Vol. 30 No. 6

An Active Senior Community

Santa Rosa Road, Camarillo, California

June 5, 2009

Candidates for the Leisure Village Association Board of Directors are, from left, Ted Lansing, Don Marquardt, Robert O'Connor and Gerald Rosen. Candidate Robert Kulick did not want his photo published in ILV.

3 board seats open; election is June 25

By Lois Keeler

On May 21, Candidates Night was held at the Recreation Center in Leisure Village. A good crowd of approximately 140 attended, and the meeting was opened by Bob McQuivey, president. Joseph Benti acted as moderator, with Sid Alweiss as timekeeper.

Five candidates were introduced and were given five minutes each to state their qualifications to fill the three openings on the Board of Directors. They are: Ted Lansing, Don Marquardt, Robert O'Connor, Robert Kulick and Gerald Rosen.

Each stated their qualifications in a concise manner and the meeting was on.

Many questions were then read from members. Please see VOTE on 10

Beatles tribute band plays LV

By David Harris

Showtyme presents "Imagine: Remembering the Fab Four," on Sunday, June 14, at 2 p.m. in the Village Theater.

Imagine that it is 1965 and the Beatles are still together. A band called "Imagine" wants you to turn back the clock and imagine it's yesterday. Two of the lads bear a remarkable resemblance to the Beatles. Please see IMAGINE on 10

Hollywood tough guy finds a role in Village

By John Kula

William Smith is a direct descendant of Daniel Boone and Kit Carson. And like his famous ancestors, William Smith is a legend in his own time.

His accomplishments as an actor are huge. He has appeared in 300 feature films and television productions, as a biker, brawler, bad guy, cowboy, Texas Ranger, vampire slayer, and the list goes on and on. He has been acclaimed as one of the baddest, the meanest, the

The donation from Wysinger Concrete's labor to install the base of the new bus stop covers at no cost to the Village went uncredited in May's issue of ILV. We apologize for that omission. See Joseph Benti's article on Page 7.

There's been a lot of construction around the Village lately. For an update, see Page 6.

"The Constitution and the Supreme Court" is the title of an upcoming college course being taught in the Village. Read more about it on Page 2.

LETTERS

At the May 4 Open Board Meeting, a resident took exception to what she believed was unfair treatment by our excellent security staff. She concluded her remarks by snidely comparing the staff with that of "Nazi Germany."

My father was chased from Nazi Germany in 1933. By the greatest luck he came to the United States in 1936. Millions of others were not lucky.

Some survivors, including some Village residents, spent years in concentration camps. They carry scars and tattoos as indelible reminders of what they and others, families and friends, will never forget when they hear the words, "Nazi Germany."

Ignorance is not an excuse for such an odious statement.

Had the speaker suffered at the hands of the Nazis, or known someone who did, she would not have been so cavalier in choosing such a hateful, offensive and obviously mindless comparison.

Shame on her.

— Bob Koster, V. 24

(Editor's Note: On May 6, ILV personally contacted the speaker by phone and explained that her remarks had indeed offended many in attendance at the Open Board Meeting, as well as those who viewed the meeting through our Leisure Village closed circuit television. This resident was given the opportunity to revisit her remarks and make a statement regarding what was said. She was told her statement would appear in this issue of ILV. She declined to comment.)

I imagine my shock and dismay when a neighbor knocked on my door to inform me that a driver had just crashed into our Toyota Camry, which was parked in front of our home on Village 28, and fled the scene. It was just after noon on Friday, April 10. I was at home at the time and heard a loud noise, but I thought it was the garbage collectors.

Our car sustained more than $3,000 in damage to the driver side of the vehicle. An eyewitness saw the crash and described the driver of the vehicle, a dark-blue Ford Explorer, as a young white male with dark hair. If anyone has any information regarding the vehicle and/or the driver, please contact the Village police.

I want to express my appreciation for the kindness and professionalism of Marcos Caro of Village Security and Michael Zabarasky of the Ventura County Sheriff's Department, both of whom assisted me. Please see LETTERS on 3

When we get the opportunity to admire nature, we capture its beauty in our mind. The vastness always stays in our conception of nature. But, there are times when the simplest item fascinates us and is captured by a photograph. Then, we can hold and admire what we have for as long as the feeling is there.

