CAL STATE FULLERTON CAMPUS

California State University, Fullerton, is a relatively young institution, having opened only 23 years ago. However, it already has grown to more than 24,000 students and achieved national distinction.

The university's students come primarily from Southern California with many from other states and other nations. Most students commute each day to and from classes; many come to classes only in the evening.

Drawn from throughout the world, the 750-member faculty is noted for its commitment to effective teaching and scholarly activity. Research is actively pursued, typically with students involved.

The university enjoys full accreditation for its overall program. In addition, national recognition has been accorded to programs in art, athletic training, business, chemistry, education, engineering, communications, music, speech and hearing, and theater. All told there are 81 degree programs — 39 of them at the graduate level.

Reinforcing classroom instruction is the largest university level internship and cooperative education program on the West Coast. The program allows students to gain on-the-job experience while continuing their regular studies.

Another amenity is the extended education program. It provides classes, workshops, conferences and study tours on a year-round basis. Extended education offerings are open to the community without the formalities of regular admission to the university.

Still another strong point is the university's cultural events program, including a series that brings nationally known professional artists to the campus for residencies as well as public performances.

A more recent development is formation of a professional caliber symphony orchestra to provide the university community and area residents with high-quality music.

An extensive recreation program aimed chiefly at students but also open to community members is another highlight, as is the 7,000-person network of community support organizations. The Titan Athletic Foundation is one of these support groups.

Further examples of community outreach are the Fullerton Arboretum and Tucker Wildlife Sanctuary. Opened in 1979, the Arboretum is a 25-acre on-campus preserve that was established jointly by the university and the City of Fullerton. Tucker Wildlife Sanctuary is a half-hour from campus in a canyon of the Santa Ana Mountains.

To reinforce the university's commitment to high academic standards and community services, Cal State has embarked on an ambitious campaign called "Partners in Excellence." Its purpose is to raise the necessary non-state funding to make the university the foremost bachelor's master's degree institution in the nation.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Jewel Plummer Cobb, President

Dr. Jewel Plummer Cobb was appointed the third president of Cal State Fullerton on July 8, 1981. Her selection was the culmination of a nationwide search begun in November, 1980 to replace Dr. L. Donald Shields, who had resigned after a ten-year term to accept the presidency of Southern Methodist University.

Dr. Cobb had served as Dean of Douglass College at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, since 1976. There she also held the rank of Professor of Biological Sciences. Prior to her Douglass appointment she was Dean of Connecticut College and Professor of Zoology for seven years. Previously, she was Professor of Biology at Sarah Lawrence College in New York.

Born in January, 1924, Dr. Cobb is known for her work in cell physiology, her promotion of the advancement of women in scientific fields and her activities on behalf of minorities. She is the first black woman to head a major public university on the west coast.

Cobb earned her bachelor's degree in 1944 from Talladega College in Alabama and her M.S. and Ph.D. in cell physiology from New York University in 1947 and 1950, respectively. She is the mother of a son, Jonathan, who is a student in the Cornell University Medical School.

TITAN ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

Buck McCleneghan Executive Director

The Titan Athletic Foundation is a non-profit organization that exists solely to aid the athletic program at Cal State Fullerton. It is a group of individuals with a genuine interest in athletics, the University and the community.

The foundation supports athletics by providing funds for scholarships that insure an effective recruiting program which attracts the best athletes available. The 1982 drive totaled nearly $300,000.

The TAF was founded in January, 1973 and the initial 150 members raised approximately $30,000. Membership today totals more than 800.

Fullerton businessman Pierre Nicolas was the TAF's first president. He was succeded by Don Karcher, president of Carl Karcher Enterprises; Buck Johns, president of Home Works; Larry Slagle, vice president of Yellow Cab of North Orange County; and current president Jim Woods, president and chairman of the board of Baker Oil Tools.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Lynn Eilefson Athletic Director

Lynn Eilefson brought a background of fund-raising, marketing and stadium construction to Cal State Fullerton and his expertise in those areas already has shone brightly in his first few months in the athletic director's chair.

Long dormant plans for a joint venture by the University and the city of Fullerton to erect a Youth Sports Complex featuring football/soccer and baseball stadiums have been revitalized with funding arranged and a 1985 completion date targeted. An "Orange Crush" theme for Orange County's largest intercollegiate sports program has been adopted and the most ambitious fund-raising goals in Titan Athletic Foundation history have been set.

