

and considering it led to its point and that father was the anchor point for the entire family

There was the Supreme Court for final determination of all matters concerning the family.

- Children of destiny -
- acceptance of fate with dignity delightfully, beautiful, rosy-faced the slender almond-eyed children with black hair.

Desired buildings, now a row of these, many of them with bright little flowers and green shrubs about the base of the entry door. A silence (almost deafening) reach echoing in your mind was the happy sounds of children at play, a scene playing in a far off recreation building