"My Fair Lady" SRO Smash!

by Ruth Wideman

Some comments heard from the opening night audience: "Gorgeous sets," "beautiful costumes," "the voices were wonderful," "the whole show the best ever done here," "she was gorgeous," "perfect."

How does one review a show? This non-professional will try to report how the L.V. Variety Guild created "My Fair Lady" and how it became a polished show.

First, the concept of doing a musical, and which one, is the responsibility of the Variety Guild Board. The talent needed for a Director and Producer was available within the Board. The original "My Fair Lady" had to be studied and decisions made as to what scenes were possible, considering the facility and talent within the Village. Obviously there is an abundance of talent, but the backstage and stage size would be enough to discourage ordinary people. The lack of proper lighting was also going to be a drawback. But fearless leaders forged ahead planning 18 scenes in 2 acts. At this point there were two special people who would not be deterred: Joan Johnson, Director and Jackie Solway, Producer. This was a most unusual partnership, almost as though each was the other's alter-ego. Each knew what the other was doing at all

Storm Drain Flood Control

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Although we have had no significant storms during the past year and no major storm since 1983, it is comforting to know that L.V. has competent people keeping abreast of what could happen should we have a major rainfall. Bill Huffman, Chairman of the L.V. Storm/Drain and Flood Control Committee has furnished ILV with his informative report given at the June Association Meeting on this subject.

by Bill Huffman

The following list of significant developments relating to flood control indicates that much is being done which will ultimately improve flood control and protection in the Village.

ILV Apologizes

ILV apologizes to Robert and Phyllis Chass whose names inadvertently appeared under the photo of Mr. & Mrs. Jack Rogers. Mr. Chass had been honored as one of the out-going members of the 1986-87 Board of Directors at the Swing Disco Jazz Dance event. Bob and Mrs. Chass, however, were not able to attend the affair.

We also apologize to the Rogers. Please see remarks on page 3 regarding both the old and the new board.

Homeowner's Common Sense Approach To The Termite Problem

by Jeanne Carlson

In the June issue of I.L.V. outgoing board member, Bob Chass, contributed an excellent article giving all the details and results of the recent Village-wide termite inspection. The situation appeared grim indeed. Termites and abundant wood rot fungus were found and it was thoroughly depressing news. Each homeowner realized that we have a real problem, if not now, very possibly in the future.

ILV now intends a follow-up on what can be done. As so often happens in L.V., we have an expert in our large talent-pool of residents, who was recommended by the Arch. Comm. (of which he is a member) to give prac-

Editorial

Two very important but controversial questions, after heated arguments, have been voted down within the last several months. Just now they are at an impasse but they are not going away; they will have to be approached again. (Please see Harry Becker's article on page 3.

In the very near future this is not likely to happen. Summer is a time of vacation, many people are away or are busy with visitors. There is a new Board, perhaps it will have some new or different ideas to help solve the problems.

For those of us who are free, this interval can be utilized by familiarizing ourselves with how the business of the Village is really conducted. We urge you to explore as many facets of Village life as you can. How do the dedicated volunteers who make up the committees and Board make their decisions? Sit in on the board meeting of any of the clubs in the Village. Come to an ILV planning meeting. Although we have no official standing in L.V. we are concerned with its well-being. (Call an editor for place and time). Most important of all, attend monthly Board of Directors meetings and audit at least once the Finance, Security and Architectural and Bldg. & Grnds. Committees.

Communication is always a problem. Relatively few people are actively aware of what really makes the wheels go around in the city, county or country or world in which they live. Perhaps that is too big a task to expect, but in our own corner, L.V., it shouldn't be impossible. When it comes time to mark a ballot many people become aware that they are not really cognizant of the situation and therefore rely upon someone else's opinion to influence their votes, or worse still, shut their eyes and guess — or not vote at all!

We shall never know how many people at last month's Town Hall meeting changed their votes after more alert people had pointed out discrepancies in the wording of the issue. Concise, understandable statements that are specific and complete are a must in legal documents. We have not always had this. Changes that only contribute to the confusion are worse than none — we must guard against them.

On the other hand we must remember that the life blood of democracy is difference of opinion which fosters thoughtful debate and eventual compromise. Such a system of checks and balances is not efficient in terms of time and sometimes not in money, but anything else is dictatorship and therefore unthinkable to a democratic society.

L.V. needs an AWARE YOU.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The L.V. Orchestra will present a short program starting at 9:30 a.m. prior to the Board of Directors meeting on Monday, Aug. 3, in the AR.

New LV Directors Face Critical Decisions

by Karl Cannon, Guest Editor

Resident-owners of Leisure Village are indeed fortunate to have had persons of high quality serving on the Board of Directors. The three newly-elected members, Art Wilson, Mike Sherman and Tom O'Brien, provide an unusual amount of professionalism and experience based on active participation in Village government. Together with Jack Rogers and Joe Selber now serving their second year, they will be tackling the job of governing our Village. Inside Leisure Village wishes them well and will try to be constructive in its coverage.

Our Village Constitution, the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, usually referred to as the CC&Rs, is over fifteen years old. A continuous process of deterioration affects us all, villagers and Village alike. We are all too familiar with the personal problems of aging. We have learned that in the last analysis we are responsible for maintaining our health. We have learned to get second medical opinions, to keep abreast of on-going research, new diagnostic tools, new medications and new approaches to nutrition.

So it is with our aging, changing, growing Village. We must cope with the deterioration of our structures and our infrastructure and we must meet the challenges of inevitably rising costs with an annual budget approaching four million dollars. The attention of all villagers is required to deal with the problems. The Association Committee structure is the means to help the Board govern more effectively. The Board will be better able to tackle the formidable task of solving problems if villagers participate in the decision-making process and cooperate effectively by enlightened voting. Now is the time to volunteer to serve on committees.

We are constantly involved in the logistics of getting enough votes legally required to pass certain measures. Three quarters of the residents are needed to approve most CC&R changes and additions. An added complication is the fact that no absentee ballots are allowed at the annual meeting.

Problems requiring immediate consideration include the unfinished business of the July 1987 Annual Meeting. The annual budget has been established and funding has been voted. We are now to be confronted with an enormous addition in sewer charges, plus a rise in water costs of $6.50 a month per home. This was recently announced in the press. For two thousand homes — and we have more — the water costs alone would increase our annual budget by $156,000!

We can appreciate the enormity of the task confronting all of us. Maintaining the high quality of life in Leisure Village is challenging. Participating in the grass roots, old-fashioned township-type of democracy can be exhilarating. It is an opportunity and a privilege.

Editorial Statement

Way back in 1979 when Your Neighbors Care Group gave up their reservation of the then Women's Club Room to residents who were interested in organizing a newspaper magazine, as yet unnamed, they set up some goals and limits for it.

Goals were simply and plainly stated. They were ... to enhance and brighten our quality of life by broadening the news of our residents' activities and actions of the Board and Committees...."

Editorial policy was equally clear. It states in part that "Items shall be beneficial to the community with no editorializing in the news columns.

"Items which the Editorial Staff deems to be personally embarrassing, inflammatory or otherwise unsuitable will not be published."

Two of the present editors were at that meeting. We have tried to the best of our ability to hold to these guidelines and newer current editors agree that they have served the Village well.

At that first meeting so long ago, interested residents were having trouble choosing a name, when Pat Jackler, V. 18, suggested "Inside Leisure Village." Immediately there was a loud murmur of approval and a unanimous vote for it. It was so right, so appropriate. This, too, we have attempted to adhere to. Concerns within the Village we attempt to approach as exhaustively as space permits; those outside the Village belong in other publications.

Inside Leisure Village means just that, and our Editorial Staff must reserve the right to edit any material submitted.

In Appreciation

ILV wishes to thank those outgoing officers, O.C. Marler, Herb Marks and Bob Chass, for serving in their unpaid capacity on the L.V. Board of Directors — an important, difficult, time-consuming and often thankless task.

Congratulations

We also wish to congratulate the new members of the Board, Tom O'Brien, Mike Sherman and Art Wilson who will be serving with Jack Rogers and Joe Selber.

Unfinished Business

by Harry Becker

Last month's election of three Board members — Tom O'Brien and Mike Sherman, former Association presidents, together with Art Wilson — promises to usher in a fresh breeze in the conduct of Village affairs.

Facing the new Board of Directors is an Agenda of Unfinished Business. Here is a partial list:

1) Resolving the dispute centered on the insurance deductible

2) Where to get the money for needed capital improvements

3) How to restore greater attendance by villagers at public meetings of the Board and of the Association

The Insurance Debate

Ever since 1985, the Board has refused to pay villagers' claims arising under the $1,000 deductible provision of the fire insurance policy, upsetting a long-established procedure originally started by the builder, Leisure Technology Corporation. The present policy went into effect without public discussion or even a public announcement, until a storm of protest arose.

The controversy has dragged on for more than two years. A referendum vote to validate the practice of non-payment, by amending the CC&Rs, was decisively defeated last year by a vote of 1148 to 410. On the other hand, an attempt to amend the CC&Rs this year, to spell out the Board's responsibility to pay the deductible, failed to achieve the required 75% vote.

