City Council candidates visit Leisure Village

By Bob Cohen

On Sept. 15, the "Mountain came to Muhammad" as three Camarillo City Council incumbents and five challengers came to the AR to convince the approximately 3,000 Leisure Village resident voters to vote for them.

The format allowed opening statements, followed by questions from the audience and finished with closing statements.

In many ways, the opening statements were what was to be expected: The incumbents pointed to a solid history of accomplishments while the challengers questioned the council's ability to move forward.

All eight participants portrayed the Conejo Creek project as the "elephant in the room," the number one concern of our residents. (Subsequent questions from the floor may have dissuaded them from that thought.)

A common theme in the opening statements was that they were against Village resident David Singer has played the clarinet for 45 years.

Famed clarinetist calls LV home

David Singer has played the White House, shared stage with Yo-Yo Ma

By Patty Ecker

The path that brought David Singer to Leisure Village includes Vienna, Canoga Park, New York's Lincoln Center, the White House, Montclair State University and Carnegie Hall. What defined the journey: his clarinet. The New York Times wrote about his 45-year mastery of that instrument, "To describe his playing would be to enumerate a catalogue of virtues." Now as a Villager, David is still sharing those virtues, but more on his schedule than ever before.

"When I was 12 years old, I had a crush on a girl who wanted to be in the school talent show," David recalls with a laugh. "I didn't have a talent; I asked my dad to help. He was band director at Canoga Park High School, so he brought home instruments for me to try. I chose the clarinet."

David was hooked.

"It wasn't easy. But there was only one other thing I wanted to do with my life besides music," he says. "Baseball, which I wasn't very good at."

He was a very good clarinetist who studied at the prestigious Curtis School in Philadelphia, performed with the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society, the Marlboro Music Festivals, and played with virtuosos including Yo-Yo Ma and Yehudi Menuhin.

It was exciting and challenging work, but the pay was not always good. So David also drove a cab in between practice and performance. Once his chamber group was

With the latest channel change from Time Warner Cable that became effective Thursday, Sept. 18, LVTV is available only on Channel 1390. In addition, it is suggested that residents who did not receive the latest program guide either call TWC to have it mailed to them or pick it up at the Rec Center office.

What keeps the lawns green?

The green lawns and the verdant sweep of the golf course are signatures of Leisure Village and a "welcome home" signal for all who enter. What plays a role in preserving that look is announced several times a year on the hanging signs by the security gates: Lawn Spraying: Tues, Wed., Thurs. Some residents are asking for more information than just the days of the week when the white trucks with chemical tanks and hoses roll around the Village.

At a recent Board meeting, Villager Alan Rosin said, "It would be helpful if we knew — through Village media — not only when and in which specific villages ... but also exactly what specific products and chemicals are used and why."

The answer, says Landscape Superintendent Mike Udem, is that the spraying kills kikuyu grass and weeds and promotes plant health.

"When I came here in 2004, the lawns were brown with kikuyu, which had taken over so intensely that it even clogged sprinklers," he recalls. "Now, by a regular schedule of spraying and seeding, we keep ahead of it."

Currently, 10 herbicides and fertilizer are used in Village spraying applications, ranging from the well-known product "Roundup" to orange oil to less familiar names like Hydro Prills. Information on each of them is available to residents at the Association Office. Ask for "Material Safety Data Sheets," they are required by the government and include listings such as chemical contents, health hazard data and suggested first aid for each product.

Lin Grant, President of the Board of Directors, is mindful about what spraying may appear to be to residents. She retired from a career with a chemical company and is familiar with public concerns.

"With the dilutions and conditions we spray, there should be zero toxicity," she explains. "Although uncommon, sensitivity is something else. I may be sensitive to something that has no effect on you."

The droplets are small; they remain airborne only a few seconds, she adds, and closed windows are an extra precaution.

