for the

CALIFORNIA MARITIME ACADEMY

2005 - 2006

This Hawsepipe is dedicated to the memory of David Lyman
1944 to 2006

We, the Senior Class of the California Maritime Academy, present this, the 2006 Hawsepipe, as the record of the last year of our college career. If sometime in the future when thumbing through the then soiled pages of this book, some old memory is revived, then the purpose of the Hawsepipe will be realized.

The Hawsepipe is produced thanks to the support of ASCMA and the CMA Alumni Association

Our President Speaks

.....April 29, 2006

To the Class of 2006:

As one travels through life, there are several “descriptors” often asked of you to help define you in the eyes of the inquirer. Whether at social occasions or in a job interview, you will probably be asked where you are from, what you like to do and “Where did you go to school?”

At those times you often begin to realize just how important these college years were to your personal and professional development, and how much pleasure they gave you. Rarely again will you have so much discretionary time and boundless energy to do what you want amongst so many friends. The rough memories will dim over the years, but the good ones will seem to live on and on amongst classmates. And so it should be.

Hopefully, you will feel great pride and pleasure at saying that you went to The California Maritime Academy. I certainly say with pride that I learned from and worked with the Class of 2006. You have justly earned the right to be called alumni.

The Cal Maritime faculty and staff join me in wishing you good luck, and may the waters of your life be calm and the winds of your destiny blow fair.

With congratulations,

William B. Eisenhardt
President

Our Student Body President Speaks

Class of 2006,

Imagine every year we live as a single step. These past years spent together, steps taken; we have not only survived but learn to live a life for ourselves that will affect the world we live in today and tomorrow. The experiences we have gone through, individually and cooperatively, have helped build us into people with a future and an outlook on life that will reflect the best that Cal Maritime gave us.

Although the numbers in our graduating class have changed, the memory of those lost will never be forgotten or taken lightly. So much of our “best” has been made in the little moments, the small victories, and during the times we could see nothing else but the worst of times. This reality is one that makes us who we are, and creates the bond that will forever exist in our minds when we hear “CMA.”

Four years ago, we were told that 1 out of 3 of us would not make it. Three years ago, we were told that our first year was over and that the hard part was about to begin. Two years ago, it began to hit us that the end was approaching and that soon we were to join the world outside of CMA that so many of us were begging to once again be a part of. Now, we have arrived at a destination that seemed so far away and so impossible to many of us. Congratulations! Here’s to the next step in our lives...

I wish you all fair winds and following seas,

Alright, well I'm from San Diego "Americas finest city" and NorCal has nothing on SoCal. All you NorCal people can go take your "hella" and watch the OC and wish you were like us. The funniest moment of ASCMA for me was spending my first CSSA meeting with Cooper and Justin down in San Jose. If you knew either of them, then you know what I'm talking about. I don't know if I joined, I think I was kind of forced into doing it by Krueck and Jason?

Funniest Moment: During one meeting, a phone or something started going off and we all looked at each other, perplexed. I knew my phone was on silent but the sound was coming from my side of the table. I never ever would've guessed: It was MY ON CALL PAGER going off! Everyone started cracking up and two minutes later, the same sound started coming from the other side of the table. It turned out to be Jessica's!

The Cry Of Youth

We stand upon the threshold, young and eager,
Expecting something-what, we do not know.
Delighted that our student days are over,
And yet-we somehow hate to see them go.

Sympathy for youth no longer shields us
From the things that life can do to men.
No longer can we hide from truth, but face it,
The world will find our weaknesses, and then

We will be tested, and perhaps, found wanting,
We many be failures, or achieve success,
Or we may spend our life in endless searching
And never find our object, Happiness.

But life itself is here, and we shall meet it,
There is no turning back, the road leads on.
The carefree days of youth and play are over,
The joyous day of childhood dreams are gone.

But better things are just around the corner,
And bigger things are waiting to be made.
We're glad the problems of the world confront us-
Pray God that we may meet them unafraid.

CALIFORNIA MARITIME ACADEMY MERCHANT MARINE RESERVE COMPANY DET-71

Message from the Officer In Charge Lieutenant Commander Darron D. Thompson, USN

"It is hard to believe another school year has passed. I am always amazed by the transformation that occurs with every class: Freshmen quickly learn the ropes from seasoned Sophomores while Juniors seek Company leadership roles and Seniors prepare for the exciting challenges ahead as newly commissioned 2nd Lts. or Ensigns in our nation's Sea Services. At the beginning of the school year I challenged each of you with three goals: personal safety, improved academic performance, and improved physical readiness. To my staff, the newly commissioned 2nd Lt and Ensigns of class 06, I am please to report that through your leadership of the underclassmen, we accomplished those goals with flying colors. Well Done! Class 07 now it's your turn. I challenge you to lead by professional example while instilling the core values of Honor, Courage, and Commitment.

