SJCC Opens Mexican-American Studies Department

Beginning in September, San Jose City College will offer 15 sections designed for Mexican-Americans students, according to Dr. Otto Roemmich, college president.

The new Mexican-American Studies Department will offer courses in public speaking for Mexican-Americans, improvement of writing, fundamentals of composition, Mexican-American Literature, elementary Spanish for bilinguals, intermediate Spanish for bilinguals, college study techniques, Mexican-American history, Mexican-American culture, and Mexican-American sociology.

A total of 15 sections will be offered in the 11 new courses, Dr. Roemmich notes. The courses will be open to all students at City College, and additional back-up sections will be available at time of registration in case they are needed.

The Mexican-American Studies Department organization and course offerings were worked out with the cooperation of the Mexican-American Student Confederation, the Mexican-American Lay Advisory Committee, and City College faculty. Dr. Roemmich notes the college is presently seeking a Mexican-American department chairman and Mexican-American instructors. Applicants for either position should contact Dr. Gerald Strelitz, associate superintendent at the college.

Dr. Roemmich indicates the college has a program to help students from low income families attend City College. Those interested in details on the assistance program are urged to phone Alexander Reyes at the college, 298-2181.

Residents of San Jose Junior College District who are high school graduates or 18 years of age are eligible to attend San Jose City college without charge for admission or tuition. Phone 298-2181 or visit the City College campus, 2100 Moorpark Ave., to obtain further information regarding admission procedures.

PADRE HUMBERTO ALMAZAN

Humberto Almazan was once a movie, stage and television star in Mexico and Europe. Now, he is a Catholic priest. Although actors turned priests are rare enough, Father Almazan's community -- The Missionaries of the Holy Apostles -- is made up exclusively of men choosing a new path. . . Men who come late to religious life, many after lengthy professional careers in the world.

Humberto is one of three children born to a family with Castilian and Aztec origins. In deference to his father, an architect, he studied architecture at the University of Mexico. When he reached his majority, however, he began his training in drama at the famed Palacio de Dellas Artes of Mexico.

After a few minor parts in films, he played the role of Puck in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in 1949 on the stage. This production is usually cited as the beginning of the modern theatre in Mexico, and the role earned Humberto a scholarship to the Conservatoire Dramatique in Paris.

After two years of intensive and successful study in France, Humberto went to Italy where he played a small role in the Roberto Rossellini film "Umanita" with Ingrid Bergman. At this time also, he worked with Anna Magnani and Jean Renoir, and played roles with the young Sophia Loren. Late in 1951, he went to England, studied at the Old Vic, attending lectures on acting by Sir Lawrence Olivier, and played in the film "The Net" directed by Anthony Asquith for J. Arthur Rank Productions. Returning to France in 1952, he appeared in "Le Dortoir des Grandes" co-starring with Jeanne Moreau.

Returning to Mexico, Humberto played the leading role in "The Young Juarez" for which he received the "Ariel" award (the equivalent of our "Oscar"), and played leading roles with Pedro Armendariz, Dolores Del Rio, and other actors famed in Mexico. By the end of 1959, he had made 21 movies, and as "Juan Perez" on Mexican television, his name was as familiar as "Lucy" in America. He also appeared on stage.

While in his 500th performance of the play "Las Cosas Simples", Humberto received an offer from Hollywood. Much to the amazement of friends, he declined the offer. Three weeks later, he sold his possessions -- a house in Cuernavaca with a private pool, four automobiles, an extravagant wardrobe, and the rest -- and gave everything to the poor.

In February of 1966, Humberto Almazan was ordained to the priesthood at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. His special task is the development of adult vocation seminaries, but he also talks about his career in addressing school and seminary groups, collegiate and professional audiences, Amish communities, Hadasah meetings, and all manner of diverse groups.

The title of his address is "The LIFE of My Story", an illusion both to his former theatrical career and to his recent endeavors.

