Coupons aren't all that keep Sharon Jones busy.

Sharon Jones is one busy lady

By Patty Ecker

When Sharon and Hal Jones moved into Leisure Village nine years ago, they didn't know a soul.

"We had retired," Sharon explains. "But I wanted to remain active, to be doing something that was worthwhile."

It didn't take long to find an area of need that appealed to her: helping veterans and the military through the American Legion. She's been busy ever since.

A former teacher, Sharon tutors local elementary

This demand controller is expected to reduce energy costs at Leisure Village.

High-tech gadget expected to reduce LV's electricity bills

By Bob Cohen

Leisure Village is about to get a new demand controller.

And, exactly what is a demand controller? It is a high-tech gadget that the Clean Energy Committee found to further reduce our electricity costs.

The problem lies once again in that the Association is billed as a business. Without going into too much detail, we pay for electricity based on peak demand, with a premium for summertime use. The higher a short-term spike in usage, the higher the cost. Couple that with the fact that there are 27 different air conditioners in the Recreation Center facility and you have a mind-boggling, complex problem to manage to prevent too many of the AC units from running at one

Bible study group meets Tuesdays

By Carol Cannell

The Leisure Village Bible Study group has begun fall classes every Tuesday at Emeritus, located just outside the Village main gate. We meet at 10 a.m. and are dismissed at 11:15.

This is a warm and friendly group of women who want to know more about the Bible. There are four pastors who teach us on a rotating basis.

No homework is required. We start each session by singing a few hymns and then have our teaching. At the conclusion we share prayer requests, and our facilitator, Carol Cannell, prays for us.

If you would like more information about the group please call Carol at 987-7570.

All are welcome.

LV Wii bowlers win 2 tourneys

By Joyce Schifanelli

Members of the Leisure Village Wii Bowling Club (LV) are riding high after competing victoriously in two tournaments.

The first event was held in Leisure Village on Sept. 8 with the top eight Wii bowlers of Fountain Valley (FV), a senior residence in Reseda, versus our club's top eight bowlers.

The second event was held on Monday, Sept. 10, at the Pleasant Valley Senior Center (PV) when our top eight bowlers competed with their top eight bowlers.

- FV A Team, 1332 pins vs. LV A Team, 1696 pins in two games. Paul Schifanelli bowled 246 and 225, the highest LV score in each game. Also competing on the A team were Sylvia Edmonds, Joan Levy and William Lamar.

- FV B Team, 1398 vs. LV B Team, 1497 pins in two games. Kathy Wirtz bowled 241, the highest LV score in Game 1. In Game 2, Jerry Spector bowled the highest LV score with 228. Sam Lak and George Lueke also played on the LV B team.

- PV A Team, 2538 vs. LV A Team, 2860 pins in three games. The PV A team won Game 1 by 46 pins.

The LV A team won Game 2 by 171 pins. Joan Levy bowled the highest LV score in Game 2 with 267. With one win apiece, a playoff game was required. The LV A team won Game 3 by 201 pins, bowling 37 strikes out of a maximum of 48. Joan Levy and Sylvia Edmonds tied for highest score, each bowling 279. Paul Schifanelli and William Lamar also played on the A team.

- PV B Team, 1304 vs LV B Team, 1673 pins in two games. The LV B team won both games. Rei Sugita bowled the highest LV score in Game 1 with 227. Darryl Sobelman bowled the highest LV score in Game 2 with 237. Also playing on the B team were Kathy Wirtz and George Lueke.

Paul Schifanelli coordinated the Sept. 8 event with Fountain Valley resident Paul Treitman, a former LV resident, and Sharon Green, an LV resident and LV Wii Bowling Club member. He also worked with Yvonne Valles, program specialist for the Pleasant Valley Senior Center, in coordinating the Sept. 10 event.

Village Arts club tours Camarillo gallery

By Marion Green

There is a hidden treasure open for discovery in our lovely Camarillo neighborhood.

Recently, the Village Arts club took a tour of the Studio Channel Islands Art Center Gallery (SCIART) and several studios where the resident artists maintain their creative workspaces. Located in Old Town Camarillo at 2222 Ventura Blvd., in grammar school classrooms that have been converted for artists, it is a cultural hub with 20 studios shared by 40 working artists. Several of these artists have come to Leisure Village to demonstrate their crafts at the Village Arts meetings.

