

Student Affairs

The Dean of Student Affairs Office provides leadership, support, and resources to the many offices and programs in the Division of Student Affairs.

Division offices deal with advising, reentry, student activities, intramurals, disabled student services, international student matters, migrant services, counseling, health services, and career development and employment.

The Dean of Student Affairs Office handles student grievances, administers student discipline, and maintains liaisons with other administrative and academic areas of the university.

Student Conduct. The Student Code of Conduct (see full text in University Administration and Policies section) is designed to ensure that the normal processes of the university — both instructional and administrative — can occur unhindered. In addition to the code, there are a number of local policies that apply to specific groups of students — such as those living in the residence halls.

Dispute Resolution. A student-related dispute could arise out of a decision or action in the course of official duty by a member of the faculty, staff, or administration of California State University, Fresno. The decision or action could be alleged as discriminatory, contrary to accepted academic relationships and procedures, or restrictive of the rights of any student of the university to fair treatment. The purpose of the dispute resolution process is to provide a mechanism for students to have a third party review the situation.

The student must first make a good faith effort to resolve the matter informally by talking directly with the individual concerned, the individual's direct supervisor or department chair, and the director of the unit or school dean. If resolution is not effected through the informal procedures, students should contact the Dean of Student Affairs Office for assistance.

Cheating and Plagiarism. Also available from the Dean of Student Affairs Office is the full text of the university's "Policy on Cheating and Plagiarism." Definitions of cheating and plagiarism are found in the "University Administration and Policies" section.

Student Absences. Students are expected to maintain regular class attendance. Extended absences (more than one week) due to illness, death in the immediate family, or other extraordinary emergencies may be reported to the Dean of Student Affairs Office, 278-2541, which will notify the faculty concerned. However, the student should contact the instructor concerning the possibility of making up missed class assignments.

Student Affairs division offices deal with reentry, student activities, intramurals, disabled student services, and much more.