PERSONAL PROFESSIONAL CONFIDENTIAL SERVICE

to the

EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Yesterday, April 23, 1969, I heard over the radio that the United States had dropped 2,000 tons of bombs on North Viet Nam. I can't even begin to imagine the horror and destruction that such an amount of bombs can cause!

Today, I picked up the Excentrico (April 20 Issue) I read about Rosie & Josie "who have just returned from entertaining the boys in Viet Nam". Candy Veliz writes that it was a "goodwill" entertainment tour and according to Marce Mora, "they had a ball."

How can Excentrico print such absurdities?? How can you ask the Mexican Community to accept that Rosie & Jose had a "ball" entertaining men who are fighting and dying in a horrible, ugly and immoral war? If Excentrico has, or has ever had, any pretensions of serving Raza and of informing them of what is going on, it should direct itself to such questions as why the United States is in Viet Nam and why our Mexican men are dying there.

It is my personal and moral opinion that the United States has no right to be in Viet Nam. What have the Vietnamese people ever done to the U.S.? Viet Nam is a poor, underdeveloped country struggling with its own internal affairs and the United States should get out! Everyday I hear on the news that U.S. bombers have dropped X number of bombs on Viet Nam, but I have not yet heard of a single bombing of the United States by Vietnamese bombers!

Not only that, but actually who is out in the forefront of the fighting and suffering the casualties? -- the minorities and the poor whites. The rich kids are in college getting deferments. That means that while we - Chicanos, Mexicanos, Mexican-Americans (whatever name you want to use) -- are only 9% of the population of California, we are 20% of the casualties from California. Do you realize that that means that more of us, more of La Raza, are dying in Viet Nam in comparison to the white population? And for what?? I have not yet heard a good explanation from the President(s) or anyone else as to why we should be in Viet Nam.

I'd like to refer again to Marce Mora's article in which she states, "Jess is on his way to Vietnam. Like many families we must have faith and pray for his safe return. Also let's all pray for all our boys in Vietnam." I would like to ask her, "have faith in what or who?" In God? What makes us think that God will spare our boys and not the Vietnamese boys? In a war somebody must die. And I'm sure that the Vietnamese want to live as badly as we do. I'm sure mothers, sisters, and wives in Vietnam pray for the safety of their men. Who will God favor? Faith in the United States? I can have no faith in a country that sacrifices young blacks, Chicanos, Puerto Ricans, and its confiding youth in a senseless War!

I would like you to show this letter to all your staff, particularly the people I have mentioned, perhaps it will make them think a little. I would also like to see this letter printed in your magazine, but I know that won't happen and for that I am sorry.

Respectfully,
Rosalinda Martinez

COUNCIL ON LATIN AMERICAN AFFAIRS

por Ray Gonzales, Presidente

A la colonia Latino Americana del condado de Santa Clara y ciudades convecinas.

Con el cariño que les tenemos y el respeto que se merecen nos diremos a ustedes para dejar saber y dar a conocer que se llevara a cabo una marcha el día 21 de Junio, 1969.

El proposito de esta marcha es para dejar saber a la comunidad que deseamos se acabe con la discriminacion y las injusticias que todavia se cometen contra nuestra raza.

Que somos ciudadanos de primera clase y queremos así se nos trate

Que se le de el derecho al voto a 500,000 ciudadanos que ahora se lo niegan por que no saben bastante ingles.

Que se le deje organizar a los trabajadores del campo y no se siga explotando para que puedan ganar un salario decente y vivir como cristianos que somos.

Hacemos esta llamada a todas las organizaciones, a toda persona de habla español, no importa su posicion economica, social o politica, que desee en verdad ayudar a que sus hermanos reciban los derechos que se les niega.

Los esperamos en los terrenos de la Feria.

La marcha saldra a las 11:00 de la mañana y terminara en el parque St. James, en el centro del pueblo.

No falten y debemos a conocer lo que somos, con hechos no con palabras.

Demostremos que tenemos cultura y religion que sentimos por el propio.

Sin violencia pero con dignidad y respeto lograremos el triunfo.

Smart Suede Tips

This is the time of year when people usually plan to have their favorite leather and suede garments cleaned. Here are some helpful tips from the National Institute of Drycleaning.