Nevertheless, it is important to note that a majority of ballots in both referenda favored the return to the 11-year practice of paying the deductible. But even if all the 1382 votes cast in the 1987 insurance referendum had been counted in the affirmative, that would still not have met the 75% requirement for passage.

The new Board, two of whose members served on the Ad Hoc Committee to Restore Insurance Integrity, has an opportunity to solve the dilemma.

Proposition A

The rationale behind the proposal to utilize some of the funds set aside as security for payment of the monthly fees, which experience has shown are not entirely needed for that purpose, is to fund certain capital improvements without raising the annual assessments.

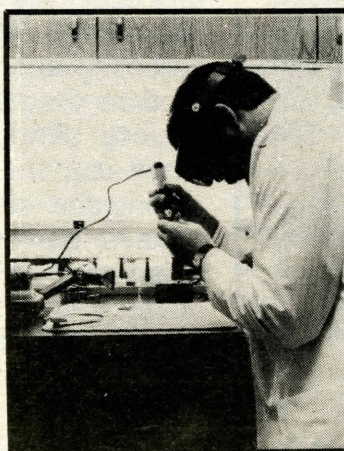

According to the CC&Rs, only a majority vote is required to authorize the fund transfer, but it appears that the vote fell short by a margin of 339. If we were to specu-

Emergency Services Organization (ESO)

by Paul Kelwin

The list of each Village's Coordinator/Alternates for Emergency Services Organization is out. If there are any errors that have not already been communicated to me, please call Kelwin, 987-1446.

The ESO Comm. this past year, to Aug. 31, was made up of Jack Rogers, Board liaison; Elmer Eyemann, Mgr.; Gene Markley, Asst. Mgr.; Chief Max Moses, LVA Security; Ike Abrams; Catherine Case, RN's Unit; Nick Dahl, RV unit; Dr. Gil Freeman, MD Unit; Ellis King, Communications; Mike Lyle, First Aid; Earl Mettler, Moped, etc. message Unit; Sandy Okum, YNCG; Phil LaPorte, Public Safety, and Paul Kelwin, Chairman of ESO. The Committee thanks all who volunteered for the foregoing units and as Village Coordinators and Alternates. All will be back-up, supplement, to Chief Moses' Security people.

Preparatory to broadcast of Red Cross session #2 on Damage Assessment by Ch. 12 on July 4, I contacted all Coordinators to deliver a "Disaster Survival Guide" to all new residents in their Villages since 12-31-86. So, new residents should have those guides by now. If not, call me. I advised all remaining Coordinators to call their Alternates to watch and/or VCR that broadcast. I suggested they allow 1½ hours, but the showing ran longer. So, The 3rd Red Cross Session, on Shelter Management (very important) will be broadcast on Sat., Aug. 1 at 10:00 a.m. If your VCR turned off at 11:30 on July 4, please set it for 1½ hours on Aug. 1.

The ESO Comm. and LVers and Chief Moses (who will train future workers) thank Ch. 12 for filming and later showing at a more convenient time the three Red Cross (7:00 a.m.) Disaster Preparedness sessions.

Several have said that the Red Cross sessions were too general, not specifically for LV. True! We had wished the Red Cross Rep. had had time to come and get the overall picture of LV before his presentation, but that was impossible due to his crowded schedule. We do hope that you got much that will be helpful.

Improvements Update

by Lois Atz

The end of July should bring the completion of construction to convert the former northern pool lanai area into two enclosed rooms. DeMoors Construction Co. has the contract for this work, which is a "bare bones" project. Walls will be ready for paint but not painted, doors will be hung but not finished; no floor coverings or counter tops are included.

One room will be dedicated to a Ch. 12 studio, giving both the planning and technical sub-committees much needed room. They have been operating out of a small room (read closet) off the AR. The second new room will be for general group meetings and will seat 40-50.

Russ Sievert and his Ch. 12 research and development committee hope that beige carpeting, lighter beige acoustical fabric wall covering, white ceiling and walnut-grain Formica counter tops can be installed in the Ch. 12 studio during August. The new room has double doors so that TV cameras and sound equipment can be moved in and out for taping of Village events. Specialized equipment desired by Ch. 12 must await later funding.

Other projects recently completed, according to George Thomas, recreation facilities manager, are installation of the new swimming pool chemical injection system, operation of which was inspected by the Health Dept.; pool fencing, both wooden and wrought iron, repaired or replaced; the assessment box for monthly homeowners' checks rebuilt and hung on the wall in the hall opposite the Library.

Additional projects under consideration by the Board are a chemical injection system for the spa, resurfacing of the high traffic cement areas near the pool and spa with a non-skid material, and a wind screen for the exercise and ping pong area south of the pool, similar to the screen used for the tennis courts.

Confidential Help Available

The Food Bank of Ventura County is called Food Share. It is very active in collecting and distributing food to the needy in our county. The volunteer workers in L.V. are among the best and can always be counted on when needed.

There is a small distribution center in Leisure Village where an abundance of food is available every week. If you feel you could use this help, please call 482-6114 (Valerie Barbeau). You need not even identify yourself to find out if you qualify. Everything is confidential. We want to help.

The California (Cute?) Ground Squirrel

by Charles R. Wylie, M.D.

We Village residents enjoy living adjacent to the mountain foothills and observing the wildlife from the dry brush areas. However, the California ground squirrel occasionally invading our lush green vegetation should be actively discouraged. Living in underground burrows they carry fleas which could end up on your well-cared-for pet, even on your spouse's leg. Fleas too must eat!

Southern California has had several outbreaks of human bubonic plague caused by infected fleas; (the last human case was in Fillmore, Ventura County, in 1975). An article in L.A. Times, 6-15-87, gives more details, describing a current situation in Simi Valley.

late why this happened, we could cite several reasons, but one factor stands out above all others:

The statement of committee support accompanying the ballot was inaccurate, to say the least. The Finance Committee had in fact voted against Proposition A, because the Committee felt it "to be inappropriate, at this time, to proceed with the transfer of $160,000 .

... without specific information as to the projects involved, reasonable estimates as to their projected cost, definite information as to their immediate necessity, or an opportunity for the residents to be made aware of the specifics of said projects on a one-by-one basis."

One must not forget to mention the healthy debate over this issue at the Annual Meeting of the Association, which gave those in attendance, as well as those watching on Ch. 12, a lesson in Village democracy at work.

We may expect the present Board to consider this matter anew, because there are projects waiting to be funded.

A New Beginning

The caliber of the persons recently chosen to sit on the Board signals a welcome new beginning.

Not only must the newly-elected Board complete the unfinished business inherited from the preceding administration, but it must attempt to deal with the apathy of many resident-owners, who neither attend the monthly meetings of the Board of Directors nor participate in voting on referendum issues.

Why is this important? An Association such as ours relies heavily on voluntary commitment to maintain a cooperative community of good neighbors, fully protecting our property values.

Last month's ILV stressed the importance of voluntary participation in Village committees and organizations. The Board of Directors, charged with the responsibility of managing the affairs of LVA, consists of five volunteers, who devote a considerable amount of time serving villagers' interests.

Those interests are best served when Board members are able to listen to their constituents. To the extent that a real dialogue occurs, to that extent will attendance rise at the open meetings and voter participation rise.

Summer

by Lillian Wallace

The summer sun has moved
Across the fields of tasseled corn,
Peeked around the mountain tops
To break the early morn.

Stroked the shiny feathers
Of poetry in flight -
Wakened sleepy blossoms
To greet the morning light.

Smiled in all her glory
Upon a cold grey sea -
Warmed a lover's fond embrace
As he whispered tenderly.

Kissed the fruited orchards
Brought them all to bear -
Summer, giving golden days
Her blessings, everywhere.

Camarillo Health Care District Offers Special Senior Services

Camarillo Health Care District is a public entity, whose primary goal is to provide quality health related services to the citizens residing in and around the city of Camarillo. Two of the services offered by the district are Lifeline and the Adult Day Center.

Lifeline is a personal emergency alarm and response system. It is designed to help medically vulnerable or physically impaired people live at home with confidence and independence. Subscribers wear "personal help buttons." In an emergency, the subscriber presses the "personal help button," which alerts the Lifeline Emergency Response Center located at Pleasant Valley Hospital. Specially trained personnel at the Hospital react to the alarm by dispatching appropriate assistance to the subscriber's home.

The Adult Day Center is a program which provides care and services to frail homebound older adults who are no longer able to attend other senior programs. Participants are given the opportunity for social contact and intellectual stimulation in a program of activities designed to meet their special needs and limitations. The Day Center offers relief for caregivers from the daily responsibilities of caring for a frail adult and prevents premature placement in a long term care facility.

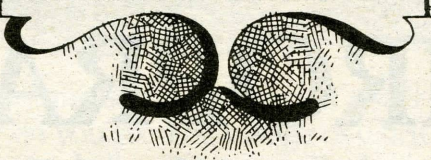

If you would like further information about Lifeline, the Adult Day Center or other services offered by Camarillo Health Care District, please call (805) 388-1952, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Organ Concert Feature Baxters On August 7

by Lois Atz

Music lovers are in for a special treat when organ keyboard artists Eddie and Marty Baxter appear in concert Fri., Aug. 7 in the AR at 7:30 p.m. The husband and wife duo have entertained here before and have a spirited following in the Village.

