Dear Jane:

Thank you for your note. This being the day after Wisconsin, things could be better for our candidate. I would not suggest that you invest much money in clothes for Miami. On the other hand, anything can happen. Be of good cheer.

I am not quite clear about your suggestion concerning your valuable worker. There is great need for talented volunteers in the Southern California campaign. There is no money for paid workers. If he is a volunteer, I am certain he could be used. Are you talking about using him in Ventura or in Los Angeles? If Los Angeles, I would suggest you call Phil DePoian, who is in charge of organization. I am certain that Phil would be delighted to have somebody good to help with organization. If your friend has different talents, you should call Joe Freitas.

Give my best to Goldie. Let's keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Stephen Reinhardt