Leather, and suede, is durable. But remember, these skins are furs minus the hair. They require the same tender care. Professional drycleaning by a leather cleaning expert is the only way these skins should be cleaned.

Have all matching boots, bags, and other leather accessories cleaned at the same time. This makes it easier for the cleaner to match colors when the additional service is performed.

Suede and leather colors fade during normal wear. And these garments also become darker from natural soiling. The longer you wait to have them cared for, the more difficult it becomes for the cleaner to duplicate the original color, much less remove deeply imbedded soil.

Don't wash suedes and leathers, or use cleaning fluids, wire brushes, or other abrasives to remove stains. Let the professional care for them as properly as you care for your own skin.

SAN JOSE POLICE DEPARTMENT 801 North First Street

Are You About To Be SWINDLED?

IS THIS WITHDRAWAL FOR EITHER OF THE FOLLOWING REASONS?

1. Were you contacted by a man representing himself as a "Bank Investigator" or "FBI Agent"? Has he asked you to withdraw your money to help in the investigation of an internal bank theft?
2. Did you witness the finding of a large amount of money? Were you asked to withdraw your money to be held as an act of "good faith"?

IF SO, THIS MAY BE A SWINDLE. PLEASE CONTACT THE SAN JOSE POLICE DEPARTMENT IMMEDIATELY!
PHONE 292-3141 ext.222 J.R. BLACKMORE, CHIEF OF POLICE

San Joseans making savings withdrawals of $500 or more will be quietly asked from now on at branch offices of local banks and savings and loan firms this question.

The question is on small orange cards passed out by theft prevention detail officers Jim Cornelius and Ron Smith, Prevention & Control Div.

The idea of cards was advanced by Detective Division bunco team Sgts. Don Ewing and Bruce Moore in a recent News series on an alarming increase of "con-man" activity here.

The cards ask further:

Is this withdrawal for either of the following reasons:

1. Were you contacted by a man representing himself as a bank investigator or FBI agent? Has he asked you to withdraw your money to help with the investigation of an internal bank theft?
2. Did you witness the finding of a large amount of money? Were you asked to withdraw your money to be held as an act of good faith?

If any of this is so, it may very well be a swindle. Contact the San Jose Police Department immediately.

The savings firms have been receptive to warning card distribution and have instructed their employees to hand the card to any person making large savings withdrawals.

According to Chief of Detectives Barton L. Collins, current police intelligence indicates highly polished confidence gangs are continually moving into the Bay area; easily filling their pocket-books and leaving well meaning elderly citizens destitute of life savings.

Chances of netting the bunco sharks are slim unless a victim can put the lawmen on their trail immediately after initial contact has been made between the con-man and his mark.

CANDY VELIZ

In the Excentrico there have been some personality sketches by some unknown artist. His or her identity will be revealed at the Club San Felipe Anniversary Ball at the Cabaña in Palo Alto on August 2nd.

This lovely young lady you see before you is Club San Felipe 1969 queen: Ina Arranaga. Her proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Manuel & Ina Arranaga.

Club San Felipe wishes popular Dan Lopez a speedy recovery. He recently underwent an operation at the San Jose Hospital.

I keep hearing about bridal showers and I couldn't figure out why they are called bridal shower- (hasta quese me prendio el foquito) go to a bridal shower and you'll get soaked, yes indeed.

Let's talk about the Fiesta de Las Rosas. Most of us looked at it with mixed emotions and this was mostly due for lack of communications within the Mexican-American Community.

It will be almost a year before we have the next fiesta and now is the time to get involved. A person has to be naive to think there was nothing wrong with La Fiesta, but we will have to let it go as experience. The broken booths given to the Mexican-American organizations were for the birds, surpassed only by the Sanitation facilities. The sanitation condition was awful; no Anglo would stand for it, so why should the Mexican-American accept it. After all "What's good for the goose is good for the gander." We are willing to let by-gones be by-gones as long as it isn't repeated and you can believe me it is not going to be repeated. To get to the grass roots, this is what I mean. If there is going to be a fiesta, the Mexican-American wants to participate in it in all phases not only in broken down booths in the outskirts of the fiesta.

