

ACADEMIC MASTER PLANS

Prior to 2005, the Academic Planning process was housed by several offices. We've attempted to gather all of the supporting documentation for specific academic programs before this period.

In 2005, a task force was initiated to develop a process and an official University committee to manage the process. Since that time electronic records are available for the academic master plan.