It is a non-profit art and education center founded in 1997 on the campus of California State University Channel Islands (CSUCI), and it moved to its more accessible location in 2010.

The Art Center Gallery was kind enough to offer the Village Arts group an opportunity for membership.

This will allow the club members to occasionally display their work at a place in the gallery designated for that purpose and will also provide a discount for individual members. Club members may be asked to volunteer at the gallery. Membership also affords an opportunity to participate in their web site.

At their next general meeting, the club will vote on the option offered. What a great opportunity for the Village Arts club members to feature their work in a local gallery.

On the first Saturday of each month, artists open their studios to visitors and will meet and talk with them while they practice their craft.

With a broad range of mediums, one might see actor and artist Daniel Stern working on his bronze sculpture, Christine Leong on her Chinese brush painting, another artist sitting at her loom weaving cotton

REALTORS CORNER

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate

For those homeowners who have a mortgage on their home, interest rates continue to be amazingly low. Now may be a perfect time to refinance the mortgage rate and/or the length of the loan.

As a rule, a rate reduction of 1 percent to 1.25 percent or greater will be of significant benefit to the homeowner in reducing their monthly payment.

Example A: $250,000 30-year fixed rate at 6 percent equals a $1498.87 payment.

Example B: $250,000 30-year fixed rate at 4 percent equals a $1193.54 payment.

Take a look at your original loan paperwork or call your bank to find out your current interest rate. It may be very worthwhile and save you a considerable amount of money to refinance.

Another thought: Considering today's very low certificate of deposit rates, apply that money to lowering the principal balance on your existing loan, thereby reducing the amount you will pay.

Realtors work on transactions with mortgage brokers and direct lenders regularly and will be glad to provide the name and phone number of a good loan representative to answer any of your questions. You may also want to discuss any potential changes with your tax specialist.

— Sharron Parker is a licensed Realtor with Troop Real Estate Inc. and can be reached at 805-443-1998.

Villagers help rescue stranded cormorant

Walter Fuller of Ventura Shorebirds tends to the stranded cormorant, dubbed 'Arnold.'

A casual stroll on the beach turns into an adventure when a seabird is found in distress

By Jean Kohut

Out for a late-afternoon walk and some photography time on the beach, Leisure Village residents Margaret Falconer of Village 28, Jean Kohut of Village 44 and their friend, Ed Conde of Agoura, came across a seabird in distress on Ormond Beach off Arnold Road in Oxnard.

The Ventura County Shorebirds organization has a small presence in this area. Jean let her two friends know they needed to walk back across the sand dunes (no easy feat) and inform Walter Fuller of Ventura Shorebirds there was a Brandt's Cormorant in need on the beach.

Walter and Jean walked back to where the bird was sitting on the shore. Knowing exactly what to do, Walter, gloves on his hands, gently picked up the distressed bird and walked him back to his office area. He keeps a large kennel just for this purpose.

He immediately contacted an organization in Ventura that rehabilitates sea and shore birds.

On the way back, Jean asked her friend Ed, "What should we name the cormorant?" Without hesitation, Ed replied, "Arnold." Of course! He was found right off Arnold Road.

What was a casual and almost uneventful stroll on the beach turned out to be an adventure for the three friends.

We are happy to report that Arnold the Cormorant is in Santa Barbara at a sea and shorebird rehabilitation center.

The Brandt's Cormorant stranded on the beach caught the attention of Villagers, who sought help.

Jones helps military kids

school students from military families.

"These kids have challenges that other students don't," she explains.

Their families move a lot, which means they can get behind in schoolwork. And when a parent is deployed, it can be very difficult for the child.

"They sometimes need to talk about not having their parent at home. I remember one student who unexpectedly burst into tears. It was his birthday, and his Mom wasn't there to celebrate with him," Sharon says. "Helping those kids is very rewarding."

Sharon Jones is also part of an award-winning American Legion team of – you'll never guess – coupon clippers.

"This is serious," she says emphatically. "Military families, particularly those in the lower ranks, don't make a lot of money. So we collect coupons and send them to bases all over the world to help those families stretch their food budgets when they shop in the commissaries."

In 2011, the Camarillo American Legion Auxiliary chapter was honored as the California post that sent the most coupons to military bases. Sharon laughs as she admits that "all that cutting can be tedious. Then we get letters from base commanders thanking us, and it's all worthwhile."