The Anglos are smart. They know they were wrong; they don't want militants; they will cooperate - Si Señor.

THIS "N" THAT

Welcome back to Armado Palacios, after a vacation in Mexico. He went all the way to Tijuana.

June the 21st is the date of the peace march in San Jose. Mr. Ray Gonzalez says that among the many hundred of persons planning to attend and march is Senator Edward Kennedy. This march has a meaning and it will be peaceful. If you can, join them - I will.

The best waitress at Angelo's Restaurant, Mary Hallusco, will leave on a world tour on July 4th. Dorothy, Esther and Jane will do their best to fill the gap. What! Three waitresses to replace Mary! Good luck on your tour, Mary.

The romance between Johnny Flores and lovely Mary Roman is no mo.

BIG, BIG SALE - At the Furniture Discount House on June 22nd. Ya'll come. We will have fire sale prices.

Ray Balderas has a damn good voice. If you want to hear him sing go to the Cellar. Rocky & Sammy welcome you.

Congratulations to Tony Carvajal. He just married Joan Marie McDonough in Denver, Colorado. Tony may all your troubles be little ones.

NEW MEMBERS

Welcome to Tex and Pat Aynes for joining Club Riviera. We hope you'll enjoy yourselves in our club as we do. Tex is one of our pitchers for the Sunday games held at Williams St. Park, and I would like to add a good pitcher at that. Once again I'd like to say to our new members, WELCOME!!

We have another couple interested in joining too and we are hoping they will. They are Ken and Doris Worley, so come on you two we are anxious to have you at our next meeting, when ever hard-working Ken can take a day-off from work. Ken also plays ball with Riviera and boy does he play a mean first-base-man.

Speaking of our Sunday ballgames, on Sunday the 1st of June we played Patio Const's. last year known as Club May-fair and it was a battle all the way thru. We lost by one but we sure gave them a hard time didn't we Louie C? Didn't hear your usual bragging after the game neither.

My sympathy to Ron and C is for their broken windshield and no insurance. Next time park a few blocks away from the ball-park.

FRONTIER DAYS

Like every year Club Riviera opens a booth during the Frontier Days in Milpitas, which was held June 4th to June 8th. This year we did very good, since quite a few people attended and plus we had our good-workers like Ron, Sonny and Harold, who are great-hustlers. Naturally all us others had to do our share and also and naturally, Paul and Vivian Ramirez were in charge of everything again this year. A job well-done Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ramirez.

BIRTHDAYS

Would like to wish a belated happy birthday to Donna Espinoza, daughter of club president Frank Espinoza and Babe, on May 28th.

I would like to especially wish a happy birthday to my little niece Francine who will be 4 years old on June 24.

Paul Ramirez will celebrate his on June 26th, I think. Forgive me if that's the wrong date, Paul.

Congratulations to my in-laws Joe and Jessie Muñoz who are expecting another baby sometime in December. Just what you needed, huh Jessie?

Before closing off, I'd like to say I agree with everything Marce Mora had in her last column, about all the violence that has taken place here in the bay area lately, and how no one even thinks of all our fighting men in Vietnam. Some people here fight with their own people and over there only if you have a loved-one there such as Marce does and I do and I'm sure quite a number of us do. You said it all well, Marce.

MI AMIGO DON PANCHO

En los albores del siglo actual, nació en el Estado de Zacatecas un niño de familia humilde; cuando apenas em-zaba la escuela primaria estalló la revolución mexicana y no pudo seguir asis-tiendo a la escuela, se dedicó a ayudar a su padre en su taller de herrería, el trabajo era duro, pero el muchacho aprendió el oficio.

En la época de la lucha intestina que sufrió México, el porvenir para un joven era incierto y plagado de peligros, pero una cosa era inevitable; había que luchar por la vida, había que ganarse el sustento. El joven de quien hablo se ganó la vida boleando los zapatos de los revo-lucionarios que entraban o salían de Zacatecas, luego trabajó en las minas, (Zacatecas es un Estado minero) ayudó a su padre que trabajó en la reparación de las armas que usaban las tropas del general Francisco Villa.