"Cal State Fullerton has a great amount of untapped potential for an excellent program of intercollegiate athletics woven within an outstanding academic framework," said Eilefson upon his Apr. 1, 1982 appointment.

"I have no doubt that, with a proper perspective, we can strike a balance between academic and athletic excellence while building a most successful sports program.

"Our first priority is showing concern for the student athlete and providing him or her the incentive to become a scholar and grow as an individual. We also have to give our excellent coaching staff the tools to coach."

Eilefson came to Fullerton after 17 months as senior assistant athletic director at UCLA where he was responsible for alumni and booster liaison, marketing, promotions and sports information. He previously served for eight and a half years at Fresno State University in a variety of positions including associate athletic director, coordinator of the stadium development fund and six years as executive director of the Bulldog Foundation. Prior to that he held posts at Lawrence University and Montana State University.

At Fresno State he drew up a capital fund campaign to build its 30,000 seat oncampus stadium. He raised cash contributions from $30,000 to more than $500,000 during his term and also launched the "Red Wave" mania that has captured the San Joaquin Valley.

Eilefson held the post of director of alumni and development relations at Lawrence and was coordinator of special events at Montana State, where he coordinated the drive for its on-campus football stadium.

"A football-soccer stadium is a very definitive need at Cal State Fullerton," said Eilefson. "It's one of the few Division I schools without a campus facility. It will be one of my priorities."

Eilefson is a 1957 graduate of the University of Montana with a degree in Business Marketing Management. He and wife Bev live in Placentia. His children are all graduates of Fresno State University, and make their home in Fresno.

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

An academic enrichment program emphasizing the development of learning skills has been developed at Cal State Fullerton to aid student-athletes toward success in the classroom as well as on the playing floor.

"While I believe an athlete is responsible for his academic progress, I also believe it is the responsibility of a coach to establish an atmosphere and environment conducive to academic success," said coach George McQuarn, the guiding force behind the program.

"We are a goal-oriented program and the graduation of our players is an important goal to me."

The purpose of the Enrichment Program is to help student-athletes learn and apply a proven study approach. They are introduced to resources available to them on campus and taught how to manage time, take notes, comprehend text book material, take tests and write term papers. Individual surveys are conducted which assess each athlete's skill levels as they apply to his career planning.

Group discussions are led by campus faculty and staff with a focus on personal academic and career motiviation and support. It is an outgrowth of a program started by McQuarn when he was an assistant at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

A program outline:

TIME MANAGEMENT — How time is spent and misspent; how to design an efficient and realistic time schedule.

SQ4R — A systematic method to reading and remembering text book material.

NOTE TAKING — Effective listening techniques and grasping the main idea.

READING SPEED ADJUSTMENT — Skimming and scanning; how to read for the main idea quickly and effectively.

TEST TAKING — Preparation vs. anxiety; techniques on how to take tests and how to overcome test-taking anxieties.

WRITING — Term papers, essays, etc; how to research, set up and write good papers and reports.

The program is directed by Valerie Bordeaux, assistant coordinator of Student Affirmative Action. She is assisted by Debbie Dietrick, primary workshop facilitator of the Learning Assistance and Resource Center on campus.

The always progressive Pacific Coast Athletic Association takes another step forward in 1982 with the addition of a ninth basketball playing member — the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Now spanning three states — California, Nevada and Utah — the PCAA is in its 14th year as one of the eight Division I footballI alignments in the nation after last winter's revisions which dropped several conferences into the Division I AA category. Schedules which include more and more Division I powers are indicative of the growth patterns continuing at member schools.

The PCAA has flourished under the dynamic leadership of Commissioners Jesse T.

Hill and Lewis A. Cryer, who is in his fifth year at the league's helm.

Hill, the highly-esteemed director of athletics at USC for 26 years, was instrumental in obtaining automatic qualification for NCAA championships in several sports and in 1976 played a key role in the inauguration of the highly-successful post-season basketball tournament. Formation of the Northern and Southern California Baseball Associations intermingling members of the PCAA and WCAC was a Hill project hailed as a major money saver by both leagues.