The lawn spraying is done by Lawnscape Systems, Inc. of Montclair. As residents can see, the employees on the trucks and with the spraying equipment wear minimal protective gear, safety gloves and glasses. Udem insists he is not cavalier about the sprays. He says all chemicals used in the Village are safe as soon as they are dry.

On Oct. 20, 21, 22 and 23, the Lawnscape team will be seeding the Village lawns.

On Nov. 18, 19 and 20, they will be spraying again.

Specific schedules appear in the Village Voice monthly. And the Safety Data Sheets can be picked up at the Association Office during regular hours.

We want to thank our wonderful friends in Leisure Village for their support during Lane's brave five-month battle with brain cancer. Your love, hugs, food and good wishes have helped us through this journey. We were deeply moved by the dinner and beautiful plaque from the Racquet Club. He was fortunate to be able to complete his life here at home surrounded by family and friends. Lane and I were so happy we moved to this caring community six years ago, and his mom, Ernie, two years ago. Your friendship is appreciated so much.

Realtors Corner: Reverse mortgages

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate

A reverse mortgage is a unique loan that enables older homeowners — those 62 and older — to convert part of the equity in their home into tax-free income without having to sell the home, give up title or take on a new monthly payment.

Instead of making monthly payments to a lender, the lender makes payments to the homeowner. This tax-free payment can be used for anything: daily living expenses, home repairs and home improvement, medical bills, prescription drugs or long-term health care, the payoff of existing debts, education, travel — anything you choose.

That's right, you get to enjoy living in your home for the rest of your life with no monthly payments as long as:

- You do not transfer the title of your home.

- It remains as your primary residence.

- You do not leave (vacate) your home for more than 12 consecutive months.

- Property tax and hazard insurance is paid and stays current.

- You honor the terms of the agreement.

The amount of cash you receive depends on your age, the type of loan you choose, the value of your home, current interest rates and sometimes the location of your home.

For more information or a referral, check with your Realtor or bank.

Politics will be hot topic in Village Oct. 6, 10

Propositions will be explained; candidates will square off

The important midterm elections are less than one month away. Tuesday, Nov. 4, is Election Day; the AR in the Rec Center will become our polling place. If you can answer the following questions correctly, you are ready to cast your votes:

- How many propositions are on the November ballot?
- What are the subjects of those propositions?
- Have you read the content of them?
- Who is running to be our representative for the 26th Congressional-District in the U.S. House of Representatives?

Jeff Gorell

- Who is the challenger; who is the incumbent?
- What are the major issues for each in that campaign?

If you are looking for answers, the Leisure Village Current Issues Forum can help you get ready for

Julia Brownley

Election Day.

On Monday, Oct. 6, at 7 p.m. in the AR, a Town Hall meeting will provide explanations and answer questions from the audience about the five statewide propositions on the ballot. Judge Steven Z. Perren, Associate Justice of the Second District Court of Appeal, and the retired Hon. Melinda A. Johnson will explain and discuss each proposition, which range in content from a statewide water bond to health insurance rates.

On Friday, Oct. 10, at 6:30 p.m. in the AR, the candidates running for the House seat representing our 26th Congressional District will face off before Leisure Village residents. Incumbent Julia Brownley and challenger Jeff Gorell will present their platforms and promises for the future and will answer questions from the audience.

Now you have the answers to three out of our six questions. See you in the AR for the rest of the answers.

Dear Christine

Bride To Be
By Christine Sztukowski

Dear Christine,
I'm getting remarried.
How will this affect my Social Security?

Sincerely,
Bride to be.

Dear Bride,
If you're receiving benefits based on your own work record, your benefits will continue. If you're receiving spousal benefits based on your former spouse's work record, those benefits will generally end upon your getting remarried, but you may be able to receive benefits based on your new spouse's work record, or on your own.

If you're a widow(er) under age 60, or you're disabled but under 50, remarriage ends any benefits based on the record of your deceased spouse. However, if you remarry after age 60 (or after 50 and are disabled), those benefits remain intact, unless you get spousal benefits through your new spouse (at age 62 or older) if those benefits are higher.