The LV Organ Club has arranged for this concert and tickets are available at the Rec Center ticket desk on Monday and Friday mornings and Wednesday afternoons, as well as from Organ Club members. Ducats are $2. each.

Eddie Baxter's orchestral style is the result of a wide variety of musical experience, including pianist and arranger for Frankie Masters and Glen Gray's Casa Loma orchestra, staff organist at KNBC, and TV appearances including the Johnny Carson Show.

Eddie Baxter has recorded eight albums for Dot Records. Another release, "Super Organ," is now also on cassette. His collection of organ arrangements, "Color My Song," is published by Hal Leonard.

Marty Baxter's background includes dance band and staff radio pianist and arranger, choral conductor, and teacher of public school music and adult education organ classes. She has written commercial jingles and special material for TV and for Lily Tomlin.

She authored a book entitled "Overcoming Stage Fright," and has four books of organ arrangements, "Organ — From Ballads to Blues," "Organ — From Bach to Rock," "Organ Praise," and "Christmas Organ."

LETTERS

My heartfelt appreciation to all of my friends and neighbors in L.V. for your telephone calls, cards and contributions when I had my automobile accident. Your thoughtfulness and caring helped me greatly during a very traumatic time.

Thank you and God bless you.

Ann Zimmon, V.34

To all my caring friends and neighbors: Thank you so much for your many calls and cards expressing your friendship for me on the passing of my beloved mother.

Sara K. Lee, V.20

For the goodies, cards, plants and well wishes while I was in the hospital, thank you all. I'll try not to do it again.

Laura Dietch, V.38

My thanks to our many friends and villagers for their cards and calls during my stay in the hospital with a heart attack.

I am home now and feeling better every day and so grateful for living in so great a place like Leisure Village. Once again, thank you all.

Jeffrey Weisbrot, V.7

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

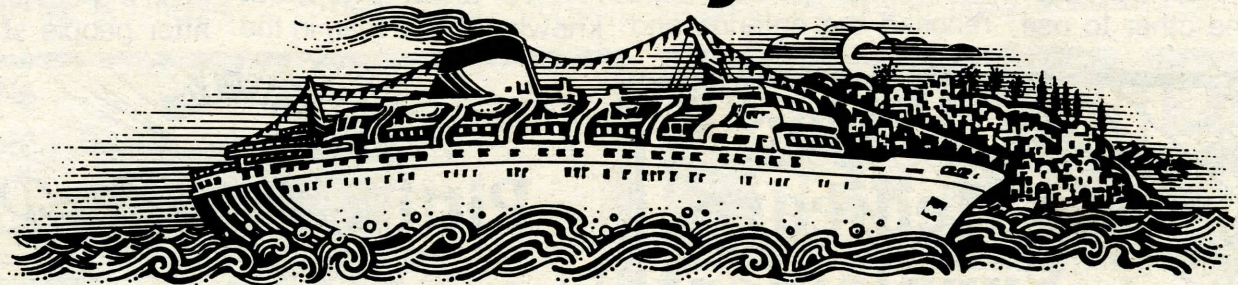

I want to thank you for all your cards, letters and good wishes during my recent surgery. I could not have done it without your genuine support.

Hildi and I just love ya.
Joe Lustig, V.35

Installation of L.V.'s System Recalled By Resident

by Jack Whalen

"Last month's story of the history of our television system and reasons for occasional failures brought back a flood of memories," said Ben Drasin, a Village 13 resident whose involvement with this system goes back to 1972.

Ben and his wife Evelyn were Woodland Hills residents in those days but he was employed here as Director of Purchasing for the developer, Leisure Technology.

"Our studies for an adequate TV system started in 1972," says Ben. "There were many problems to be faced, chief among them the fact that we are in a 'hole' here and a direct TV signal cannot reach us."

Two choices were available, he explained. One was to own our own system and the other to use the commercial company, Storer Cable.

"The Storer system at that time was neither fully satisfactory nor inexpensive," he stated. "Further, there was no guarantee against future escalation of costs."

"We decided to lease land from Prudential, high on a hill, about two miles from here. A 300' high antenna was installed and to protect the installation, we later purchased the land."

With this antenna, it would now be possible to catch the very high frequencies (VHF) and ultra high frequencies (UHF) from both Los Angeles and Santa Barbara stations.

Two operations now faced the planners. First, a tap had to be made from the Southern California Edison line running along the bottom of the hill. That power line reached the antenna and now, in order to get a picture and sound to Leisure Village, an underground cable, some two miles long, had to be laid, reaching the recreation building.

"We hired the most knowledgeable man in the business at that time," said Ben. "Capp Loughboro from Ventura was our choice. You must remember that the state of the art was not good at this time but Capp did such a great job that soon after people started moving into the first Village, #11, the system was operational."

As the years rolled on, and as more homes were built, the television problems mounted. The underground vaults, holding the TV connection, occasionally flooded. This not only caused the television picture to fade, but called for equipment replacements.

"This was largely solved," says Ben with a smile, "by installing an above-the-ground pedestal connector box. You'll recognize it as that green inverted cone in the lawn near the front of most homes."

"Still," he continues, "there were problems. We had lots of interference on the low bands. We hired Western Cable Services to solve the problem and they reported that the leakage was due to low electrical impulse. This was a frustrating period for us but we were finally able to convince So. Calif. Edison that the problem was theirs. In time they did improve service."

How does he view the future so far as our TV system goes?

"There will continue to be occasional problems," he reports. "The forces of nature, heavy and unexpected loads on the power company, possible vandalism at our tower and equipment malfunctions all pose possible disruptions. However, Communications Services is quick to respond these days and we look for hours upon hours of pleasant television viewing."

Profile: Ike And Sonia Abrams

by Jack Whalen

If one sentence might epitomize this month's Profile couple, it could well be: Yesterday, today, and yes, even tomorrow, the world of Ike and Sonia Abrams accentuates youth involvement.

Our Village 38 residents were born in Philadelphia and first met on the campus of Temple University. Ike was an outstanding featherweight boxer, undefeated in Golden Glove and college boxing bouts and narrowly missed winning the Intercollegiate Championship Title fight.

The young couple continued dating after graduation. Sonia taught stenography and typing at evening school while Ike worked as an accountant for the U.S. government.

They married in August 1941 and four months later our country was at war. Within weeks Ike entered aviation cadet training, graduated as a navigator and was soon in combat in Foggia, Italy.

As a member of the 301st Bomb Group, his B-17 Squadron flew 50 combat missions, bombing major German cities plus Austria, Romania and the always dangerous Ploesti oil fields. Among his many medals is the Distinguished Flying Cross.

At the close of the European conflict he returned to the U.S. to set up educational programs for combat returnees. In the closing months of the war he was Air Inspector at Scott Field in Illinois.

Then it was back to Philadelphia to become joint owner of a super market. The lure of education caught him and in 1950 he sold his business and started teaching at Lincoln H.S. In addition to the business and accounting classes, he was golf coach and his teams won the city championship three times in four years. He also continued in the Air Force Reserve.

Sonia, also working as a teacher, took time out in 1946 for the birth of their daughter, Barbara Susan. Later, with Ike at Lincoln, she joined him, teaching typing and shorthand.

In the early 1960's Ike went to Olney High School as vice principal, with discipline and gang control his major responsibility.

"There were fourteen different black gangs at the school," says Ike. "It was not easy getting them to cooperate, but working closely with the gang leaders, I was able to prevent what, in some cases, could have become full-scale riots."

In the years that followed Ike was asked to speak before several hundred civic groups, stressing how constructive efforts could control protests, vandalism and major disturbances.

The year 1971 found him back at Lincoln High School, this time as V.P. in charge of discipline, and three years later became principal for an alternative school.

"In 1978 we had a return visit by Silvester Stallone," says Ike. He had been a student at Lincoln in 1962 and was asked to leave due to poor attendance. Seems he only wanted to make the classes in English and Drama."

"This time, however, he brought the filming crew that was currently making 'Rocky II' and they shot several scenes on campus. Sonia and I had a number of good laughs with him, recalling his earlier days at school."

Both worked at Lincoln HS until their retirement in 1979 with Sonia being designated top commercial teacher in the district.

Their retirement testimonial dinner was attended by hundreds of teachers, business leaders and school graduates. Tributes poured in, including one from the Superintendent of the Philadelphia School District. One letter they especially cherish, that from a former problem student, today a high ranking official with the Office of Postmaster General, states in part: Your influence will multiply through our children and their children as we pass along the ideals you have taught us with both words and deeds May God be Bravo!!

Everyone agrees that "My Fair Lady" was a complete success. It was sold out for every performance. A formidable amount of work and time went in to the production and all involved deserve the appreciation of the Village.