Cryer replaced Hill in June of 1978 and has overseen the continued flourishing of the post-season basketball tournament (which moves into the Forum this season) while orchestrating the additions of Utah State and UNLV to the conference along with the orgination of the California Bowl in 1981. It matches the PCAA champion against the champion of the Mid-American Conference in Fresno in the only bowl game other than the Rose Bowl which pits "closed-end" opponents — those representing predetermined conferences.

1983 Post-Season Tournament

March 10-11-12 at The Forum in Inglewood

After five tremendously successful years of being contested entirely in the Anaheim Convention Center, the exciting PCAA post-season basketball tournament moves to The Forum in Inglewood in 1983.

After selling all 7,433 seats for both the semifinals and the finals last year, the 17,505-seat multi-purpose arena will provide room for continued growth of the tournament. In the first year, only the top four regular season finishers qualified for the tournament held in the Stockton Civic Auditorium. The next year, all eight teams participated but the first round was contested at the home sites of the top four seeds. Subsequent semifinals and championship games were played in Anaheim. In 1978 the entire competition was held in Anaheim and that formula grew in popularity with players and supporters alike.

1982-83 SEASON PREVIEW

Building upon the momentum of a strong finish last year and another strong recruiting effort, the Cal State Fullerton Titans head into the 1982-83 season with visions of a Pacific Coast Athletic Association title.

"We should be very competitive and could challenge for the championship with Nevada-Las Vegas and Fresno State," said head coach George McQuarn. "We recruited for need and had good success."

The Titans won 10 of their final 13 games last season to finish third in the PCAA, second in the post-season tournament. Their 18-14 record was 11½ games better than the 4-23 mark in McQuarn's rookie season, making them the most improved team in the nation.

Their weakness — rebounding and inside-scoring — has been alleviated with the eligibility of 6-11 redshirt center Ozell Jones and the arrival of three outstanding junior college forwards in All-American DeWayne Shepard, all-state Johnny Wilkes and all-conference Craig Fuller.

Returning is the heart of last year's backcourt-oriented team — guards Leon Wood and Ricky Mixon, forward Tony Neal and swingman Gary Davis.

Wood was the leading scorer at 19.7 points per game and made the all-PCAA first team and all-tournament team and won honorable mention All-American honors. The entertaining 6-3 junior, who also averaged 7.4 assists per game, has added upper body strength and now weighs in at 190 pounds.

Mixon was the No. 2 scorer at 13.9 points per game and a second-team All-PCAA selection. A prolific jump shooter, the Titans' lone senior could reap big dividends from the conference's new three-point field-goal rule.

Neal was the PCAA freshman of the year and another all-tournament selection. He led the team in rebounding with 8.5 rebounds per game dividing time between forward and the pivot. He was the No. 3 scorer with 10.9 points per game.

Davis will be pressing for a starting job. He played on the West team in the National Sports Festival last summer, averaging 10.3 points after averaging 6.8 last year.

"We finished up the season well and the players got a taste of success," said McQuarn. "We've got several new players to blend into a team and we need to get into excellent physical condition because we don't have much depth."

Jones was the regular center at Wichita State and helped lead the Shockers to the Missouri Valley Conference title and an NCAA playoff berth before being declared ineligible. He averaged 7.8 points and 7.1 rebounds during his two seasons.

Shepard, a muscular (6-7, 210) inside player, was selected Most Valuable Player of the 1981 national junior college tournament at Hutchinson, Kansas when he led WestArk Community College of Fort Smith, Arkansas to the national championship. He averaged 13.7 points and 7.8 rebounds and his team's two-year record was 65-10.

Wilkes averaged 20 points and 11 rebounds at Long Beach City College after transferring from the University of Colorado. He is a complete ballplayer and plays hard at both ends of the court.

Fuller averaged 17 points and 11 rebounds at Oxnard College. The two-time All-CIF pick at Banning High School will likely serve as a back-up to Jones at the post position.

Two heralded freshmen and three walk-ons complete the 13-man roster. Jeff Logan, a 6-3 point guard, averaged 10 points and seven assists and was an All-CIF selection at Inglewood High School. Oliver Seeley, a 6-7 forward, averaged 12 points, 15 rebounds and six blocked shots at San Fernando High, where he earned second-team all-city and All-San Fernando Valley honors.