How worthwhile?

Last month alone, the local group sent $16,000 worth of coupons to a U.S. base in Japan. Sharon reports that some of her LV friends and neighbors add their coupons to the effort. No word on whether they arrive clipped or not.

Shop Ahoy helps homebound

Shop Ahoy is a shopping and delivery service for homebound seniors and disabled adults. The volunteer-based, non-profit group also serves those people who no longer drive, have difficulty maneuvering through Vons or are unable to carry heavy items.

These kids have challenges that other students don't.

Village resident

Sharon's volunteer work also looks to the future. She helps select exemplary girls to attend Girls State, a 60-year-old American Legion program designed to educate and inspire today's young women to become tomorrow's leaders. Girls chosen from 500 California high schools participate in the weeklong course in government held at Claremont McKenna College. "Locally, we interview candidates, then choose one from each of our six high schools," Sharon explains. "The girls are bright, ambitious, and interested in political life. One of them could become the first female president."

Sharon's committee chose Lindsay Schillo from Thousand Oaks High School for this year's Girls State held in June.

"It blew my mind," Lindsay reports. "I learned so much about government. The week was very inspirational. It made me more confident and much more informed about how our political system can and should work."

That enthusiasm makes Sharon smile. Motivated teens, comforted students or mountains of grocery coupons all remind her that she is making a difference.

on Sunday or Monday of each week to take their grocery order. Another volunteer shops on Tuesdays at our local Vons, and the order is delivered and paid for, along with a small contribution to help the system stay in operation.

The fabric of the Village: Sewing Room is a cut above

From holiday items to quilts to clothing, creativity thrives here

By Lois Keeler

The Sewing Room at the Recreation Center has been used by various groups since 1974. At the present time, "The Ladies of the Sewing Room" meet on Wednesdays at 1 p.m., The Quilters meet on Fridays at 1:30 p.m., and Origami classes meet on the first Thursday of each month at 1 p.m. Conversational Hebrew is also taught on Mondays at 12:30 p.m.

The Ladies of the Sewing Room meet to work on their individual projects or on group projects such as fabric purses, small pillows or blankets, as shown in these pictures.

In the very beginning, classes in basic sewing were given so the ladies could learn while enjoying their craft. At the present time, Karen Dress, an independent teacher, is paid by the group once a month to show them new ideas. The group is headed by Lucy Roland.

Many types of fabric and yarn are donated by various individuals and groups, and then the fabrics are sold by the yard to anyone who wants to purchase them. The money is donated to the Leisure Village Women's Club and used for their various projects. Any fabric not sold is donated to Goodwill, Battered Women or St.

Mary Magdelene's Sewing Circle, which makes blankets and gives them to children who are visiting their parents in prison.

The Quilters meet on Friday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. Leading this group is Maxine Fritz. Sometime they work on a quilt together, but mostly one person enjoys making her own quilt. It's a congenial time for all, and their efforts are really outstanding, as you see in these pictures.