En la imposibilidad de encontrar un camino seguro en México, por el que pudiera encausar su vida, se decidió a venir a los Estados Unidos del Norte. En este país la lucha también fue dura, sin conocer el idioma, sin una educación escolar sólida, sin tener a nadie que lo guiara; las únicas armas con que contaba para enfrentar la lucha eran su juventud y su fortaleza física. Se dedicó a trabajar en cualquier ocupación en la que se pudiera ganar el sustento honradamente, trabajó en talleres, en fábricas, en las vías de ferrocarril, etc, etc, todos ellos trabajos ordinarios, en los que no se requería ni el idioma ni la preparación escolar. Poco a poco fue aprendiendo el idioma Inglés, trabajó después como agente de seguros. Durante la segunda guerra mundial, fue encargado de los cam-pos de braseros y se estableció en nego-cios por su propia cuenta, logrando que sus empresas prosperaran a base de su propio trabajo, el de su esposa y el de sus hijos.

Años atrás se había casado con una guapa señorita sonorense; el matrimonio tiene tres hijos, los tres prestaron servicio en las fuerzas armadas en el cumplimiento de su deber como ciudadanos americanos; al terminar su servicio los tres se han dedicado a su oficio, en el que ganan lo suficiente para llevar una vida decorosa con sus esposas y sus hijos.

Hace unos años, el niño que nació en Zacatecas, se retiró del trabajo que desempeñaba en una gran empresa industrial de San José, porque cumplió los seenta y cinco años de edad.

A través de los años que esta persona me ha honrado con su amistad, he sabido de su lucha, la dura lucha que ha tenido que librar, como otros muchos, pero él siente la satisfacción de haber formado una familia ejemplar, al lado de su fiel compañera de toda la vida y de sus hijos, nueras y nietos que lo recompensan de las penalidades que tuvo que enfrentar para lograr la estabilidad de toda la familia. Nadie en esta familia se queja de discriminación, todos son trabajadores y honrados.

Cada vez que tengo la suerte de hacer amistad con alguna persona que ha sabido abrirse paso por medio de su propio esfuerzo y ha logrado triunfar en la lucha por la vida, siento la obligación de hacerlo del conocimiento de mis lectores, para que sirva de ejemplo a la juventud, demostrandoles que el trabajo, la honradez y el respeto a sus semejantes, son las bases en que descansa la satisfacción del deber cumplido.

Cualquier doctrina que no tenga por norma el trabajo, la honradez y el respeto, ha sido, es y será una doctrina equivocada en el pasado, en el presente y en el futuro.

"Lo mas apreciable de un egoista es que el nunca anda hablando de la gente".

Martin Mendez, Jr. of MARTIN'S LA POBLANA RESTAURANT had an enjoyable birthday party in his honor with Mariachi music, goodies and mucho mas. LES BACHLORETTES presented him with a glowing lighter (almost burned his nose)... just kidding, but Martin is happy; he says, "this is the first cigarette lighter I have ever received on my birthday".

A gossip's corner, where the young set gathers to discuss about 'what's-her-name making the scene with you-know-who' is SPEEDY GONZALES' Restaurant at the corner of Willow and Locust Sts.

Speaking about the young set, following photos portrays the 'future of our country' graduating with high honors from pre-school to the studies of higher learning. The lovely ladies in the picture, left to right are: teachers - Ann Reuber and Arline Radine; teacher's aides - Lorraine Schlegel, Vivian Parquer and Bertha Varela with the three tots; Genevieve, Angelo and Carmen Mendoza. (Darn it, why didn't we have dolls for teachers when yours truly was going to school?) The graduating exercises took place at O.S. Hubbard School in the Eastside of San Jose.