Bill Robinson, who is a member of the Computer Club and Camera

Club, found a seed that had fallen from a tree. He placed it on a white sheet of paper and took a photo of this seed. Bill's photo was placed in the Rec Center, alongside other photos of talented Village photographers for all residents to view. Many were very attractive, but it was Bill's photo that caught my eye for its beauty and simplicity.

I was so impressed by this photo, I had to inform Bill of my feelings. Bill was so delighted that his photograph had made such an impression that he made a copy, had it framed and presented it to me for his appreciation of what I thought.

For this, I sincerely want to thank Bill Robinson.

— Ben Perry, V. 17

When I suggested the idea of the Spring Cleaning Sale 13 years ago, I needed sponsorship of an existing club. The one person who came forward and supported me was Ernie Ohmstedt. We worked together — he would be the "Free Hot Dog Man" and I would be the "Table Lady." Our endeavors have exceeded our expectations.

This year, all the tables were sold within hours, and all the hot dogs were devoured. Ernie and his crew, including board members and candidates for the Board of Directors, served 300 hot dogs with all the trimmings and delicious pastries, etc.

My special thanks go to my daughter and son-in-law who drive from Fullerton each year to help, and Jan Melling was also helpful to me.

All this is made easier with the help and assistance of the Recreation Department — Susan, Shelly and Jennifer — and, of course, the very helpful custodians.

It was a job well done by all.

— Gertie Dorward, V. 1

VILLAGE HAPPENINGS

LV residents thanked for cooperation during major improvements

By Bob Scheaffer,
General Manager, LVHOA

Thanks to the complete cooperation at all levels of Village life and activity, we recently completed some major construction without a single notable incident.

Our biggest chunk of that construction is the result of our 20-year street plan for the ongoing rehabilitation and maintenance of the 15.3 miles of streets and the approximately 326,000 square feet of parking area.

Aside from the water project, the biggest project this year was the removal and replacement of the surfaces of the East and West parking lots of the Recreation Center and the lot at the Administration Building. Included in that project is the still-being-completed newly installed lighting in the lots, which should be brighter and more effective than the old lighting.

Surfaces of the East and West parking lots of the Recreation Center and the lot at the Administration Building were removed and replaced. These projects are just some of the major construction under way as part of the Village's 20-year street plan.

Additionally, Villages 5, 19, 40 and a section of Leisure Village Drive, west from Mountain View Drive to Village 7, were slurry-sealed as part of our ongoing maintenance. And, to enhance our street safety program, we restriped most of the Village after the asphalt work.

The total project took approximately six weeks at a cost of $420,000.

Still to come this year, we will work on the RV Lot as well as doing maintenance in Villages 37, 39 and Mountain View Drive from Villages 18 to 25.

On behalf of the Leisure Village Association, I thank all the members of the Leisure Village community for their patience and cooperation during these important infrastructure improvements and maintenance.

Where would we be without volunteers?

By Joseph Benti

The other day, I bumped into John Wirtz and wife Kathy in the west parking lot at the Recreation Center. They were hauling boxes of tri-tip to the center's kitchen for the Maverick's "Game Day" event two weeks away.

A week earlier, John cooked and slung hot dogs for Gertie Dorward's Spring Cleaning Sale, an event made possible by volunteers, mostly from our Ed & Rec Committee and Village clubs.

So far, what I've mentioned probably involved a few dozen volunteers, residents who step up, along with many others, to make our community a real village.

Let's face it, volunteers put the zest in the commonplace and the muscle in the hidden work that makes life so much better than it would be without them. Our volunteers do things that need to be done but can only be done "off the books," saving us tens of thousands of dollars a year.

For example, in the last issue of ILV, in reporting on the installation of our two new bus benches, the result of hundreds of hours of volunteer work by dozens of residents, we mentioned one outside contractor who donated time and labor to the job. In the report, I overlooked another volunteer who deserved mention, Guy Wysinger, of Wysinger Concrete, and his crew, who donated tools and labor for the concrete pads for the benches and the slumpstone border to keep the landscaping in place.