Note: Because the rules surrounding payment of benefits are complicated, and depend on your particular situation, contact the Social Security Administration at (800) 772-1213 for more information.

Shop Ahoy needs you

Shop Ahoy is a shopping and delivery service for homebound seniors and disabled adults. It also serves those people who no longer drive, have difficulty maneuvering through Vons or are unable to carry heavy items.

Shop Ahoy is a volunteer-based nonprofit organization servicing Ventura County. A volunteer will call the customer on Sunday or Monday of each week to take their grocery order. Another volunteer shops on Tuesdays at the local Vons, and the order is delivered and paid for, along with a small contribution to help the system stay in operation.

Shop Ahoy is also in need of volunteers — people who have a sharp eye and would be willing to check orders shopped. This would be at Vons on Mission Oaks on Tuesdays at 8:30 or 9 a.m. for about one hour.

If you are in need of Shop Ahoy's services or are interested in volunteering, call Barbara Yago, Village 34, at 388-0419.

the Conejo Creek development, for rehabilitation of Old Town (including the old fire station and courthouse), and for preventing Camarillo from becoming another San Fernando Valley. The devil, of course, is in the details. The incumbents saw things differently than the challengers. The incumbents saw the rehab as one more step in upgrading the city. The challengers saw it as proof that the city was stagnant; the upgrade has been talked about for years but nothing has been done.

In general, things became a bit more interesting when Board President Lin Grant asked the first question, in effect: Why hasn't the city helped us make the fitness center happen instead of being a roadblock? The question seemed to come out of the blue as far as all the participants were concerned. It was not one of their talking points, and it took awhile to formulate the politically correct answer — it was the other guys (FEMA) and not us (incumbents) and more proof that the current council is out of touch (challengers).

The questions from the audience continued, most specific to Leisure Village issues. The responses were general and followed "party line" in true political fashion. The question and response period continued for over an hour before the candidates were allowed to give their closing statements, most of which were merely rehashes of the opening statements. All of the participants did agree that the City Council would be more than happy to come to Leisure Village as often as we wanted — "just invite us."

LVTV will be broadcasting the show a number of times before the election. If you were unable to attend the live performance, make it a point to watch it. Be an informed voter!

In 1978, he was asked to join the highly acclaimed Orpheus Chamber Orchestra. It was his musical home until this year, when he resigned and became "emeritus" clarinetist.

"I wanted to have more family time, to get more involved with the community, and with the Southern California Young Musicians Foundation," he explains, a group that supports young people to excel and grow their music.

David Singer and his wife Barbara moved from New York to Leisure Village because his parents had lived here. "We love it," he says. "It's like Shangri-La. There's no pressure, the climate is perfect, and anyone with a skill or interest can walk out and find a club or group that matches it."

He still practices every day, but he now has more freedom.

"I'm living on the other side of the rainbow," he says with a smile.

President Marlene Votion welcomed club members to our new venue, the Santa Rosa Room in the Clubhouse. She spoke of the proposed calendar photos requested by Chris of the UPS store: photos of Ventura County. The category for the evening's presentation was just that: Ventura County photos. Ten pictures were chosen by the judge, Dan Murphy — three first-place, three second-place, and four honorable mentions.

First place: "Ventura Beach" by Jack Caldwell; "View of Harbor in Ventura" by Jackie Fishman; "Ride at Ventura County Fair" by Al Sarnelle.

Second place: "Marina Park Mermaid" by Gregg Gillmar; "The Harbor at Ventura" by Jackie Fishman, "Camarillo House" by John Kingsley.

Honorable Mentions: "Oxnard Beach Looking Toward The Mountains" by Laura Greffly; "Point Mugu" by Verna Cryder; "Balloon Festival at Santa Paula" by Marlene Votion; "Ventura Pier" by Gregg Gillmar.

The season is off to a great start with twenty-three 200-plus scratch games rolled in the first three weeks, including an outstanding 279 by Danny Coleman. There were three people who had four 200 games each: Danny Coleman (211, 214, 239, 279); Dennis Durand (209, 209, 213, 228); and Dave Houghton (200, 207, 216, 222).