Returning from last year's team is guard Bob Boothe and back from the 1980-81 team is guard John Hall, who led California in scoring as a sophomore at Cerro Coso Junior College in Ridgecrest. The newest addition to the team is 6-5 forward Jeff Clarke. He hasn't played competitively since Royal Oak High School in Covina in 1979.

The Titans open the season at home on Nov. 27 vs. Northern Arizona University. An early road trip to Wichita State, the Utah Classic in Salt Lake City and a home game with WCAC defending champion Pepperdine will provide the most difficult challenges prior to the PCAA race.

"We started out slowly last year and I think that will be the pattern again this season," said McQuarn. "We've got a lot of new guys to work into the system. People don't realize that we only have four players back from last year's team.

"We're flattered that our program is getting more attention this year but I'm not going to put any pressure on this team by talking in terms of numbers of victories. I will apply pressure to make them play hard. But I'm keeping this season in perspective. A key injury or two and we're not a very good ballclub."

George McQuarn has done more than merely rebuild a once-proud Cal State Fullerton basketball program. In just two short years, he has assembled a championship caliber roster while laying a foundation to perpetuate the expected successes.

The Titan basketball picture is far brighter today than it was on March 8, 1980 when McQuarn was hired. Two returning part-time players from a 12-15 team and a senior redshirt who had been dropped by a conference rival were the nucleus of his first squad. This year, McQuarn greets three returning All-PCAA players, a veteran of the National Sports Festival team, an experienced 6-11 center and three outstanding junior college transfers.

"I admit we're a year ahead of my schedule," says McQuarn. "Our improvement wasn't gradual as I had expected. We finished up strong last year and should be very competitive in our conference and could challenge for the championship with Nevada, Las Vegas and Fresno State."

The Titans were the most improved team in the nation last year with an 18-14 record following a 4-23 mark in McQuarn's rookie season. They won 10 of their last 13 games to match the school's best-ever conference record (9-5) and finish second to Top 10 ranked Fresno State in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association post-season tournament.

While outstanding recruiting and coaching abilities have been the most obvious reasons for the sudden turnabout, two other facets of McQuarn have been critical to the "renaissance" — his concern with discipline and attention to academic success.

McQuarn, 41, gained a reputation as a top-notch recruiter during four years as an assistant to Jerry Tarkanian at Nevada, Las Vegas and it has been enhanced by his performance at Fullerton. Despite his late start in 1980 he attracted guard Leon Wood, who had to sit out a year after transferring from the University of Arizona. In 1981, he signed blue chip freshmen Tony Neal and Gary Davis, junior college sharpshooter Ricky Mixon and Wichita State transfer Ozell Jones.

This past spring he recruited a junior college All-American in forward DeWayne Shepard, an all-state forward in Johnny Wilkes, an all-conference center in Craig Fuller and two freshmen for the future in guard Jeff Logan and forward Oliver Seeley. Also, on campus for next year is another center in 6-10 Leonard Agee, a top scorer and rebounder who transferred from Loyola-Marymount.

The initial shortage of personnel during McQuarn's first year forced him into numerous tactical changes which made him a more versatile coach. His first Titan team was molded into a deliberate unit as opposed to an up-tempo group, while last year's squad built its offense around the perimeter play of its outstanding guards. He also switched in early season from a man-to-man to zone defense. This season, McQuarn hopes to play faster offensively and more aggressively on defense — a style with which he was associated at UNLV.

Then there is McQuarn, the man, an intensely competitive person with a high work ethic.

"I believe in teaching mental discipline and insisting on total concentration," says

McQuarn. "I want my players to play through outside elements they have no control over including a coach with an aggressive personality. I seek players who are willing to accept this concept."

McQuarn is equally adamant about attention to classroom studies. At UNLV he set up an Academic Support Program and at Fullerton he has established an Academic Enrichment Program to assist his players in succeeding academically.

"We are a goal-oriented program and the graduation of our players is an important goal to me," says McQuarn. "While I believe an athlete is responsible for his academic progress, I also believe it is the responsibility of a coach to establish an atmosphere and environment conducive to academic success."

McQuarn graduated from Long Beach State in 1966 with degree in physical education. He earlier had attended UCLA on a baseball scholarship and earned All-West Coast honors as the Bruins' catcher.