It is with great regret to inform you that the ASOCIACION GUADALUPANA of Holy Family Catholic Church held their last big meeting on Thursday night, June 12th since the property has to be cleared for urban renewal projects very soon. This means that the old historical church will be torn down and Father Peña will conduct catholic services elsewhere. PADRE FRANCISCO OTAZIO PEÑA and the members of SOCIEDAD GUADALUPANA of the Westside in San Jose were instrumental in holding many worthwhile religious and community functions for the benefit of its members and the community itself. Officers are: President, Mrs. Consuelo Jaime; Vice-pres., Mrs. Dolores Rodriguez; Secretary, Miss Francisca Hernandez; Treasurer, Mrs. Consuelo Castañeda and Estandarte, Mr. Antonio Castañeda. This catholic family type organization has a membership of 228 active members and considered as one of the most cooperative and close-knitted group in the Westside. PADRE PEÑA is head of the Board of Directors; by the way, he also has a daily religious program on Radio KOFY.

Two nuns, Maria Filomena and Rosa Anguiano from Mexico were at the Esquire Theatre picking up donations for the construction of a convent in Moralia, Michoacan on Thursday nite, June 12th.

By the way, sister Bravo could sure use the help and we all know her.

In closing, I would like to invite you to tune in to CRITICA SOCIAL DE EL EXCENTRICO every Friday nite on Radio FM KVEZ, 107.7 from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. and hear me out on the latest chismitos about you-know-who.

REFLEJOS DE CINE RADIO Y TELEVISION

Jorge
Godínez

NUESTRA FRASE DE HOY - Cualquier tonto puede criticar, censurar y quejarse y casi todos los tontos lo hacen. (Confucio) 3200 Antes de Cristo.

CINE - Las películas mexicanas que mas éxito han tenido en Europa son, Viente Negro, Corazón Salvaje, Su Excelencia, y Los Híppies, Nuestro Cine ha sido muy bien aceptado en los países Europeos.

TELEVISION - Muchas personas me han preguntado respecto a los programas de la Televisión, este proyecto lo estan preparando desde México, me informe por fuentes fideguines inclusive me invitaron a colaborar yo seguiré informando de estos proyectos.

ROSALINDA NAVARRO

AMBIENTE LOCAL - Rosalinda Navarro una presiosa muchacha de Modesto, California, se presentó en días pasados en mi programa de Aficionados, Rosalinda tiene toda gracia personalidad y una preparación cultural de primera, lo mismo interpreta una canción ranchera que un bolero o, bien una cumbia, actualmente graba para una marca pequeña, esta muchacha se merece estar con una compañía que le de mayor promoción, nosotros haremos todo lo posible porque Rosalinda este en un mejor sitio en nuestro ambiente artístico, mucho éxito Rosalinda desde estas líneas del Excentrico te damos las mas expresivas gracias por toda tu amabilidad.

Mini-Notas - Ya se avecina el 4 de Julio, y muchas organizaciones preparan festivales Radio KAZA, contrata directamente de México todo un elenco de primera categoria, ya les informaremos el gran elenco que viene para esta fecha memorable, Deseamos a Rudy Belluomini mucho éxito en su programa de radio, con este programa Rudy adquirirá experiencia, y con el tiempo se puede convertir en un nuevo elemento de nuestra radio-difusion, mucho éxito en todo a nuestro colega Rudy.

Hace tiempo que no habia tenido la oportunidad, de comunicarle en forma efectiva, la noticia de que en fecha próxima tendremos una nueva estacion en FM. con programación dirigida a nuestra colonia mexicana, y pensando en el gusto de nuestra gente, con nuevas ideas nueva programación, ya les informaremos.

Un consejo a los cantantes locales, que estudien más, vocalicen y despues a darse a conocer, porque hay muchos cantantes que se imaginan que ya son unos profesionales de primera, y para llegar a eso hay que tener mucha disciplina. Hasta la fecha, de las artistas locales que mas han sobresalido son, Las Hermanitas Falcon, pues ya han hecho algunas seires de televisión, hace días se presentaron en el programa de Wilford Irrizary en el canal 36 a las 10:30 p.m.