Villagers should try to attend and support the productions of all our entertainment groups. Each year there are plays, concerts, recitals, lectures, and dance programs, etc offered. Appreciation and support make it worthwhile to the entertainers.

Villagers Honored

Villagers who belong to the L.V. group of Embroiderers Guild of America recently attended a three-day seminar of the Southwest Regional Division of E.G.A. at Ventura, at the new Sheraton.

Those who attended were Helen Esty, Sally Becker, Anna Snyder, Esther Ballewig, Betty Tytler, Florence Calkins and Elva Ward. They reported a most interesting time making projects as they studied such subjects as "History of Needlework Through the Ages." Elva and Betty won prizes for their help in organization. Esther took part as a model in a fashion show featuring hand-quilted garments designed by Kimberly Long Masopust of Somis.

The Village was also honored when Betty Tytler was elected president of the Channel Islands Chapter of E.G.A.

THE LEISURE
WOMENS CLUB

by Jeanne Carlson

Women's Club celebrated July with a "bang-up" meeting.

Pres. Gertie Dorward reported that both the Home Tour and the Trading Post Yard Sale were completely successful. As a matter of fact, the Club has donated $4,516 so far this year to local charities and community programs. She introduced two special guests (who are no strangers to the Club): Mrs. Ethslyn Fikke, cousin of Betty Walker. (Ethie has worked many a Bazaar) and Mrs. Denise Wittschen, daughter of Fred and Gertie Dorward.

Betty Walker, Membership Chairman, reported a record total of 588 members. Betty declares that she will stop at nothing to reach 600! Six new members were introduced.

Dorothy Fencil, 2nd V.P. and Bazaar Chairman, told of the hard-working volunteers in Workshop (more are always needed, every Tuesday, MPR, 9:30 to 11:00 a.m.) and showed fashion dolls made by talented Dorothy Kelly and aprons made by Thelma Henley and Eloise Wilson. The dolls will be raffled off later this year. Bazaar plans are jelling and the theme and worker sign-up will be announced in August.

Tickets for the Bazaar Raffle will also be available in August. Prizes will be: 1st, a V.C.R.; 2nd, a 13" color TV; 3rd, $100 cash; 4th, 50 California lottery tickets; 5th, a Toaster-oven. Tickets will be $1.00 each ($10.00 for a book). Buyers can't lose because all proceeds go to help someone or some group.

Gertie then introduced Mr. Chuck Poynter, Director of the Camarillo Chamber of Commerce, who came to apologize for the omission to mention and invite the L.V. Women's Club to a recent recognition of Camarillo Service Clubs at an award luncheon. The Club was offered an immediate invitation to next year's ceremony.

The beautiful designer blouse made by Eloise Wilson, top Village couturier, was raffled off (at a total of $72.00 in ticket sales) and was won by Goldie Bernstein, V.9. Congratulations, Goldie! Everybody is jealous of you.

Esther English, Program Chairman, announced that the August meeting would feature a return of world traveler, Mrs. Irma Krakert, (who was so entertaining last year on Arabia), who will tell of travels in Bahrain and Greece, demonstrate costumes and souvenirs and show slides.

Gertie then pulled a clever, if sneaky, trick. She announced that while she had the greatest respect for the Security Staff, she felt it was time that somebody got mugged for a change. She invited the heads of standing committees, plus her board members to come up and get mugged. Each was presented with a cute coffee mug decorated with "I Love Leisure Village." Mr. Poynter was also mugged as a sign his apology was accepted.

The program of the day was musical. Folk-harpist, Madeleine Sorenson, played her beautiful harp, described the various types of harps and their uses and gave brief histories of her selections.

Harts' Vacation

by Ruth Hart

Many of my readers from the All Hart column by Ruth Hart, remember my mentioning Woody's father, Jim Hart, frequently. On May 29 he celebrated his 100th birthday.

He looks and acts more like a 75-year-old man. His wit is as sharp as ever. He had never seen Woody with a mustache, and he remarked, "You look older than I do." He also made fun of my sunglasses. After those remarks we knew he was his same old self.

He received many tributes from the Pope, the Bishop, the Governor and even from Ron and Nancy Reagan. With the latter, he remarked, "I didn't think they remembered Democrats." We told him, last time we were at the Ranch, we mentioned his name to Ron and Nancy. Needless to say, he was the life of the party.

We drove to Rhode Island for the reunion and our children flew in from San Francisco to be with him on his birthday. Relatives attended from all parts of the country.

All in all we drove 9000 miles in 5 weeks and had a fabulous trip.

When we left Rhode Island the birthday boy said, "See you next year," and you know, I wouldn't put it past him.

Saturday Night Ballroom Dance Celebrates 11th Anniversary

by Anne Janoff

The 11th Anniversary for the Saturday Night

Ballroom Dance celebrated on Sat., June 27, was truly a gala evening. Villagers in party attire, tables adorned with fresh cut flowers, the top dance tapes selected from their extensive inventory, festive decorations and a delicious cake served during intermission, made the event very special.

Hosts Ben and Evelyn Drasin acknowledged the members of the Saturday Night Ballroom Dance committee and commended them and others for their help throughout the past year. A beautiful trophy was presented to Hosts Elmer and Elise Ey-mann in appreciation for their dedicated service to the Saturday Night Ballroom Dance and Leisure Village for the past ten years.

Anniversary couples celebrating this month were called upon to lead out the anniversary dance. They were Ned and Rosalie Volan, Sid and Ruth Dubin, Vince and Alice Giroux, Henry and Cecelia Levitt.

On July 25, we will have our annual "Hawaiian Night" dance hosted by Paul and Luella Kelwin and Max and Dora Polley. This fun evening is an opportunity for ladies to don their muu-muu's and gents their bright print shirts. Casual attire is always appropriate, if preferred.

Our next dance is on August 8 with Will and Anne Janoff and Ned and Rosalie Volan hosting. 8-11 p.m. in the AR. Regular admission, fifty-cents per person. Coffee, tea, punch and ice are available. BYOB.

Attention All Square Dancers

For those who have taken Square Dance lessons from Caller Wyane Simpson and/or have attended his dances, you no doubt are aware that his wife, Mary Ann, whom you also know well, will be receiving at last a new kidney. Wyane was the regular caller for the Swingers for many years and it just happens that he is scheduled as guest caller here on July 28. The Swingers are planning to donate the proceeds of that dance as a SURPRISE to Wyane, and are extending a gracious invitation to all village dancers to participate.

Ceramics Mold Decorators Club had a beautiful luncheon on July 1, attended by 28 members, in the Ceramic Club Room. Officers were installed as follows: Pres. Evelyn Boeham, Vice Pres. Marjorie Rice, Secty. Evelyn Durham, Treasurer Eleanor Golly, Firing Comm. Deane McDaniel and Kay Stichler who were also given a token of THANKS for their kindness and helpfulness to all the members.

An all-out "YES" vote was taken to give a donation to the Variety Guild to help pay for the new lights installed in the AR. A wonderful gift of a spanking new gavel was presented to the Ceramic Mold Decorators Club by member Florence Koca.

The Ceramic Plus Club has joined the potluck picnic clan by having their annual get-together today in our picnic area. If you didn't sign up you have missed a good "feed-and-fun" affair.

The Club continues to meet every fourth Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in the CR, and the workshops continue every Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to noon in the Ceramic Shop. Watch Ch. 12 for program announcements.

A very lovely and inspiring afternoon was enjoyed by all. All villagers are invited to join the Ceramic Mold Decorators Club every Wed., 12:30 in the Ceramic Room.

by Don Holmes

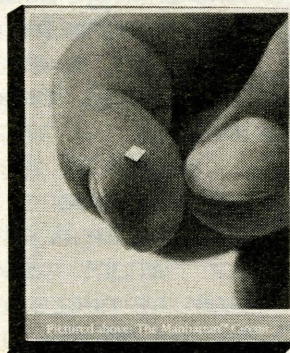

Following the Gem and Mineral Club's picnic last month, the new officers, headed by Bill Marshall, Pres., started planning next season's activities. Due to changes in Mercury Savings' luncheon policies, it is still being debated whether or not to have our annual luncheon there, or to find some other facility. The possibilities discussed ranged from having another potluck in the Village or having the affair catered, either here or some place downtown.

The Club continues meeting all summer, every fourth Wed., at 7:30 p.m. in the MPR. Watch Ch. 12 for program announcements.

HOOFERS

by Dor Karlin

The Happy Hoofers (A.K.A. H.H.'rs in "Variety") have been hoofing it with alacrity this month.

Installation of '87-'88 officers was held on June 11 at the Peking Inn. Installed were: Pres. Sophie Lebetkin, V.P. Doris Siegel, Treas. Rowena Mettler, Secy. Trudy Orsan.

On June 19, we did our civic duty and performed at the Pleasant Valley Convalescent Home. The occasion was not totally altruistic because it gave us such a good feeling to bring a little sunshine into the patients' day.

The Elks Hall in Oxnard saw our next performance. The Ladies' Auxiliary and the H.H.'ers found instant rapport.

The annual Mercury Bank luncheon was held on July 2 to thank all those who have helped us. Sing-a-longs and laughter resounded.