Three others had two 200 games each: Fred Diehl (200, 201); Tash Guzman (223, 236); and Art Matter (202, 215).

Five others had one game each: Bob McQuivey (202); Stan Reshes (201); Ted Ryan (212); Alan Singer (224); and Art Titen (217).

Sidepot winners for the first week were Sybil Moore, Joyce Belcher and Susan Kusak for the ladies and Al Feldman, Bigg Al Shuster and Ted Ryan for the men.

Sidepot winners for the second week were Billie Stimac, Ellen Neally and Sybil Moore for the ladies and Tash Guzman, Bob Cohen and Dennis Durand for the men.

Sidepot winners for the third week were Vi Guzman, Nora Potter and Susan Kusak for the ladies and Danny Coleman, Al Feldman and Alan Singer for the men.

We have now bowled nine league games and averages will be adjusted to reflect our early performance. It will be interesting to see how that changes things.

Travel Club

Did you ever have one of those Walter Mitty moments, a daydream that you were sitting in the flight director's chair at Mission Control, sending commands to a billion-dollar spacecraft speeding through space? Well, if you were a member of our group touring the Jet Propulsion Laboratory on Sept. 4, you could have fulfilled at least part of that dream.

Our adventure started when we boarded our comfortable bus outside the Recreation Center and got quickly under way to Pasadena for our arranged tour. We arrived ahead of schedule, so a serendipitous decision was made: a stop at Galco's Soda Pop Stop, a unique store in Highland Park that specializes in vintage soda pop and classic candy bars. (Huell Howser visited Galco's in one of his "Visiting" television shows.) There were hundreds of brands available, and narrowing the selection was not easy. But soon, soda bottles in hand, we re-boarded our bus and continued on our way.

When we arrived at JPL, we were met by our two tour guides who led us through the maze of buildings to our first stop, Mission Control, where we were allowed to sit at the various stations in the control room; one of our companions did indeed choose the chair marked "Flight Director."

Not wanting to accidentally launch anything, we naturally took special care not to touch computer terminals while we learned about various satellites currently orbiting Earth, as well as locations and operation of satellite tracking stations, and the use of "Coordinated Universal Time" in outer space. (It would be impossible to select just one standard time from 24 time zones — would it be Greenwich Time, Eastern Time or Pacific Time in space?)

We then continued our tour to the Spacecraft Assembly Room, a "clean room" where numerous satellites, including Voyager, Galileo, Mariner, and Cassini spacecraft, were assembled. Behind glass panels, we watched technicians as they worked on SMAP ("Soil Moisture Active Passive"), a new satellite which, unbelievably, will measure the moisture in Earth's soil from orbit. In an effort to keep the area as clean as possible, the technicians were covered top-to-toe in protective clothing; anyone entering the room from outside had to stand in an intermediate chamber, similar to a small wind tunnel, to blow off any loose dirt or dust which may have settled on their clothing.

Our last stop was the JPL museum, which highlighted various space missions and displayed replicas of three generations of Mars Rovers.

As impressive as all of this technology was, the highlight for some was the resident deer population, which apparently consider the JPL campus to be part of their territory. They freely wandered among the buildings, grazing as they went, and, while certainly not pets, they were used to humans and ignored us.

It was a fabulous outing! Many thanks to our coordinator, Carol, our guides Curt and Chris (who treated us to our Galco sodas), and to our favorite bus driver, Oscar.

Do you wish that you had been there? Well, don't forget that you can join us on future trips, so please consider the current outings offered Swing easy throughout the year with the Groovin' Easy Swing Band every Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Assembly Room. Admission is free, the new dance floor is open, refreshments are served, and it's BYOB.

Close your eyes and drift back to the good old days when you grooved and danced to 1940s Big Band music of Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey, sounds that can still bring you to your feet!