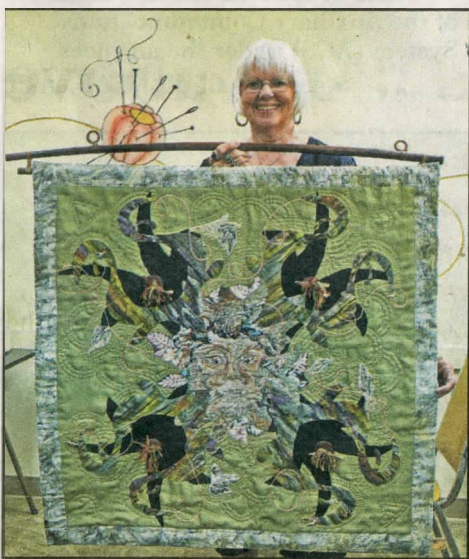

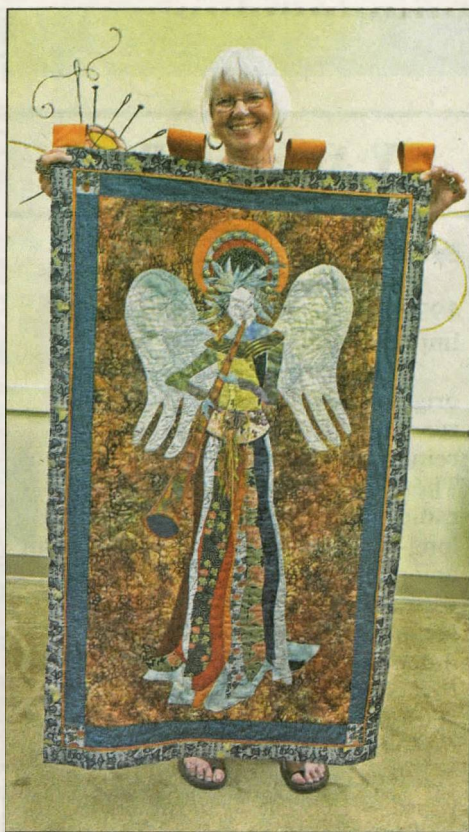

Two other groups meet in this room. One is a class on Origami. They meet on Thursdays at 1 p.m. The instructors are Betty Rasmussen and Louise Waln. All materials are provided, and anyone interested is welcome.

A class on Conversational Hebrew is conducted on Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m. This class is given by Ben Racowsky.

A word here about other uses for the room. At times Showtime and other productions have used it as a storeroom for clothes used in a production and occasionally for changing their costumes.

As you can see, it has multiple purposes and is enjoyed by many.

Photos by Jerry Spector

Above, Darlene Appleford, a member of the Quilters Club, shows two wall quilts she made in the Sewing Room. The Angel Quilt at top is made of cotton, silk, antique buttons, crystals and copper. The Celtic Green Man Quilt is hand-painted and made of silk, linen and cotton and is embellished with beads, ribbons and leather buttons. At right, Dorothy Smith shows her Autumn Leaves Quilt that was pieced together using a counted cross-stitch pattern.

Booster Club

By Marilyn Riveles

Your Booster Club took the month of July off and is now jumpstarting itself in service to Leisure Village. We are individuals dedicated to making physical improvements to the Village by providing items needed by clubs and committees that are outside of the Leisure Village budget. Ideas, energy and manpower provide the currency for those purchases.

Sadly, a lack of participants from the Village forced us to cancel our talent show, but we have two other projects on the horizon.

We are planning our annual Veterans Day USO Canteen. This special free event celebrates all servicemen and servicewomen, those in our Village as well as those currently serving our country. This will be another terrific party and will be held in the AR on Monday, Nov. 12, from 2 to 4 p.m. Tickets, as usual, are free but are limited in number. Please watch LVTV for the date and times of ticket distribution.

We are also looking to produce "A Day at the Races," the Village version of the Kentucky Derby. It will include food, fun and, of course "horse" racing. Stay tuned; this will be a great event!

Your Booster Club meets the third Monday of every month in the MPR at 7 p.m. Please join us and help us enhance our Village.

LV Amateur Radio

By Ted Lansing

The Radio Club, established in 1990, has made some significant improvements in the last year.

The Emergency Radio Center, originally dedicated in 1994, was reorganized with an expanded and reinforced pair of operating positions. There are several UHF and VHF radios, plus two HF radios covering long-range bands. The station has an emergency battery backup system with solar charger and auxiliary generator to make the station independent of the power grid. Due to a contribution by a member, the station will eventually have a 50-foot tower with antennas that will help to connect Leisure Village to the entire world — in crisis or in fun.

Some in the club are also members of the Auxiliary Communications System (ACS) under the auspices of the Ventura County Sheriff's Office of Emergency Support. Our station is a registered Emergency Operations Center in Area 3 (Camarillo-Somis) of the Ventura County System, which puts us in contact with law enforcement and hospital radio networks in disaster situations. At the present time, the emergency coordinator for Area 3 is a member of our club.

The Radio Club supplies radio operators to the EPO when drills or actual emergencies require communications support. Licensed HAMs are encouraged to join LVARC and use the station for those activities which are not possible at home due to antenna restrictions.

Anyone interested in becoming a licensed amateur radio operator can attend our meeting or contact any member of the club for more information. We meet at 2 p.m. on the first Wednesday of every month in the Village Room of the Annex.

For information or questions call Ted Lansing at 484-3884.