Often, when thanking this or that volunteer, we overlook another ten or a hundred who also deserve to be recognized — sadly, that's just the way it is.

Fortunately, most of our volunteers know that and never stop pitching in.

Fun fact for month of June

Submitted by David Harris

If counted out in $1,000 bills, a million dollars would be a stack 4 inches high.

To reach a billion dollars, that same stack of $1,000 bills would have to be 358 feet tall.

To reach a trillion dollars, the stack would stand 67.9 miles high.

Bible Study group on hiatus

Our Bible Study group celebrated the end of its first year with a potluck luncheon enjoying good food, fellowship and song. We have had a banner year, as we studied the books of Hebrews, Job, Colossians and John from the Bible.

Our pastors will have a new lineup for the next season, which will begin in September. We do not meet for the months of June, July and August.

Look for an announcement in Inside Leisure Village toward the end of summer for our 2009-2010 start-up date. Please call Carol Cannell at 987-7570 for information.

Easy summer salad offers flexibility

By Susan Amerikaner

As soon as "outdoor grilling" weather arrives, I make this crisp salad almost every week. It's a nice change from lettuce salads and adds a cool, crisp taste to any hot dish — meat or fish.

If you use regular cucumbers, peel and seed them first. If you use one of those long, skinny English cucumbers, you don't even have to peel or seed it.

This salad is great with grilled foods of any kind — our favorite is turkey sausages — and it keeps for a week. In fact, it gets better as it marinates!

This recipe makes enough for six to eight people, and company always loves it. But keep in mind you can eat it all week with other things! Experiment with dressings. My sister loves it with Wishbone's Red Wine Vinegar and Oil dressing, but I use whatever I have handy, and it's always great.

Crispy Summer Salad

Ingredients:

3 cucumbers peeled and seeded (or 1 English cucumber, washed)
1 small red onion
3-4 ripe tomatoes

Dressing:

Any bottled vinaigrette — or make your own with ½ cup red wine vinegar, 1 tablespoon oil, and season with salt and pepper or Mrs. Dash's, which is salt free.

Directions:

Slice cucumbers into thin "half-moon" shapes. Slice red onion into quarters and then slice into smaller, thinner pieces. Cut tomatoes into chunks. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Add dressing, toss and refrigerate.

Conversational Hebrew students make progress

By Bonne London

The students in the Conversational Hebrew class taught by Ben Racowsky are definitely making progress (however slowly) in learning Hebrew. We have advanced from studying the individual letters and vowels to now learning words, phrases and simple conversation. We are up to the fourth lesson and, although we don't yet think of ourselves as "Intermediate," we definitely qualify as "Advanced Beginners."

Our textbook is "Modern Hebrew: A First Year Course in Conversation, Reading and Grammar." The class meets every Tuesday from 12:30 to 2 p.m. in the Sun Room. Call Ben at 445-8284 for additional information.

Did you know ...

Lynn & Burt Smith, V. 30, raised ostriches in Upper Ojai and had up to 220 birds on their ranch at one time? They can grow up to 10 feet tall, and Burt, 6-foot-4, once said, "I don't know if I like raising birds I have to look up to." They especially enjoyed having the local schools bring students by for tours.

Harriet Lit, V. 8, broke her arm falling off her daughter's pogo stick?

There were many different booths representing various community health providers and a wonderful continental breakfast was made available to all. This annual event has provided many great resources for all LV residents, and we all benefit from those who made this possible.

Real estate agent explains new homebuyer tax credits

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate Inc.

The California Association of Realtors recently provided some updated information regarding the new homebuyer tax credits.

For California homebuyers, tax time is now tax relief time, too. Thanks to two recent laws, a California homebuyer may qualify for $18,000 in tax credits for buying his or her piece of the American dream. The two tax credits are a first-time homebuyer credit of up to $8,000 under federal law, and a new home credit of up to $10,000 under California law.

The property purchased must be a qualified principal residence.

To qualify for the federal homebuyer credit, the buyer and buyer's spouse must not have owned a principal residence during the three-year period before the purchase, although the California credit does not require that the buyer be a first-time homebuyer. California does require that the property must have never been previously occupied as certified by the seller. There is a minimum occupancy requirement in that the home must be the buyer's principal residence for 36 months after purchase, otherwise the credits must be repaid.

