Dear Mr. Hearst:

I am delighted to hear that San Simeon produced those horse armors! So also will be young Martin Charles who has the understanding to enthuse with.

The Living Room plan for the Gables is greatly improved - But some private place for you?

Will bring you the new Angel Cottage sketches with eight and with six bed rooms.

I left ^{Wynnton} there Saturday evening, Brown Bear Cottage being brought up to date and progressing well - the "Pinnacles" (a fine name) foundation in-, the grading at the old Castle site on its wind-up.

An early rain would do wonders up there -

I think with the walls of the Pinnacles up, one could judge much more surely as to the effect of different sizes of "Angels". Brown Bear looks quite a house since the river side dormers have given bulk.

As always

Yours very truly