SAS Dinner Out

By Zelda Greentree

Our dinner out for October is canceled, but don't worry. We will resume our dinners on the second Tuesday of every month starting Nov. 13. We will still meet at Ottavio's on that night. Look for our article in November's Inside Leisure Village. Lee Edwards will still be taking reservations for the November dinner out at that time.

We are all looking forward to meeting again. Mark your calendars.

There will be no band performance Oct. 9, as there will be pre-election debates that evening.

The band is made up of 17 professional musicians who come to Leisure Village on Tuesday nights for your listening or dancing pleasure. We invite all Villagers and their friends to come and join in the fun.

Sing Along Group

By Anne Wolfson

The Sing Along group will be singing on Mondays, Oct. 8 and Oct. 29, in the AR from 7 to 8:30 p.m. All Villagers are invited to come and join in. We have songbooks, and Irene Olson or Stan Vansant will play the piano and accompany us. You don't have to carry a tune, just bring yourself and sing. It's very relaxing!

LV Musicians

By Joyce Schifanelli

If you didn't attend the concert presented by the LV Musicians Club on Sunday, Sept. 16, you missed an extraordinary show. The afternoon was filled with a vibrant and entertaining musical performance from the 22-piece renowned Ventura British Brass Band. They played easily recognized classic movie and Broadway tunes to an audience of nearly 200 and enjoyed several standing ovations. The show was equally as exciting as last year's, and we hope the band will return in the future so more LV residents can enjoy the music.

Our very popular "Great Pumpkin Ball" is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 30. Details are on Page 3.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the LV Musicians Club is

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop is available to residents with woodworking experience, provided they can demonstrate the ability to operate power equipment safely. Residents interested in having key access to the shop should contact a Woodshop Committee member for an appointment to be checked out on the equipment.

The LV Woodshop Committee members volunteer their time to offer repair service of wood items. Leisure Village residents with broken household items are welcome to bring those to the Woodshop in the Recreation Center Tuesday and Wednesday mornings between 10 a.m. and noon. There is no guarantee that all damaged items can be fixed, only that we will try to restore them to the best of our ability. There is no charge for this service; donations are accepted. For more information, contact Sid Alweiss at 482-5341.

On Oct. 31 we will enjoy a Social Continental Breakfast at 8 a.m. with scramble golf at 9 a.m. Since it is Halloween, just for fun, come in a costume — just not as a golfer! Call Merle at 444-5225. For general questions, call Naomi at 388-5999.

LV Pet Club

By Barbara Krohta

At our September meeting, Dr. Beatrice Battier, DVM, gave a very informative talk about caring for senior dogs and cats as well as the illnesses they may suffer in their later years.

Events coming up in October include a Goodbye Konner party on the patio at Snapper Jack's on Thursday, Oct. 11, at 5 p.m. Konner is moving on to his next phase of training for the Guide Dogs of America, and his canine friends are welcome to help say goodbye at the party.

Then on Friday, Oct. 19, Judy Arnold will hold a pet grooming clinic at 4 p.m. in the Pavilion. The cost will be $5 per pet, with sign-ups and payment on Monday, Oct. 8.

If you are interested in the AKC Canine Good Citizen training by Dr. Deena, be sure to come to the October meeting to sign up or contact Barbara Krohta at 445-4809.

Women's Club

By Rita Linsey and Joyce Baker

For the upcoming Oct. 11 meeting at 1:30 p.m. in the AR, you'll be entertained by Jon Stanger, playing a heart-felt guitar, and Rich Cohen, who plays a soulful saxophone with passionate vocals. They fuse the many shades of jazz and blues, from classic standards to swing and ballads.

Dancing was the theme of the Women's Club's "Dancing Stars Come to LV," its first-time evening event, on Thursday, Sept. 13, in the AR. Joyce Baker, Women's Club president, was the emcee and directed the performance. Two studios performed.

Dance-Dance-Dance in Thousand Oaks had Jaime and Gail Arias singing and dancing the West Coast Swing. They were honored as World Champions several years ago. Two students performed the Hustle.

Pam Rossi's Dance Ten Performing Arts Studio in Moorpark had seven high school girls performing contemporary dance.

Barbara Thorne, a Leisure Village resident, invited the non-profit Channel Islands Figure Skating Club. They presented a video showing how their club helps children learn to dance and ice skate. Five performers did a synchronized floor dance that was energetic and awesome!