The Groovin' Easy Swing Band, a 17-piece professional group, plays from over 700 selections from the band music playlists of the 1940s. It's our opportunity to listen or dance to the best Big Band music of yesterday, right here in Leisure Village! If you want to dance East or West Coast swing or just listen — and we guarantee that while you listen, your feet and hands will keep moving — get in the Big Band mood every Tuesday night and relive those nostalgic Big Band sounds.

Imagine an evening of swing music, meeting new residents and being with old friends, sharing good times and making new memories every Tuesday night.

get started? Sam Arouesty, the band leader, devoted 600 hours to organizing and creating the band five years ago. With Sam's professional musician contacts and personal experience playing in half a dozen bands and combos, the Groovin' Easy Swing Band was born.

Today's Leisure Village residents are the lucky benefactors of Sam's devotion and passion for Big Band music. The Groovin' Easy Swing Band, under the wing of the Musicians Club, also plays for special events throughout the year, including the Halloween and St. Patrick's Day Dances. If you play a band instrument, please contact Sam.

The Leisure Village Musicians Club, formed just seven years ago, meets on the second Thursday of each month in the AR under the leadership of President Dick Guttman. All meetings are open and include musical performances.

If you play any instrument, you will have an opportunity to participate in club performances. Everyone is welcome. If you are interested in joining the club, please contact Dick.

Don't miss the good times of yesterday! Join us every Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the AR to hear the Groovin' Easy Swing Band play all the old favorites, as well as 1940s music modernized by arrangers who take the Big Band into the 21st century.

Ground broken on long-awaited Fitness Center in Village

Like kids on Christmas Eve, nearly 100 Villagers gathered excitedly to watch the groundbreaking for the long-promised new Fitness Center to be constructed on the west side of the swimming pool.

"Finally," cheered Bernie Grobisen, a daily 6 a.m. exerciser who said he looks forward to a larger, more modern facility in which "the treadmills all work." He, like most Fitness Center users, has been waiting for nearly two years.

The project finally got the green light after FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) approved plans that satisfied its concerns about the flood plain, which includes about half of Leisure Village. Craig Lopez, the project's architect, said "We had to do four revisions to the plans because of the bureaucracy; that added months to the approval process," changes he described as mostly unnecessary.

General Manager Bob Scheaffer described the groundbreaking as "very exciting," and joined the members of the present and past Boards of Directors with shiny shovels to get things started. He estimates the center should be ready for use in February.

Board President Lin Grant joked, "Finally, it is a cold day in hell," as she hefted a shovelful of groundbreaking dirt.

Resident Wayne King is ready. He described the old gym as "funky. But we intend to use this new one."

Mark Volkov joined a gym outside the Village because he wanted a larger facility with more exercise options. However "I might be back," he said, "When they build it, we will come." Village resident and real estate agent John Baker agreed.

"It makes a difference especially to younger people looking to move in here," he said. "Physical fitness is part of their lives, so they expect a useful gym. Right now, I don't highlight the old center when we tour our facilities. I expect that to change."

The first step in construction will be building a dense soil base that will be 3 feet, 4 inches above the presumed flood plain.

"Then we can erect the Fitness Center; it is a simple building which should go up in 90 days," says Lopez.

The 2,000-square-foot building will have state-of-the-art equipment selected by experts for the range of Village users — from cross trainers to cable pulls to stationary bikes without step-over barriers.

The money to cover the nearly $500,000 price tag has been waiting in a segregated operating fund since 2013.

- The sign-up list for the Oct. 25 performance of "Man of La Mancha," at the Glendale Centre Theatre (with lunch at the Tam O'Shanter restaurant) is currently full, but you can add your name to the stand-by list.

- A two-night trip to the Edgewater Hotel & Casino in Laughlin, Nevada, is scheduled for Nov. 11-13. The trip includes deluxe motor coach transportation, two nights accommodation and one buffet.