The federal tax credit does have an income restriction, but California does not.

of the audience that ranged from budget to finance and priorities. One question dealt with what each candidate sees for the future of the Village in five years. Everyone saw it differently, ranging from going green to how to continue to give the whole Village what they are receiving now, but all emphasized the continued need for safety.

The meeting was adjourned after Benti urged all to vote, vote, vote on June 25, as a majority is needed for the election to succeed.

The June Village Voice will have resumes of all candidates, and resumes can also be seen in the Atrium outside the Recreation Center.

Village Web page lists happenings, Camera Club award winners

Our own Web page, <http://leisurevillage.us> gives a summary of major events for every month. You can't miss it because it's labeled SPECIAL "BIG" EVENTS.

Another great feature is a slideshow of all the LV Camera Club photos entered into competition every month (click OUR CAMERA CLUB and OUR COMPETITION PICTURES). You have seen the winning pictures in the Rec Center hallway and in the MPR. All monthly pictures entered since February 2004 are available, giving picture name, the name of the photographer and winning status.

More features of leisurevillage.us will be given in upcoming issues of ILV.

seem larger than life. But Bill's life has been much larger than his acting career. He is a gentle and gracious giant of a man, boxing champion, weightlifting and arm wrestling champion, lifelong fitness enthusiast, scholar, professor, linguist, poet, and this list also goes on and on.

William Smith was born on his father's cattle ranch in Columbia, Mo., in March of 1934. As a youngster, he loved horses and was riding horses almost before he could walk. After the family ranch was devastated by the Dust Bowl, Bill's family moved to California.

Bill started acting when he was 8 years old as a studio extra, and he appeared in many films through his high school years, including "Going My Way" (1944) and "The Song of Bernadette" (1943). After high school, he joined the Air Force and served in the Korean War as a Russian intercept interrogator. He was awarded the Purple Heart in recognition for his service.

While in the Air Force, he studied at the University of Munich and the Sorbonne in Paris. He continued his studies after service, earning a bachelor's degree at Syracuse University and a master's degree in Russian Studies from UCLA. Bill is fluent in Russian, and he taught Russian as a professor at UCLA. He is also fluent in French, German and Serbo-Croatian. Bill continued in his doctoral studies but evaluated a major career-changing decision when he was offered an acting contract by MGM.

Bill accepted MGM's offer and turned it into a career as one of the best-known character actors of our time. In his television roles, he earned critical acclaim for his performance as the sinister Anthony Falconetti in the television mini-series, "Rich Man, Poor Man" and its sequel, "Rich Man, Poor Man, Book II" (1976). Bill was a series regular in Hawaii Five-O (1968), where he played Detective James "Kimo" Carew. One of his best-known roles was in the NBC western series "Laredo," as Joe Riley, Texas Ranger. Bill also made appearances on Gunsmoke (1972) and Batman (1966).

Bill has also appeared in numerous movies, too many to mention. Some of the highlights from his movie roles are: "Any Which Way You Can" (1980) as Jack Wilson, who had a big fight scene with Clint Eastwood; "Conan the Barbarian" (1982) as the barbarian's father; "Red Dawn" (1984) as a Russian commander; biker movies, including "Run, Angel Run" (1969) and "Angels Die Hard" (1970); and as a vampire slayer in "Grave of the Vampires" (1974).

During his career, Bill worked alongside many talented and interesting people: Gene Wilder of "Frisco Kid," Connie Stevens of "Scorchy," Max Von Sydow of "Ultimate Warrior," director Robert Clouse of "Darker Than Amber" and "Ultimate Warrior," Michael Dudikoff of "Platoon Leader" and "The Shooter," Mike Pataki of "Grave of the Vampire," Roger Mosley of "Sweet Jesus, Preacher Man" but better known for "Magnum," director and actor Bill Bixby, director Robert Aldrich of "Twilight's Last Gleaming" and "Frisco Kid," Nick Nolte and Peter Strauss of "Rich Man, Poor Man" and Jack Starrett of "Run Angel Run," "Hollywood Man" and "The Losers."