The H.H.'ers find their reputation spreading. We are now booked up as far ahead as November and December. Aahhh! The sweet smell of success!! Stay well, all, and KEEP DANCIN'!!!

VILLAGE
WORKSHOP

by Ruth Zupa

The Village Players will meet Aug. 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. Our guest will be George Petrie, veteran motion picture and television character actor, who will relate some interesting experiences, and there will be questions and answers time.

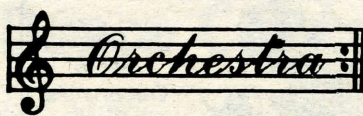

"DON'T DRINK THE WATER"

No this is not a warning, and has nothing to do with the country to the south. This is the title of a play written by WOODY ALLEN, and will be the VILLAGE PLAYERS offering come November. Because Allen's imagination is daffy and his sense of the ridiculous keen, the gags in this play snap, crackle and pop. It's filled with bright and hilarious dialogue, and...well, here's warning...

DON'T MISS "DON'T DRINK THE WATER."

Auditions will be Aug. 21 at 2:00 p.m. and Aug. 22 at 10:00 a.m. More information will be forthcoming.

The L.V. Orchestra is continuing summer rehearsals with surprisingly good attendance, considering vacations, illness, visiting relatives and other distractions. Sometimes the music we had planned to rehearse has to be changed because some instrument or other is missing, but we have fun and get a good workout. Don Holmes is bringing in more music from his personal library; some easy and some difficult, so the orchestra is getting some practice reading new material.

If you are a "rusty" player, or if you think that your arthritis, or whatever, will bother you, summer is a good time to get back into it, when we are not really pushing on specific programs. Come join us every Thursday evening in the MPR from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. You will be made welcome and we think you will be glad you came.

Come join International Folk Dance July 30, 4:00 p.m., in the picnic area. Drinks and dessert will be provided by the club.

After the picnic everyone is invited to the AR at 6:00 p.m. to dance.

Members, spouses and friends are invited. Come and enjoy yourselves. Everyone participates!

Regular Schedule:

Dance time Mon. 1:00 to 3:00 p.m., teaching and dancing; Wed., 9:00 to 10:30 a.m., review and new dances; Fri., 9:00 to 10:30 a.m., continuous dancing.

Membership meeting is the first Monday of the month at 2:00 p.m.

The Rhythmettes, now in our eleventh year as a rhythm band, played for the Village picnic July 4. Once again, we were split into two groups, very far apart, one group not being able to hear the piano most of the time. We hope for better arrangement next year, also better sound, being seated all in one group. Our thanks to Freda Drezner at the piano.

There is nothing scheduled for us until Sept. 1, our first meeting after summer hiatus. We will have a luncheon in the AR on that date. Watch Ch. 12 for details.

by Bill Roffman

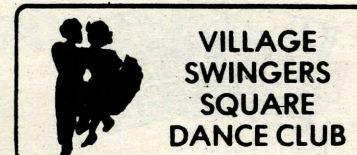

Club members are enjoying the calls of Erv Parrish and he is to be commended in keeping us up to date on current plus level and quarterly calls.

Our appreciation to Morris Vroubel and Helen Quackenbush for the refreshments donated by them on our end-of-the-month dance — June 29.

All square dancers are invited to all of our dances every Sunday.

Check for time and place. See Ch. 12 and Village bulletin boards.

Have you read the "Disaster Survival Guide for L.V. Residents"? Do you know who your Village coordinator is? Have you accumulated emergency supplies? Have you prepared your home by following the safety suggestions listed in the bulletin? Do you know your neighbors who might need special aid in case of an emergency? Do you know what to do during an earthquake? The Guide has answers. Read it.

No one can ever accuse the Village Swingers of not making the best out of unfortunate circumstances and enjoying it in the bargain. On the last Tuesday in June the AR was abuzz in anticipation of dancing to guest caller Dick Hodenfield. By 7:45, however, and after several unrewarding phone calls, it was evident Dick was not going to show.

So? Not to worry. Al Siegel came to the rescue by rounding up several excellent tapes for both rounds and squares, with the result that the Swingers were treated to not one, but several guest callers, including regular caller Bill Kramer — all in the same evening and to the evident pleasure of all the dancers.

The new Board under the direction of Hal and Minna Hudson is off to a running start. In the June issue of ILV listing the new officers, the names of Gene and Lucy Coke heading the Kitchen Crew as 1st V.P. was inadvertently omitted. The Club is fortunate in having the Cokes back in their old home in V. 4. This is where they belong (not necessarily in the kitchen, however, even though they are at home there, too).

On July 28 the Swingers will welcome back as guest caller, Wyane Simpson, whom many know was the club's long-time regular caller.

The big news for August is the annual picnic on the ninth in the L.V. picnic grounds. Members only. Potluck plus, as usual. On the 18th the Watermelon Dance will feature the wearing of Tee shirts and shorts. Keep cool.

A FIRST for the Swingers. Guest caller on the 25th will be Deborah Parnell. Repeat. Keep cool!

JAZZ

by Marguerite Abdennour

Swing Disco Jazz Dance Group will host a Swing Fling Dance Sat., Aug. 1, 8:00-11:00 p.m. Dance music of the 40's and 50's will be featured. Max and Dora Polley will emcee.

Sat., Aug. 15 will be a time for hats, when Swing Disco Jazz will host a Hat Dance. Sol and Rawza Kramer will emcee this program. Hat Judges will be selected for three categories. 1) Historical Early American, 2) Most Beautiful, 3) The Funniest. Admission is 50¢. BYOB.

Sat., Sept. 19 will mark Swing Disco Jazz Dance Group's 7th Anniversary, and they will host a big celebration of this special occasion. Champagne, punch and cake will be served as well as the usual Saturday refreshments. Admission is $1.50. Tickets will be available at the ticket window in the RC, Wed., Sept. 2, 1:00-4:00 p.m., also Mon. and Fri., 9:00-11:45 a.m. You may reserve a table for 10 at time of ticket purchase.

The Racquet Club met Wed., June 10, with Pres. Roy Lester presiding. Refreshments were served by Betty Israel, Zo Simmons and Yvonne Morgan.

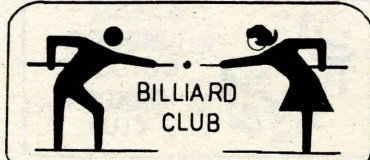

While many of us participated in the tournaments at Ocean Hills, the local courts were the site for the "CST Tournament." I am not sure but I believe the abbreviation stands for "Can't Stand to Travel." It was reported that a picnic followed the tournament.

Anne Wolfson reported in the absence of Zo Simmons that the Ocean Hills tournaments resulted in a number of casualties. Because of our attire, red shirts and white shorts, Leisure Village was dubbed the "Big Red Machine." What machine doesn't need a little maintenance after hard use?

It is with a sad heart that I report the passing of two friends and members of the Racquet Club, Ralph Zimmerman and Margaret Slusser. The members stood in silence, at the June meeting, in their honor and memory. Our prayers go out to Lee Zimmerman and Jack Slusser.

Racquet Club picnic is scheduled for July 18, at 12:30 p.m., Mercury Luncheon on Sept. 15 and the annual Dinner Dance in the MPR, Oct. 22.

Free lessons available: paddle tennis is being taught by instructor Bob Hasen every Wed. from 12:00-1:30 p.m. Beginners and intermediate tennis classes are held on Thurs. and Fri., respectively from 12:00-1:00 p.m. Our tennis instructor is June Niles. Paddle tennis racquets can be purchased from Sam Woronow (484-1631) or Moe Gilbert (987-6639).

Our June 23 meeting was the largest attended in Billiard Club history. Thanks, especially, go to Bea and Sam Kaufman for their hosting and the wonderful delicacies they brought. If you did not attend, you missed the premier meeting of the year.

Introduced at this meeting were Harry Boger, Al Sullivan and our own Bea Kaufman. Welcome! Donations were approved for the Heart Fund, Ch. 12 and the Variety Club. Russ Sievert and Sylvia Rottersman were given votes of thanks for their outstanding efforts in behalf of the Billiard Club.

As usual, 6 lottery tickets were awarded as door prizes. Gus Ferrara, Russ Sievert, Sally Gianettoni, Rose Miller, Luella Kelwin and Dan Bryan were the lucky recipients. No sudden millionaires this time but keep attending meetings and you may become the fortunate one. Art Stone won the extra special door prize of vintage champagne.

IMPORTANT: There will be no General Meeting in August.

It was back to the local courts this month in individual competition. The winners in the June tournaments were: Paddle: Gene Bookwalter, Rhoda Cagan, Mel Meltzer, Sol Miller, Woolf Phillips and Zo Simmons. Tennis: Al August, Kay Bell, Gene Bookwalter, Lloyd Crane, Sy Levine, Sol Miller and Zo Simmons.

The Racquet Club meets the second Wednesday of each month, at 7:30 p.m., in the MPR. All villagers are invited to attend.

A new slate of officers for the 1987-88 Men's Golf Assn. was announced at the annual luncheon at the Pt. Mugu Officer's Club last month.