It continues to be my great honor and privilege to lead an exceptional staff and the finest Company of future Marine, Navy, and Merchant Marine Officers in the country."

"Semper Fortis- Always Courageous"

The California Maritime Academy Merchant Marine Reserve Company NROTC Det-71

The Company at Cal Maritime is made up individuals who opted to serve our country as Reserve or Active Duty Officers. From their freshman year through their senior year these Midshipmen train and drill intensely to reinforce their knowledge of orders, drill exercises, and the professional ethics and leadership. All of which is tailored to turn them into commissioned officers. With the guidance and aid of individuals such as Lieutenant Commander Darron Thompson, Lieutenant Aaron Running, Yeomen First Class Deirdre Smith, and Ms. Antonia Vasquez these Midshipmen are well on their way in becoming those first class officers. We are pleased to share with you our journey.

Our country is not the only thing to which we owe our allegiance. It is also owed to justice and to humanity.

Patriotism consists not in waving the flag, but in striving that our country shall be righteous as well as strong.

YEARBOOK

This year's staff of hard working and hard drinking cadets have really pulled together and made this one of the best Hawsepipes to ever come out of CMA. With our stern and sometimes even tyrannical editor Tim Petrick at the helm the great tradition of the Cal Maritime Hawsepipe lives on... well at least for one more year.

Now you should have a better understanding of the sweatshop conditions we were forced to labor in by our cold and cheerless editor.

BIBLE CLUB

*All mighty Father, whose way is in the sea
and whose paths are in the great waters
whose command is over all and whose love never faileth:
Let me be aware of Thy presence and obedient to Thy will.
Keep me true to my best self,
guarding me against dishonesty in purpose and in deed,
and helping me so to live
that I can stand unashamed and unafraid before my shipmates, my loved ones, and Thee.*

"The CMA Bible Club is a group of cadets who desire to know God and to stand beside each other in times of struggle and times of gladness. This past school year had camping trips, barbeques, and gatherings every week in the Student Center for this purpose.

Through studying the Bible we learn not only who God is, but also who God created us to be. We know that all of mankind is created in God's image (Genesis 1:27), but because of our own wrongdoings that image is distorted (Romans 3:23). There is no way for us to make ourselves right again, and there is nothing to look forward to beyond this life but death (Romans 6:23). However, because of His infinite love, God has provided the only solution, which is in the death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ (Ephesians 2:4-10). It's nothing that we have done, but a gift from God that we would have peace in this world because of the promise of eternal life.

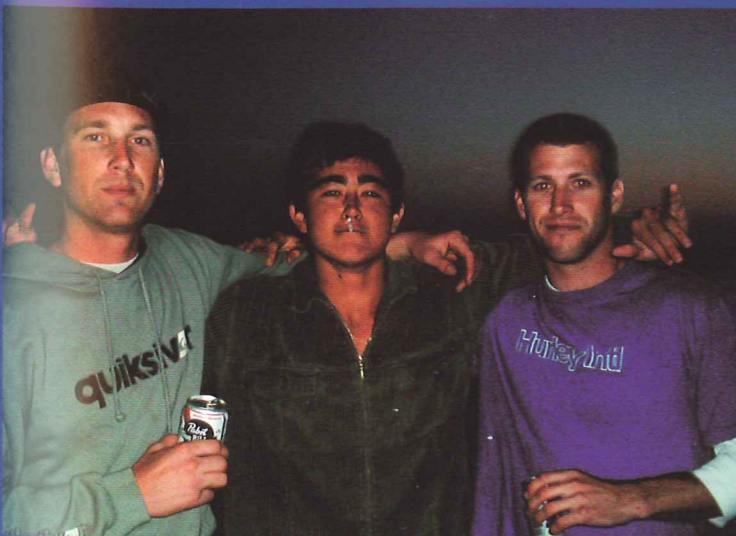

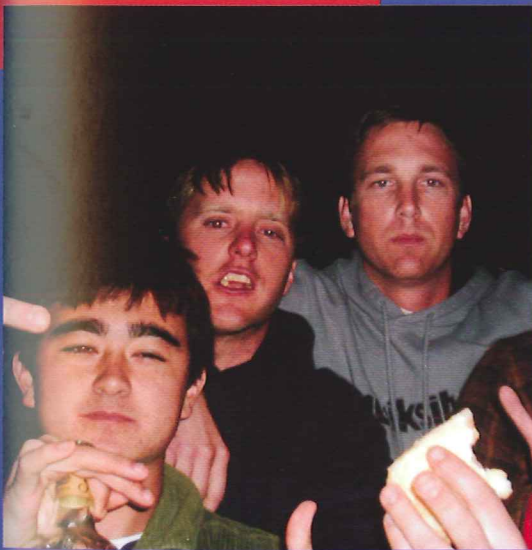

Even experiencing the change in our lives that we have and believing what we do, we still make mistakes all the time, and it's frustrating, but our hope is that people around us will see the joy and the love that we have because of the amazing work that God has done in us.