Bill met his wife, Joanne Cervelli, on the set of Cybernator (1991), where Joanne was a make-up artist. She is a charming, intelligent and articulate partner for Bill, and together they make a strong and inspirational team. Bill has a son from a previous marriage who is an addiction specialist; Joanne has a daughter who is an office manager.

In addition to acting, Bill is an accomplished athlete. He has received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Academy of Bodybuilding and Fitness. He won the Air Force Light-Heavyweight Weightlifting Championship. Twice he won the 200-pound World Arm Wrestling Championship. He has held the Guinness World Record for reverse curling his own body weight. He is skilled at martial arts and held a 31-1 record as an amateur boxer.

Bill is an-all around champion of many different endeavors. He has achieved fame and has the admiration of his many fans. He is well respected and highly regarded by those who worked with him.

When I arrived at Bill and Joanne's home to interview Bill for this article, I didn't know what to expect. As I hesitated in the driveway, Bill came lumbering out to welcome me with a warm handshake and a friendly welcome. Despite all the bad-guy roles, Bill is a good guy with a good heart. He has done much with his many talents, and I was honored to meet him and to write about him and his many accomplishments.

Learn how to breathe better

By Lorraine Comer

It is almost summer, and we usually have a warm dry climate with an afternoon breeze. Many of us with allergies need to be reminded to stay away from things that affect our breathing. Allergies have a way to getting the best of us.

With the nicer weather we all want to be outside more to enjoy the extra daylight. So let's take advantage of the great weather we enjoy, get outside and stay moving. Remember to use your better breathing techniques.

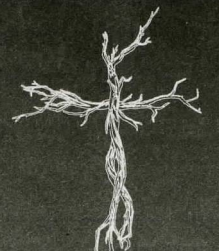

Hope to see all of you looking to improve your everyday life the second Wednesday of the month at 10 a.m. in the Sun Room.

Current Issues Forum

By Tom Appleford

The Leisure Village Current Issues Forum will present a program which should be of interest to, or have an impact on, the residents of Leisure Village considering our volatile economic times.

On June 12, we will host our second program of the year featuring the noted senior advocate and columnist from the Ventura County Star, Betty Berry.

Betty's presentation will provide insight into two issues of great importance to seniors. The first topic will be reverse mortgages — what they are and how they work. Where can you obtain one and how is it different from other lines of credit? Learn the pros and cons and determine if it's right for your situation.

The second topic will be frauds and scams. This presentation will teach you how to spot, stop and avoid telemarketing and investment frauds and scams to keep you from becoming a victim. The scams discussed will be the very newest ones that are occurring today in Ventura County.

I can't think of two more important subjects on the minds of most seniors as we deal with our financial security in these challenging times.

Following the presentation, we will be open to questions from the audience, plus handouts will be provided, so please mark this date on your calendar and join us. Coffee and refreshments will also be available.

L.V. New York Club

Our July 2 meeting will feature Barbara Brighton, who performs a combination of music and comedy. Her program should be enjoyed by all. There will be

We will not have a regular meeting in August, but mark Sunday, August 9, on your calendars. This is the date of our annual indoor picnic. We will keep you posted on price, time and menu.

L.V. Exercise Group

By Millie Seidman

Who can claim that

June is gloomy when the sky turns blue — eventually! The sun may not shine until sometime after the 8:30 to 9 a.m. exercise is over, after the chairs are replaced along the pavilion walls, waiting for the next morning when they will be brought out (who does that anyway?) and placed in rows, ready to steady us, their backs strong as we do our sedate but effective push-ups, swing our limbs and rotate our ankles like Mayor Shinn's wife in the "The Music Man."

No, June is not gloomy! There is also the annual Exercise Group picnic to look forward to on Friday, June 26, at 3:30 p.m. The price is right! The ticket, at $10 for members and $13 for guests, gives you not only tasty assorted hors d'oeuvres, a wonderful barbecue picnic menu, luscious lemon bars and brownies for dessert, but also a chance to win raffle prizes! See Shiprah Maller for tickets and maybe, when arranging tablemates, consider inviting. Please see CLUBS on 16

L.V. Bowling League

By Marty Simons

The 2008-2009 season has come to an end. But before we get into that, let's look at the last two weeks of bowling.