- On Nov. 17, we have scheduled a return trip to the California Science Center in Los Angeles where we will see the Pompeii Exhibition, revisit the space shuttle Endeavour and, later, enjoy a delicious buffet at the historic Biltmore Hotel. Last year's outing to the California Science Center and the Endeavour was very popular, so don't miss out.

- To finish up the year, the Travel

Club is organizing an overnight trip (Dec. 3-4) to the fabulous Hearst Castle at San Simeon. The castle will be decorated for Christmas and the tour should be spectacular. It promises to be something we'll all remember, so please plan to join us. And, if there are any more Walter Mittys out there, you can daydream that you are a fabulously wealthy newspaper baron, at home in his/her castle.

The Travel Club has been working to offer Leisure Village residents an interesting variety of trips. Next year you will have an opportunity to see the Rose Parade floats up close (after the parade), and there will be outings to the Santa Anita Racetrack, the Walt Disney Concert Hall, a four-day trip to San Francisco and many more exciting adventures.

We are here to serve you, so please visit us on a regular basis to check out future trips. Hours for the Travel Window in the Rec Center are Tuesday through Thursday, 9 to 11:45 a.m.

Amateur Radio Club

By Jonathan Fox

For our upcoming meeting on Nov. 6, we will meet in the ham shack following our regular meeting in the MDR. At that time, we will have a demonstration of all the new HF equipment that was added recently to our station, KJ6LV. Contacts via the HF radio will be made, and all members are invited to try the system out.

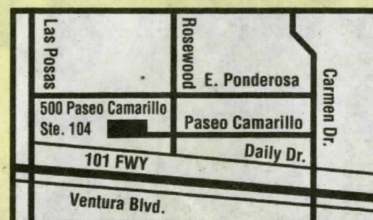

If you are curious about becoming a member of the club, please join us at one of our meetings. You do not have to be a licensed amateur radio operator to join. We will provide help in getting your license, and it's now easier than ever since Morse code is no longer required. Meetings are held the first Thursday of the month in the MPR at 2 p.m. For more information contact Jonathan Fox at 805-377-3697 or KT6LA@yahoo.com.

Women's Club

By Chi Chun

An important General Meeting with a full docket is planned for Thursday, Oct. 9, at 1:30 p.m. in the AR. The Women's Club has reached over 300 in membership; we welcome the new members and invite one and all to this meeting. Please bring a can of food with you. A guest speaker from Food Pantry will briefly explain how the program is operating. And following will be the proposed changes to the by-laws presented for your vote.

The Nominating Committee is still searching to fill several open positions and assistants. This is a perfect time for anyone to contribute her talents and ideas or join up to discover your latent talents — by giving service for others, you will actually gain more than you give! Any one of the current Board members will support you as much or as little as you want. Specifically needed is someone with an accounting and bookkeeping background or knowledge to be treasurer. Entertainment will be Stu and Laura Sorges.

Excitement bustles at the weekly Craft Boutique on Tuesdays, from 9 to 11 a.m., in preparation for the annual Holiday Bazaar coming up on Nov. 3 and 4. Come in to peek or, even better, join us in making holiday gifts. Designer Halloween aprons, pot holders and other crafts are flying out the door now. Check out the colorful window display. The Craft Boutique, with lots of help from the Woodshop and many who work from home, have spent countless hours in creating novelties and items that have generated funds used to benefit the Village and other grateful charities.

Special Boutique sales will be held on Bingo nights of Oct. 22, Nov. 19 and Dec. 10, from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the AR lobby, for outsiders who come for Bingo and Villagers unable to come on Tuesday mornings.

It's the time of year for the October festivities to begin, so get your costumes together for the "SPOOK-Tacular Halloween Dance" being held on Friday, Oct. 31, at 7 p.m. in the AR. Prizes will be awarded for the funniest, scariest and best overall costumes. DJ Art Akkerman will be providing rock and roll and country music for our listening and dancing pleasure. The New York Club

By Frank Seiden

We look forward to the Italian dinner and entertainment on Nov. 6. Arrive at the AR at 6 p.m., greet your friends and indulge in a buffet dinner with tossed green salad, hot rolls or garlic bread, Italian style meatballs, both meat and vegetable lasagna, chicken parmesan and either a pasta or potato dish. Of course you will have room for the Italian cookies and sherbet for dessert with beverages of punch and coffee.