A Fresno native, McQuarn graduated from Centennial High in Compton where he earned All-CIF honors in basketball and baseball before attending Compton College, where he was selected to the JC All-America baseball team.

McQuarn's coaching career began with a phenomenal tenure at Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles. He started out with a 25-0 record as the freshman coach and between 1969 and 1973 guided the varsity to four consecutive CIF championships on three different levels of competition. The final team went 32-1 on the AAAA (highest) level and completed McQuarn's prep career at 123-8 for a .939 winning percentage.

David Greenwood, Roy Hamilton, Raymond Lewis, former Titan Keith Anderson and current assistant coach Donny Daniels are some of the Eagles who played for McQuarn.

An appointment as the Recreation Superintendent for the City of Compton lured McQuarn away from Verbum Dei but he returned to coaching with the UNLV appointment in 1976. The 1977 Rebel team reached the final four of the NCAA Championship Tournament and the 1980 squad gained the semifinals of the National Invitational Tournament with a 23-9 record.

Assistant Coaches

Phil Mathews

Donny Daniels

JOHN SNEED — is in his third year at Fullerton and boasts experience with winning Division I programs and a remarkably successful record as a high school head coach. Sneed, 34, was an assistant for one year at the University of Arizona, a 21-6 season (1976-77) which took the Wildcats into the NCAA playoffs. During 1977-78 he was an assistant at San Diego State and the 19-8 Aztecs won the PCAA title before being eliminated in the post-season tournament by Cal State Fullerton. He was also at San Diego in 1978-79.

Sneed succeeded McQuarn at Verbum Dei High School in Los Angeles in 1974 and won the CIF 4A title and CIF Coach of the Year honors with a 30-2 record. His Eagles won two more Camino Real League titles with 28-1 and 23-5 seasons and he twice was league coach of the year. His career prep mark was 81-8 (.910) and the 1974 team was recognized as national champions by the National Sport News Service.

A Long Beach state graduate, Sneed served two years as an assistant to McQuarn at Verbum Dei. He is a native of Gastonia, North Carolina.

PHIL MATHEWS — is in his second year at Fullerton. He boasts PCAA experience as a player and coach and was a highly successful high school head coach.

Mathews, 31, played two years at Riverside City College under coach Bill Mulligan and then transferred to UC Irvine and played for coach Tim Tift. He was the third guard as a senior and averaged 5.2 points as UCI went 16-14 and participated in the Division II regional playoffs. Mathews was an all-league and all-county selection at North High School in Riverside.

After obtaining a bachelor's degree in social science in 1972, Mathews remained at Irvine as an assistant to Tift and during his five-year tenure the Anteaters were 70-65.

After earning a master's degree in education, Mathews moved to Santa Ana Valley in 1977 where he posted three winning seasons. The Falcons were 12-10, 22-5 and 18-7 and won a pair of Century League titles.

DONNY DANIELS joins the Fullerton staff this season as a part-time assistant after working last year in a volunteer capacity. He is a former Titan player (1974-76) and served one year as an assistant to Bobby Dye.

Daniels, 28, played two seasons for George McQuarn at Verbum Dei High School before attending Los Angeles Harbor College. He played two years under coach Jim White before transferring to Fullerton, where he was the club's top defensive player in 1975.

Major: Physical Education

Leon Wood has developed into one of the most exciting backcourt players in the nation . . . dominates games with his ability to control the ball and dictate tempo . . . has 25 foot + range, can drive and penetrate . . . averaged 19.7 points and 7.4 assists last year . . . first-team All-PCAA and all-PCAA tournament team selection . . . Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American . . . listed as one of Top 50 players this year by The Sporting News . . . established seven school records last year for points, assists and free throws . . . scored 36 vs. Pacific (Feb. 11) on 13 of 17 shooting from floor and 10 of 11 from line . . . twice had 16 assists (vs. BYU Nov. 28 and vs. UC Irvine Feb. 25) ... best overall game vs. Loyola-Marymount on Jan. 9 when he hit 11 of 12 from field and five of six at line for 27 points with nine assists and three turnovers in 391/2 minutes of play . . . tremendous stamina, playing 1,263 of possible 1,305 minutes. .. won three AirCal PCAA Player of the Week Awards . . . set all-time California prep scoring record with 2,693 points at St. Monica's High School in Santa Monica . . . twice won CIF 1A Player of the Year honors . . . averaged 42.1 points as a senior and led team to CIF title . . . averaged 35 as a prep . . . was MVP of the Dapper Dan All-Star Game and Wendy's Classic . . . parents are Leon and Evelyn Wood . . . has two brothers.