Week 30 was position week, with Team 13 edging Team 7 to win the second-half title, setting up the championship match with first-half winner, Team 12. In addition, Les Galvin had a 232, Al Schuster a 210 and Leonard Belcher a 213 and a 207. Side Pot winners were Ernie Slabotsky, Phil Kamens and Les Galvin for the men, and Joyce Belcher, Sybil Moore and Helen Hartman for the ladies. Sandy Rosenthal created some excitement when she picked up the 6-7-10 split. That reminded her that she had previously picked up the 4-7-10. Nice going!

Week 31 saw Don Laird with a 211, Howard Sobel a 206 and Les Galvin a 201. Side Pot winners were Don Laird, Alan Singer and Jerry Schneider for the men, and Helen Hartman, Millie Murphy and Joyce Belcher for the ladies.

But the big winners, the 2008-2009 First Place Overall team, was Team 12: Shirley McQuivey, Al Feldman, Helen Koehn and Tim Ryan. Team 13 battled to the end to finish second, with Betty Dean, Shirlee Stone, Mike Shapiro and Bill Kirkpatrick. It turned out that Tim and Bill were unable to bowl, so special thanks to Edward Bledsoe and John Richardson for subbing in the "pressure-packed" final match.

Al Koblin was a longtime Village bowler and came to Village league games long after he was unable to play. He recently passed away at the age of 95.

On May 8, the annual Bowling Banquet was held in the AR. Trophies, courtesy of Harley's Camarillo Bowl, were given out to the first- and second-place team members along with the following:

High Series Handicap Ladies, Billie Stimac (687); Men, Jim Dalton (742).

High Game Handicap Ladies, Sybil Moore (266); Men, Jerry Knopf (290).

High season's average, ladies, Sybil Moore (146); men, Leonard Belcher (180).

Oh yes, crying towels were given to Team 10 for their last-place finish.

Ron and Don Koblin, sons of the late Al Koblin, then unveiled the beautiful Al Koblin Memorial Trophy that they have donated, and it will carry the names of the most improved bowlers. The first names to be engraved are Nancy Guirell (19 pin improvment) and Herb Fogel (22 pins).

That morning, the Koblin brothers bowled with a few of us at Camarillo Bowl. Ron bowled three games without an open frame, finishing with an astounding 703 scratch series.

Special thanks to Meriam Laird and her crew for putting on a first-class event.

Sign-ups for the 2009-2010 season will be August 7, from 10 a.m. to noon in the MPR. Watch this column for more information, or call Marty Simons at 987-9295.

International Folk Dancing

By Raye Gabriel

The world of dance is a charmed place. Some people like to inhabit it, others to dance it away. It makes for a delight when you join us in your dancing to that beautiful ethnic music. How great the feeling when you are in the company of people with like feeling.

Valerie has us starting Mondays in the AR at 12:30 and we dance until 2:30. She makes it all so simple to follow. We welcome you and are sure you would love it.

Call 383-0130 or 384-9620 for further information.

RV Club

By Fred Sass

The Fire Department is coming to the RV meeting on June 16, Tuesday night, at 7:30 p.m. We will meet in the RV lot that night. Come early and bring your own chairs and bring your fire extinguisher. This is a time we can see what our extinguishers can do. You will have to buy a replacement, but it is a chance to see if it works and how good our units perform. I plan to use my extinguisher as it is 14 years old. If you are not a member of the RV Club and would like to see a demonstration on how to use a fire extinguisher, please come.

Racquet Club

By Anne Wolfson

The Racquet Club meets the second Wednesday of the month in the Multi-Purpose Room. We are a very active group of tennis, paddle tennis and table tennis players, and we welcome all Villagers to join us!

Our next meeting, June 10, will be a potluck starting at 6 p.m. in the MPR. Please call Naomi Brill at 388-8511 and let her know what you would like to bring — salad or entree or dessert. We need enough for six people. Note the change of time!

On Saturday, June 13, we will have a paddle tennis tournament starting at 8 a.m. Sign up at the court or call John Peterson to get on the schedule at 388-1230.

