Patricia:

Here is the program of the 1965
Opera Season for San Francisco.

Pick out any you
want to see & how
and as many as you want to see & how and I'll get
or order the tickets
for them right away.
Also if there is any place in the

Opera House where you wish specially
to sit, I'll see how close I can come to
it with tickets.

If you want to go to
enough performances
it might pay also
to get season tickets.
After a certain number,
the rest essentially,
"come free."

Thursday 12:10 P.M.

Dear Patricia:

I was so overjoyed by the news from Mr. Theobald that I just couldn't keep it to myself. I had to call you for I knew you'd want to know.

Yesterday's many enjoyable hours still fill my mind - especially the dinner and finding "Chez Yvonne" so beautiful in its new (to me) "dress". I enjoy being dressed up - a tux is very comfortable on me too - and I certainly like to have a beautiful companion who wears clothes as beautifully as you do. We were the right combination last night - and I enjoyed every leisurely minute of it. I'm grateful to you for the whole day and evening.

I'm enclosing a miscellany of things for you to decide to keep as souvenirs or to throw away. The best souvenirs, of course are delightful memories, for we can't lose them and they can't be taken from us. Those we have, but you might just want to keep one or more of these others too.

Speaking of meditation here is a quotation on "Silent and Broken" meditation, from an Indian source that you may enjoy.

"There is no meditation apart from wisdom. There is no wisdom apart from meditation. Those in whom wisdom and meditation meet are not far from peace."

The Dhammapada

Here's to complete success for our tomorrow's sharing."

As always - Love - Carl.

P.S. I'll have dinner tonight with the De Sotos so will be away from about 5:00 to 10:00, so if you have any reason to call me - call me late.

Also for our little session on suggestion meditation tomorrow, the time doesn't really matter so make it when it's most convenient to you.