This is random, but check out Psalm 107 if you want to read about sailors in the Bible.

"May God bless you and keep you."

At the surface they radio the data to a satellite and then sink to 1000 m and drift again. The floats last about 5 years before their batteries run down, unless they run into a seamount or an island or some other misfortune occurs.

This year ACE sponsored 'SINGLED OUT' a very interesting game show in Rizza Auditorium that subjected several beautiful women to the best and worst CMA had to offer. Unfortunately what the ladies didn't know that, not only do sailors exaggerate their sea stories but also their physical attributes.

She looks confused and a bit worried. I'll bet you her friends off stage are trying to tell her "He's not that bad looking, honest"

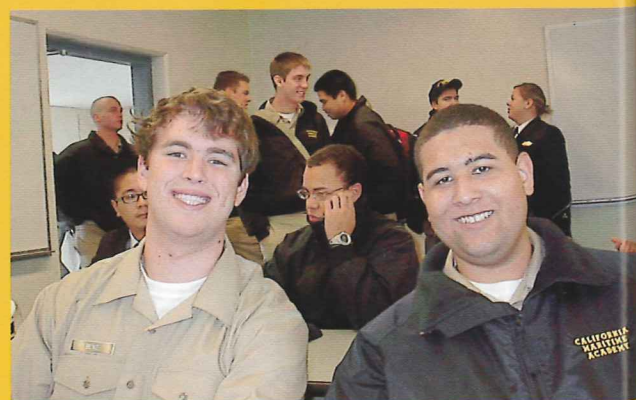

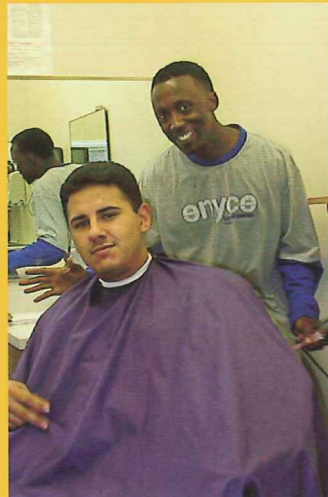

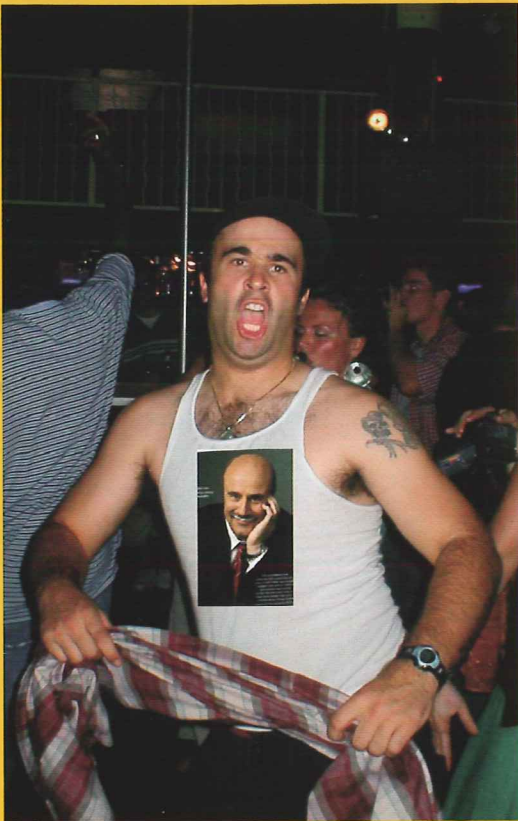

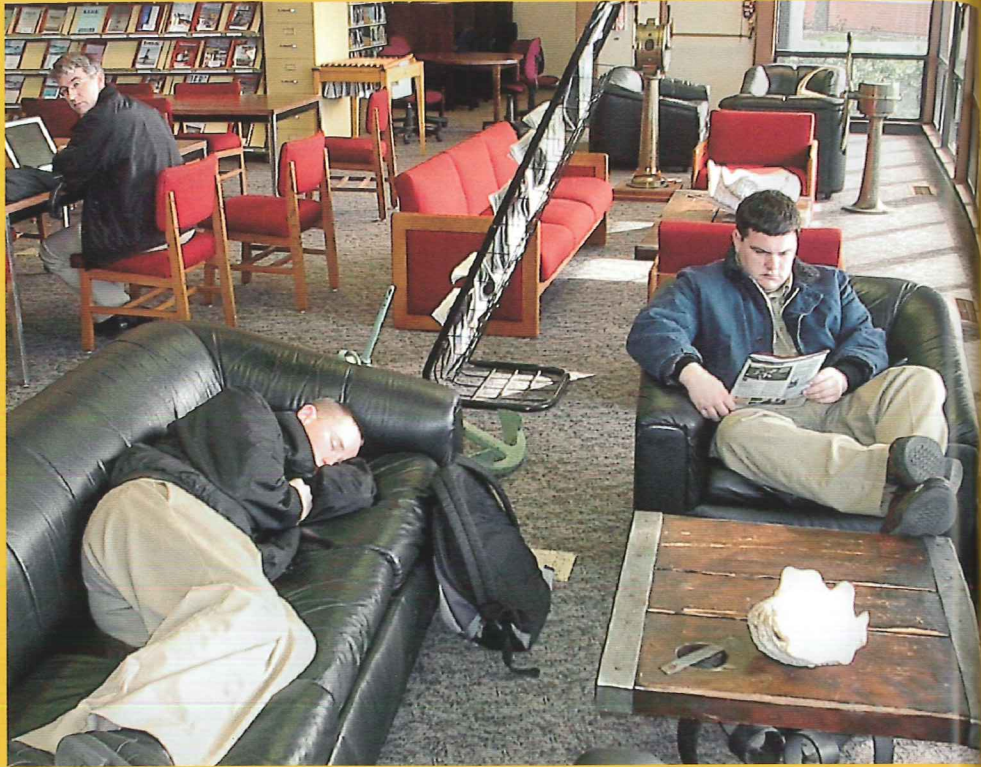

Pray all you want, it's too late now!

This group of unwitting cadets was, while innocently walking from class, mauled by Kema the school bear. Below you can see Cadet Parson vainly trying to pull Kema off a terrified 4th class MT.

Uncle Dave: Larger Than Life

On February 6, 2006, Cadets Christopher Kojima, Ku'u lei Thomas, David Kopra, Dylan McCall, Maisa Thayer, and I, paid our respects to a fellow seaman and California Maritime Academy graduate David B.K. Lyman. Captain Lyman, better known as Uncle Dave, was a guiding light to many of Hawaii's youth.

As a young child growing up on Oahu, I knew Uncle Dave as a funny man, who would always take me sailing. Every time we would get out on the water, he would have a new joke and new life lesson to teach. As I grew older, Uncle Dave told me about CMA and through his guidance, I decided to attend Cal Maritime. I would come home every summer and we would talk about everything I learned. One of our favorite things to do was tying knots together.