On July 18, we will have our annual picnic. This will be catered by Country Harvest. The menu will be a choice of chicken, baby back ribs or tri-tip with coleslaw, potato salad, lemonade, coffee and dessert. The cost will be $12 per person. Put it on your calendar!

Our May meeting speaker was Sandi Banks from our own public library in Camarillo. Sandi was well-versed in all things available for us, such as large-print books, DVDs, use of their computers with personal assistance, a room to study in for small groups working on projects, trips planned by Friends of the Library and a monthly paper when you become a member. The cost is only $10 a year. It was a pleasure to have Sandi, and we all enjoyed her talk.

Don't forget June 10, MPR, at 6 p.m. with your favorite dish.

Single Active Seniors

By Zelda Greentree

We have an outstanding program for the evening of June 9. Marc and Norma Maidi, a member of AAUW, will give a report on their recent visit to Iran, including many pictures. This very interesting program takes place in the MPR on Tuesday, June 9, at 7 p.m. I'm sure you will enjoy the evening!

On the following Tuesday night, our feature movie for June is "Last Chance Harvey." It stars Dustin Hoffman and Emma Thompson. This movie will take place in the SAS Theater in the Annex at 7 p.m. June 16.

And now for our plans for the next Tuesday night: We are going out for pizza! We will meet at Round Table Pizza on Tuesday, June 23, at 5:30 p.m., but you must call for reservations by Friday, June 19. Cost for the dinner is $10 for paid-up members and $12 for guests. Dinner will include

Saturday Night Dance

By Howard Koehn

Five years ago Barbara Ohmstedt and Bill Byrnes took over the Saturday Nite Dances for a "few months." Saturday, May 17, they celebrated in great style their five-year anniversary running the dances. They thanked all the loyal dancers from both inside and outside the Village with free admission, finger foods and two delicious cakes.

After getting in free, some lucky hoofers won $25 gift certificates from Aloha and Rick's restaurants, plus the usual award-winning bottles of wine. You can't beat a deal like that! With more than 100 in attendance, it was definitely a night to remember. Good job, Barb, and Bill!

June's schedule will bring the Aristocats on June 6, Jerry Dokken on June 13, Rick Tucker on June 20, and Jerry Dokken back for June 27. Save your Saturday nights and come out and join the fun and dancing. No more "freebies" — it will cost $5 to get in, but there's free popcorn and punch.

Remember to BYOB. See you there!

Players Guild

By Cathy Friedman

First, the Players Guild wants to thank all of you who attended and enjoyed the production of "Call Me Madam." Everyone in the cast put a lot of time and work into the show. The play was a huge success and your enthusiastic response was greatly appreciated.

We have big plans regarding the workshops that will be presented for your pleasure and entertainment in the coming months. The June 18 workshop at 7:30 p.m. will be a re-creation of a Nero Wolfe radio mystery, "The Mysterious Magician." It should be an interesting and exciting performance that I am sure you will not want to miss. Refreshments will be served after the show. See you there.

As you know, the economy is affecting many people, and many programs, and the one program that is suffering the most is the food-sharing group. Therefore, the Players Guild is asking each and every one of you to help stamp out hunger. We will be collecting non-perishable food items like canned goods, pasta, cereal, rice, etc., on June 18 at our workshop. There will be containers for you to deposit these items. There are many people who need our help. So, open your hearts and cupboards and let's help the Food Share program. Please help!

Don't forget our contest if you would like to win two free tickets (Row D center) to see the production of "Cats" at the Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Center at 2 p.m. Saturday, August 1. If you are a member of the Players Guild, bring a friend or relative to the June and July workshops and have them sign up for membership in the Players Guild, and you will receive a ticket for a drawing to be held in July for the winner. Bring as many new members as you can, as you will receive a ticket for each one. Good luck! If you win, you may have your picture taken as a winner and it would appear in Inside Leisure Village — we are working on this possibility.

See you all at the June workshop.

Country Line Dance

By Ida Kubica

Dance Workshop meets on Tuesdays from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the AR. At 2:45, Betty Dean leads a review of the dance steps used in the dances — a time to get help if needed.

Rhoda Smithkin, our instructor, selects a variety of dances for that day to enjoy and become more familiar with. We do different styles of dancing to help us learn them all, such as folk, rumba, country or jitterbug. As with any new activity, "practice makes perfect."