The evening was topped off with Aaron Altman, 12, and Rashell Khalfin, 11, dancing the Paso Doble and the Jive, and they brought down the house with their encore dance, the Cha-Cha. They appeared on "Dancing With The Stars" twice at the age of 7.

We'd like to thank those who volunteered their time for the event: Cathy Busch, Therese Kaiser, Betty Herrmann, Marge Moran, Margo Pegg, Shirley Francis, Daralyn Rosam, Shearon Millar, Wilma Hutson, Mary Barkemeyer, Helen Newton, Rita Linsey, John and Kathy Wirtz, Bill Foeller, Todd Williams, Susan Rockwell, Danel Stites, Shelly Runge and the maintenance staff.

Friday Night Country Western Dance Club

By Sue-Ellen Colp

The next dance will be Friday,

Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m. Dance lessons will begin at 8:15 p.m. Sue-Ellen will be teaching, and it will be a surprise.

We have a full house and never enough time to play all the dances on the list. Our DJ, Marshall, tries, but we always seem to run out of time. Thank you to everyone who has been bringing snacks — they have been so good.

Francine Mackey, an instructor from Santa Barbara, surprised us and came to our dance and was kind enough to teach us "Buzz, Buzz, Buzz," a cute dance enjoyed by all.

Come on down and join the fun. You don't have to dance. Cost is only $5. Coffee, water and punch are served, along with all types of goodies. BYOB if you wish.

LV Men's Golf

By Rob Sollett

Well, he did it again! Reuben Ruiz won the second Sandy Birdie on Aug. 28. Well done, Reuben. (A secret effort is underway to hide his sand wedge.)

John Wirtz has taken on the long, pending decision on golf shirts. He desperately needs logo design suggestions and commitments from members on this matter. Let him know how you feel. Playing topless is out of the question.

Aerification of the greens will be underway early to mid October. If it hasn't been completed by publication time, consult the bulletin board for course closure dates.

Regulation Golfers are looking to increase their membership. If you're interested in swinging the bigger sticks on longer, outside courses, give Mannie Abbate or Ernie Ohmstedt a call. There's nothing like hitting the ball long, riding in a cart, hitting the ball again, riding in the cart again ... you get the idea.

Please consult the LVMGA Handbook for upcoming events. For up-to-the-minute info, visit the bulletin board at the Golf Shack.

The Racquet Club

By Trish Zakas

The next club meeting is Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the MPR. The agenda includes a discussion of board officers for the coming year. Club members interested in being a board member should contact any member of the nominating committee: Betty Stallman, Sunshine Peterson or Trish Zakas.

Think you might like to give PickleBall a whirl? Lessons are given by Zack Taylor, available at 482-1065. PickleBall meets to play at the courts every Monday and Wednesday at 9 a.m. and every Saturday at 11 a.m. All equipment is provided.

Interested in learning the finer points of table tennis? Call Norm Zimring at 389-5469 for help in getting started in this lively sport.

Paddle Tennis: The sign-up sheets are on the court bulletin board for the Oct. 20 paddle tennis tournament at Casta Del Sol. We will leave around 8 a.m. for Mission Viejo and return home approximately 5 p.m. Can you be a driver? If so, please call John Peterson at 388-1230 to tell him how many people your car will hold. There is no fee to enter this tournament. Lunch is provided free by our hosts at Casta Del Sol.

Interested in the new Padel paddle tennis racquets? The Wilson and DropShot reps, with their racquets, will be at the Ojai Paddle Tennis tournament in Soule Park on Saturday, Oct. 27. Reps are usually at the park around noon. Tournament info and a map will be on the court bulletin board in mid-October. It's free to attend, but the park charges a $4 parking fee.

Wii Bowling

By Carole Warren

We continue to have more people joining our Wii Bowling Club every week, once they hear how much fun we are having or happen to wander by the Annex on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the day, or on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Each team consists of four bowlers. We meet in the Annex, and each bowling session usually lasts an hour and a half. We have three big-screen TVs, and bowlers don't need to bring a thing — this is electronic bowling, and you only need to be able to point and click a remote control.

If you need more information or want to find out about joining a team, call Carole Miller at 383-6715. We also are in need of substitute bowlers; please call Joan Levy at 482-6871.
