

I presume 6:30 is still Nov. 9, 1966 Dearest Patricia) OK for this evening; give me a buzz when you get in.
This is too beautiful to keep, so I give it to you to enjoy. I have one under the (cellophane) plastic table cloth that I have on my table.

Looks as if the most important issues we wanted in the elections won out, Propositions 1 to 3 won and 16 was defeated by a good margin.

However, the inspiration for 16 is not dead and the next election will see a revival of the desire on the part of citizens to suppress the genuinely obscene - and there is some of that. A minority of crassly commercial magazine sellers do offend the public taste, whether they can be controlled without harm being done otherwise only time & public reaction will tell.

Love - Carl.