Our new president is Al DeFusco with George Nolte as 1st V.P. and Ike Abrams as 2nd V.P. Herb Warneke is the new secretary while Charlie Kent holds the office of treasurer.

Membership chairman is Ernie Mueller with Sam Saltus again the choice to head L.V. tournaments. Gene Bookwalter will handle L.V. handicaps while Alan Bruce will control the long-golf handicaps. Bruce Calkins will again set the regulation golf tournaments.

George Kroll again will be chairman of greens with Tom Mead handling special events. Programs will be Bill Klee's responsibility while Don Dance will watch the budget.

Bob Anderson will again be rules and education while 9-hole golf will be Dick Blohm's project.

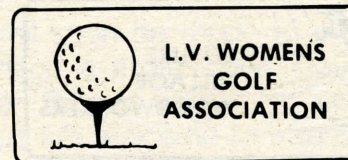

Max Schneiderman will again handle awards and trophies. Historian Harvey Shirk continues this project while Niels Pedersen is our parliamentary extraordinary.

Regulation golf for August will be played at River Ridge, a truly tough, challenging course. Play will be on Thurs., Aug. 13.

For all Golfers

Please use wooden tees only while playing. Pick up broken tees and replace divots.

These measures will help to keep the golf course in good condition and save money for the association.

by Betty Bruce

The Women's Golf Assn. has just completed a very successful year with dedicated, hard working officers and committee members. We, who are replacing them, hope to do as great a job.

The August regulation golf will be held at Montalvo (Buena Ventura) on Aug. 20. We hope to see many sign up.

The next mixed couples tournament and picnic will be on Aug. 18 and 19. It will be hosted by the Women's Golf Assn. Let's all get out and have some fun. It's a good way to meet new people.

Don't forget the Men's/Women's tournament and 19th hole party on Aug. 30. Men will host.

Everyone should try to come to the General Meetings on the 2nd Wednesday each month. Many important items are discussed.

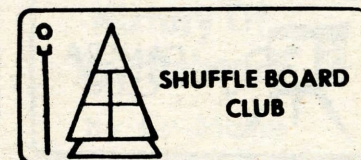

We are really so lucky to be able to play This great game of golf almost any time of day. Sometimes it is frustrating, but when it's said and done No matter what the score is we really have lots of fun!

Village Painters

by Marion Jayne

The Village Painters will meet on Aug. 5 at 1:00 p.m. in the MPR and it will be our most interesting meeting of the year.

Guests are welcome.

CAMERA CLUB

by Dorothy Levy

Although many residents are away this vacation month, Camera Club members still here have had two good meetings of learning and entertainment. ACTION was the theme of our July 1 meeting. Joe Berke was present to give us advice about getting good action shots, such as the use of fast film, pre-focusing for the upcoming action when possible and attention to the background. He judged the pictures we brought for competition, awarding first place to Rankin McIntyre for a marvelous picture of a surfer in the midst of a huge wave, second place to Max Klapperman for a striking shot of a Lipizzan horse in a classic pose and third place to Dorothy Levy for a view of a novice climber going straight Ron Dow was the speaker on July 15. He is the naturalist at Pt. Mugu and illustrated his talk with pictures of some of the many birds found in the Mugu lagoon area. This is a stop-over for migrating birds as well as a permanent home for others. We enjoyed seeing his slides and appreciated learning something of the art of taking good bird pictures.

Our next meeting will be Wed., Aug. 5, when the theme for competition will be PEOPLE.

the showing of the final half of the professional video tape "Turning Wood with Richard Rafan."

Our education committee is in the process of setting up several classes for members. One class will be "hands on" instruction on the lathe. Another class will be given for beginners on the use of power tools in the woodshop. Those completing this latter class will be qualified to be checked out on the various machines by designated members of the woodshop committee.

Membership dues of $3.00 are now being collected for the new year that began July 1. Our next meeting will be held on Thurs., Aug. 6 at 2:00 p.m. in the MPR. The program will be another "Show & Tell" at which time a number of our members will show various woodworking projects, and explain how they were made.

INDOOR OUTDOOR GARDEN CLUB

by Naomi Balfour

In August there will be no regular meeting of the Garden Club. Instead the annual picnic will be held Thurs., Aug. 13, at 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the L.V. picnic grounds. Tickets are available for members and their guests at $3.00 each, and must be purchased by Aug. 6 from Val Barbeau 482-6114 or Sue Lancey 388-0363. All members will want to participate in this enjoyable social get-together. Sue and her committee have planned an elegant beef-kebob menu.

Reminder: Plant sale at the September meeting. Members are invited to donate their excess plants.

Gardening tip for August: There is still time to plant fast growing, heat

SOLO CLUB

by Vivian Colleser

The Solo Club enjoyed dinner at Cafe Basque on the 21st of July. This is an interesting new restaurant right on our doorstep in Camarillo. We had a good attendance.

Our next potluck dinner will be held in the AR of the Recreation Center, on Aug. 14 at 6:00 p.m. Letters A through G, please bring dessert; H through M, meat or meat dish and N through Z, salad. Entertainment to be announced. All Village singles are welcome. The "members only" in the July issue of ILV was in error! Come join us, you singles.

Buildings And Grounds Committee

by Margrate Gowder

The Village is looking particularly good these days and we are working to make it look even better. Most people have cleaned up outside their fences and around the trees. Many people have found other ways to beautify their units. We are seeing better plantings on top the fences and attention is being given to the appearance of each unit.

Many who have red-staked areas are not maintaining them. If you are no longer able to maintain your red-staked area, why not have it cleaned up and turn the maintenance back to the Village crew.

Camrosa has raised its water rates by 12.5 percent. This means that all means must be found to keep the water bill down. Rationing is being mentioned in some areas. The Landscape/Maintenance Dept. is trying many ways to keep the water bill down and to water to a minimum. Planting beds get watered but once a week. This may not be enough for your little plants but it is sufficient for the shrubs. You may have to water by hand, but don't waste water. All residents should report any excessive watering. If your area is brown, report it on a green sheet. Don't hand water for that doesn't help when the fault is a problem with the sprinklers.

The spray which is being used around the trees and for edging the planter beds is a systemic spray and may cause damage to vegetables. This spray stays in the ground and can cause problems if it is taken up by the vegetables.

DANCE WORKSHOP

by Velma M. Cade

Dance Workshop members are busy planning for our Fiesta Romana party on Thurs., Aug. 27, at 5:00 p.m. in the AR. This is a planned pot-luck for members. Later in the evening at 8:00 p.m., all villagers are invited to come and hear our featured singer Max Gardner, and join in a festive evening of fun and dancing. Light refreshments will be served.

On Sat., Sept. 5 in the AR from 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. music by "Ed Abdellour's tape dance music" will be featured. The Dance Workshop will present a short entertainment at 9:00.

If you are not a member of Dance Workshop, join us every Tues., 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. in the AR, and dance for joy and good health.

History Of Shuffleboard

by Cy Maller

Shuffleboard is traced back as far as Ancient Persia. It attained great popularity in England during the Middle Ages and was introduced in the United States from England during the 19th century. It became very popular in the early part of the 20th century particularly in Daytona, Florida in 1913. In 1924 the first Shuffleboard club was formed in St. Petersburg Florida which may well be called the "Shuffleboard Capitol" of the world. During the winter, players come from parts of Europe and the 50 states to compete in the annual tournaments. As many as 25,000 contestants participate in these tournaments.

quirements of the Federal Emergency Management Agency of three feet (3') of levee freeboard above a theoretical 100-year flood elevation, we were initially advised by the City of Camarillo that one location of relatively short length on our levee was 6" to 8" deficient. As Pardee's developments contributed to this problem, the City advised he would be required to raise the berm to the proper elevation. On or about Aug. 26, 1986, Pardee installed approximately 600 tons of material on the levee over a distance of about 700'.

We received a new Federal Insurance Rate Map from the City about October 11, 1986, and much to our surprise and dismay, it indicated about two-thirds of the Village was below the projected 100-year flood elevation. We had been led to believe that all slabs in the Village were above the required elevation and that the levee improvement work stated above met the new requirements. As this map is used by all insurance companies to determine rates, our premium was substantially increased for the same coverage. The Board of Directors approved our recommendation to retain an engineering consulting firm to investigate the presumed irregularities.

We met with Woodyard & Associates, our consultants on October 28, 1986 and thoroughly discussed the situation. Their subsequent investigations revealed that improper benchmark elevations were used in a previous study and therefore levee elevations were incorrect.

On Feb. 10, 1987, a meeting was held at the office of the Ventura Flood Control District attended by representatives from that office, City of Camarillo, engineering consultants and Leisure Village. It was decided that Pardee would do some channel widening and cleaning, develop by photogrammetry current elevations of the stream bed and our levee to determine if the levee needed to be raised. If so, Pardee would place the necessary material, after which a map amendment would be requested. All the physical work is scheduled to be completed this fall.

