad, tropical fruit with mango and pineapple, sweet and sour meatballs, a rice dish, fluffy rolls and, for desert, pineapple upside-down cake washed down with your choice of fruit punch, coffee or tea.

Country Western Dance

By Sue-Ellen Colp

The First dance on a Saturday night turned out to be a big success, but we missed a lot of our regulars from the Village who didn't come. Hope you come next month.

We celebrated our five year anniversary with turkey sandwiches and great snacks, fresh fruit on sticks and vegetables on sticks for our healthy side and for the rest, home-made chocolate chip cookies and cinnamon rolls.

We gave away some great gift cards to Smashburger, Applebee's, Trader Joe's, Lure, Good Morning Cafe and so many more. Thank you to everyone who showed up and hope to have even more next month.

The dance will be on May 9, 7 - 10 p.m. in the AR. Cost is still $5. Come and have a great time. Be sure to put your dance request on list by the DJ and he will try to get to them all. So bring a snack to share and come join the fun on the second Saturday Night for the country western dancing.

See you there. For more information Call Sharon at 910-9428.

IS IT TIME?

Is it time for some of your FAMILY AND friends to move to Leisure Village?

Well, this is what we hear from the younger owners about the "new Leisure Village".

- The Village is taking on a new dynamic with the "Baby Boomers" moving in.
- Several Villagers are still working full time—coming early to get settled before they retire.
- Many love the Prop 60/90 advantage for property taxes.
- Many love the advantage to come and go as they please (i.e. weekends, holidays, etc., RV parking, a sanitary dump adds to their convenience.)
- With the younger owners we are starting to hear about Soc Hops, Car Shows and some owners even have Harleys!
- The remodeling and updating of homes is awesome.
- Why wouldn't people want to come to the Village? There's great weather, ocean walks, shopping made easy, entertainment, new library and even a university nearby.

Have your friends call Dave, he will find them a perfect Village home!