Having tummies well satisfied, we'll sit back and enjoy being entertained by Joyce Garro, a dynamic singer and entertainer who touches the heart through her gift of song. Joyce sings jazz, popular music and standards from the Great American songbook. Tickets for this gala event can be purchased from Florence Sklarz (482-5001) or Karen Eckles (437-6782) — these ladies are waiting for your call and, if busy with other ticket sales at the time, will return your call at their earliest chance.

There may be some of you who don't presently belong to the New York Club because you think it is only for New Yorkers. Be assured that if you know that New York is more than only Brooklyn or if you know that the United Nations is in New York City, you belong in the New York Club. The name is a theme, not a meeting place for expatriates.

October's annual pot luck meeting will be on Oct. 8 at 5 p.m. It will be taking place in the MPR where nominations for all offices will be addressed. You are all invited and we hope to see you there. The next meeting will be in December and the specifics will be announced at a future date.

A special thank you to all of the members of the Racquet Club: Sept. 12 we all gathered to celebrate the life of Lane Petersen, a very active member of our club. His spirit and joy of life will live on with his wife, Marg, his mom, Ernie, and all of us who treasured our time with him on the courts. The entire racquetball community showed up, and Marg was presented with a special plaque in Lane's memory. Every Friday at 5 p.m, we will continue to get together for "Pupu's and Paddle", our new tradition here in Leisure Village. Finger food and all manner of beverages are pot luck. Bring your paddle!

Several changes transpired during the Sept. 9 club meeting. If you missed this riveting assembly of golfers, here are the facts, just the facts:

- Chuck Kiskaden has assumed responsibility of the club's E-News effective Sept. 9. So, fire up your computer and give it a read. Many thanks, Chuck, for stepping up.

- President Pat Gunning read his response to the Ed and Rec Committee's inquiry on what improvements our golf club would like. "First and foremost is tee box refurbishment," Gunning pointed out. "Holes 2, 3, 5, 7, 8 and 9 are badly in need of attention. Holes 10, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 17 are secondary, but will soon require attention. Holes 1, 11, 16, and 18 are in fair condition. The trees on 17 could use a trimming," he What's the newly revised local rule for a plugged ball?

- Gunning also announced that two new local rules are now in effect. Chipping practice will be limited to the left side of the first tee box until the start of club tournaments. This will avoid distraction to participants beginning their competitive round. Secondly, golf balls plugged into the ground by one third or more will be allowed to be lifted, cleaned and placed up to one club length.

The player using this revised local rule must confirm with a fellow tournament player before taking such action. Balls in a hazard do not qualify, so don't touch those or else!

Remember our club's 40th Anniversary Celebration Yeah I know, tell me about all the confusion. Well, it's finally here. The Men's Club has reserved the LV course for a Special 40th Anniversary Tournament on Monday, Feb. 16, 2015. There will be a luncheon, of course, but those details haven't been etched in stone as yet, so let's wait a bit before pouring the celebratory wine.

The Pala Mesa golf trip "was wonderful. Everyone had a wonderful time," reports Ron Edwards, who, along with Jim Mainland, organized the outing. "The golf course was nice, weather a bit warmer than expected. Members of the LVWGA helped with refreshments. A greater number of their membership came along this year as opposed to last year. It was a great blending of the two golf clubs, very nice," he concluded.

The Match Play Tournaments will be under way as of Oct. 6. Good luck to all.

At our September meeting, we had the ever-popular Dr. Kendra of The Cat Hospital. She spoke about senior cats — their care, their ailments and their nutritional needs.

members of LVA management and security to attend this important meeting. The coyotes are getting bolder, are totally at home in Leisure Village and are traveling in packs now. We're getting reports of them pacing outside windows and approaching walkers with small dogs. Be sure to pick up your small dog if you see one coming near you. Use your whistle (available through the Pet Club) and wave your arms or a jacket and yell to drive them off.