If you have a dance you would like to share with the class, let Rhoda know and she will include it in the dance class at her discretion. Leading the class for that dance is also an option. So come often — it helps to retain that information in the brain — and the exercise you get while doing different styles of dancing is beneficial also.

At the yearly meeting to elect new officers, it was decided that the same members will retain their positions of the previous year. Thank you for your kind generosity.

Call Rhoda Smithkin at 494-8132 for any questions you want answered. See you in class!

Bocce Ball

By Jan Tamburro

The Bocce Club held its monthly meeting on Thursday, April 30, in the AR. A potluck dinner hosted by Don Rosen and Diane Fleisher was enjoyed by approximately 50 members. Two new members were welcomed: April Huber and Evelyn Bruenn. Raffle prizes were won by Susan Kusak and Dave Morningstar.

Our annual Bocce Tournament will be held on June 22 with 16 members participating. Alternates will be available.

June 25 will be our catered picnic dinner date, hosted by Sy Blau and held behind the Pavilion in the picnic area. Cost is $15 for members, $17 for non-members.

Winners of the Bocce

Tournament will be awarded.

Come join the fun!

Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

The winners of the 1 and 15 eight-ball tournament in the B group are: first place, Bill Parker; second, Helen McGinnis; third, Janice Runnels.

The A group first-place winner was Rubin Ruiz, second place, Ed Calahan; third place, Frank DeSimone.

The SA group first-place winner was Jack Quinn; second place was Aleta Trogdon; and third place was Sam Kay.

Picnic in the park is scheduled for June 7. John Wirtz will be cooking up tasty hamburgers and hot dogs. Also, there will be potato chips, beans, soft drinks, coffee and ice cream — all for $6 per person. BYOB.

Mark your calendars for the meeting followed by an ice cream social on Tuesday, June 23, in the MPR.

Village Boosters

The Booster Club will be bringing its own version of American Idol, called "Leisure Village Idle," to the stage of the AR on Sunday, August 2, at 4 p.m. The program will be hosted with our own Ryan Seaweed, with the famous panel of Simon Cow, Paula Abdull and Dandy Jackson. Contestants will be none other than Franks, DianaR, DollyP, Elvis, TammyW, BarbraS, BetteM, CarolC, EttaJ, BobbyD and maybe a few others. Tickets will be $5, with sales beginning in July. This promises to be a hilarious entertainment event, so mark your calendars so you won't miss it.

On June 21, Father's Day, in the AR, the Boosters will present another Sunday Afternoon at the Movies. "The Bucket List," starring Morgan Freeman and Jack Nicholson, is the Rob Reiner-directed tale of two decidedly different senior citizens embarking on a series of road trips where they discover not only the best of life but also what they have in common. The movie starts promptly at 2:30 p.m., so get there early to get your free popcorn. Bring friends and neighbors for a really good time.

The Leisure Village Board of Directors accepted the $500 Booster Club donation to cover the tile cost for the barbecue in the picnic area. The barbecue looks wonderful, and we were happy to be a part of it.

All proceeds from Booster events go towards the betterment of our community.

Meetings are held the second Tuesday of every month at 6:30 p.m. in the Garden Room; membership is $5. Everybody is welcome; please join us. We need your energy and your ideas.

Women's Club

By Eldora Barton

We had another outstanding day at the May Fashion Show. Committee Chair Joyce Baker, committee members, models, hospitality, servers (gentlemen, we appreciated your presence) and all who answered the call for assistance presented a very pleasant afternoon honoring the Women's Club past presidents. We enjoyed our cake and coffee while talking over the fashions. Our grateful thanks go to Draper's and Damon's for showing their charming fashions.

On Thursday, June 4, we gathered for bingo, refreshments and a social time.

In July, the Thursday General Meeting will be dark. Meeting and entertainment will resume in August.

The Tuesday Workshop from 9 to 11 a.m. will be meeting each week in the MPR. We'll keep the needles, thread, crochet hooks, knitting needles and glue guns active.

Thanks for all the Food Share items, Campbell's Soup labels and Box Top for Education coupons. Keep them coming!