2. The new eastbound Ventura Freeway bridge over Conejo Creek has been completed and the old westbound bridge was removed in April 1987. Work is now being carried out to reconstruct the new westbound bridge. The removal and replacement with higher and longer freeway bridges greatly improves the runoff capabilities of Conejo Creek. The old bridges were low and had short spans which created obstructions to debris carried by flood waters.

3. Finally, after many years of negotiations, the "F" Canyon drain, which consists of 3-72" concrete culverts, has been cleaned of mud, rocks and other debris. For the uninformed, this drain starts at the intersection of Santa Rosa Road and Oak Canyon Road and goes under the Village property between Villages 28 and 30 and drains into Conejo Creek. This clean-out work was completed on Dec. 23, 1986. Ventura County Flood Control District now agrees to be responsible for the maintenance of these culverts.

4. The City Council on Oct. 8, 1986 voted unanimously to rezone the Foster property from farmland to one that can be developed commercially. This triangular shaped property of about 44 acres is located south (downstream) of Ventura Freeway and is bordered on the west by Conejo Creek and on the east by Camarillo Springs Golf Course.

Mr. Foster had indicated earlier that if his application for rezoning was approved, he would donate all the necessary land for the widening, deepening and straightening Conejo Creek downstream from the Ventura Freeway bridges. This is the first and very important step to allow improvements to be made to the channel, thereby enhancing flood protection for Leisure Village. The VCFCD and LVA were very active in supporting Mr. Foster's application, and were very pleased with the above action by the City Council.

with you and Sonia as you embark upon your retirement years."

In 1978, while visiting with their son-in-law who just took his Residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology, their travels took them from Tarzana to Leisure Village. This climate seemed much cooler than the San Fernando Valley and a year later they moved here.

Quickly both became involved in L.V. activities. They served on Ed. and Rec. and Comm. Rel. committees and both are volunteers with Youth Employment Service at Pleasant Valley Hospital.

Ike works as campus supervisor at Camarillo H.S. three mornings a week and Sonia is there two days a week as attendance caller.

"Camarillo High School's athletic department welcomes L.V. residents," says Ike. "There's great enthusiasm and spirit during sporting activities and the admission price is right. They welcome senior citizens as non-paying guests."

Theirs continues to be a rich, rewarding life. "The Village lifestyle is exactly what we need and love," they state. "Good friends, lots of sports and cultural activities and the privilege of being able to be involved with others is a sure way of keeping your mental health."

times and each knew she could rely on the other to do what had to be done. Indispensable is the word for Joan to Jackie, and Jackie to Joan.

Now every Director needs an Assistant, and Joan will tell you that Ginny Cordell was an extra right arm.

Many more people joined the staff with their special crafts and talents. That is not to say one person is more important than another, except in the extent they appear. But by watching rehearsals it becomes apparent each person on stage at any time is creating the place and time of the show and their roles in groups is very important to the story line.

So it all starts with a call for talent, reading and singing try-outs, then the talent of the Director to decide who would be best in each part, no matter how small.

Rehearsals for "My Fair Lady"

The imagination to design sets and costumes is a rare talent, and there were two shining stars. Bernie Solway designed and built the outstanding sets aided by a most professional group, namely, Irv Weiss, Joe Selden, Al Pachter, Irv Freedman and Phil Farber. To make these sets possible the existing stage was extended by four feet, an improvement that will be shared by many groups. The stunning artwork was in the hands of Lindsey Merrill and Oran Robinson, assisted by Gil Striegel, Ruth Wideman and Al

Pachter.

Joan Johnson put her theatrical background and know-how to work and created the ideas that went into every costume, sometimes even doing the sewing. Her helpers were Maxine King, Ruth Wideman, Lori Kaye and Sandra Weisbrot. The costumes were important to the illusions created by the sets.

Since this is a musical, without the proper musical accompaniment nothing would work. Many tapes of songs were coordinated, but that left many blank spots, and with more than "a little bit of luck" the exceptionally talented Bill Marvel was available on the organ to tie it all together. It is difficult to measure how much this added to the success of the timing of each song. Right here the engineers must be mentioned: Harry White of Audio Systems, and our own Rowene Mettler. These were two very crucial people on whose shoulders rested a great responsibility.

Rehearsals went on in groups, wherever and whenever space was

MONEY MATTERS

By Rozella Weinberg
Community Relations Officer

Some months it just doesn't pay to make predictions. At two meetings I attended last week, I was asked which way I thought the interest rates were moving. "Up", I confidently replied and wrong I turned out to be in both instances! It just goes to show you that NO ONE really knows what the rates are going to do. Since so many of you mentioned that you have CD's coming due this month, I thought I would tell you about something really special.

I've heard many of you say that you would like to keep your money liquid right now because you can't tell which way the rates are headed. How does a completely liquid account sound? We have a BONUS MONEY MARKET account which earns you an extra 1/2% above our prevailing rate, for a LIFETIME! You may deposit or withdraw at any time!

Rather than tell you how our BONUS MONEY MARKET stacks up against the competition, I thought we should show you.

	$10,000
• New America	5.75%
• Coast Savings	5.20%
• Mercury Savings	5.159%
• Valley Federal	5.35%
• Santa Barbara Savings	5.31%
• County Savings Bank	6.00%

(Rates quoted as of July 6, 1987.)

We are confident there isn't a Money Market Account out there that gives you more flexibility and interest than ours!

- NO service charges
- 1/2% Interest Bonus for a LIFETIME!
- UNLIMITED deposits and withdrawals
- Passbook or statement, for your convenience

This offer won't last for long, so stop by now or give me a call. As always, you can reach me at my home in Leisure Village, 987-1200 or at the Bank, 987-8777.

available. Someone had to have the vision to be able to know how this jig-saw puzzle should come together. No doubt, the Director and Producer had this responsibility.

Assuming that all know their action and songs, another important group comes on the scene. Without the stage crew, all the sets and props would just sit somewhere! But here was a stage crew that seemed to use magic to get all the furniture, etc. on stage; then a miracle to remove it into what seems like no space at all. The crew was J. Solway, Bill Johnson, Earl Mettler, Phil Farber, Joe Poliak, Dave Teasdale and Bill Fox. Leprechauns all!

There were other special people. One was Lois Bello, voice instructor, whose sensitive ear missed no one, and each singer was given individual instructions and help.

The choreographer, Heidi Pommer, added life to important scenes in the production.

The new lighting system was controlled by John Fahringer, Irv Weiss and Joan Johnson.

Now to consider the leads. Miriam Hasen was perfection as Eliza Doolittle! Her voice was a joy! Her stage presence gorgeous, and her dramatic ability stunning. "Just You Wait" and "Show Me" were samples of this. In everything else she did not slip out of her role, and very important was her responsive acting to everything going on around her.

Henry Higgins is certainly the major male role, and Irving Leeds delivered it with perfection. His singing of "Why Can't the English," "I'm an Ordinary Man," and "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face" was a delightful blend of singing and acting.

tical advice on what to do as of right now.

This knowledgeable person is Dan Davis of Village 31, a California licensed general contractor with approximately 40 years in the industry working at several trades including architectural drafting. He was the sole owner of Dan Davis Development Co. and the holder of other related California State licenses.

In 1968 he changed his operation from the building of tract homes to custom new homes and remodel work. It was at that time while working with older structures that he gained first hand experience with termite damage problems.

Dan, now a member of the Arch./Landscape Comm., has prepared approximately 20 sets of working drawings for the Village. Some of these projects are completed, some are presently under construction and some are in the planning stage.

ILV will be relaying his advice to you in a series of interviews. This first one is concerning things that can be done right now.

No. 1: don't panic! There is plenty that can be done without great expense, much of it by homeowners themselves.

There are several things to keep in mind. First, the real use of termite inspection is to obtain certification when a home is being sold. Second, each of our homes is on a cement slab, is only one-story high and has asphalt shingle roofing. These pluses, as well as the knowledge that termites seldom invade plaster walls, give us time to do what repairs prove necessary only after a full study of the problem. Our homes will not come down around our ears.

Remember that the average professional exterminator company will treat damage but will not be able to repair.

One of the first things each of us should do is look around our homes ourselves (even if a clean bill of health was given). Termites like to be around dampness. Mr. Davis points out that any leak can set up a potential termite colony. Check under all sinks, bathroom fixtures, leaky faucets, washing machines, etc. The habit many homeowners have of using plastic shelf lining under sinks or shelves harbors dampness. Never cover any vent hole. Outside the house, see that trees and bushes do not touch the building. Leave air space. The habit of keeping potted or boxed plants on top of fences also creates dampness. Watch for any suspiciously spongy wood. Mr. Davis remarked that the Beverly Hills area has a serious infestation problem simply because their grounds and gardens are too well watered by the gardeners.

After you, the homeowner, has thoroughly investigated the property, exchange notes with your neighbors — particularly those in attached dwellings — and discuss what others are planning to do. Don't let anyone rush you.

By now, you may decide to obtain a second opinion — and you may receive good news. Such an opinion should probably cost in the neighborhood of $50.00. If you do have another inspection, this time you can stay with the inspector to see how thoroughly he checks and make sure he explains what you want to know. Possibly attached neighbors might want to join you. Again, don't panic or rush. No quick decisions need to be made. By the way, all inspection results are filed with the Contractors' License Board (They have an office in Ventura). You might have reason to check with them.

