

GOOD MORNING

BULLETIN NO 6

FRIDAY DELEGATION MEETING — SOCIAL HOUR

Starting at 2:00 P.M. Friday, there will be a meeting of the full delegation - delegates and alternates only - closed to the press - in the Hollywood Room of the Knickerbocker. Admittance to the caucus will be by convention credential. The meeting will be concluded promptly by 3:00, at which time the doors will be opened to delegates, alternates, wives and husbands, their families and the press attached to the California delegation, for a social hour, hospitality furnished by the delegation, honoring Governor and Mrs. Brown.

TICKETS TO THE COLISEUM

Reserve seat tickets to the acceptance speeches at the Coliseum will be available for delegates and alternates in the Pavilion Room of the Knickerbocker, starting at 9:00 a.m. Friday morning.

Tickets you now hold for the 5th and 6th sessions of the convention are useful for souvenirs only. These tickets were printed in anticipation that the 3rd and 4th sessions of the convention might be recessed, which did not happen. To repeat, these tickets will not admit you to the reserved sections at the Coliseum.

NO BRUNCH FRIDAY

On Friday you can sleep in. There will be no brunch. Breakfast served as usual in the hotel coffee shop.

CHECKING OUT — REFUNDS ON DEPOSITS — PAYMENTS STILL TO BE MADE

Would all delegates, alternates, guests and press who occupied motel accommodations arranged for by the California delegation office please contact Martin Huff or Dorothy Cody in the Gold Room to arrange a settlement of their account - refunds, etc.

Those staying in the Knickerbocker who are entitled to a refund should also come to the Gold Room after checking out and see Martin or Dorothy for the refund. Checks for the difference between the bill and the deposit will be issued immediately on presentation of the bill.

Delegate Doings

— Official News of the California Delegation

— Robert Blum, Editor

Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel

Telephone HO 9-6287