LV Women's Golf

By Patti Crichton

The Women's Golf group kept busy playing "Ringers" through the month of September. We battled the heat wave and survived!

Our Sept. 10 meeting was delayed until Sept. 17 as many of our golfers went to the Pala Mesa golf getaway planned by the Men's Golf group. Apparently, good times and golf were both in play.

By the time this article is posted, we will have enjoyed the Harvest Picnic Golf Tournament and luncheon hosted by the men on Sept. 23. Wow! The men have done a great job hosting this month. Thanks, eh!

Monday at 1 p.m. in the MPR. All residents are welcome. "Stories of the Month" are located on the wall just inside the entrance to the Library and include this month's feature presentations on "Memories of My Grandparents." A library copy of prior "Stories of the Month" for 2013-2014 is located in a folder on the magazine rack.

The suggested topic for Oct. 6 is "An Exotic Vacation," for Oct. 13 "Do I Feel My Tax Dollars Are Well Spent," for Oct. 20 "What I Enjoy Most In Traveling" and for Oct. 27 "Do I Want All Those New Gadgets?" Contact is Harvey S. Brosler a 465-0006 or at hsbros@roadrunner.com.

Stoners became first-time champions with the Ed and Rec Committee, the Players Guild and the Mavericks being worthy opponents.

The next contest is scheduled for Oct. 12, to be combined with our Wreath and Tabletop Sale. Both events will benefit our Veterans Day Canteen. The Stoners will be challenged by the new teams comprised of clubs, committees or villages. Please watch LVTV for details, but mark your calendars for Oct. 12.

The Veterans Day Canteen will be held on Nov. 9, a Sunday, at 11 a.m.; having it on a weekend allows those Villagers who still work to attend. Donuts, cookies and drinks will be served, along with tributes to those who have served and continue to serve our country.

If your organization wants or needs a fundraiser, allow us to be part of your team. The Boosters meet the third Monday of every month at 7 p.m. in the MPR. We do work hard for the Village and we need your help. Please join us as we serve our community.

Shuffleboard Club

By Diane Hawrylo

High scores submitted for an eight-frame game in September were: Aug. 27, Cela Foster, 105; Sept. 3, Al Sarnelle, 133; Sept. 10, Cela Foster, 154; and Sept. 20, Milt Krapes, 126.

We are enjoying the beautiful new shuffleboard mats. Playing on the new mats is similar to other established shuffleboard courts. Come out and test it for yourself.

For a lighter touch, spread the discs on a towel (located in the chest). Very lightly spray the flat side of the discs with silicone. Let dry a minute or two, turn over the discs, replace the towel, and play shuffleboard. We want to eliminate overspray on the court to prevent falls.

Children are welcome to play but must be accompanied and supervised by a Villager at all times. Please make sure that all equipment is properly stored after use. Please sign in each time.

We regularly play shuffleboard on Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. Villagers are invited to join. We will teach you if you don't know how. There are no dues. You can practice at any time.

The equipment, information for playing shuffleboard and sign-in sheets are in the chest by the scoreboards. Please close the chest when finished. Cues, the long sticks, are attached to the back of the scoreboards. Come and join the fun.

SAS

By Zelda Greentree

My calendar says it's almost fall, but my temperature is still rising. But, regardless of that, SAS is still inviting all singles to meet for dinner at Ottavio's on Tuesday, Oct. 14 at 5 p.m. Everything is arranged. All you need to do is call Lee Edwards at 484-3289 for your reservation to a wonderful Italian dinner and to meet new and old friends. If you haven't attended one of our dinners, do yourself a favor and call today. See you there.

RV Club

RV Club meets every third Tuesday in the MPR room at 6:30 p.m. Our next meeting is Oct. 21. If you're interested contact LVRVCLUB@Gmail.com