Coach McQuarn: "Leon already could shoot and handle the ball when he came here. He can score, penetrate, shoot free throws, dish it off . . . anything you need him to do. He's certainly not the typical point guard. He had a rocky start last year in reading the defense and working within the system. The Loyola game was the turning point. He has many dimensions but is willing to sacrifice."

TITAN RADIO NETWORK

John Rebenstorf returns as producer and play-byplay announcer of Titan Basketball in 1982-83. All games will be heard on KWRM (1370 AM) with KIK-FM (94.3) carrying the Wichita State and Pepperdine games as well as the entire PCAA schedule.

Rebenstorf, 33, broadcast Titan football, basketball and baseball last year, his 11th in broadcasting. His company — The John Rebenstorf Sports Company — also produced Cal Poly Pomona and Long Beach State football and Pomona basketball and baseball, making him the largest college sports producer in southern California.

A native of Danville, Illinois, Rebenstorf entered broadcasting at WITY and covered high school basketball and minor league baseball before moving west in 1971 when he served as sports information director and campus radio broadcaster at UC Riverside, where he earned his bachelor's degree.

Rebenstorf has served as sports director of KSOM in Ontario and KBON and KMEN in San Bernardino. He is married (Linda), has four children and lives in Redlands.

Joining him on the air this season will be Ron Ekker, former coach at St. Louis University.

1981-82 Season in Review

The Titans played two "seasons" last year and the break came at about the time the Pacific Coast Athletic Association schedule began.

Fullerton opened the season against a Brigham Young University team which had knocked off UCLA the night before. The Cougars used their superior strength inside for a convincing 81-66 victory.

The Titans opened at home with a narrow win in overtime over Chapman College and then a decisive win over Cal Poly Pomona. They struggled defensively in a loss at Northern Arizona before changing to a zone against Eastern power St. Joseph in the Nike Classic. They had their easiest win of the year over Grambling before opening the Malibu Classic with a tough loss to another strong eastern team, Evansville. A narrow win over Texas-Arlington was countered by a last-second loss to Portland back at home.

Small Spring Arbor College gave the Titans a fit for a half but they responded with three strong performances in the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. They lost to powerful Wichita State by three and to Michigan State in overtime before defeating eventual NIT champion Bradley on a last-second shot by George Hawthorne.

A lopside loss at Pepperdine was followed by a win over Loyola-Marymount in which Leon Wood arrived as a Division I point guard, just in time for the PCAA wars with a 7-8 record going in.

Victor Green's last-second shot failed to go in at Irvine and the Titans lost their opener to the Anteaters, 50-49. They blew a late lead at Long Beach before returning home to beat San Jose and lose a 43-40 game to eventual champion Fresno State.

Saddled with a 8-11 overall record and 1-3 PCAA mark, the Titans finally put it together. They realized they were a perimeter oriented offensive team and packed themselves into a tight zone defense and rattled off six wins in a row including a first-ever sweep at Stockton and Logan, Utah.

The momentum was halted in losses at San Jose and Fresno but was regenerated stronger than ever with a triple overtime win over UC Irvine and a down-to-the-wire one-point win over Long Beach State to set the stage for the post-season tournament.

A lacklustre third victory over Pacific in the first round was followed by a last-second win over Irvine on a long jumper by Gary Davis. Cold nights by the shooting guards denied the Titans an upset of Fresno State in the final game.

1982-83 PCAA Experimental Rule Changes

30 Second Clock — starts when the ball enters a team's front court, by passing or dribbling and continues until a successful field goal or a shot hits the rim or flange of the basket. It will not operate the last four minutes of regulation nor during any overtime periods.

Three Point Field Goals — awarded for any shot made beyond a line on the court 19 feet and nine inches from the center of the basket. The player must have one or both feet on the floor beyond the three-point line when he attempts the shot. After the release of the ball he may land on the two-inch line or inside the two-point area.