Next month another interview with Mr. Davis will discuss the methods that can be used and which may be best for you. In the meantime, we can all do our homework.

Others had key roles also. Col. Pickering was played by John Zoller, who graced the stage with his elegant demeanor and his professional portrayal of an important person to the story.

The infatuated young man, Freddie Eynsford-Hill, was done by George Goldfarb who sang that wonderful song "On the Street Where You Live." Terrific!

Oscar Kane was convincing as Alfred P. Doolittle. His two pals, Robert Freedman as Harry, and Al Law as Jamie, joined him in a terrific trio. A delightful performance.

Credit also goes to many more. In order of appearance: Erma Hopkins as Mrs. Eynsford-Hill; three Cockneys, Morris Erney, Herb Schmidt and Bill Johnson; Roie Beck with her lovely accent as Mrs. Pearce; Iris Simmonds as Mrs. O'Reilly; Sylvia Altes as Mrs. Higgins; Pauline Hoffman as Lady Boxington; Rube Davis as Lord Boxington; Irwin Steinhart as the Constable; Hilda Freedman as a Flower Girl; Morris Erny as Zoltan Karpathy, Freda Weinberg as the Queen of Transylvania; Grace Back as Mrs. Higgins' maid.

Ensemble: Grace Back, Rube Davis, Nick de Simone, Piff de Simone, Hilda Freedman, Pauline Hoffman, Bill Johnson, Alva Lane, Shirley Law, Heidi Pommer, Bea Schmidt, Herb Schmidt, Jackie Solway, Bernie Solway, I. Steinhart, Sandra Weisbrot, Gigi Winston, Bill Fox and Shirley Fox.

Religion And Holistic Medicine

by Sol Robin

There are many different definitions of religion and each one can be valid. Here is my definition.

Religion is the reaching out of one's whole being — mind, body, spirit, emotions, intuitions and affections — for completion, for inner unity, for a true relationship with those about us, for a right relationship to the universe in which we live. Religion is life, a certain kind of life, life as it should and could be, a life of harmony within and true adjustment without.

Religion is also a hunger for beauty and love and glory. It is wonder and awe, mystery and majesty, passion and ecstasy. It is emotion as well as mind, feeling as well as knowing. It is the heart soaring to heights that the head alone will never know; the understanding of meanings that science alone will never find; the awareness of values that ethics alone will never reveal. It is the human spirit yearning for, and finding, something infinitely greater than itself which it calls faith. And the essence of all faith is that man's life can be and will be better, that man's greatest enemies, in the forms in which they now exist — the forms we see on every hand, of fear, of hatred, slavery, cruelty, poverty and suffering — can be conquered and destroyed. In the affirmation of this fact, the building of a better world is man's religion and his living faith.

Not long ago, the idea of focusing on the mind, spirit and body in a total-person approach to health care was regarded as so much hocus-pocus by most of the medical establishment.

That is no longer the case. More health professionals have come around to believing that a health-care approach which integrates the physical, emotional and even the spiritual is perfectly valid.

Dr. Rudolph Ballentine, a psychiatrist who is a firm believer in what's known as the holistic medicine concept is optimistic about the medical profession's acceptance of this new approach to health care.

Holistic medicine has been defined in many ways with emphasis on treating a person in the context of his whole life — that what goes on in his body relates to his mind, and vice-versa. In such an approach, maintaining and improving health is as important as curing disease. Dr. Ballentine feels that public and health professionals are gradually accepting holistic medicine because no one can afford the high cost of illness anymore.

A lot of scientific research has shown that a person's emotions and personality are closely tied in with his physical well-being, according to

Dr. Ballentine, one of the country's noted practitioners of psychosomatic medicine. He maintains that it is up to the doctor to point out how people move, how they breathe and use their emotions and what they do with their thoughts can affect their physical as well as their mental health. Dr. John Knowles, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, has said that more than 99% of us are born healthy and made sick as a result of personal misbehavior and environmental conditions.

Dr. Ballentine's view of a holistic health program is one that aims at not only improving the symptoms of the disease from which a person is suffering, but which contributes to his overall growth so he can evolve into a more creative and dynamic person. He emphasizes that holistic medicine does not exclude conventional medicine such as surgery. But surgery is only one answer to the maintenance of health. Yes, one has to cut out a cancerous tumor. But it is also important to find out what made the person susceptible to cancer. There is strong evidence that a person's emotions and his reaction to stress have much to do with susceptibility to diseases like cancer.

Meditation and relaxation techniques including biofeedback, exercise, nutrition and diet are important elements in the holistic approach.

Dr. Ballentine believes that some doctors prefer to give a patient a drug like cortisone for an illness because it produces rapid and dramatic results. That approach takes less time than finding out what's causing a person's health problem and then helping him relax or to change his diet. He concludes that the medical profession is now ready to embrace a different approach aimed at preventing disease through a balance of body, mind and spirit.

A Confrontation With A Robin

by Lillian Wallace

Robin red breast sat in a tree,
Cocked his head and looked at me-
Fluffed his feathers, blinked his eyes,
Chirped at me in great surprise.
Wondered if he dared to fly,
But wasn't sure, while I stood by,
Breathing softly, as I tried
Not to show my fear inside.
I felt his great concern, and so,
I was hoping he would know.
As I turned to leave him there,
He was safe, to ride the air.

- E. Crossing at corners only and not in the center of the road.

COURTESY SAYS:

A cyclist should give the slow walker a signal when passing so the walker may step out of the way toward the curb.

Termites Are Anything But Retiring

Termites just love southern California. The climate's great and your home makes the perfect bed 'n breakfast.

Give 'em a chilly reception with Tallon's innovative Blizzard System for drywood termites. Leaving no residuals the Blizzard System is the ideal choice for environments with chemically sensitive persons.

Because the Blizzard System does not require messy and inconvenient tenting, you will not have to leave your home. All this adds up to savings for you; as much as one-third less than conventional tent fumigation.

Tallon Termite and Pest Control guarantees its work for two years. We even provide a free inspection after one year.

Safely and reliably keeping termites from turning your retirement home into their bed 'n breakfast has been our bread and butter for a quarter of a century.

BOOK REVIEW

July's Book Review was a double-header. First was the new autobiography by Joseph Cotten, "Vanity Will Get You Somewhere," and second was a presentation on whodunnits. Martha Grimes is the new Agatha Christie. She writes the British mystery perfectly — complete with vicars, rainy nights, eccentric ladies, and a super-detective, Inspector Jury of Scotland Yard. Advice on perfect murders was also given (educational).

August will feature "Lady Hamilton" a very naughty lady indeed. She will make Theda Bara seem like a milk-maid!

Book Review meets the second Monday of each month, 10:00 a.m. in the GR. Everyone is welcome. Jeanne Carlson is the reviewer.

5. Leave 2" of space at top of page for our notation.
6. Type group's name and writer's name.
7. Double space each line and indent each paragraph. (If we sound like English teachers, you're right!)
8. Put the name of your group into the FIRST sentence. This makes it easier to match up with the right logo.
9. Be sure your copy can be easily read. Do you need a new typewriter ribbon? Do the keys need cleaning? No red ribbons or xerox copies, please. Clean copy prevents misunderstandings.
10. Submit your story on time. Deadline is Monday noon, usually the first Monday of the month. Deadlines for the next paper are listed on page 2 of each issue. Please check the exact dates and meet them.
11. If your story must be late, call the coordinator and tell her when you can get it in and why it must be late. Coordinator has the option to accept or refuse late copy.
12. Call the coordinator to arrange in advance for a photographer to cover your event. Please do not call the photographer directly; he works on assignment from the coordinator. Planning for each issue, including pictures, starts the first week of each month, so if you want pictures, we need notice.

There are about 75 items submitted to ILV for each issue. If writers used these standard rules, our job is made easier.

Once Upon A Time

...there were four people named Everybody, Somebody, Nobody and Anybody. When there was an important job to be done, Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. When Nobody did it, Everybody got angry because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought that Somebody would do it, but Nobody realized that Nobody would do it. So...it ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done in the first place.

L.V. LIBRARY

by Eva Pfister

The Library — both the Rental Section and the Free Shelves — is a quiet, but busy place. If you happen not to be familiar with it, come in and browse. You will be surprised about how many interesting books you will find.

Also, if you have some free time, please call Helen Esty at 482-0618, or Maxine Himstreet, at 987-2193; we need some more volunteers.

You may want to know that there are a few copies of the Heritage Books available for sale for another month at $5. each. They are beautiful.

LADY From Pg. 28

matter how many changes had to be made.

Bea Schonberg deserves a big hand for so willingly taking on the ticket sales, and George Schonberg for being house manager.

All should be grateful to George Bernard Shaw for allowing Lerner & Loewe to put his "Pygmalion" to music and create one of the great musicals; thus was born "My Fair Lady."

Musical theatre is not dead in Leisure Village!
