Chief Legislative Assistant
Office of Senator Alan Cranston
New Senate Office Building
Room 2102
Washington D.C. 20510

Dear Roy:

As you may know, Bob Girard, Jane Tolmach and I have been planning the itinerary for the Senator's visit to Ventura County Friday, August 13, 1971. Following is the schedule (times will be inserted):

- 19.
1. Meeting with labor leaders in Ventura.
  2. Meeting with Julius Gaius, publisher Ventura County Star-Free Press.
  3. Luncheon speaker special meeting Ventura County Bar Association, questions and answers, hopefully public officials invited, and open to the public. (Mr. Phil Cohen, Deputy County Counsel, and program chairman of the Bar Association may be contacting you directly regarding the topic of Alan's remarks.
  4. Visit with publisher of Oxnard Press Courier.
  5. Tape interview Spanish language radio station KOXR.
  6. Meeting with poverty groups at Legal Services Center, Oxnard. (The various poverty groups are all feuding; Legal Services is a neutral turf).
  7. Meeting with board and special group representatives of the Ventura County Enviromental Coalition in Camarillo. Presentations by coalition people, probably loaded with Citizens Against Camarillo Airport.
  8. No-host reception in Camarillo Community Center (same place as Enviromental Coalition meeting). Proposed that the Senator both circulate and briefly summarize his impressions of the day. Radio tape with Fred Hall of KVEN, excellent reporter, and West coast news editor for MBS.

9. Hosted dinner for small group of Cranston supporters.

Why don't you come out here, enjoy the sunshine, ocean voyage of the fourteenth, and meet the troops?

Sincerely,

James A. Browning, Jr.