One summer Uncle Dave gave me a book about knots, splices, and fancy work. He wrote in the front cover "From one Knotty guy to another." This is a small taste of who Uncle Dave was. I am grateful for the moments that I shared with him.

I am just one of many people that was touched by Uncle Dave.

"I never knew a man who lived his dream" until I met Uncle Dave.
Dylan McCall

"The greatest, most unselfish thing one could do is to have a positive influence in someone else's life and never know it. Uncle Dave did just this with everybody".

Christopher Kojima

"Uncle Dave had great presence. He had a way making everyone want to be around him. He could convince you to go table to table caroling in a fancy restaurant and you felt comfortable doing it, That's Uncle Dave"

Tommy Gorey

Capt. Dave was one of those people who knew everyone. He showed what it means to live aloha and how important it is respect everyone. Some people measure them selves by how much money they make, Capt. Dave measured him self by how many lives he touched.

"Kapena Kawika, au mau palapala ho'oilina ho'oman'o 'oe na a'u kumu"

"Captain Dave, I will always remember you for being my teacher"

Ku'u lei

Dave Lyman was a wonderful ambassador for the California Maritime Academy to the Island State of Hawaii. He not only represented the Academy as an excellent professional port pilot, but he represented the Academy in Maritime Politics with in the state. Most importantly, he inspired young Hawaiian kids to want to make a career at sea and seek a professional education to do it.

John Kever

Uncle Dave's legacy and life will live on through the people he knew and loved. The Captain David Lyman Maritime School Scholarship Fund, created after his passing will keep perpetuating exactly what he wanted for the youth of Hawaii.

"Lord, I give the command back to you. We have fair winds and following seas. Our course is due north, rudders are at mid-ship and our speed is full ahead. Lord take me home. — Captain David B.K. Lyman, Pilot 5."

In loving memory of Captain David Belden Kawika Lyman "Uncle Dave"

ALOHA,
Taelson Larrow
