

J. D. Chipman was the individual that directed the Employment Division - - He issued all work orders necessary for maintenance and operation of the Center.

S. F. Williams was responsible for Posting and Reconciling Inventory Records.

Vale Montgomery was the one in charge of Transportation. - - He had to see that all necessary pickup or delivery of materials was taken care of.

(In addition to the the above listed employees there were five caucasian drivers that worked for the Supply Division. They drove for special occasions that required transportation outside the confines of the Assembly Center.)

The average number of caucasian administrative and management employees within the Assembly Center enclosure was thirty-seven.